EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

KANSAS DEMOCRATS stand almost solidly for Cleveland.

PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATES to the National Convention will vote as one man for Grover Cleveland.

THE recent frost and cold spell is reported to have done considerable damage to early vegetables in the vicinity of Norfolk, Va.

GOVERNOR BROWN, says that Maryland should have a modern constitution, and until she has one, satisfactory legislation for a new assessment bill need not be expected.

UNDER the old law the judges of the Court of Appeals received $3,500 per annum, and Circuit judges, $2800. The new law gives them $4,500 and $3,500 respectively.

THE NEXT important duty devolving upon Governor Brown will be the appointment of supervisors of elections in all the counties in which the Australian ballot system is operative. Each county will have three.

IT IS NOW announced that owing to the fact that he is physically unable to stand the labor and strain of the approaching campaign as a member of the national committee, Senator Gorman has withdrawn and will in all probability be succeeded by Mr. I. Freeman Rasin.

THE plant of the Queen Anne's Advocate was sold at public sale in Centreville, on Tuesday of last week, to the editors of the Centreville Record and Observer, for nine hundred and sixty dollars. The Observer states, that its publication will be discontinued, there being no room there for the third paper, and its publication resulted in making none of them profitable.

HON. THOMAS F. BAYARD, when asked for his views on the outlook for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency, replied: "It will not require many words to do that. I am delighted more and more every day to see the nomination of Mr. Cleveland not only assured, but becoming a necessity. I think him the most fitting man for the nomination in the party."

THOSE politicians who profess to be for CLEVELAND all the time, but who urge that the delegation to the National Convention should go unpledged because the convention is a deliberative body, had better do their deliberating before they reach Chicago. It looks this year as if the people would do the deliberating and the delegates would be expected to do the people's will.—Evening News.

FREDERICK DOUGLAS, the colored statesman and orator, is being strongly urged by representative members of his race as a Presidential candidate. The object is to concentrate the colored vote and impress the other two parties with the importance of the African voter in determining the complexion of national and local administrations. In the event of the Douglas candidacy the united Democracy may expect a veritable walk-over.

ON MONDAY NEXT an election will be held in Chestertown, for the purpose of selecting a successor in the board of town commissioners, to Mr. James A. Shaw, whose term of office will expire on that day. The retiring efficient commissioner states that he will not serve for another term. Messrs. Harry L. Boyd, T. R. Hubbard, James Brice, Samuel Vannort and Joel R. Clements are being prominently spoken of for the place, and doubtless any of the gentlemen would make a most satisfactory member of the official board.

THE STATE COMMITTEE will be called together between May 10 and 15, to fix dates for the primaries and the State convention to select the national delegates. The State convention will be held later—about June 8, just two weeks before the meeting of the national convention. This late date is fixed to give the people an opportunity to more freely express their preferences as regards the Presidential candidate to be selected at the Chicago convention.

ON OUR front page, in addition to much interesting matter of a literary character, will be found the eloquent and thoroughly Democratic speech delivered by James A. Pearce, Esq., at the great Cleveland meeting held in Baltimore on Wednesday evening of last week. No man who addressed the assembled multitude of strong and sturdy Cleveland Democrats, touched more nearly or more forcibly the grand keynote of the real Cleveland principle and the sound Democratic doctrine, than did the representative from Kent. An interesting report on the school-book question, made by a committee appointed by Alliance No. 77, will also be found on the same page.

IT IS REPORTED that the Hon. Herman Stump declared in New York on Sunday, that out of every one hundred Democrats in Maryland fully ninety-nine favor the nomination of Cleveland. Whether this estimate is entirely correct or not, it cannot be doubted that the Cleveland sentiment among Maryland Democrats is enormously preponderating. This preponderating sentiment is entitled to full and fair representation at Chicago, not by men who profess to be for Cleveland, but whose entire record is at variance with the sentiment and policy which Cleveland stands for, and who will only use Cleveland's name to secure their own selection as delegates and then go prepared to betray the trust, and trade and barter away the people's cause. The friends of Cleveland and of a bold and sincere Democratic policy and an aggressive campaign, should assert themselves at the primaries. They should attend and insist upon fair play.—*Balto. CLEVELAND IN THE SOUTH.

News (Galveston, Tex.): Cleveland is for the people. Hill is for Hill. This accounts for the milk in the cocoanut.

Times (Richmond, Va.): The more Mr. Cleveland is attacked the stronger he seems to grow in popular estimation.

Republic (St. Louis): Any good Democrat will beat the Harrison rascals, and Mr. Cleveland is a very good Democrat.

Journal (Aiken, S. C.) The people want him, and the politicians are wise enough to see that to win at all Cleveland must be the leader.

State Ledger (Miss.): The impression is daily growing in this State, that the nominee must be Cleveland, or some other person than Hill.

County News (Lexington, Ky.): Each day it looks more and more like Cleveland. The politicians have not done it. It is the people.

Journal (Atlanta, Ga.): The nomination of Grover Cleveland on the first ballot in the Chicago Democratic Convention seems already assured.

Times (Richmond, Va.); Hillism is being fatally wounded in the house of its friends, and even the New York Democratic Senate is rebelling against it.

Messenger (Wilmington, N. C.): In the South we suppose it is no exaggeration to say that 80 per cent. of the Democratic papers are favorable to him.

Messenger (Wilmington, N. C.): The country needs Cleveland's services, and the Democrats at Chicago will be very apt to name him for the first place.

Herald (Atlanta, Ga.): While these quarrelsome fellows are abusing one another, Cleveland is thinking about party success, and even doubting the wisdom of his own nomination.

Sun (Baltimore, Md.): The opponents of Mr. Cleveland, who a short time ago were so industriously trying to make themselves appear formidable, have been shown to be an insignificant minority.

Virginian (Lynchburg, Va.): Present indications undoubtedly tend to sustain the boast of the enthusiastic adherents of ex-President Cleveland that he will have a "walk-over" for the nomination.

Statesman (Austin, Tex.): There can be no doubt that if the Democratic masses were allowed to name the next President, Mr. Cleveland would get the Democratic vote of every State in the Union.

Herald (Atlanta, Ga.): If availability is what is desired by the Hill following, Cleveland is eminently the man of all men for the contest. We have no idea that Hill's name will be presented at Chicago.

American (Nashville, Tenn.): Mr. Cleveland will be renominated by acclamation, and, upon a platform which calls for Tariff Reform and the honest and economic administration of the Government's affairs, will be overwhelming elected.

The State (Richmond, Va.): It will be noted, too, that as a rule, this very element that opposes Cleveland and favors Hill is the element that trembled and talked protection when the time came for the Democratic party to speak out on the tariff question.

STATE WEATHER SERVICE.

The Maryland State Weather Service, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture, has issued its second weather crop bulletin for the week ending Friday, April 15th:

FALLSTON, HARFORD COUNTY.—With the cold wave on Saturday, we had snow squalls; ice formed Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights. The lowest temperature on Tuesday morning, twenty-eight degrees. I have examined the blossomed bud of the peaches, and find them not yet discolored.

CATONSVILLE, BALTIMORE CO. — It froze on the nights of the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th; but, fortunately, the air and ground were both dry, and no damage resulted, except the checking of growth of wheat and grass.

MIDDLETOWN, FREDERICK, CO.—On Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday mornings, mercury considerably below freezing point. Ice formed each morning. Weather very unfavorable for fruit and grass.

MECHANICSTOWN, FREDERICK CO.—The cold weather has affected the peaches somewhat. Wheat is looking well.

TANEYTOWN, CARROLL CO.—Peach crop slightly injured by frost and cold weather on April 9 and 10.

MARYLAND AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, COLLEGE PARK, PRINCE GEORGE'S CO.—Fruit slightly injured by frost Sunday and Monday nights.

COLEMAN'S, KENT CO.—The cold and freezing weather has retarded the growth of vegetation.

DENTON, CAROLINE CO.—The severe freeze of the 9th and 10th, and the frost on the 11th and 12th, though not killing many of the peach blossoms, had a tendency to weaken them, and will probably cause the fruit to fall early, making the crop a light one. From the present outlook, only a fourth of a crop from this section can be expected.

TRAPPE, TALBOT CO.—Prophets say there will not be more than a fourth of a crop of peaches.

CORNERSVILLE, DORCHESTER CO.—Ice one-half inch thick; good week for farm work. Peach trees not in bloom, and the prospect for fruit is bad. Plowing for corn and vegetables is backward.

BARRON CREEK SPRINGS, WICOMICO CO.—The frost of the 12th, with ice and cold, is supposed to have killed the peaches and cherries, with all tender exposed vegetables.

SALISBURY, WICOMICO CO.—Cold Saturday and Sunday and frost this morning, which will injure fruit and vegetables.

REPUBLICANS ORGANIZING.

The Result of Saturday's Primaries and Tuesday's Convention.

After one of the most hotly-contested factional fights ever known in the Republican party in Kent, Colonel William J. Vannort was defeated at all points by the Westcott-Burchinal combination in the district primaries on Saturday last. A spirited campaign had been kept up for several weeks, and in several districts a thorough organization effected. Captain Wm D. Burchinal, spent several days in the county and played an important part in the contest. Several of the meetings were unusually animated, and at one the three leaders met. Each side entered the fight on Saturday, confident of success. A novel feature of the day's voting was a change of time for keeping open the polls in the fifth district. In all of the other districts the polls opened at three and closed at six. In the fifth, are a number of Seventh Day Adventists, who claim that Saturday and not Sunday, is the real Sabbath, and, consequently, refused it is stated, to vote until after six o'clock, the close of their Sabbath. So in the fifth the time was made between four and seven o'clock, to give the Adventists an opportunity to register their choice. Colonel Vannort's friends claim that this gave Mr. Westcott an advantage, and, as chairman of the central committee, he availed himself of the opportunity. Money never, possibly, figured more prominently at a Kent county Republican primary, both sides, it is stated, using it.

Colonel Vannort's friends declare, that his workers among the colored voters were bought. Be that as it may, the Westcott delegates received substantial majorities at all points.

The WESTCOTT-BURCHINAL committees in the several districts were as follows:

First District—Clarence Price, Chas. H. Smith, George Taylor, Henry Scott, Zion Potts.

Second District—Robert Comly, Charles England, Louis Lamborn, George Wright, Fred Turner.

Third District—John V. Greenwood, F. R. Rouse, Simon Freeman, Nat Tilghman, Joseph H. Cotten.

Fourth—Chestertown Precinct—Wm. D. Burchinal, Chas. T. Westcott, Jas. Chilcut, Marshall Pitman, Harrison Jenkins.

Second precinct—Bartus Trew, Edward W. Emory, Walter S. Trew, James Elias, Wesley Johnson.

Fifth District—Joseph C. Kendall, Thos. A. Hudson, George W. Bramble, Bateman Berry, Abraham Pratt.

VANNORT COMMITTEE.

The VANNORT committees were as follows:

First District—A. R. Todd, J. C. Moore, N. H. Clark, J. H. Deakyne, Moses Hughes.

Second—Dan. Hill, W. P. Norris, S. D. Nickerson, Primus Gleaves, William Simmons.

Third—Eben Crew, Thomas C. Parsons, Wm. A. Wood, Anthony Whiteley, John W. Reed.

Fourth—First precinct—George C. Adkinson, John W. Parsons, Wm. H. Lambert, Jr., Frank T. C. Chambers, John Wesley Anderson.

Second precinct—John C. Davis, J. Wesley Hadaway, W. Thos. Hadaway, Josiah Derry, John T. Barret.

Fifth District—John V. Crosby, Thomas Casey, Wm. J. Frazier, John W. Watson, John W. Bosley.

TUESDAY'S CONVENTION.

The delegates elected in the respective districts, at the Republican primaries on Saturday, assembled in county convention in Perkins' Hall, Chestertown, at noon on Tuesday, for the purpose of selecting three delegates and three alternates to represent Kent county in the First Congressional District Convention, which will meet at Salisbury, April 27, to elect two district delegates and two alternates to the national Republican convention at Minneapolis, June 7. Also three delegates and three alternates to the State convention, which will meet at Frederick City, May 4, to elect four delegates-at-large and four alternates to the National Republican convention. The convention was called to order by Charles T. Westcott, Esq., chairman of the County Republican Central Committee. Bartus Trew, of Pomona, was made chairman, and Louis Lamborn, of Still Pond, secretary. Each district sent full Westcott-Burchinal delegations, as elected on Saturday.

After perfecting the formal organization, Mr. Westcott offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, by the Republicans of Kent county, in convention assembled, That we reaffirm our belief in the principles of the Republican party, and our entire confidence in the intelligence and capacity of the party's exponents in public affairs, to maintain those principles in the interest of good government and to the protection and prosperity of every citizen of our great republic, both at home and abroad.

2. Resolved, That we heartily endorse the prudent, conservative and statesmanlike administration of President Harrison, which at home has maintained and executed the laws in their integrity and entirety, while in our intercourse with foreign nations, the eloquent pen of the incomparable Blaine has been wielded in almost every clime in behalf of American rights of personal liberty and the standing and progress of these United States as a nation, with a vigor that is unexcelled, with a patriotism of which we are most proud, and with a success that inures to the credit of the Republican party and its six millions of adherents scattered throughout every State of the Union.

3. Resolved, That we ask for a reorganization of the Republican party in the State of Maryland, under our recently adopted constitution, along the lines of a more strict adherence to party principles, against the dictation and bossism of Federal officials, against fraudulent and disloyal methods in either primary or general elections, and in favor of a hearty call to the intelligent, honest and conservative Republicans of the state to come to the front and take an active interest in party affairs, and lend their aid in restoring that confidence which the support to its principles in purity and rectitude has ever inspired among a free and enlightened people.

Walter Trew made a motion that the chair appoint a committee of one from each district, to nominate delegates to the district convention at Salisbury, and to the State convetion at Frederick City. Upon motion of Capt. W. D. Burchinal, two from each district were appointed to make the nominations.

During the retirement of the committee, in response to loud and enthusiastic calls, Mr. Westcott made a stirring speech. The delegates and alternates named to go to the Salisbury convention were as follows: James A. Casey, Louis Lamborn, Louis Henry, Capt. W. D. Burchinal, Clarence Price and Marshal Pitman; alternates, Edward W. Emory, J. J. Blackiston, George Wright, Charles T. Westcott, Esq., William Riley and Thomas Murray.

Delegates to the State convention were: Charles T. Westcott, Esq., Joseph C. Kendall, Harrison Jenkins, F. H. Harper, Bartus Trew and Henry Scott; alternates, Capt. W. D. Burchinal, L. B. Richardson, Thos. Hanson, John V. Greenwood, Simon Freemen and Zion Potts.

Frederick Nichols, a prominent colored leader of the fourth district, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we, as colored delegates and representatives of the colored portion of the Republican party of Kent county, do hereby express our firm belief in the principles of the party as set forth and promulgated by the leadership of our untiring friends and leaders, Mr. Charles T. Westcott and Captain William D. Burchinal.

Resolved, That we, as colored Republicans, do hereby reassure our recognized leaders, that it is our purpose to more closely continue our alliance with them in the future than we have in the past.

The convention was in every way harmonious, and no evidences of factional differences or of any local unpleasantness existed.

vs.
Daniel Chaney, Emily C. Chaney, George W. Stewart, William Stewart, Medford Stewart, Rutherford B. H. Sampson, Isaac Sampson.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate situated in Kent county for the payment of the debts due by a certain George Washington Stewart, late of Kent county, deceased.

The bill states, 1st. That the said George W. Stewart, negro, was in his lifetime indebted unto the plaintiff, Wm. S. Maxwell, in the sum of thirty-one dollars upon open account.

2d. That the said George W. Stewart, being indebted as aforesaid unto the plaintiff, and also to divers other creditors, and having real estate of great value and leaving but a very small personal estate, which was not sufficient for the payment of his debts, departed this life on or about the —— day of December, in the year 1888, and the said George W. Stewart continued possessed of the real estate until the time of his death.

3d. That letters of administration upon the personal estate of the said George Washington Stewart were committed unto Richard D. Hynson, and although the plaintiff has applied to the said Richard D. Hynson, administrator as aforesaid, for the payment of his claim, he has been informed nevertheless by said Richard D. Hynson that he had no funds wherewith to pay the same.

4th. That the said George Washington Stewart, being seized and possessed of the said real estate, died, leaving the following heirs-at-law surviving him, namely: Emily C. Chaney, his daughter, who intermarried with Daniel Chaney, both of whom reside in Kent county, Maryland; Medford Stewart, George W. Stewart, William Stewart, who are non-residents of the State of Maryland. The said George W. Stewart, deceased, had a daughter Kate who is now dead, and who intermarried with one Isaac Sampson, by whom she had a child, Rutherford B. H. Sampson, who is an infant, and who with Isaac Sampson, now reside in Chester, Pennsylvania.

It is thereupon ordered this 11th day of April, 1892, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county aforesaid once in each of four successive weeks, fifteen days before the 18th day of June next, give notice to the said George W. Stewart, William Stewart and Medford Stewart, Isaac Sampson and Rutherford B. H. Sampson, and to all other resident or non-resident defendants, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the said 18th day of June, 1892, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

John T. Barrett,
vs.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity

THE object of this bill is to procure the sale of the real estate of John T. Barrett, Sr., late of Kent county, Maryland, deceased, and to distribute the proceeds of such sale among the heirs at law of the said decedent.

The bill states that the said John T. Barrett, Sr., died, seized and possessed of certain real estate, in Kent county, Maryland, bought by him during his lifetime of Absalom W. Sparks, and although he had paid all of the purchase money for said real estate, died without having received a deed for the same from the said Absalom W. Sparks. But after the death of the said John T. Barrett, Sr., the said Absalom W. Sparks gave a deed for the same to the widow of the said John T. Barrett, Sr.; namely, to the said Mary Barrett, although she was not entitled to the same, as will appear by copy of said deed, filed in this cause as plaintiff's exhibit No. 1.

The bill further states, that the said Mary Barrett, widow of John T. Barrett, Sr., subsequently intermarried with Benjamin Ringgold, of Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, and afterward died, and since her death the said Benjamin Ringgold has claimed a life estate in said lot of land, contrary to the interest of the complainant and the other heirs at law of the said John T. Barrett, Sr., deceased, and the plaintiff prays the court to pass a decree for the sale of said real estate, and that the proceeds of sale may be distributed to the heirs at law of the said John T. Barrett, Sr., deceased, according to their respective rights and interests, as follows: to John T. Barrett, this plaintiff; William H. Barrett, Levi R. Barrett, who reside in Kent county, Maryland; George W. Barrett, who resides in Harford county, Maryland; Harriet R. Augustus, wife of Emory James Augustus, both of whom reside in Cincinnati, Ohio, and to the children of his son, James Henry Barrett, who has since died leaving a widow, Mary Barrett, and the following-named children: Mary Catharine Barrett, Annie Barrett, who intermarried with a man by the name of Davis, who has since died; Lila Barrett, who intermarried with a man by the name of John Brady and resides in Baltimore city, Maryland, and James Barrett, who resides either in the city of Philadelpaia or New York. And to this end prays that the deed from Absalom W. Sparks to Mary Barrett may be declared void.

It is therefore ordered, this 22d day of March, 1892, that the complainant, John T. Barrett, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 23d day of April next, give notice to the said non-resident defendants, Harriet R. Augustus, Mary Barrett, Mary Catharine Barrett, Annie Davis, Lila Brady and James Barrett, and to all the other defendants in this suit who are or who may be non-residents of this State of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 10th day of May next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

TRADE MARK

UNDOUBTEDLY IT IS

The leading Corn Fertilizer on the Peninsula. Our sales this Spring on this goods are already larger than every before. For several weeks we have been shipping carload after carload, with the orders still coming in. Fertilizer men generally, we have found, would make a good Fertilizer for truck, wheat, etc. But when it comes to a Corn Fertilizer, would either make a goods composed of South Carolina and Kainit, which under unfavorable circumstances, would injure the germ of the corn; or, if it was ammoniated, would use something of a volatile nature, which would burn the corn. This, in our opinion, has given rise to the general expression of farmers: "No; fertilizer on corn wont pay, for I have tried it." When the facts of the business was, they had not tried a goods particularly adapted
