Meeting of County Executive Committee

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of Kent county, will meet at the Court House, in Chestertown, on TUESDAY, June 20, instant, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of fixing upon a day for making the nominations, and other necessary business.

WM. S. WALKER,
Chairman Co. Exec. Committee.

The following are the members of the County Executive Committee.

First District—J. F. Ernest, Thomas E. Roe, James R. Hicks, T. M. Britton, N. E. Pennington.

Second—Dennis J. Nowland, Garrett Foxwell, Wm. J. Hurlock, George O. Roeder, W. F. Melvin.

Fifth—Thos. J. Vickers, R. B. Willson, Jr., John Hadaway, James Kelley, George Hatcherson.

THE SUBJECT of the Chestertown postoffice appointment is being quietly incorporated with the general fixing up of county political matters, and the next postmaster has been as definitely agreed upon by the moulders of public opinion in Kent, as has the general complexion of the next local ticket. There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip, however.

AT THE MEETING of a number of gentlemen of strong temperance proclivities, held in Still Pond on Wednesday of last week, as noted in our last issue, it was decided to hold a convention at Still Pond on the third Tuesday in July, for the purpose of nominating a full prohibition ticket for Kent county. The gentlemen were thoroughly in earnest, and an energetic and aggressive campaign is proposed.

WILLIAM PINKNEY, the murderer of Francis M. Bowie, was recaptured in Prince George's county, on Sunday night. Pinkney was sentenced to be hanged June 30, but escaped from Marlboro jail on the morning of May 25, about eight o'clock. When surrounded, Pinkney surrendered and begged not to be shot. The wound on his leg caused by the shackles when he escaped, has nearly healed up. Pinkney was tracked by his captors into a deep ravine on the farm of C. J. Bonaparte, Esq. The rewards offered for Pinkney's arrest aggregate $750.

THE approach of warm weather has developed no tendency to subdue the ardor of the political hosts now in the field, and the situation continues to daily become more animated and interesting. The grand sachems are drilling "the boys" and the campaign of education goes quietly on. Little Lord Fauntleroy, of Chestertown, daily and hourly visits his political sponsor, and thus the vice voci instructions are disseminated throughout the county and State. The sheriffalty contest is being worked in the first district with such oppressive secrecy, that only the very knowing ones are able to say who will be Sheriff after November next. Dr. Clark for the Legislature, it is generally claimed is a foregone conclusion. Kennedyville stands serenely by and quietly affirms that she will only indirectly participate in the political game of chess, but states that "somebody" will find themselves not in it, when the political roll is called. Worton has an animated state of affairs in the contest of Sheriff Plummer and Samuel Cooper for Legislative honors. Plummer's friends assert that they are "the people," while the gauntlet is taken up by the Cooper phalanx and the air reverberates with, "yes, but we will knock the persimmons." It is sheriff Ford, Sheriff Dugan or Sheriff Dodd, anything to please the particular guests. All are represented. The fourth district clings to the sheriffalty contest with peculiar relish and the fertile resources of the delectable trio is abundantly shown. The more pious and sympathetically inclined rely upon church, an honored son of an illustrious sire, financial needs, etc., to woo the wavering. While others more vigorously appeal to less delicate senses. This is the distribution point, the switch-board of the entire electrical system, and instructions are sent out. Here an interest is felt in all, (a cosmopolitan people, truly.) In the fifth the Legislative honors are contested for by Capt. James B. Willson and T. Romie Strong with a claimed, delightful uncertainty.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, on Thursday last, appointed Hon. Murray Vandiver, of Harford county, Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Maryland, Delaware and a part of Virginia. While Mr. Vandiver is a gentleman of business capacity and experience, and unquestionably qualified to discharge the duties of the position to which he has been appointed, it were useless to say that his appointment is entirely acceptable, or that it will have a reassuring effect upon the independent voting masses of the State. It was scarcely to be expected that Mr. Cleveland would ignore the wishes of the element in this State, which, supplemented by the efforts of a similar element throughout the country, not only made his nomination and subsequent election possible, but rendered it an absolute necessity, in spite of the vote of Mr. Vandiver and other representatives of spoils politics to the contrary. There are a great number of persons in Maryland, who, rising superior to the influences of machine politics, and the sophistries of political henchmen, are sorely disappointed that the President could not see his way clear to the appointment of Hon. Philip D. Laird. Our unswerving faith in the sincerity of purpose of the President, his large statesmanship and fearless integrity, removes all desire to criticise his action adversely, and until some further evidence is given of his having surrendered to the spoilsmen in State and national politics, our faith in the man will remain unshaken. The President has by this appointment, at least, silenced the blatant assertions of his calumniators, who charge that he is using his high office to build up a personal party, and has risen superior to the charge of using his position to punish political enemies. With his broader vision and more thorough acquaintance with national affairs, however great our disappointment may be, we are still willing to trust that great American, Grover Cleveland.

NEVER BEFORE, possibly, have the people of Kent county been so strongly reminded of the necessity of pausing to consider the merits of the gentlemen aspiring to political preferment. The people are called upon to assert intelligently and conscientiously that greatest blessing of citizenship in a free and great nation, the right of franchise. Let the people rise superior to the sophistries of politicians and time-servers, and vote upon the merits of candidates, and not subservient to the dictates or commands of a political machine. Exercise the right of independent thought and untrammelled action.

TO HANDLE THE PEACH CROP.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., June 12, '93.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT—DEAR SIRS: In view of the large crop of peaches expected this season, a timely word seems needed in behalf of the farmers. Ought not some action to be taken looking to the doing away with the middlemen or shippers? It is suggested that the growers, who ship from given stations on the railroad, should sign an agreement to deliver no fruit whatever to any shipper, but that they will load their peaches in a car and ship to such city as those having the majority of fruit on the car shall designate. If such an agreement is executed by the growers generally, one which can be enforced, and is faithfully carried out, then the shippers, that miserable class of vultures who have swooped down upon the peach-growers in the years past, will be done away with, at the same time honest, legitimate buyers of peaches will be welcomed and encouraged to locate at all the shipping points in Kent county. The mere fact of the presence of shippers as distinguished from buyers, has in the past prevented a large number of the buyers from even appearing in this section.

Yours respectfully,
FRUIT-GROWER.

The Farmers Institute of Kent county, Del., has called a mass meeting of the peach growers of the Peninsula, to be held in Dover, Del., on Wednesday June 15, at 11 A. M. to devise measures to more widely distribute the peach crop of 1893. It is proposed to select a man to canvass northern and western markets to arrange for selling peaches in the smaller towns. We have been requested to call attention to this movement in which the peach growers of Kent and Queen Anne's counties should be deeply interested. The Farmers Institute of Kent county, Delaware, have adopted the following circular and will extensively circulate the same among the fruit growers of the Peninsula: "From present appearances the peach crop of the Delaware and Chesapeake Peninsula will be very large and the fruit fine, and the attention of dealers and consumers is invited to these facts. If proper facilities of transportation are afforded and proper arrangements for sale and distribution are made in time, every town within a thousand miles can be supplied with good fruit at reasonable prices. That this may be done we invite dealers at all accessible points to prepare at once for handling the crop. Cars can be sent to any point on the railroads. Buyers can order by letter or come in person and inspect and select before buying. All sales are made for spot cash, but fruit may be consigned for sale on commission to responsible parties." Let Kent county growers move in this matter.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF EASTON.

The twenty-fifth annual convention of the Diocese of Easton, met in St. Paul's Church, Centreville, and remained in session on the 6th and 7th of June. On Monday night preceding the meeting of convention, there was a service, and a sermon preached by Rev. Robert Scott, of Snow Hill. On Tuesday morning there was service in the church, and a sermon on Missions, preached by Rev. Henry B. Martin, M. D., of Princess Anne, followed by the celebration of the Holy Communion, after which the convention was called to order by the bishop, and the roll of clergy called. Of those entitled to seats, twenty answered to their names, eight being absent and two not entitled to seats. Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell, president of the standing committee, was elected president of the convention. Rev. Mr. Mitchell, who for many years has served as secretary of the convention, having declined a re-election, a rising vote of thanks by the convention was passed for his faithful and unrewarded services. The roll of the lay delegates being called, twenty-two answered to their names, and during the sessions of the convention there were present twenty-one clergy and twenty-four lay delegates. Rev. Jas. L. Bryan, M. D., was elected secretary of the convention to fill the vacancy occasioned by the declension of Rev. Mr. Mitchell. The convention then took a recess until after dinner, when it re-assembled for the transaction of business. The bishop called the convention to order and announced the several committees necessary to the organization of the convention, and the usual routine of business required to be disposed of, after which all business laid over from last convention was called up, and disposed of after being fully discussed. Mr. W. S. Walker was appointed assistant secretary. The convention was then entertained by a most interesting and instructive address, delivered with much force, by Judge Prince, of New Mexico, explaining the workings of the "Church Building Fund Commission," after which the convention adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock. On re-assembling at the appointed hour, after a short service, the bishop read his address. Addresses on the subject of Missions were delivered by Rev. Geo. C. Sutton, S. C. Roberts and Geo. F. Beaven, after which the convention adjourned to meet on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Early Communion was celebrated at 7 o'clock, and the convention assembled for business in the church at 10 o'clock. Resolutions of respect, regret and condolence with surviving relatives were read, and after addresses in commemoration of Rev. Dr. Barber and Rev. Mr. Clute, who had died during the past convention year, were passed by a rising vote. The various committees then made their reports, the standing committee, the trustees of the Episcopal fund, the board of diocesan missions, the clergy relief fund, managers of the trust fund, after which the report of the treasurer of the convention, the treasurer of the clergy relief fund, the home for friendless children, treasurer of diocesan missions and the trustees of the Episcopal fund were presented and accepted. Rev. Mr. Baldwin was elected Registrar of the Diocese, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of Rev. Mr. Buck from the diocese. The election of committees being next in order, the standing committee of last year was elected, and the several committees were continued as of last year. The report of the committee on the Vestry Act of 1798, produced considerable discussion of a very animated character. The next session of the convention was appointed to meet on the first Tuesday in June, 1894, in Trinity Church, Elkton.

After a very prolonged session the convention adjourned, to meet at 8 P. M. At the evening session, the bishop being called away, Rev. Mr. Mitchell presided over the deliberations of the convention. A delegation of ladies representing the branch in this Diocese, of the Woman's Auxiliary, addresses in behalf of that organization, were delivered by Revs. Geo. C. Sutton, H. B. Martin, Dr. Duncan and S. C. Roberts. The committee on the state of the church reported the diocese to be in a sound healthy condition, with many evidences of steady progress and marked improvement. Resolutions were passed thanking the vestry of the church, the members of the congregation and the citizens, for their marked attention and warm hospitality, the choir for their excellent music and the rail road co. for their kindness in issuing reduced tickets to the members of the convention. The "Gloria in Excelsis" was then sung by the large congregation present, and after prayer, and the benediction by the president, the convention adjourned to meet in Elkton on the 2d Tuesday in June.

Kent County
SAVINGS BANK!
Its Plans and Advantages!

THE primary object of this Bank is to make money for its stockholders and permanent depositors; to foster and encourage habits of providence in the people of Kent and adjoining counties, and especially of young people and those of small means, and to protect and promote their interest when they become permanent depositors.

The Kent County Savings Bank will be open for business July 1, 1893, at Chestertown, opposite the Kent News building—bank hours from 9 A.M. to 3 P. M. daily, and from 7 to 9 on every Saturday evening. We pay 3 per cent. interest on deposits if left on time, and take as small amounts as 25 cents.

You can deposit any amount in this bank and check it out as you wish, or you can leave the whole or any part of it on interest by so arranging it with the cashier when making your deposit.

We receive the accounts of any person, corporation, lodge or association subject to check, or on interest, just as the depositor wishes.

All accounts will be strictly private, as under our by-laws the directors of the bank are not allowed to pry into depositors' accounts. Every facility will be accorded our depositors in the transaction of their bank business that any bank can offer.

We will loan money on Note, Stocks, Bonds, Mortgages or any approved security. While we are here to do business and make a paying institution of the Kent County Savings Bank, we shall exercise the greatest caution that its patrons, depositors and stockholders shall be fully protected and their best interest looked after.

We have secured two of the well-known Diebold Fire and Burglar Proof Safes of the most modern and approved patents to secure against loss by either fire or burglars. The cashier will have his family residence in the building, thus insuring the presence of some one in the bank or adjoining rooms at all times.

We invite you to visit us and examine our methods of doing business.

If you wish to borrow we loan you money at simple interest, and do not take the interest off you in advance.

We believe we can be of service to you and ask you to deposit with us in any manner that suits your convenience.

PRESIDENT.

Card No. 5.

The things we prize most, are not the gewjaws and jimcracks we gather about us. Every life of course has its sacred tinseled treasures, but in this practical work-a-day world man is prone to value most those things which serve him best. Not much sentiment in this perhaps, but some sense all the same. The McCORMICK MACHINE of steel takes first rank the world over. Hundreds of thousands of grain growers call it the best harvester and binder that ever went into a grain field, and they prize it accordingly. It isn't sentiment with them, it is just plain old-fashioned common sense. They like it best because it serves them best. The machine of steel is built to harvest the grain crop of the world, and to do it better than any other machine. And it will do it don't you forget it.

It adjoins the magnificent estates of James W. Chapman, J. Biddle Hossinger and others, and lies in the finest agricultural section of Kent county, within one mile of churches, schools, postoffice, telegraph, creamery, etc.

The Improvements consist of

vs.
David James Smyth, Sarah Smyth, Samuel Orr, Jr., Maria Orr, Mary E. Twaddell, James Twaddell, Jane Leitch, Malcom Leitch, Benjamin Orr, Isabella Orr, Lawrence Orr, William James Orr, Mamie Orr.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate situated in Kent county, Maryland, and the distribution of the proceeds of sale among the persons entitled to the same.

The bill states that by an order of this court passed on the 27th day of April, 1893, leave was granted to the complainants in this cause to file an amended bill of complaint, the object of which was to suggest the death of Lawrence Orr, one of the defendants named in their original bill of complaint, and to make Lawrence Orr, William James Orr and Mamie Orr, children and heirs at law of the said Lawrence Orr, defendants in the cause, which amended bill charges all the matters and things alleged in said original bill of complaint.

The bill states that John Smyth, late of the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, deceased, was, in his lifetime, and at the time of his death, seized in fee simple of certain real estate, consisting of a farm of 115 acres of land, more or less, lying in the First Election District of Kent county, Maryland, on the road leading from Crumpton to Millington, which he purchased in his lifetime of George Vickers, trustee for the sale of the real estate of Richard Embry, deceased. That being so seized the said John Smyth departed this life in the year 1873, without leaving a widow surviving him, and leaving the following heirs at law: David Smyth and Ellen Orr; that David Smyth has since departed this life leaving the said David James Smyth, his only son and heir at law, and Sarah Smyth, his widow, and the said David Smyth likewise left a paper which it is pretended, was his last will and testament, devising all of his real estate to the said David James Smyth subject to the dower of the said Ellen Smyth, which said will was offered for probate in the office of the register of wills in the city of Philadelphia, but a caveat was filed thereto, which caveat has never as yet been disposed of, and the said Ellen Orr hath also died intestate during the lifetime of her father, John Smyth, and the said Ellen Orr left her husband, Samuel Orr, surviving her, and the following children and heirs at law: Samuel Orr, Jr., who intermarried with Maria Kendig, now Maria Orr; Mary E. Twaddell, who intermarried with James Twaddell; John Orr, your orator, James Orr, Jane Leitch, the wife of Malcom Leitch, Benjamin Orr, who intermarried with Isabella McNutt, now Isabella Orr, and Lawrence Orr, who has since departed this life, leaving the following children and heirs at law, namely: the said Lawrence Orr, William James Orr and Mamie Orr, both of whom are infants under the age of twenty-one years, and all the children or grandchildren of the said Ellen Orr by the said Samuel Orr, Sr. All the said parties in interest are of full age, except David James Smyth, Lawrence Orr, William James Orr and Mamie Orr, who are infants under twenty
