FOR COMPTROLLER.
MARION DeKALB SMITH.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE:
DR. E. G. CLARK, of the first district.
T. ROMIE STRONG, of the fifth district.

FOR SHERIFF:
THOMAS S. DODD, of the fourth district.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR:
MILTON MELVIN, of the third district.

MAYOR TROUT, of Roanoke, Virginia, who left the city because of the indignation against him on account of the claim that he gave the order by which nine citizens were killed and a number wounded, has returned and is being somewhat lionized by a portion of the population.

THE SOMERSET COUNTY OYSTERMEN have had a meeting, at which they declared that "We refuse to abide by the decision of Judges Goff and Hughes, and declare our intention to appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States." The Maryland oystermen were defeated in their claims of rights in the oyster grounds of the Pocomoke sound.

THE resignation of Hon. Murray Vandiver as secretary of the State Central Committee, is said to be looked forward to in the near future. A strong counter move is being made, and a delegation will visit Washington to request that Mr. Vandiver be allowed in addition to his duties as Internal Revenue Collector, to retain the chairmanship.

THE Dorchester Democratic county convention met in Crmbridge, on Tuesday and nominated the following ticket: Senator, Joseph H. Johnson; House of Delegates, W. F. Applegarth, Dr. F. P. Phelps, Levy D. Travers; Sheriff, Wm. C. Dean; County commissioners, John M. Colston, F. E. Loomis, J. Wilson Dail; Surveyor, William Hurlock.

THE subject of forming another judicial circuit on the Eastern Shore is now being discussed. It is proposed to give each county by the new arrangement a resident judge. The Easton Ledger apportions the Shore thus: Have Worcester, Wicomico and Somerset for the First Circuit; Dorchester, Caroline and Talbot for the Second, and Queen Anne's, Kent and Cecil for the Third.

SECRETARY OF STATE, WILLIAM T. BRANTLEY, has had the sample ballots printed for the assistance of the boards of election supervisors. The law requires that samples of these ballots be transmitted to the counties at least thirty days before election. Printed cards of instruction to voters are also furnished by the State. With a little care in examining these instructions and a sample ballot, no one need fear any mistake in casting a ballot accurately under the Australian system.

A WORD FROM GALE'S WHARF.

We dont like to be forgotten altogether here at Gale's Wharf, so we say a few words just to be kept in memory. This place was getting to be more like New York this summer than ever before, we had from 4 to eight boats stopping here every day communicating with Baltimore, Philadelphia and the Western Shore.

This summer, taking it altogether, has been comparatively a successful one, although peaches were not high we had a fairly good crop. Percy G. Skirven being particularly fortunate,he had from 1500 to 1800 baskets of Chaires Choice from 400 trees, and received returns varying from 60 to 85 cents per basket, while others were getting from 20 to 30 cents; it was about the best fruit it has ever been our good fortune to behold, there were hardly any primes—nearly all double extras.

As for tomatoes, we have had them in abundance, quite a number of the farmers around here having contracts with Wm. Numsen & Sons, of Baltimore, who send a tug and schooner over for them every day, some have grown pretty good crops. Mr. Chas. Long, on one of Mr. Thos. Gales farms, has five acres planted, he has already shipped 60 tons and says if the frost holds off for a couple of weeks he will have 20 tons more. Who can beat that? an average of 12 tons to the acre,and he expects before tomatoes are over to average 15 to 16 tons.

Mr. Lawrence Biggs has been shipping from here quite a number of good fish, he sent over 160 bunches in two days this week, most of them them rock, the fish were all good size varying in weight from 1½ to 15 pounds each.

This has been the most successful season Worton Manor Beach has ever had since it has been a pleasure resort, the house has been crowded all the time with a very nice class of people; there were quite a number of families here, father, morther and children, that were seeking a quiet place to spend the summer, they all must have been pleased, for nearly every one promised to come again next summer. Mr. Gale expects a larger crowd than ever next summer and is preparing for them by contracting for a number of cottages to be erected on the grounds next spring.

Things are getting quiet around here now, boarders all gone, peaches ditto, nothing but tomatoes and fish. The farmers are all through cutting corn and are now hard at seeding wheat.

Walter Gale has been down with the hay fever but is better now. A. Vernon Gale, of Philadelphia, has been acting as clerk at the wharf in his place.

Miss Lena Gale has been spending a week with her aunt,Mrs. W. W. Stephens, in Baltimore.

Mrs. Judge Hanna, Mrs. Carstairs, child and French nurse, of Philadelphia, are staying with Mrs. E. R. Richardson.

"ITINERANTS TO MOVE."

Under the above quoted caption, the Peninsula Methodist states that several of its "enterprising cotemporaries" have recently made announcements of probable pastoral changes in the Wilmington Conference, and proceeds to say that the announcements "have very little foundation in the facts of the present situation." It is pretty well known, however, that the "mere guesses" will have much of "fact" thrown round them before the conference has adjourned.

The Methodist says:

"Two of our city pastors have received invitations to churches outside the conference; Dr. John Y. Dobbins, in his third year at Grace, to East Orange, N. J., and Dr. E. L. Hubbard, in his third year at Union, to Madison Square, Baltimore, Md. On consideration of his health, the officiary of Grace acceeded to Dr. Dobbins' request for their consent to his leaving next spring; and the invitation to East Orange was accepted by him, subject to episcopal approval. In the case of Dr. Hubbard, the transfer we understand will certainly be made, if the same August sanction can be secured; the appointment of Dr. Merritt Hulburd, now closing his fifth year's pastorate of Spring-Garden Phila., as Dr. Dobbins' successor at Grace, this city, being subject to the same interesting contingency.

* * * * * *

"As already announced, several pastors have seen fit to notify their respective charges, of a desire to leave at the end of the current conference year. These brethren are Revs. John France in his third year at Scott; Rev. J. P. Otis and Dr. D. F. Waddell, in their second year, respectively, at Brandywine and Madeley; Rev. W. M. Greene in his second year at Farmington, Del.; and Rev. G. W. Townsend, Rev. Asbury Burke and Rev. Vaughan S. Collins, in their third year, respectively, at Denton, East New Market and Centreville, Md.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

In the quaint old city of Annapolis Tuesday evening, Sept. 27, the nineteenth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Maryland, convened in the hall of the House of Delegates.

The convention was called to order by Mrs. Summerfield Baldwin, State president; the scripture reading was given by Rev. Watson Case, of the M. E. Church; prayer was offered by Mrs. J. W. McIlvain, of the Presbyterian Church, and addresses of welcome were delivered by City Councellor Mily, on the part of Annapolis; E. C. Gault in behalf of the bar, Robert Moss on the part of the press; Rev. W. L. McDowell on the pulpit, and Mrs. Case in the local branch of the W. C. T. U.

The hall was beautifully decorated with banners, flags and potted plants. Mrs. Blake, wife of the mayor of Elkton, responded to the address of welcome in words suitable to the occasion.

The day sessions of the convention were held in First M. E. Church, and on Wednesday morning after devotional exercises by Mrs. Martin, of Washington, the president took the chair.

Roll-call by the recording secretary, Miss Small, was followed by the report of executive committee and appointment of committees on credentials, finance, auditing, resolutions, business and courtesies.

The annual report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Margaret Lake, showed that 602 honorary members were enrolled and 206 public meetings and 1,025 prayer and business meetings had been held besides 25 medal contests. $3,309.85 had been raised for the work.

Reports were also submitted by the treasurer and superintendents of departments.

Organizers reports give eighteen new unions, 8 of which belong to the young woman's branch, with a membership of 336, making a total of 164 unions with 3,307 active and about 1000 honorary members. In her annual address in the afternoon Mrs. Baldwin said: "Prohibition is a household work, what a few years ago was thought to be impossible and impractical is being pondered over by parents, statesmen and even the politicians are beginning to wonder if it is not to their interest to consider the question. Everywhere they are trying to pacify the people by suggesting methods to regulate the liquor traffic. Local option, high license, the Evans law have all been tried in vain, for all are learning slowly that God's way is not to regulate evil but to do away with it forever. Before we ever get prohibition that will endure we must teach it in our homes and in our churches; let every boy and girl know that his mother is a total abstainer and it cannot be long before we have prohibition laws on our statute books."

Interesting addresses were delivered in the House of Delegates Wednesday evening by Mrs. Marion Baxter, of Michigan, and W. Frank Tucker, Esq., of Baltimore.

Thursday morning reports of superintendents of departments were continued and the election of officers was held, resulting in the re-election of all the old officers. Bible readings were given on Wednesday and Thursday by Mrs. A. H. Eaton, of Baltimore, and devotional exercises were conducted at the beginning of each session.

Thursday morning the women of the convention were excused to go to the Senate chamber where they held a short conference of their own, the chief results being the appointment of a committee to make arrangements for a general Y conference to be held in Baltimore, in March, the raising of more money for organization purposes and the election of their State Y secretary as a delegate to the National W. C. T. U. Convention in Chicago beginning October 18.

Centreville was unanimously chosen for the next annual convention and delegates from Kent are earnestly wishing that the way may open to invite the convention to Chestertown the following year.

Thursday night was especially "Y" night, the program consisting of music, recitations and an address by Miss Parrish, of Illinois, National "Y" organizer. On the same evening an address was delivered in the State House to men only, by Mrs. Baxter.

Friday morning found most of the delegates wending their way homeward although the executive committee were detained by business until noon, but all united in praising the hospitality of the Annapolis people, a rising vote of thanks having been given to all who had helped to make the convention such a success.

Order of Publication.

John P. Taylor,
vs.
George W. Taylor, Annie Robinson, —— Robinson, Sallie Taylor, Alfred Taylor, Lucy Taylor, Frank Taylor, Jessie Taylor.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

No. 1006.

THE object of this bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of which Alexander Taylor, late of Kent county, Maryland, died, seized and possessed, and for the distribution of the proceeds of such sale among the heirs at law of the said Alexander Taylor, according to their respective interests in the same.

The amended bill states that Alexander Taylor, late of Kent county, Maryland, deceased, was, during his life-time, and at the time of his death, seized and possessed of certain real estate in Kent county, and dying, left the complainant, and George W. Taylor and Annie Robinson as his only heirs at law, as alleged in the original bill of complaint filed in this case.

The bill further states that a certain Sallie Taylor, of Kent county, Maryland, claims that she was the lawful wife, and is now the widow of said Alexander Taylor, which the complainant does not admit, and that four children, namely: Alfred Taylor, Lucy Taylor, Frank Taylor and Jessie Taylor, were born to her in lawful wedlock, by said Alexander Taylor, and that all of said children are still living, and are infants under twenty-one years of age, and have been made parties defendant in this suit.

The bill further states that the said Annie Robinson and —— Robinson, her husband, are not residents of the State of Maryland, but as it is said, reside in the State of Pennsylvania.

It is thereupon ordered, this 26th day of September, 1893, that the complainant, John P. Taylor, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 31st day of October next, give notice to the said non-resident Annie Robinson and —— Robinson, her husband, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 20th day of November next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
