R. HARRISON COLLINS. C. COX HOPPER.

COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

THE GALLANT Fitzhugh Lee is prominently mentioned for the Virginia Senatorship, to succeed Senator Barbour.

RUMORS ARE AGAIN CURRENT that Mr. Cleveland is ill. The report is denied however, and is declared to be absurd.

HON. FERDINAND C. LATROBE, was for the seventh time sworn into the office of Mayor of Baltimore city yesterday.

THE DEFEAT means nothing to Democracy. It means whole volumes to the bosses of both parties.—New York World.

HONDURAS has sent telegraphic apologies to the American goverment for having fired on the United States mailship Costa Rica, flying the American flag.

THE CENTREVILLE Record SAYS: Kent is now the banner county of the State, electing the entire ticket by an average majority of nearly 1000. Queen Anne's will have to look to her laurels heretofore won as the banner county of the State in the Democratic column.

HON. WILLIAM COLLINS, the Talbot county Legislative husler of the last House, and delegate-elect, has announced himself as a candidate for the speakership of the next House. State Senator John Walter Smith, is receiving a boost for the next presidency of the Maryland Senate.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S policy of no annexation of Hawaii is now under fire, but like a great majority of the President's official acts, there is little fear that the impenetrable armor of honesty and broad statesmanship which has always characterized the defence of Mr. Cleveland, will be penetrated by the bean-throwers.

CONGRESS will convene two weeks from next Tuesday, and the probabilities are that another farce will be placed on the congressional stage, with the Tariff issue as the star in the play. The Democracy of the country, with the gentle reminder afforded by the elections of last week, can poorly afford to indulge in such extravagant displays of childish tomfoolery.

A NUMBER of our Republican friends are desirous of locating the "Democratic tidal wave," mentioned in last week's TRANSCRIPT. We respectfully refer them to the official returns from Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties. In extreme Western Maryland the "tidal wave" arrangement was a failure, as also in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, etc.

OUR WIDE-AWAKE contemporary, the Centreville Record, has celebrated its twentieth anniversary. To Colonel Roberts, the veteran editor under whose guidance many of the paper's continued successes have been achieved, we offer congratulations, hoping that both the editor and his journal may continue to live long and prosper. To Junior Editor Smith, we can wish him no better fortune than that an association with the Record so promisingly begun may as successfully continue.

Now that the election is over, and politics can rest for awhile, let us take up the Easton & Northern railroad question. It is important that this road should be built. Do not let the little spasm of activity which Wicomico had about it a few weeks ago, die. The proper development of the Eastern Shore absolutely requires the building of this road. How is the best way to get about it? What can be done? There is a company, a charter and a preliminary survey. When shall the meeting proposed to be held in Easton "after the election" assemble?—Easton Ledger. The sooner the better, let matters be gotten in shape and see what can be done.

CLIFTON P. HAND, the Republican candidate for sheriff in Talbot county, has filed a notice that he will contest the election of William J. Dukes, the Democratic candidate for sheriff, who was returned elected by 512 majority, and promises to disclose awful secrets relative to Democratic methods. It is claimed that the sample ballots furnished by the election supervisors were correctly printed, but that on the official ballots, the face of Abraham Lincoln, the Republican party emblem, was turned the wrong way, and when, in accordance with Republican instructions, voters who put their mark opposite Lincoln's nose voted for the Democratic candidates.

DO NOT fail to read the interesting article on our front page, "The Land of Peaches," from the pen of a western writer to the Chicago Record. The writer enthuses upon the beauties of our "veritable Eden," and declares it to be as "Fair as the Garden of the Lord." Many of our farmers will laugh outright, when the gentleman innocently states, in speaking of fence-rows which have become overrun with perplexing vines, which should long before his advent, have received the tender care of a pruning hook, that on "neatly made rail fences, where careful hands have trained gorgeous trumpet creepers or other vines at ever post." The article is a glowing and deserved tribute to the section through which the tourist passed.

The Official Vote.

The official vote for Kent, as returned on Thursday last, shows a slight modification of the unofficial figures which we gave last week, and in order that the strictest accuracy may appear in the result, we herewith give the official returns:

A colored man on Kent Island, while shooting ducks, was severly injured by the bursting of his gun. His hand was so seriously wounded that Dr. Benton had to amputate it. A piece of the gun was forced through the side of a canoe 60 feet distant.

TO CONTEST THE ELECTION.

Cecil county, like Talbot, finds herself confronted by interesting contested election cases. Says the Cecil Democrat:

When the Return Judges met on Thursday to make their official election returns, they were met with an order from his honor, Judge Stump, requiring them to return all ballots which had not been enclosed in the sealed boxes, but which had been cast at the late election and not counted, being considered as defective.

The order was upon the petition of Mr. Clinton J. White, Republican candidate for sheriff, he alleging in said petition that a number of ballots were thrown out in the fifth election district which should have been counted, and which, had they been counted, would have materially changed the result, inasmuch as the face of the returns gave Mr. Boyd, the Democratic candidate, but eight majority. As the requirement of the law that all ballots cast should be returned, sealed within the ballot boxes, was not complied with, the order of the court was to preserve said ballots pending a recount.

The ballots in question were produced by Mr. Charles W. Simpers the Return Judge of the fifth district. They were examined by Mr. Clinton McCullough on behalf of Mr. Boyd and Mr. R. C. Thackery for Mr. White. They were 31 in number. Mr. McCullough and Mr. Thackery agreeing that 26 should have been counted, 17 appearing to be in favor of Mr. White and 9 in favor of Mr. Boyd.

This being the case the court will be petitioned to order a recount of all votes cast for sheriff at the late election. The matter rests entirely with Judge Stump, who may order a recount and designate certain person or persons to canvass the votes at such time and place and in such manner as he may indicate.

REV. THOMAS O. CROUSE.

The Baltimore Ame ican of Monday, in an historical sketch of Chatsworth Independent Church, Baltimore, gives the following interesting biographical sketch of Rev. Thomas O. Crouse, its pastor, and a gentleman who has hosts of friends in Kent county: "Rev. T. O. Crouse, the pastor of Chatsworth, took charge in April 1890, being loaned by the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. The former pastor, Rev. Dr. J. T. Wightman, is a member of the Maryland Confereuce of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Under Dr. Wightman's pastorate the congregation flourished and prospered, and since Mr. Crouse took charge, as he himself expresses it, the pastorate has been a peaceful one. As a downtown church, there is no great margin for increase, still, progress has been made. Rev. T. O. Crouse was born in Baltimore, January 8, 1852. His father was at the time of his birth an active minister of the Methodist Protestant Church. He is now on the superannuated list, and resides at Westminster, Md. Mr. Crouse graduated at Western Maryland College, at Westminster, Md., in the class of 71. He entered the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in the spring of 1872. His first charge was at Chestertown, Md., as assistant pastor to Rev. John J. Murray. He afterwards served in Queen Anne's county, Talbot county, Alexandria, Va., Harper's Ferry, W. Va., and at Centreville, Md., coming from the latter charge to Chatsworth Church.

Mr. Crouse's friends describe him as a deliberate, clear and forcible speaker, whose utterances are imbued with an attractive life and originality. Socially he is one of the most popular ministers in the city. He finds time enough from his studies to delve into journalism in a modest sort of way, and is the editor of the Chatsworth Visitor, a neat little monthly church paper, which is devoted to the interests of the members of the congregation. As an evidence of how the members of the congregation appreciate their pastor, they recently sent him off to the World's Fair with a purse sufficient to pay all his expenses." Mr. Crouse married Miss Lavinia Russell, daughter of Mr. Alfred Russell, of Chestertown, about eighteen years ago.

FROM CLIFF CITY.

A great many people visited the Cliffs on Sunday to see how nicely the wharf had been repaired, as a note in Kent News recently stated that the Chester River Company had fixed up all their wharves. The people were sadly disappointed, as they found the same old wreck that has been here since the flood. Our people feel badly at being slighted, and many are of the opinion that the company does not intend repairing the wharf until spring, thus causing them to drive five miles to Quaker Neck wharf, as the company will not stop at the wharf for any one. Most of the people having stuff to ship wait till Philadelphia boat day and ship by that means.

The oyster business stands without improvement for 50 to 60 per bushel, and as they are very scarce, men have to hustle to make a respectable showing.

It was a great victory our fellows won in Kent on election day, but, who did they win it from. The Prohibs also claim 10,000 per cent. gain and there was no Republican ticket, the Repubs have all gone to Pennsylvania. The result in other states is mainly chargeable to the dilitary tactics in the extra session. Had Congress repealed the silver bill in the few days necessary, an improvement in business would have been credited to the result, and the Demo's received the benefits of it. Now, no matter how much matters improve, it will be claimed that it is on account of the Republican victories and that confidence is restored with prospect of the G. O. P. again returning to power, and it will be impossible to impress the men who have been idle and now get work, otherwise. The talk of the Democrats in Congress to the effect that they will increase the tax on whiskey, beer and tobacco, had also a damaging effect, for these taxes come from the working classes. If they had removed the present tax on these articles, we would not now mourn over the loss of New York and New Jersey, and we would have probably carried Quaker Neck.

McKendrie Patrick has moved into the house recently vacated by Capt. Jim Hyland. Mc brings with him three valvaluable dogs. When I asked him why he didn't kill them, he was astonished, and said, "why, I wouldn't take a dollar for them." Another neighbor recently sold a magnificent Chester River water-dog, so said to be, to a colored gentleman for 65 cents. The high prices are occasioned on account of their scarcity; there is not over 250 good degs in the lower part of the neck. Mr. Carter has two with enough bark to tan all the leather in the country.

Some wild ducks have made their appearance, and tried to locate in the river, but they found more guns out than they had ducks with them, so they left for quieter places. HIVER.

Peter Pierce, a colored pensioner of Centreville, Queen Anne's county, some time ago, it is claimed, received a check for $224, belonging to a Peter Pierce, of Centreville, Delaware. The Queen Anne's man used the money and has been called to account by the Pension Department.

NEW LIFE AT GALENA.

Vast Improvements Nearing Completion, and Renewed Activity Evident on Every Hand.

It is worth a trip from the most distant part of the county, to witness the vast improvements now nearing completion, and to study the evidences of renewed business life and progress which is building up a new and better town on the ruins and ashes of the Galena of a twelve months ago. Business energy accompanies the sturdy ring of the mechanic's hammer, and the future of the town promises to surpass the brightest period of her past history, and new and handsomer buildings have already supplanted some of those which the flames destroyed. The Odd Fellows Hall, built as an exact reproduction of the handsome town hall at Seaford, Del., will be completed by the last of this week. Mr. Henry Parr has already moved into his new store-room in the town hall building with a splendid line of goods, and now has one of the most attractive places of business in the county. Gus Wick, our genial barber, occupies another room, while Mrs. Ireland expects to be able to move her drugs into her new store sometime next week. This is the daintiest and most attractive room for the purpose in the county, and Mrs. Ireland may justly feel proud, in anticipation of her very attractive store. The room for public entertainments is a beautiful one, large and well lighted. The handsome chandelier which adorned the many festive occasions in the Fairlee Hall, will shed brightness and beauty on pleasant scenes in the new hall. The pretty curtain also, which concealed the mysteries "behind the scenes" at Fairlee, will perform the same pleasant duty at the new Galena hall. In the basement of the hall is the town lock-up, a room sufficiently large for all ordinary purposes. The walls are of the most substantial character and are provided with rings and chains for the security of prisoners. Mr. A. H. Kendall, the contractor, as well as his efficient corps of assistants: B. Crisfield, of Galena; William Kaises, of Fairlee and B. Lamb, of Chestertown, are to be congratulated upon their splendid work. Contractor Kendall and his men have also completed a cozy and unusually pretty home for Mr. Henry Parr. We were shown every part of this beautiful home and pronounce it a model in beauty and convenience. Miss Ella Parr's millinery store is also one of the monuments to the skill of the Fairlee builder. The next on the list of attractive, and indeed, roomy and elegant store buildings, is the store of Mr. C. J. Scott, being erected by Messrs. R. K. Pippin & Son, who represent the best of the highest class of Eastern Shore builders. The building has a large glass front, the broad sash substantially and fully arranged on pulleys, is two stories high, and has a large grocery room back, with a very large storage room up stairs. Mr. Pippin is now giving it the finishing touches, and expects to be done in about a week. He has had helping him Messrs. Wm. Dugan, H. Cannan and Alonzo Vandyke, of Chestertown.

Mr. Layman, who made a splendid job of painting the hall, will also beautify this building. Mr. A. Frank Ruth will occupy this model of the Messrs. Pippin's best work.

Messrs. Hodgkins & Son, of Chestertown, are putting up a store-house and dwelling combined, for Mr. Jas. Walls. We have not learned who will occupy it. Rumor once said that J—— was going to move in it, but when we asked him about it, his reply was, "Its all over now."

Mr. J. Peacock says he intends to rebuild his block of buildings in the spring.

Mr. O. Pennington intends to build on the site of the old hotel as soon as he gets his insurance fixed up.

Our people are now laying in their winter supply of coal. Mr. Vansant, the agent at Lambson's, keeps both stove and chestnut in stock. We are blest in getting good clean coal.

Miss Brown, of Wilmington, is the guest of Miss L. R. Scott.

Mr. T. H. Horsey returned last Thursday from Atlantic City, where he had been for his health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hyland, spent part of last week with friends in Elkton.

Our sportsmen report game scarce. Mr. J. T. Pennington has been out several times, but says there are no birds.

STATE AND PENINSULA.

Centreville bakers have "Fruit Cake day," when the Christmas fruit cakes of their patrons are cooked free of charge.

Druid Hill park has been presented with a real live ground hog, and he didn't come from Deuble Creek either.

Mrs. Elma Goldsborough, wife of E. Beverly Goldsborough, died at her home in Centreville, on Tuesday morning.

The Republicans of Emmittsburg, Garrett county, celebrated their recent victory by a torchlight procession on Saturday night.

Mrs. Hannah Johnson, wife of the late George Johnson, historian and poet, died at Elkton on Sunday.

James McAllister, a prisoner in the Washington county jail, committed suicide.

In Frederick city a colored boy was accidentally killed at a shooting gallery.

A $1,000 turkey has been enjoyed at dinner by Hiram L. Light and a party of friends. About a year ago a turkey strayed away from the farm of John K. Light, of Swatara Township. A few days later it was found in the possession of Ezra H. Light. A lawsuit followed to determine the ownership, and before it ended the parties to the suit were out over $1,000.
