COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

For the United States' Senate

James A. Pearce, Esq.

PRESIDENT HARRISON's message will be delivered to Congress to-day, and will be about ten thousand words in length.

BROOKLYN (N. Y.) REPUBLICANS are clamoring for Mr. Blaine from Maine, for the Republican presidential candidate in 1892.

COL. WILLIAM HENRY LEGG, who recently sold a one-half interest in his paper, the Queen Anne's Advocate, to Mr. Wm. O. Thomas, has purchased Mr. Thomas' interest in the paper, and in the future will conduct the Advocate alone.

MARTIN D. LOPPY, the New York wife-murderer, was executed by electricity at Sing Sing prison, N. Y., on Monday. The execution is pronounced to have been an entire success. Some, however, deny this.

THE common council of Chicago, has virtually established the principle, that no seat in a street car means no fare, and has decided that no company can collect a fare from a passenger who is not provided with a seat.

WHILE not Mr. Crisp, but rather Mr. Mills, was our choice for the Speakership, we believe that after all Mr. Crisp's pronounced tariff views may prove that he is the right man in the right place, and that fears of Democratic losses by his selection may not be realized.

THE Easton Star states that in seven of the nine Eastern Shore counties—Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Somerset, Talbot, Wicomico and Worcester—there is but one Republican office-holder, the clerk of Somerset, who holds over—a state of affairs which has never existed, since the negroes were enfranchised.

THE New York Herald offered a prize of two hundred dollars to any one who would guess nearest the exact Democratic plurality in New York. A mechanic who lives on the top of a tenement house in Charles street hit the exact figures in an estimate he made on October 11, and wins the prize from over 700,000 other contestants.

THE Middletown Transcript says: "Look out for him. A man representing himself to be the sole agent for the sale of rights to sell an electrical scissors sharpener, was in town this morning and succeeded in disposing of his rights to several parties. He is making false promises to each one that they would have the exclusive right, whereas he had sold several before being found out, and at this writing an officer is anxiously looking for him. Be on your guard for the scamp."

IT IS HIGHLY GRATIFYING to note the very favorable comments which have been expressed in regard to the suggestion of the TRANSCRIPT, that a library and reading room be established in Chestertown. The suggestion has been most favorably received, and one gentleman has volunteered an offer of twenty-five books, and five dollars in money in part payment of the first year's rent of a suitable room. So far as known not a word of disparagement has been raised. The time is ripe for the establishment of this very desirable feature in our town—will not some one come forward and push the matter? A small amount of work will bring about most satisfactory results.

RUSSELL SAGE, the seventy-times millionaire, of New York, made a most narrow escape from assassination on Friday. Mr. Sage was seated in his private office when a stranger carrying a small satchel was ushered in upon the order of Mr. Sage, the man having first sent in his card. The visitor promptly made a demand for one million two hundred thousand dollars in money. The banker saw that the man was decidedly wrong mentally, and endeavored to put him off by telling him he had not the money but to call again, whereupon the man dropped his satchel to the floor, and in an instant thereafter the offices of Mr. Sage and adjoining offices were total wrecks. The would-be assassin's head was blown entirely off, a young man was blown out of a window and Mr. Sage was seriously injured. The affair remains a mystery, though several parties have been arrested as accomplices.

THE FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS convened at Washington on Monday, and after roll-call and transaction of some minor business adjourned until Tuesday. In referring to Senator Gibson of Maryland, the New York Sun says: "Mr. Gibson's credentials will hold good only until the Legislature shall meet to elect a successor to the full term of the late Mr. Wilson. Mr. Gibson, however, has hopes of being that successor himself. He will be a great addition to the Senate's galaxy of handsome men. He is 6 feet 3 in his dancing pumps, which he often wears; is as straight as Mr. Gordon; has a ruddy face set off by handsome white hair and goatee, and has the figure and bearing of a French grenadier. He is a very popular man in Washington, where he has served in the House for several years, and all his friends wish him success in his coming fight for the full term." Senator Gorman was one of the most conspicuous figures on the floor, and received many hearty welcomes and hand-shakes.

Now that the Speakership fight has closed, the question very naturally presents itself, what will be the effect of Mr. Crisp's selection and Mr. Mills' defeat upon Mr. Cleveland's prospects in 1892 The Baltimore Herald says: "Quite naturally, in view of the partisan efforts that have been made to exhibit Mr. Crisp in the light of a 'protection Democrat' and Mr. Mills in the attitude of a 'free trader' and of a 'Cleveland man,' there will be a disposition to give significance to the nomination of the Georgian as a slap at the ex-President and as a rebuke to 'free trade.' But it is to be questioned as to whether any such interpretation can be put upon the result of the caucus vote, as Mr. Crisp was such a tariff-reformer as to vote for Mr. Carlisle in preference to his most intimate personal friend Randall, and as he declared after his nomination last evening that he would 'take no step backward in tariff reform.' In short, it is pleasant to believe that this remarkable contest has been decided upon considerations of personal fitness for the office rather than upon factional grounds, and that the majority of the Democratic representatives have been largely guided in their final preference more by a sense of duty to the country at large than by a mere regard for party or sectional triumph."

JUDGE STUMP, sitting in the circuit court for Talbot county, ordered that the name of Chas. W. Baker be stricken from the list of attorneys of the Talbot bar. Says an Easton correspondent to the Wilmington Every Evening: "The proceeding resulting in the disbarring of Mr. Baker began at the last May term of court by the filing of a petion by Wm. D. Adkins, attorney for John B. Oberton, who had been a client of Baker's, and whom Baker had cheated out of a considerrable sum of money."

ALL OF THE COUNTY OFFICERS SWORN IN.

During the past ten days the full list of Kent county officers as elected on Nov. 3, have bonded and are now formally sworn into their new positions.

Dr. Samuel G. Fisher did not swear in until Friday last on account of the absence of Judge Wickes from the county. The newly elected clerk took formal charge of his official duties, however, on Friday, and has appointed as his first and second deputies Willard Melvin and F. H. Greenwood respectively. The other officers had sworn in previous to our last issue as was then announced.

Sheriff Plummer has appointed his brother Frank Plummer as his deputy, and Mr. Plummer was sworn in as deputy Sheriff of Kent county on Tuesday. The deputy Sheriff is required to give bond to the amount of $5,000. Sheriff Plummer bonded for $25,000 in the Fidelity Trust Company of Baltimore.

Mr. Dixon, the newly elected Register of Wills gave as his bondsmen Colin F. Stam, George B. Westcott and George Bell.

CRISP THE SPEAKER.

The great Speakership contest has been brought to a close in the House Democratic caucus for the speakership of that body by the election by 119 votes of Hon. Chas. F. Crisp, of Americus, Ga., on the thirtieth ballot. The ballot on the final vote stood Crisp, 119; Mills, 105; Springer, 4; Stevens, 1; total vote 229. The Clerkship of the House, the place for which Hon. Charles H. Gibson was making a heavy fight up to the time of his appointment to the United States Senate was given to Mr. Kerr, of Pennsylvania.

Hon. Charles Frederick Crisp, of Americus, Ga., is forty-six years old. He was born in England, but was brought to this country when an infant. His parents were well known Thespians. Crisp attended the public schools in Savannah and Macon. He entered the Confederate army when sixteen, and became a lieutenant in a Virginia regiment. After three years' service he was captured and sent to Fort Delaware. At the end of the war he was released. His folks were then living at Ellaville, Schley county, Ga. Young Crisp read law for a year, and was then admitted to the bar. He practiced law in Ellaville for six years, and was appointed solicitor general of the Southwestern judicial circuit. In 1873 he located permanently in Americus. Four years later he became judge of the Superior Court, and five years afterwards resigned it to accept a nomination to Congress. He presided over the Georgia Democratic State convention in the ensuing year, and entered the House of Representatives, at the beginning of the session in 1883. He has served eight years.

In the House he took front rank as a worker and a speaker. His speeches show much thought and research. In gesture he is forcible and illustrative. His voice is remarkably clear at the opening of an argument, but, strained at too high a pitch, it becomes hoarse and threatening.

The confidence of his party in Mr. Crisp has been shown more than once. At the opening of the Fiftieth Congress Speaker Carlisle refused to appoint the committee on elections. His own seat was contested by Mr. Thoebe, and he asked the House to select the committee. Each side of the House concurred, and appointed a committee to make the selection. The Democrats, being in the majority, were to pick out a chairman. Upon the committee to do this were Samuel J. Randall, Wm. S. Holman, Gen. Burnes of Missouri, Gen. Forney of Alabama, and others. All cast their eyes upon one man in looking for the chairman for the Committee on Elections. This man was Charles F. Crisp. No other name was mentioned. At the urgent solicitation of his party associates, the Georgian came to the front. He lost the chairmanship of the committee on Pacific Railroads to which he was entitled, by the retirement of Gov. Throckmorton.

Mr. Crisp has a very clear complexion, blue eyes, a straight, well-formed nose, and a brown moustache. His head is bald, and his manners refined and agreeable. He has a social disposition and much individual dignity. His dress is neat, and his linen immaculate. He wears a black frock coat and dark clothes. His neck is encircled with a plain turndown collar, held in place with a simple black tie.

STATE AND PENINSULA.

Carroll county has 900 miles of public roads.

The jail at Princess Anne is without an occupant.

Grip is prevailing in Cecil county, and in sections is epidemic.

Grip is epidemic in Easton, and prevalent throughout Talbot county.

Mr. Woolery, the father of 31 children, died in Carroll county last week.

Damage to the extent of $1000 was done by fire to the Singerly paper mill last week.

A Hagerstown saloon keeper has been fined $50 and costs for selling liquor on Sunday.

The potato crop of Carroll county is estimated at from a half to a million bushels.

P. Scrieber, of Baltimore, has been granted the privilege of lighting Ellicott City with electricity for twenty years.

Nine skeletons, supposed to be those of Indians, have recently been unearthed at Ship Point, Third Haven river, Talbot county.

A whale recently stranded on the beach of Worcester county, measuring 26½ feet in length, 4 feet across the mouth, 18 feet girth.

Four men were killed and five injured by the explosion of gas in a furnace of the Maryland Steel Company, at Sparrow's Point on Sunday.

Capt. T. C. B. Howard, of Cambridge, has put four partridges on Sharp's Island. It is believed that they will not attempt to escape over the water.

THERE is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it cannot cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

Order of Publication.

The McCormick Harvesting Machine Company,

vs.

John P. Cochran, Jr., Richard W. Cochran.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

THE object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the personal property of John P. Cochran, Jr., in Kent county, Maryland, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of debts due the plaintiff, and also to have a bill of sale made by John P. Cochran, Jr., to Richard W. Cochran, declared to be a chattel mortgage.

The bill states that on the 14th day of July, 1890, the plaintiff obtained a judgment against a certain John P. Cochran, Jr., who in said judgment is erroneously styled J. P. Cochran, of R. A., although in point of fact he is the son of Richard W. Cochran, one of these defendants, which judgment was rendered in the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, for the sum of $128.97 and $10.29 costs, as will appear by copy of judgment filed in this case.

But the plaintiff, although it has been diligent in endeavoring to secure the collection of the same, has failed to make any portion of the said judgment out of the said John P. Cochran, Jr., that on the 23d day of October, 1890, a writ of fieri facias was issued on said judgment out of the Circuit Court for said county issued to Sam'l Comegys, sheriff, upon a certain crop of wheat growing upon the farm occupied by the said John P. Cochran, Jr., which said crop of wheat is claimed by Richard W. Cochran as belonging to him. And on the 28th day of April, 1891, a second fieri facias was issued out of the Circuit Court as aforesaid directed to the said sheriff, and the said writ was levied by the aforesaid sheriff upon certain personal property mentioned in the sheriff's schedule.

The bill further states that the said John P. Cochran, Jr., did on the 7th day of December, in the year 1889, execute to Richard W. Cochran, who, it is charged, is the father of the said John P. Cochran, Jr., and is also one of the defendants in this suit, a bill of sale upon the aforesaid personal property covered by the sheriff's schedule to the second fieri facias issued as aforesaid, but which bill of sale although it appears on its face to be an absolute conveyance, was in point of fact intended to secure an indebtedness claimed to be due from the said John P. Cochran, Jr., that the property included in said bill of sale or mortgage is much more than the actual indebtedness of the said John P. Cochran, Jr., to the said Richard W. Cochran.

The bill of complaint further states that although the plaintiff has a lien on the personal property by virtue of said writs and execution and levies thereunder, yet nevertheless it cannot proceed to collect its debts so due as aforesaid without the aid of this Honorable Court, and it is advised that it is necessary for it to obtain an order from this Honorable Court decreeing that it have the property so conveyed as aforesaid sold and the proceeds of sale applied to the payment of the mortgage debt due if any be due under the said bill of sale or mortgage, and the surplus to be applied to the payment of plaintiff's judgment and execution.

The bill further states that the personal property so as aforesaid bill of saled by the said John P. Cochran, Jr., to Richard W. Cochran levied on by the said Samuel Comegys, sheriff, as aforesaid is worth much more than the amount intended to be secured by the said conveyance, and which is justly and bona fide due the said Richard W. Cochran.

The bill further alleges that the consideration named in said bill of sale is not a true and bona fide debt due the said Richard W. Cochran.

The bill further alleges that the consideration named in said bill of sale is not a true and bona fide consideration, but is a pretended and simulated one, and it is given for the purpose of hindering and delaying the creditors of the said John P. Cochran, Jr., in the collection of their just debts of whom this plaintiff is one. And the bill further states that the said Richard W. Cochran, one of the defendants to this suit, is a resident of the State of Delaware.

It is therefore, this 8th day of December, 1891, ordered that the complainant, the McCormick Harvesting Machine Co., by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 7th day of January next, give notice to the said non-resident defendant, Richard W. Cochran, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning him to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the first day of February next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

SAMUEL G. FISHER, Clerk.

"SAME THING!"

With the exception of a steadily growing increase in our business, and we avail ourselves of this opportunity of thanking a generous public for the appreciation shown our

SQUARE METHODS.

We started on this platform, and intend to build on this solid foundation, namely,

HONEST DEALING!

For we are fully aware that at this enlightened day people are becoming familiar with the scheming methods resorted to by some dealers, and prefer spending their hard-earned dollar with the plain square dealer. Such is our claim, and we daily demonstrate it. Right here we may truly say

FIRST HANDS, NO DEAD STOCK, VERY SMALL EXPENSES,

Means we can handle GOODS CLOSER than the general dealer. This is a bold assertion but I can back every word of it, and all we want is a continuation of the opportunities to prove our position.

TEN PER CENT. MEANS $1.00 IN $10.00.

As we have just received a new invoice, can quote you a little closer than ever. Come and see me; your future business I want, and to experience the realization of my fondest hopes, I shall let no effort go by to justly merit a consummation that square dealing will surely bring.

JUST OUT----A New and Splendid Companion

FOR FARMERS!

An Improved Spring-Tooth Harrow

Steel Frame, elevated throughout its entire length and every tooth riding on a saddle, thus making it the LIGHTEST DRAUGHT HARROW on the market. No two teeth following each other and thereby thoroughly pulverizing the ground. The new Pivoting Frictional Tooth-holder permits the wearing of the Entire Length of the Tooth. Upon an examination we feel that the most skeptical will be convinced that we have the FINEST HARROW YET INVENTED.

Plows and Plow Castings.

We are Agents for the SOUTH BEND CHILLED PLOW, with the Improved Jointer. We furnish Castings for the South Bend and the Remington Plows. Ropes, Traces, Chain Traces, Hames, Hame Strings, Straps, Plow Lines, Back Bands.

Don't forget we are prepared to do Roofing, Spouting and all kinds of Tin Work at short notice and at prices as Low as the Lowest.
