FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR:

MILTON MELVIN,
of the third district.

MUCH personal matter is forced out of this issue.

THE Bering Sea decision has been made against the United States at all points.

IT IS NOW proposed to celebrate Maryland Day at the World's Fair by representing in a magnificent display of fire works, the bombardment of Fort McHenry.

TALBOT is rusticating in a political muddle, while Kent is enjoying a mid-summer political love-feast. It beats a muddle all hollow, but Talbot is hankering for variety.

IT IS NOW generally understood that any bill which may be passed having in view the free coinage of silver, it matters not what may be the ratio, will suffer death at the hands of President Cleveland.

THE Baltimore Sunday News has discovered "some straws that point to better times." Kent county will take the whole stackyard, one-third cash and the balance on a ninety days' note secured by the peach crop.

AFTER ALL has been said and done by would-be critics, by universal consent, Mr. Cleveland's message to Congress is conceded to be a masterly State paper. He points out our financial difficulties and their causes, and leaves Congress to apply the remedy.

MR. WILLIAM H. CECIL, the nominee for clerk, in Queen Anne's county, was in Chestertown yesterday and paid the TRANSCRIPT a pleasant call. Mr. Cecil is jubilant over his recent victory, and stated that the fight was one of the warmest in which he ever took part. He played good politics and won.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS last week nominated Professor Oliver H. Bruce, of Allegany county, for Comptroller. Mr. Geo. W. Covington, of Still Pond, was first vice-president of the convention. Others present from Kent were: Messrs. J. R. Jarrell, W. S. Culp, C. S. York, B. F. H. Caulk, Henry Kruszn, E. Apsley.

FOURTEEN CASES of pure and unadulterated Asiatic Cholera are housed up in quarantine near New York. With the strenuous efforts which have been made, it is believed that the health officers will be able to prevent a spread of the disease. The prevalence of cholera in our large eastern centres of population would be a stunning blow to the great peach interests of the different sections.

FORTUNE is said to be rapping at the door of the senior Senator from Maryland, and if the good dame doesn't look sharp she will find the latch string on the outside and will get in. Mr. Gorman is a man who usually knows a good thing when he sees it, and opportunities rarely fail to find him ready and willing to mount Mr. Shakspeare's flood tide which leads on to fortune.

RENDERING UP FAT within the town limits is an intolerable nuisance which stringent efforts should be made to stop. A one dollar fine is not a sufficient check to those who are so inconsiderate of the comfort and health of others as to render existence almost unbearable, by forcing them to shut themselves in behind barred windows and doors at night, with the thermometer up near the nineties.

IT IS WITH PLEASURE that we again welcome the Snow Hill Messinger to our exchange table. The plant of the sturdy, progressive journal was destroyed last week by fire, and with commendabl energy now comes out to its subscribers we hope for a long, prosperous and vigorous life. We extend most sincere congratulations to our contemporary, the Messenger, and our sympathy as well to our journalistic neighbors and their friends.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is at Buzzard's Bay, Vice-President Stevenson is in Philadelphia, Secretary Gresham, Secretary Carlisle and Postmaster-General Bissell are at Deer Park, where their wives are spending the hot season. Secretary Lamont is in New York, and Secretary Herbert and Secretary Morton are in Philadelphia, and the government is quietly running itself, or placidly drifting on toward the haven of no Sherman Act and a more reassuring financial situation.

HON. W. C. P. BRECKINRIDGE, orator and statesman, has been sued in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for fifty thousand dollars, to compensate Miss Madeline V. Pollard for her wounded affections. Miss Pollard claims that the Kentucky Congressman promised to marry her—"and she really thought he would," but he afterward married his present wife. The more serious charge of seduction is also laid against the eminent lecturer before religious assemblies.

PROF. M. A. NEWELL, known personally to many persons in Kent conuty, died at his home in Havre de Grace, on Monday morning, of dropsical affection, Professor Newell was one of the most prominent educators of the State, and was for a number of years principal of the State Normal School, Baltimore. He was born at Belfast, Ireland, in 1824. No man in Maryland was ever more deeply interested in educational work, and possibly no man has ever done more to elevate and advance the system of the present efficient public school work. His friends among the teachers of the State are legion.

THE CITY COUNCIL of Salisbury is to be petitioned at its next meeting, to pass an ordinance prohibiting the sending out of that town its fire engine to neighboring towns when such neighboring towns are in distress. It is very surprising that the people of so thriving and progressive a town should be guilty of so unwarranted an inconsistency. The Advertiser, of that town, says:

"Salisbury has had misfortunes, 'woes innumerable.' She has asked help many times and received. In 1886, the people of Crisfield rendered us valuable services with their fire engine.

"They risked their own property to do so. Shall we now serve notice upon these people and other kind neighbors that we can now take care of ourselves and we 'neither lend nor borrow.'"

Of course there is some risk, but those who are taking this step may be challenged, without hesitation, to point out an instance where a conflagration has occurred at home while the local fire department was absent on a mission of common humanity and mercy.

A DELIGHTFUL SEASON of quiet has settled upon Democratic Kent, and next comes the mysteries which must be evolved from the Republican convention, which is called to meet on August 22, in Chestertown. In accordance with the call of the Republican central committee, primaries will be held in the respective election districts on Saturday, August 19, between the hours of four and seven o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the nominating convention to be held in Chestertown on the following Tuesday. The interesting question of the situation is, will or will not a full local ticket be nominated? Some claim that the entire Prohibition ticket will be indorsed, while others insist that only a portion of the ticket will be taken. It is further claimed, that like their brothers in Baltimore county, a commissioner's ticket will also be put in the field, Mr. Poe's opinion and legislative enactment to the contrary notwithstanding. So it may be readily seen why the general outcome of the convention of the twenty-second instant is fraught with more than usual interest to all parties. While many are confident that a full ticket will be nominated, it is claimed by prominent Republicans that no ticket at all will be made.

POCOMOKE CITY, Worcester county, suffered from a conflagration which swept away $125,000 dollars, in July of 1892. In August Delmar was visited by a $100,000 fire, and Cambridge in July of the same year had $65,000 worth of property go up in smoke. One of the most effective safeguards against these devastating visitations of the fire fiend, is for property holders to build only brick structures in the deusely populated and business centres of our towns. Many towns have gone so far as to require it, and without an exception has this been done in the towns where costly experience has come in to suggest its expediency. Might not Chestertown profit by the experience of her unfortunate neighbors. The Baltimore Sun says:

"Hagerstown, Cumberland and Snow Hill, too, after its very recent experience of a disastrous conflagration, are all in accord in the prohibition of frame buildings within certain limits. This is good progress, because nothing could be clearer than the fact that if our towns and cities continue to neglect any or every protective regulation, it will be impossible after a while to place insurance on their property. There are sufferers in Snow Hill to-day on this account, and if fire should occur, as it is liable to do at any moment, in some other towns where building regulations have been neglected, and where there is no water supply and no fire apparatus, there would be many others to keep them company in misery. The insurance companies are looking more closely than ever into local conditions before taking risks, and the people of the towns will find it to their best interest to have competent managers for their local affairs."

A WORD TO PEACH SHIPPERS.

MESSRS. COLLINS & HOPPER.—Gents: Now the peach season is on, I would like to give the peach shippers a few pointers about fruit. First, in shipping to Boston ship none but the best of your fruit. Second, use more care in loading your cars, do not place the baskets loosely on the shelves in the cars, but drive a small lath nail in the bottom of every third row of baskets on the tiers or shelves holding them fast to the boards and not allowing them to tip over and spill as they now do, thereby entailing a great loss in the condition of the fruit when it reaches Boston, and a great delay in picking them up from the car floor, and the consequent loss of a number of baskets in each car. The peaches shipped to Boston are shifted at Grays Ferry, once at Jersey City, at Harlem river, at Providence, and anyone can see that baskets should be made secure enough in the car to stand the shifting that must be necessary in their transit from the orchard to Boston. I know what I am speaking of, for I see all the cars that come to Boston and see the condition of some when they get here with the baskets all turned over and know what the loss is, and that it falls on the farmer. I hope you will consider this advice worth giving to your readers. I look out for the peach train on its arrival in Boston, and the condition of some of the cars prompted me to write this.

I am yours truly,
FRANK D. JUSTIS.

PEACH NOTES OF INTEREST.

The peach crop in Washington county is reported to be enormous. There are three distinctive belts—the Blue mountain, Keedysville and the Cherry run districts. In each of these the yield will be larger than ever before. Mr. John A. Nicodemus' crop, at Edgemont, is estimated to be 100,000 bushels alone. The Blue mountain growers rely on the Galway varieties, which ripen in the latter part of September, for profits. The Galway is a yellow peach and of a hardy nature. It comes into market about the time most other varieties are over. Probably one-fourth of Washington county's crop is of this variety.

A carload of peaches, as a trial shipment, was sent to Chicago last week. The fruit was received in bad condition and would not pay freight.

Mr. John W. Loud did not pick the fruit from 500 trees of the Crawford's Early variety, the fruit being so small and indifferent, as an effect of the drought. A number of pickers brought over from Baltimore to gather the fruit, were returned awaiting the next variety to ripen.

An extensive peach-grower said on Tuesday that the Baltimore people readily pay about twice as much for inferior but well-colored and large premature fruit, as they are willing to pay for well-ripened and delicious peaches of less color and size. Not so in Philadelphia, he said, they know the peach better than that.

Mr. Wilbur Eliason is now working sixty peach plucks in his orchard. The men are given comfortable quarters, are well-fed and each man is allowed two blankets.

Tuesday was in all probability the day of the heaviest shipments of the season to Baltimore. Light street was banked with fruit of all grades, and every boat which came in carried its quota. Prices ranged from 30 to 60 cents per box, and from 20 to 40 cents per basket. Three full cars were sent from Chestertown, and all of the Chester river boats carried over large quantities.

The peach trains leaving Chestertown are at 11 A. M. and 1.45 P. M.

Four cars of peaches were sent from Chestertown station yesterday, the fruit as a rule being of fairly good quality. Buyers were offering from 20 to 30 cents per basket.

The finest fruit offered for sale at Chestertown this season were a number of baskets of Reeves, grown by Mr. Joseph Kendall, of Queen Anne's. The fruit was magnificent in both color and size. Mr. Kendall refused an offer of 50 cents per basket.

Up to yesterday 1059 carloads of peaches had been shipped from the Peninsula via Delaware railroad.

Miss Daisy Garland, daughter of ex-Attorney-General Garland, was mysteriously absent from her home for several days of last week, and was finally found in Baltimore.

The World at Large.

A tramp is held in Elkton jail charged with having caused the destruction by fire of the hay barracks of C. W. Simpers.

The Anchor line steamer Karamania, arrived at New York August 3, and brought the first case of cholera this season.

Five persons were burned in the Senate House, a Chicago fire-trap, on Monday evening. Ten or twelve others were badly injured.

Minneapolis has had a $1,150,000 fire.

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

* * * and unless the persons respectively making such affidavits shall actually return to this State and shall actually take up their abode, domicile or habitation therein six months before the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety, they shall be conclusively presumed to have lost their legal residence therein and shall not be entitled to registration as legal voters, and the officers of registration shall strike off their names from the registry, if they be entered thereon; * * * and if the persons making such affidavits shall fail so to return and take up their actual abode, domicile, dwelling-place and habitation in this State on or before six months next preceding such November election, they shall be conclusively presumed to have abandoned such declared intention, and shall thereupon become disqualified to vote in this State, and the officers of registration shall refuse to register them as qualified voters, or shall strike off their names from the registry if their names be entered thereon; false swearing in any such affidavits shall be deemed to be perjury, and shall be punishable as perjury is by the Code of Public General Laws, article twenty-seven, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Perjury;" said officers of registration shall require the production of such affidavits duly recorded, or a duly certified copy thereof in all cases where they shall have reason to suspect that the person applying to be registered as a qualified voter has lost his residence by reason of his removal from the State hereinbefore mentioned, and they may also in such cases put any question which they may deem proper to such applicant, concerning the place when he dwelt in the county or legislative district before such removal out of the State, his occupation before such removal and since, the time when he so removed, and when he returned, and all other pertinent facts and circumstances touching the right of such person to be registered, and they may require the truth of the answers of all persons to such questions to be corroborated by independent evidence if in their discretion they shall think proper; and if in answer to their questions or upon testimony produced before them it shall appear to their satisfaction that the person applying to be registered had left the State without any intention of returning at some definite time in the future he shall not be entitled to be registered as a legal voter.
