COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

MUCH live local and editorial matter have been forced out of this issue by new advertisements, but will be given in our next issue.

TUESDAY was Postmaster day in Chestertown, and the political sky was blue with petitions. Original? Cleveland men were almost as abundant as the male population of the town.

THERE is no longer any question as to the relation of the National "Machine" to President Cleveland. David Bennett Hill in New York, certain distinguished political machine pets from the State of Maryland and the ring in other sections have undertaken a Herculean task when they enter the ring with Grover Cleveland. They may succeed in embarrassing Mr. Cleveland and impeding legislation, but that the administration, backed by the potent severeignty of a free and independent people will be discomfited and defeated there is no reason to fear.

THE county commissioners on Tuesday inaugurated a system of road-repairing for the county which will be a direct saving to the tax-payers of over $5000 for the first year, and with the class of gentlemen who have taken the work in the different districts, there is no reason to fear but that the details of their contract will be conscientiously fulfilled. The repairs will be of a permanent character and the new system entirely satisfactory. The commissioners have acted judiciously and the new method it is believed will ce entirely satisfactory to the tax-payers.

ROAD CONTRACTORS.

The Contracts for Road Work Awarded—What Will be Paid.

The county commissioners, on Tuesday awarded the contracts for road work throughout the county. On our front page will be found a full list of the specifications for such road work throughout the county. Each specification is numbered, and the following awards of contract for work to be done are numbered to correspond with the number of the specification, so that no difficulty will be experienced in placing the name and amount in connection with the road to be worked.

METHODISTS IN SESSION.

Important Matters Before the Session of the Conference at Middletown, Delaware.

The Wilmington Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, commenced its annual session on Wednesday of last week, Bishop Merrill, of Chicago, presiding.

Conference officers were elected as follows: A. S. Mowbray, secretary; W. A. Wise, J. D. Rigg, Z. H. Webster, assistants; W. R. Mowbray, statistician: Asbury Burke, W. W. Sharp, F. F. Carpenter, H. C. Turner, G. W. Strickland, G. P. Jones, F. B. Short and T. B. Cooper, assistants; C. A. Grise, treasurer; A. G. Cox, R. K. Stephenson, R. I. Watkins, H. S. Golday, and J. P. Otis, assistants; J. E. Bryan, S. J. Morris, P. H. Rawlins and S. S. Shepherd, stewards.

Presiding Elder Barrett reported that Wilmington district has been doing excellent work. The total cost of church buildings finished and those to be completed this year will be over $50,000, estimated cost of contemplated buildings $22,500, church improvements nearly $20,000, debts paid $3,500, making a grand total of about $96,000. The benevolent collections have nearly all been taken in full.

Rev. J. W. Easley, of Chestertown, was made chairman of the committee on Ministerial Qualifications. Rev. R. Irving Watkins was appointed a member of the committee on Sabbath Observance.

THURSDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Nearly the entire day was spent in hearing addresses. Rev. Dr. George W. Gray, general secretaryof the Methodist University, made an address regarding it. "The action of the General Conference saying that $10,000,000 was to be raised for the university," he said, "is misleading. We are to have $100,000,000, and we have $90,000,000 already." Mr. Gray said: Within twenty-four months the Catholic University (at Washington) will be the best and most thoroughly equipped educational institution in America. We must have this great American University if we are to keep abreast of the Catholic church in the land."

In telling of the condition of affairs on Easton District, Presiding Elder Alfred Smith said: "Four new churches have been projected, namely Cheswold, on Smyrna Circuit; Dulaney's, on Sassafras and Massey's Circuit; St. Paul's, on Cecilton Circuit, and Betterton, on the Still Pond charge. The one at Cheswold has been finished and cost $3,359. The congregation will start out as a seperate society next year with a membership of seventy-five and a Sunday-school of 100. The church at Dulaney cost $1,000, and replaces the one at this place. The church at St. Paul's has not been finished. When completed, it will cost between $4,000 and $5,000, and will be dedicated free of debt. The church at Betterton is also unfinished, and will cost $1,000. Improvements have been made on the churches at King's Creek, Middletown, Oxford and Smyrna.

"The improvements at Smyrna and Oxford cost $1,550. A parsonage has been built at Sudlersville.

"There are seventeen chapters of Epworth League in the district, with an aggregate membership of 1,125. A number of revivals have been held, resulting in 1,300 converts, 1900 of whom have been received into the church on probation. The largest ingathering has been at Middletown, there being about 160 converted, and 136 joined the church."

Rev. Dr. A. J. Kynett, secretary of the board of church extension, made a short statement of the work of church extension.

Rev. J. L. Hurlburt, secretary of the Sunday-School Society, also made an address.

The troubles last year existing in Dover District were reported as healing, and the district work progressing pleasantly.

The reports relative to camp meeting were anything but encouraging, the baneful effects reported being in many cases the disorganization of congregations and Sunday schools.

The anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was held in the afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Thompkinson presided and Miss Fannie Sparks, of India, made an address. At night the anniversary of the Conference Missionary Society was held, ex-Governor Biggs presiding and Chapiain C. C. McCabe making the address.

FRIDAY.

By an overwhelming majority it was decided to hold the next session of conference at Salisbury. Four places were put in nomination: Salisbury, Md., Laurel, Del., Lewes, Del., and Smyrna, Del., Smyrna withdrew her invitation. The vote stood: Salisbury, 59 votes, Laurel 24 and Smyrna 26. Salisbury was then made the unanimous choice of the body.

Rev. W. L. S. Murray, submitted a memorial from Wesley Church, Dover, to the effect that the Conference admit no preacher who cannot pass an examination up to the standard of the graduating class of the Conference Academy at Dover.

The contribution of Easton District for missions amounted to $5,099, an increase of $55. General summary—Raised this year, $25,637; conference collection, $569; increase over last year $140. The report of the treasurer among others showed the following receipts from Kent: Chestertown, $300; Galena and Locust Grove $135; Millington, $87; Piney Neck, $20; Pomona, 80; Rock Hall, 80; Salem and Zion, $40; Still Pond, $160. In Queen Anne's: Centreville, $250; Church Hill, $140; Crumpton, $30.

Fred E. McKinsey, of Massey's, was continued on trial in the first year's class.

A large number of members of the various Epworth Leagues throughout the conference, with many of the ministers held a meeting at the Opera House in the afternoon and organized a conference Epworth League. Rev. R. K. Stephenson, was elected president; Rev Vaughn S. Collins, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. N. M. Browne presided at the meeting of the anniversary of the Woman's Home Missionery Society in the afternoon. Mrs. Emma L. Weldin read the report of the year's work, and Rev. J. C. Dobbins, pastor of Grace Church, Wilmington, made an address. At night an Epworth League mass-meeting was held in the Opera House.

Rev. J. H. Caldwell, T. E. Martindale, John France and Rev. R. H. Adams were elected trustees of the Conference Academy.

SATURDAY.

The endowment fund committee, which has charge of the fund from which superannuated preachers and widows and orphans of preachers are aided, submitted their report, which was made the special order of business for Monday morning. It was proposed that one Sunday of each year be set apart as veterans' day, on which a special collection shall be taken. All the amounts received shall be divided, in the ratio of three to one, into two funds, to be known, respectively, as the annuity and necessitous funds, the second being supplementary to the first. Out of the first, or annuity fund, it is proposed to pay each superannuated preacher $10 for each year of service, to widows one half of this amomnt and to children one-fifth. If the annuity fund is not sufficient the necessitous fund is to be used for its pro rata. Each minister is urged to give at least $5 annually toward the fund.

SUNDAY'S PROGRAMME.

Love Feast services in M. E. Church 9 A. M., J. B. Quigg; preaching at 10.30 A. M., Bishop Merrill; preaching, Forest Presbyterian Church, 10.30 A. M., Robert Watt; Ordination service of Deacons and Elders, 2 P.M.; Temperance Mass meeting 3 P. M., Hon. F. Turner; Veteran services, M. E. Church, 7.30 P. M., J. B. AS TO CHURCH ORIGIN.

CHURCH HILL, MD., March 17, 1893.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT:—Don't be to severe on the professor when he returns from Europe, for every well-informed school-boy, who has ever turned the pages of an English history, knows that Henry VIII was the founder of what is known as the Church of England.

Grant the "fact" about the 999-year lease, given away back in the 9th century. Like Westminster Abbey, and many other Catholic churches, it was built by the Catholics and stolen from them, together with the right to the lease.

But if Henry VIII wasn't the founder of the English Schism, who was its founder? Certain it is, that Henry VIII was a Catholic, and paid annats to Rome, till Rome refused to grant a dispensation for him to marry Anne Boleyn while his lawful wife, Catherine, still lived.

Listen to the words of a Protestant historian: "The house of peers sent a remonstrating letter to the Pope, warning him of what would follow if a divorce should not be granted. * * * From this time dates "The Anglican Schism." The convocation praying to the king: "May it please your highness to ordain in this present Parliament that the obedience of your highness, and of the people be withdrawn from the see of Rome." Appleton's American Cyclopædia, vol. VIII, p. 651. VERITATIS AMATOR.
