CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT SUPPLEMENT.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1893.

CAROLINE, it is stated, is to have another paper. Col. Philip W. Downes, and Edwin C. Fields, clerk of the circuit court for Caroline county, have purchased the material of the defunct Centreville Advocate, and will remove the plant to Denton, where they will start a new Democratic paper.

RELATIVE to the new public building, to be located on the old market house square, no definite statement of progress can be made at present by those at Washington, who have promised to assist in every way possible to secure the improvement. Chestertown is ready and anxious to move in the matter.

NOTHING DEFINTE has as yet been accomplished in regard to the establishment of a shirt and overall factory in Chestertown. Mr. Johnson has been invited to visit Chestertown, which he may do at an early date. The labor is ready, and our citizens are only awaiting an opportunity to asaist in a speedy consummation of all necessary arrangements.

ITEMS FROM CRUMPTON.

Matrimonial Events—The Band Preparing for the Approaching Campaign.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT:—The Crumpton band, for some time silent, is now busy tuning and tooting in preparation for the return of the bridegroom (Doctor Sheppard), and the bride. Like the Virgins in the parable, they know not the day nor the hour when he may come They (the members of the band) talk of getting new horns in anticipation of the approaching political canvass. The political buds, like the blossoms of the apple tree begin to come out quite lively. Some of our local politicians have gone to Centreville to-day in this interest.

Rev. Mr. Hodge, of the M. P. Church, this place, preached his first sermon at Providence and here last Sabbath to large and overflowing congregations. He seems to be about 30 years of age, is married and has one child. His sister accompanied them to their new home.

It is reported that the Seventh-day baptists and Adventists are to have another baptism in the river next Sunday. They are expected by some to come to Crumpton this summer. There is plenty of ground on which to pitch their tent and abundance of water in the river.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Ada Orem to Mr. James Bowers, on the 10th of May in the M. E. Church in this place, at 11 o'clock A M.

Miss Hazel, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting Mrs. Charles Bradley, returned home yesterday. Miss Carrie Bradley accompanied her back to the city.

Mrs. Swartz, one of our most excellent ladies, was warmly greeted on her return from Kent Island, where she had been to attend the marriage of her father, Mr. Carville.

Mr. James Nickerson has lately moved among us, and lives in the Mrs. Sheats house, on Front street.

The death of one of the twins of Mr. Alday Clements, which occurred last week, was a sore bereavement to the family. Both were girls about two years old, and bore the names of the father and mother. Fannie was taken and Aldiea is left.

It has been quite deathly among the colored people in this neighborhood. Wm. Holliday, one of our freeholders, and a very worthy man died at his home in Pondtown on Sunday, the 30th, of pneumonia.

May 3d, 1893. BENTLY BARD.

BETTERTON NOTES.

Fishing Galore—Improvements Being Made.

TO THE TRANSCRIPT.—Shad fishing is absorbing all the time of the men here just now, very few of our citizens being engaged in anything else. The season has been good, mainly on account of the high prices ruling, for fish are not especially abundant. Herring have been doing well and shad selling for about 30 and 18. Philadelphia has been the best market.

Messrs. Staveley and Bowers have commenced work on the Betterton House, and the building will soon be inclosed. The hotel will be a great improvement to the place and will be convenient and modern in all of its appointments.

Mrs. Sarah Wilmer has moved into her new home, which is receiving a neat coat of paint and makes a good appearance.

The steamer Sassafras is making round trips and is carrying plenty of freight. She reaches Betterton returning from Baltimore at 7 P. M., sharp.

The steamer Anthony Groves, built for the Ericsson line, it is expected will be put on the regular route between Baltimore and Philadelphia about the first or middle of this month.

The bug-eye loaded with 1800 bushels of oysters, which sank in the bay opposite the wharf a couple of weeks ago, is being raised by a wrecking machine. Every one has been liberally supplied with the oysters, which are first-class.

Mrs. Annie Brice paid a visit to Baltimore last week.

Capt. John Brice has returned to Betterton, after a short sojourn at Plum Point.

Capt. Geo. W. Moore will begin his new residence about June 1. Staveley & Bowers will do the work.

OLD SALT.

MATTERS IN GALENA.

Interesting Locals from the Seat of the Big Fire.

Miss Emma Hyland and Miss Lena Ireland will attend the Epworth League Convention, which will be held in Centreville on May 3, as delegates from the Galena Chapter, and Miss L. K. Scott will also attend in her capacity as third vice-president of this district.

Dr. A. H. Dickinson has removed to Baltimore. Thus Galena has been deprived of one of her best citizens by the fire, and his loss will be greatly felt by many of our people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pennington have returned from visiting Atlantic City and other points.

Mrs. Edith Phelps, of Milford, Del., who has been the guest of Mrs. Wm. Rodgers for the past month, will spend a week or more with Mrs. Retta Hall, of Cecil.

Mrs. Harry Todd, of Tolchester, is now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parr, of this town.

Our town, which has been incorporated since about 1865, held for the first time since she has received her charter the annual election of town commissioners, on Monday, at 1 o'clock P. M., at Miller's hotel, which resulted in the election of the following persons: Dr J W Latimer, J T Pennington, C E Lane, P F Pearce and W T Hicks.

We expect to see most of our burned buildings go up again as soon as the insurance is settled, but as yet there is very little being done.

Our farmers are about done planting corn, and those who have trees expect to have a full crop of peaches this season.

Court Notes.

Orphans' Court, Tuesday, May 2.—Present, Judges Harris, Moffett and Burgess. Wm. M. Slay, trustee for Wm. G. and Rodert G. Ringgold, passed trust account for 1892. Wm. M. Slay, guardian to Edna Ringgold, passed his first and final guardian account. Stephen Kendall, adm'r of James H. Kendall, passed his first and final administration account.

County Commissioners, Tuesday, May 2.—The board of county commissioners met with full board present. Clarence S. Hurlock, county treasurer, presented his official report for April, which was accepted and directed to be filed by order thereon. James W. Ivens, collector for 1888 and 1890, passed his check on the Chestertown National Bank for balance due of levies in his hands, subject to the order of the county commissioners, and interest thereon amounting to $269 91, which is in full settlement of his accounts for said years, which was approved and credit ordered to be given. Capt. James H. Thompson presented his report for one year as wharf master, and paid into the hands of the board $50 77 as wharfage collected, after deducting his per centage, which was accepted and directed to be filed. James W. Roe, keeper of the standard of weights and measures, presented his report, which was accepted and directed to be filed by order of the board. George W. Gale's recommendation for constable in the fifth district, was approved and said Gale was appointed constable of Kent county in and for said district, for two years, by order of the board. Fannie Banks, colored, who was recommended for a pension, was allowed $10, and ordered to be provided for by levy. Albert L. Corey presented his bond as supervisor of road section No. 16, which was approved, accepted and ordered to be filed, by order of the board. The board was further engaged in examining, approving and passing accounts for levy in 1893, and noting transfers and abatements.
