AN EFFORT is being made in Congress to secure the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

IT HAS been decided by the State Legislature that Maryland shall appropriate but sixty thousand dollars toward the State's exhibit at the World's Fair.

MRS. JAMES G. BLAINE, JR., has been granted a divorce, with custody of her child and one thousand dollars to pay expenses of suit, and one hundred dollars a month permanent alimony.

MR. MCNULTY, the sweet singer of the "Farmer Brown" gubernatorial campaign, was an aspirant for the position of Fish Commissioner, but Governor Brown has very handsomely recognized Mr. McNulty's services during the campaign, by appointing him superintendent of the Eastern bay scales, Baltimore.

PROCEEDINGS HAVE BEEN INSTITUTED against Senator Arthur P. Gorman, Secretary of War Stephen B. Elkins, ex-Senator Henry G. Davis and a number of others, for the recovery of stock of the Piedmont and Cumberland Railway Company, which it is alleged, was appropriated to themselves by the defendants without any consideration being made therefor.

SAYS a New York despatch to the Baltimore Sun: "It is reported that the Hill managers are not overpleased at the refusal of the big chiefs of the wigwam to talk against Mr. Cleveland. They favor Hill, but they also say that Mr. Cleveland will get their hearty support should he be the nominee of the convention." So David Bennett Hill's mid-winter, snap-judgment convention may yet miscarry.

IT IS now claimed that had ex-Governor Jackson accepted his Senatorial defeat more gracefully, "an effort would have been made by the friends of Senator Gorman to send him to Congress in the place of Mr. Page, who is said to be too independent to suit the 'ultra regulars.'" Have the people any fault to find with Mr. Page? If not, why should anyone have that gentleman's position?

NEW YORK, at the David Bennett Hill snap, mid-winter convention, declared for David Bennett Hill, and at present it would seem that that gentleman will go to the national convention with the New York delegation at his back. Mr. Hill may yet be handicapped, however, by the widespread protest which will be entered, not only by Mr. Cleveland's friends in New York, but by the American people irrespective of State or section. Endurance has long since ceased to be a virtue in this matter of corrupt machine politics.

THE appointment of Philip D. Laird, as commissioner of the Land Office, is but a proper recognition of the merits of one of the most sterling Democrats in the State. A man forgetting all selfish motive, and though only an unassuming Representative in the Legislature of his State, Mr. Laird is too costly for purchase, and is of that substantial kind of manhood which acknowledges the dictatorship of no clique or ring, and is not subservient to party managers; and he but voices the sentiments of his people, in advocating those broad and statesmanlike principles given to the true Democracy of the American people by that greatest American, Grover Cleveland.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to state exactly the situation in the Republican camp as touching the delegates-at-large to the National convention. That matters are at sixes and sevens however, is evident, and a bitter contest is going on behind the scenes which will increase in interest as the fight progresses. The Baltimore Evening News, says in regard to the matter: Col. W. J. Vannort will not have smooth sailing for the place of delegate-at-large to the next National Republican Convention. It is probable that Mr. Charles T. Westcott, one of his most bitter political enemies, will be selected to oppose him. The friends of Surveyor Burchinal, who are also friends of Mr. Westcott, say they intend punishing Colonel Vannort for his course toward Mr. Westcott, when the latter was chosen chairman of the Republican State central committee, and they expect that Mr. Westcott will go to the convention in place of Colonel Vannort.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT for Chestertown is still one of the live and interesting topics, and is daily assuming more definite and satisfactory form. It has been currently reported that an effort will be made to combine the waterworks and the electric light into a stock company with a capital stock of twenty-five thousand dollars. This arrangement has several very satisfactory features, and there is a manifest disposition on the part of a number of citizens to subscribe to the stock and put the matter through with all possible speed. Should this arrangement fail, however, there are gentlemen who are willing to put a plant in and have the town lighted by electricity by, and possibly before early summer. In the event of the first arrangement, the old market house site will not of course be needed. The petition will however, be sent to Annapolis and every effort made to insure the success of the electric light move.

OUR CANTANKEROUS NEIGHBOR

A floating pest-house has been anchored off the shore of Eastern Neck Island, and strong protests have been raised against the wanton violation of our laws. Last week a sloop and parties it is claimed hailing from Centreville, anchored off the shore of Mr. Robt. Wickes, and have flooded the community with whiskey (or at least that portion of the community dealing in the article). Citizens who are ordinarily hard working and orderly, have been caught in this damnable trap, and have squandered time, talents and money.

The above from the Chestertown TRANSCRIPT is a gross misrepresentation of the citizens of this town. As both of the editors of that journal are natives of this county and resided for many years in Centreville, the Record is sufficiently charitable to allow that the misrepresentation is not intentional. The TRANSCRIPT has surely been deceived as to locality. If the TRANSCRIPT will refer to the files of the local journals of this county it will ascertain that the "Emma," a sloop-rigged craft from Baltimore, has been anchored off Kent Island dispensing liquor, and that the authorities promptly put a stop to it by chasing them away. Perhaps had the Kent authorities been as vigilant, the TRANSCRIPT'S article would not have reflected so seriously upon the good people of this town. Dear TRANSCRIPT, you must be more careful hereafter, or expect less charity.—Centreville Record.

Our friends of the Record have rushed off at a tangent, and but for the marvelous amount of "charity" which fairly glistens and bubbles over from their overflowing goblet, as shown in the above article, instead of the charge of "gross misrepresentation," who knows what horrible things we might have been held responsible for. But keep cool friends, and possibly in your next charge you will not, as on this occasion, be found playing blindman's buff with the facts involved. In the first place, it is rather a startling proposition that a few renegades and violators of law, such as every community is cursed with, should be taken as representatives "of this town," (Centreville), such was not the case when the editors of the TRANSCRIPT felt honored in claiming citizenship in Queen Anne's; then again, our cantankerous neighbors after stating that "the 'Emma,' a sloop-rigged craft from Baltimore, has been anchored off Kent Island," states that we are "deceived as to locality." Can the Record state as a fact that a vessel is not anchored off the shores of Eastern Neck Island? or further, that the sloop-rigged Emma is the only boat in Maryland waters selling whiskey in violation of law? We doubt it. No reflection upon the law-abiding citizens of Centreville was meant by making the statement which came to us upon as good authority as even the Record itself. We are not suppliants upon the charity-bounty of our contemporary, but if the boat referred to was not from Centreville, we congratulate that town and with pleasure make the corrections. We have doubts, however, that the Record knows anything about the matter.
