For Representatice for the First Congressional District of Maryland in the Fifty-Third Congress of the United States:

—Mrs. Theodore Pennypacker, wife of the unfortunate fisherman who was literally blown to pieces while using dynamite bombs in fishing off Plum point in August, met with a painful accident yesterday morning. Mrs. Pennypacker was feeling in a cupboard for matches when, in an instant an explosion occurred and her hand was fearfully lacerated and torn, it is supposed by a cap similar to those used in exploding the bombs which cost her husband his life. The thumb and forefinger were so badly lacerated as to necessitate amputation.

—The bicycle races of yesterday afternoon were a most pleasant success. The five-mile race from Worton to Chestertown was won by Carl Westcott in 19 minutes; W. W. Chapman, second, in 19¼ minutes and James Lucas third in 19½ minutes. Mr. Ireland, of Galena, upset when nearing town, and was thrown out of the race. Messrs. Chapman and Westcott collided shortly after the start, and Mr. Chapman's wheel was badly injured, placing him at a decided disadvantage in the contest. In the one mile race Mr. J. A. Thomas won in 4 minutes; H. Rickey, Jr., a close second, and Ireland third.

—The house belonging to T. J. McWhorter and occupied by Thomas Crossley in Millington, near H. S. Cook's store on the road leading out of the town to Massey's, was totally destroyed by fire about noon on Sunday. The roof was in a light blaze when the alarm was given and it was impossible to do more than save the furniture in the lower rooms and keep the flames from spreading to adjoining property. The fire originated it is supposed from a defective flue. A bucket brigade was formed, and though a frame building stood but a few feet off from the burning house, the vigorous efforts of the sturdy citizens of the town confined the loss to one building and a portion of its contents. Report says that there was an insurance of $700 on the property.

—The weather-wise predicts an early and a severe winter. Among the signs mentioned in support of this prediction are the intense heat of last summer, and the early shedding of the forest leaves. A gentleman remarked a few days since that he expected to drive through the streets of this town in the sleigh by the 10th of December. Let us mark the prediction and note how close our Chestertown Irl Hicks comes to it. Bright, frosty days and nights will prevail during the opening days of November, says Rev. Irl Hicks. About the 4th the weather will moderate and storms may be expected. Cold waves will succeed, and there will be a reaction on the 11th. From the 16th to the 19th, rain and sleet and autumnal gales may be expected. Hard freezing will follow until the 22d or 23d. A reaction will occur, followed by more storms, and cold weather. The 27th, 28th and 29th are storm days, and a cold wave is predicted for the 30th.

Dr. Hill's Murderers.

Eight negroes have been sentenced to expiate the crime of murdering Dr. James Heighe Hill, on the gallows, and are now held in jail awaiting the execution of the sentence of the court; Brown, Williams and Brooks realize their fearful situation; Brown reads his Bible and prays every night, and says he has been preparing for the end since the day of the verdict. The men now have but little to say, but the boys are cheerful and spend the time in talking and general amusements. Potts and Bradshaw were given ten dollars by order of Judge Wickes and started on the steamer yesterday morning for Baltimore. Potts was terribly frightened, and would not leave the jail until thoroughly convincing himself that the way was clear. He stated that he would dispose of his property near Millington, and as soon as he can get work will take his family to Baltimore; Bradshaw had no plans for the future. Steve Cooper, John Harrison, Henry Hynson, Phil Manda, and several other witnesses in the case were released from jail on Tuesday night, and all started across Chester bridge for Queen Anne's, stating that they did not want to return to Millington right away.

The prisoners are now constantly guarded, Sheriff Plummer having appointed Messrs. Fred Pote and Jerome Rambo, of Worton, on the night watch, and Messrs. John H. Greenwood and Thomas Storks day watchmen. The movement to get up petitions to be presented to the Governor asking a commutation of the sentence, has not crystalized, and it is said that counter petitions will be put in circulation if the matter assumes more definite form.

FROM STILL POND.

The "Harvest Home" held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings in the town hall, for the benefit of, and under the auspices of the Good Templars, was as well attended and patronized as could be expected considering the scarcity of money. About ninety dollars was the gross receipts, from which a fair amount will be realized after deducting expenses, which are considerable. The hall was very neatly decorated, and the suppers were excellent, consisting of oysters, turkey, chicken, ducks and other delicacies. To the ladies is due the credit of making the festival a financial success. The order of Good Templars is a strong organization here, and the strong temperance sentiment prevailing in this community, no doubt has received strength from this order.

The Leap Year dance to be given in the town hall this evening, will be an elaborate and brilliant affair. The hall will be neatly trimmed, and an elegant supper will be served in the large storeroom immediately under the hall. The patronesses are Mrs. Lucas Alrich, Mrs. C. H. Price, Mrs. George R. Parrott and Mrs. W. S. Maxwell.

Miss Cora Devilbiss, of Walkersville, Maryland, and Miss Florence Burgess, of Baltimore, are the guests of Miss E. May Parrott.

Mrs. Wm. S. Aldridge, of Baltimore, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis Lamborn.

John Johnson, who recently resigned his position with B. W. Andrews & Co., the large wholesale grocery house of Philadelphia, has been prevailed upon by the firm to resume his position. Mr Johnson is one of the most valuable salesmen on the road, and has the credit of making more trade than any man in the firm's service.

Dr. W. E. Barnard, who recently moved to Middletown, Del., where much better opportunities are offered than here for the practice of dentistry, has received much encouragement in the short time located there. His practice is already very good, and is rapidly increasing.

Yours truly, THE WRITER.

MILLINGTON NOTES.

MILLINGTON, MD., Nov. 1, 1892.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Fire was discovered at Mr. J. S. Newnam's, a farmer living about one and a half miles from Millington, by one of his hired men a few minutes before six o'clock on Friday evening last. The fire caught on the shed of the sheep pen which was covered with straw and fodder; origin of the fire unknown. His loss was not very heavy, as by the help of his neighbors nothing was burned except an old granary used to keep farming implements in, his straw sheds, about 100 bushels of corn, plow harness, etc. Loss estimated at from $150 to $200.

Thos. J. Britton, the oldest inhabitant of the town, being in his 86th year, died at his son's, Thos. M. Britton, of old age, Friday afternoon.

E. Pennington, cashier Queen Anne's bank, of Centreville, spent Sunday last with Mrs. Helen Cecil.

Miss Sallie and Mamie Cacy spent several days last week with friends in Baltimore.

Nearly all the wells in town are dry. If it does not rain soon, so as to raise the springs, people will have to go to the river to get water for use. On account of a black mud which renders the water unfit for use, the wells cannot be sunk deeper.

One day last week two horses to a farm wagon belonging to W. C. Rolph, took fright from the breaking of one of the reins, and ran through town. With the exception of tearing the front and hind wheels loose from the body and tearing the harness up somewhat, no loss was sustained. R. S.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

A large audience greeted the members of the W. C. T. U. of Kennedyville, at the Presbyterian Church last Friday evening, the occasion being the Jubilee Anniversary of the union. The pulpit and organ were made bright by vases of beautiful flowers. The exercises began with a chorus, "In His Name." The choir consisted of the Misses VanDyke, Boggs, Busick, Garey and Hurlock. Messrs. Glenn, Othoson, McKnett, Weer and Hague. Prayer was offered by Rev. R. L. Lewis. The Loyal Legion, consisting of about fifty members, was well represented, and with their rosy cheeks, bright eyes, and blue badges, made a pretty picture as they sang the "Cold Water Song" and "Motion Song." Recitations were given by Katie Weer, Emma Shafer, Eddie Pennington and Harry Hill. Beautiful and touching remarks were made by Rev. R. L. Lewis, who had been deeply impressed with the exercises of the Loyal Legion. He spoke of the advantages of the children of to-day, and with such training, he feels that the future of our country is safe. He is a firm believer, that "the world is growing better." Remarks upon the "Progress of the Union," were made by the president. She stated that the Union had been in existence since Oct. 9th, 1887. It had met with discouragements in the beginning, but for the past year had been in a flourishing condition. Thirty-two names were enrolled by the W. Three of the most loved and honored members had received the summons "Come up higher." Mrs. Kelley read a very interesting report of the State Convention at Elkton. Solos were sung by Misses Busick, Clara VanDyke, Hurlock and Mrs. Lillie Archibald. The quartettes, "What do the bells say?" "He will have mercy" and "The breaking clouds," were finely rendered. Readings which were greatly enjoyed were given by Miss Annie Stewart, "Hepsy at the State Convention"; Miss Lula Boggs, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them"; Mr. W. R. McKnett, "True Victory"; a very touching recitation was given by Miss Helen Link. The Union was favored with the presence of vice-president Mrs. Wm. Stewart and Mrs. S. A. Hurlock. The latter made some interesting remarks, and made earnest appeals in behalf of the Herald and Blade, and Union Signal. So fruitful in its result was the meeting that the members will have a jubilee in their hearts for many days to come. Nine names were added to the list of members, the majority being those of young men in the community. The meeting closed with the chorus "The Rum Saloon Shall Go."

COLLEGE NOTES.

Lamps have been placed around the college campus, and no longer is the classic hill wrapt in gloom.

Workmen are engaged in widening and leveling the carriage drive on the north side of the college, and will extend the same so as to open an avenue between the two streets.

Mr. Trenchard has been training the foot-ball team daily, so that it may be in good condition to meet any future engagements.

The apparatus for the new gymnasium arrived this week. It will be put in position immediately, and soon physical culture, which has been so long neglected, will become a part of the student's education. The gymnasium building is a handsome frame structure 30x49 feet. Around the building at an elevation of eight feet above the floor, a running track has been constructed. The whole outfit has been put up at a cost of about $2000.

Good Tidings Service.

Good Tidings services were held at Bond and Mowbray Churches in Pomona circuit last Sunday—at the former place in the morning and at the latter church at night. Both churches were very prettily trimmed with autumn leaves, grasses, fruits, flowers, vegetables, grain, etc. The same programme was used at both places, it being the one issued by the Methodist Church and was nicely rendered.

At Bond the music was in charge of Mr. J. C. Loud, leader, Miss Lizzie Baker, organist. At Mowbray Prof. Stratton had charge with Miss Sadie Stratton, organist, Miss Annie Brown, soprano, and Mr. Frank Stoops, bass. These were ably seconded by the children, who sang exceptionally well, showing great painstaking in their training. The recitations were nicely rendered by the children at both places. Collection for the day amounted to $13.62. The pastor was the recipient of a fine donations of fruits, vegetables, and grain.

PROHIBITION PARTY FACTS.

It is a fact that God is the source of all righteous political action; and in such sense is in politics to uphold the Right and overthrow the Wrong. The Prohibition party acknowledges Him as its great leader—the same who still leads His people, "out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage."

It is a fact that the Prohibition party has come as a moral political necessity; and with a warrant not only for the people oppressed and destroyed by the cruelties of the liquor traffic, but with such warrant fully sanctioned by Heaven.

It is a fact that cannot be gainsaved, that the manufacture, sale and use of intoxicating liquors in any sense as drinks or beverages, is the active fomenter of crime, the producer of sorrow; the most certain agency of ruin and death, the greatest existing foe to the prosperity of the Church and State; and judging by its own infamous record, the "sum of all villanies."

It is a fact that it is not only vain, but illogical and unnatural to attempt to control or restrict, much less prohibit or destroy the saloon power, through "non-partisan" political action within political parties dominated by saloon bosses.

It is a fact that any kind of legislation attempting to prohibit or even to restrain the Liquor Traffic—that malignant source of moral and physical woe and degradation, is, has been, and will be vain, as long as the liquor power is itself a recognized factor in such legislation.

It is a fact that both the Republican and Democratic parties—especially the former as the dominant one of the country—are hopelessly in the toils of the liquor traffic; and all hope of prohibition either local or national from such sources, must be abandoned.

It is a fact that all attempted restriction or control, or the so-called "prohibition" of such an enemy to the peace, safety and happiness of society and the individual, as the liquor traffic proves itself to be, is only a snare, a delusion, and a lie!

It is a fact that all those who profess "prohibition and yet vote with a political party that retains its existence by licensing the saloon, give the lie to their profession; and are by such vote giving 'aid and comfort' to the rum foe, and are directly continuing and perpetuating the saloon power! Such vote is itself a crime against all law sought to be made for the protection of 'life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.'"

It is a fact that rum now antagonizes business men. Those opposed to liquor cannot do business safely or harmoniously with those who favor liquor. Rum antagonizes the operatives of equity and justice in our courts. The cause of the sober client, however plainly just, is discriminated against in favor of rum money and rum respectability! Rum antagonizes from the pulpit to the pew. Those who regard the liquor saloons as Satan's chief snare to entrap the bodies and souls of men, cannot consistently fraternize with those who are in favor of licensing and continuing the saloon.

It is a fact that rum is more and more rapidly antagonizing every relationship of home and society. In order to do business together, every department of society must either become all sober or all drunken! Two mighty influences are engaged in deadly conflict, and neither will be satisfied with halfway measures. On the one side is the Prohibition party. On the other side are those who follow the leadership of rum licensing political parties and give them their votes. Heaven fights with the one side and Hell with the other. God leads the one, and Satan the other. Yet, even in church circles, men are heard doubting which is right and which is wrong and which will win! Prohibition party soldiers do not doubt the issue. The golden scales are now hung out from the battlements of heaven proclaiming victory over the rum curse!

The saloon catches men and boys and drains them of health, manhood, character and usefulness. The men and boys will suffer the consequence of being caught, the saloon keeper is responsible for selling the poison and the people who voted for the party that authorized the saloon will have to render an account.

Turn the money now expended for whiskey into the stores, and there would be a sudden demand for more goods. More workmen would be needed and wages would immediately be increased.

If those who vote for rum licensing political parties would pray as they vote, they would pray for the success of the whiskey traffic. They would then at least be consistent, and not, as now, pray for Prohibition and vote for the saloon.

If you want your vote to count for Prohibition, you must vote for the Prohibition nominee.
