Democratic Primary Meetings.

The Democratic voters of Kent county are invited to meet in the several election districts of Kent county, at the usual voting places on at 2 P. M. and elect by ballot or otherwise five delegates from each of said districts to meet in Chestertown in County Convention on the following TUESDAY, JULY 17, at 12 M., to elect three delegates to represent Kent county in the convention at Ocean City, on THURSDAY, JULY, 26th, 1894, to nominate a candidate for Congress from the First Congressional District of Maryland for the unexpired term of the late Congressman Brattan, and to represent the First Congressional District in the Fifty-fourth Congress of the United States.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1894

The mode of selecting district delegates is left to the respective districts, as well as the appointment of the Judges and Clerks, should the same be found necessary. And in the event of a ballot the polls will not close until 6 P. M.

HARRISON W. VICKERS,
A. F. HUEY,
GEO. W. HATCHERSON,
State Central Committee for Kent County.

A BULLET IN THE LEG, between the knee and hip, is the result of a dispute over a rifle between two brothers, Silas and George Ferguson, of Liberty Grove, Cecil county.

TALBOT COUNTY will send uninstructed delegates to the Ocean City convention. The unit rule will be observed, and "Good politics," it were safe to say, will be played.

A COMMITTEE, representing Western strikers, have graciously promised that trains carrying delegates and visitors to the Christian Endeavor Convention in session at Cleveland, Ohio, this week, will so far as possible be kept moving without interruption.

THE Wicomico News, in referring to the tax rate of a number of Maryland counties, remarks that while in most of the counties where the rates have been determined upon, an increase has resulted, Kent and Wicomico stand alone in making reductions of the rate for 1894.

WITH an eye single to the promotiug of Caroline's political interests and the nominating of a Caroline man for Congress, will our delegates be chosen next Tuesday. The county's claims will be urged with the greatest earnestness before the Ocean City convention, and we shall continue to hope for success.—Denton Journal.

MR. SAMUEL N. SMITH, JR., formerly of the Centreville Record, has purchased the Easton Star, and will soon assume control of that journal. Mr. Smith has had several years' experience in the newspaper business, and never since its existence did the Centreville Record achieve greater success than while Mr. Smith was connected with it. We wish him success.

THE Centreville Observer, one of the most ably edited and one of the most fearless and newsiest of the large number of Maryland journals, has just celebrated its anniversary occasion, and starts out vigorous and strong, upon a career of renewed usefulness. Congratulations are in order, and we extend them to our esteemed contemporary upon its strong, sturdy manhood, and its many evidences of thrift and prosperity.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, in placing in the field the regular forces of the United States, to quell and bring into subjection the unrestrained lawlessness and spirit of insurrection of the mobs at Chicago and other western points, has asserted the sovereignty of the United States, the one overmastering and absolute power to which anarchy, treason and rebellion must yield. The course of the President is one which has received the commendation of the American people and the American press, with the exceptions of course, of such traitors as Debs, Altgeld, Waite and their kind. Of the strike, the New York Sun says:

"For more than a week the ruffians and the loafers who live on the strength of the labor they never do, have blocked the great avenues of transportation and clutched business by the windpipe. They have interfered with commerce between the States, they have thrown States into a condition of anarchy, they have reveled and rioted in lawlessness.

"If there is any principle or hope that distinguishes the American people from the beasts that perish, this interlude of crime must be stopped. There is no other place on earth where such violence and disobedience to law would be tolerated. If a citizen of the United States cannot be protected in his right of property and his right to labor, and his right to live, the sooner the United States go out of business and let Debs and his fellow hellhounds run the universe the better.

"These scoundrels defy the police, defy the courts, defy the marshals, defy the United States. If it is worth while for the United States to continue to exist, the city of Chicago and the State of Illinois, and at their back if necessary Gen. Nelson A. Miles, will mass their troops against any body of rioters and rebels, and order them to sweep riot from the field. Sweetened water is not useful against dynamite."

PROHIBITION DELEGATES.

Pursuant to call, a number of the most prominent Prohibitionists met in county convention in Stam's Hall on Tuesday, for the purpose of electing delegates to the congressional convention, which will meet in Salisbury on July 19. Mr. C. B. Krusen presided at the meeting, and Mr. George B. Twilley was made secretary. The following were the delegates appointed to the Salisbury convention: Messrs. R. T. Turner, G. W. Covington, Jas. E. Apsley, Dr. J. T. Twilley, Wm. K. Judefind, W. W. Parks, B. F. H. Caulk, Robt. S. Griffith, C. B. Krusen, Henry Krusen, M. A. Toulson, Rev. R. L. Lewis and Joseph Downey.

Other matters of minor importance were disposed of, and the meeting adjourned.

The Prohibitionists of the county will make a strong campaign, and express themselves as being hopeful of adding new recruits to their list of voters in the county. Only such men will be put on the ticket as will command the confidence and respect of the voters of the old parties.

In addition to the delegates to Salisbury Congressional Convention, the chairman appointed the following as delegates to the State Prohibition Convention at Glyndon Park, Aug. 8: R. I. Townsend, Charles Griffith, Rev. G. W. Burke, Henry Krusen, John Leigh, Geo. W. Covington, Rev. R. L. Lewis, Thomas Rasin, R. T. Turner, Geo. B. Twilley, Rev. Edward Davis, M. A. Toulson, Jas. W. Apsley, J. W. Boyer.

THE GOSSIP OF POLITICS.

A Very Lively Contest Expected at the Ocean City Convention.

Matters political have been freely discussed throughout the county this week. The personnel of next Tuesday's convention has not as yet been positively decided upon, and not until after the primaries of Saturday next will the matter be entirely clear to the uninitiated. The candidacy of Harrison W. Vickers has been most favorably received, and it is certain that he will go to the Ocean City convention backed solidly by his county.

Down on the Eastern Shore, where oysters and politics are classed among the necessities of life, a merry war is in progress, and summer's heat is at a discount. The contest is not merely over this year's congressional nomination, for, as "beyond the Alps lies Italy," so after this year's battle comes the gubernatorial struggle of next year, and then the fight for United States Senator Charles Hopper Gibson's seat in that August body which is supposed to curb and to hold down the impetuosity of the House of Representatives. But all the political fun across the bay this summer seems to be within Democratic ranks, as the Republicans are not indulging in a domestic contest, but are quietly looking about for the best candidates to carry their banners in what they strongly hope will be a winning fight. In every county in the district except Talbot and Wicomico there are one or more Democratic aspirants seeking to control the delegation. The latest development was the announcement last week of the candidacy of Mr. Harrison W. Vickers, of Kent. When it became apparent some months ago that Congressman Brattan's seat would become vacant, Mr. Vickers' friends talked strongly of placing him in the field for the succession, whereupon, as a foil, the name of Editor Wm. B. Usilton became quite prominently mentioned. As Mr. Vickers remained silent, showing no apparent disposition to plunge into the midst of battle, there was considerably less said about Mr. Usilton's candidacy, and such talk finally died away. It will now probably be resumed with vigor.

All this looks rather innocent, but it means a great deal. The political leader of Kent, or the leader who is supposed to hold the county in line for the State leaders, is Comptroller Marion DeKalb Smith, and Mr. Usilton is his chief lieutenant. Mr. Vickers has never taken particular pains to train with the leaders—has, indeed, been regarded as dangerously independent in his views, and for that reason his candidacy for office, when it means the temporary support and control of the county, is not hailed with any manifestations of delight. It is necessary that Kent be kept well in hand during the next two years, for the gubernatorial and senatorial contests are to follow, and it is not likely that Comptroller Smith desires to see a delegation go to Ocean City which will be outside the control of his influence, and may be tempted into embarrassing combinations; for Mr. Smith may become possessed of a desire to advance higher in the political world himself—who knows?—and it behooves him to keep his lines unentangled at home. It would seem an easy solution to the tyro in politics to have Mr. Smith endorse Mr. Vickers, and send a delegation to Ocean City in that gentleman's interests, which would also be mindful of the Comptroller's desires in the premises. But Mr. Vickers has been a candidate for the congressional nomination before. In 1888, in 1890 and again in 1892 his name was presented to the nominating convention without success, and now some of his friends say that he will select as delegates men whose political fortunes are not allied with any other than Mr. Vickers, and who will stick to him to the last. This may stir up a very lively and interesting battle at the Kent county primaries.

SENATOR GIBSON'S PLAN.

Senator Gibson's friends will endeavor to control the nomination for Congress in the First district, and secure the election of candidates for both the short and long term who will be willing to aid the Senator in his own battle for re-election in 1896. To this end they will send their most skilful politicians to Ocean City, and the four votes of Talbot are expected to be factors in any combination made. Mr. Gibson evidently fears that some surprise will be sprung on him. There was a rumor of one last week in the report that strong efforts are being made to induce Colonel John Walter Smith, of Worcester, to abandon his canvass for the next gubernatorial nomination and concentrate all his endeavors upon winning Senator Gibson's seat. By some it is thought the Brown influence is working to this end, and that should Governor Brown and Senator Smith pool issues on the Eastern Shore, they would prove a hard pair to beat. Colonel Smith, however, seems more inclined to try for the gubernatorial prize, especially as he may find a worthy foeman in the person of ex-Governor Jackson blocking his pathway to the Senate.—Baltimore American.

CONSIDERATION FOR HIS MEN.

MESSRS. EDS.—It is pleasant in these days of contention between employer and employee, to meet with one placed in authority, who studies the welfare and interests of those under his control. I was a listener to a conversation on the evening of the Fourth, which caused me a very pleasant sensation.

Mr. G. E. Noland, whose power at Tolchester is almost autocratic, but whose genial and gentlemanly manner makes all about him happy, was sitting upon the porch after the steamboat had left, surrounded by as fair a bevy of Kent county beauties as the eye of man is often permitted to rest upon. With all the winning and persuasive ways known only to woman, they urged and pleaded to have the Beach kept open, that they might wind up the festivities of the day with a dance. The popular manager listened patiently and complacently until the other side was fairly and fully heard. Then, with one of his peculiarly quizical looks, he opened his mouth and spake. "Ladies," he said, "don't you think you are a little unreasonable? You have been enjoying yourselves, and seeing pleasure throughout the day. My men have been hard at work since four o'clock this morning, and are very tired. I do not think it right to impose any more work upon them this day." "But," pleaded the fair ones, "only give us your consent, and the men will not refuse us." "That's just it," he replied, "I don't propose to throw the responsibility of refusing upon my men; they have worked enough for one day, and although I am very sorry to disappoint you, I am afraid you must take my decision as final, and console yourselves with the assurance that on Friday evening of next week, the Beach shall be kept open, and you shall all dance to your hearts content." They saw that further pleading would be superfluous, and they reluctantly prepared to wend their way homeward. Such little incidents are but trifling in themselves, but leave a pleasant impression in their wake.

THE LOOKER-ON.

JACKSON AND ALLEN HUNG.

His Neck Broken and Death Almost Instantaneou.

William Jackson, the murderer of George J. Leager, on the 18th of last April, at the Round Top farm in Queen Anne's county, near Chestertown, paid the penalty of his crime by death on the gallows as Centreville on Friday last, at 1.39 P. M. The Centreville Record gives the following account of the hanging:

"The execution was conducted on a scaffold in the rear of the jail, and was successfully performed. The morbid curiosity which centres around an occasion of this kind and which generally serves to bring large numbers of people to town at times like this, did not attract much more than an average crowd. Rain fell during nearly the whole morning, which doubtless had the effect of lessening the number of the curious on-lookers. Many persons remained the whole morning grouped about the south side of the jail, from which point a partial view of the scaffold could be had. Trees, fences, sheds and every point of vantage were filled with anxious gazers, patiently waiting to see a soul swung into eternity.

"About 11 o'clock Jackson made the following written statement:

"'I am thankful to the officers for their kindness to me while in their custody. I am thankful to the sheriff for the protection that he extended me from lawless persons, and to the watchmen for their kindness shown me, and also I am indebted to the clergymen for their good and timely advice by which I hope to meet them in heaven. Good-by one and all. I will soon be in heaven. I am going home to die no more, to die no more.'

"At noon, Jackson ate a hearty dinner of fried chicken, eggs, potatoes, bread and coffee. His appetite was as good as ever and he seemed to be awaiting for death with unusual firmness and courage, remarking that he was anxious for the time of execution to arrive.

"At 1.30 P. M. Jackson was led upon the scaffold by the sheriff, accompanied by the faithful trio of ministers. He walked with great firmness, and his manner did not indicate the slightest nervousness or trepidation. He smiled as he stepped upon the scaffold. After the rope was adjusted to his neck he requested permission to speak a few words, which the sheriff readily granted.

"The prisoner spoke in a rambling way for about three minutes substantially as follows:

"'My friends and fellow citizens:—I am an innocent man, being justified in killing Mr. Leager. I am a stranger in this part of the country. As a servant I tried to do my duty. I committed the crime and am here to suffer for it. I am ready to die and am trusting in God. I hope you will pray and take warning. I thank the sheriff and officers for their kindness to me.'

"The black cap was then put over his head, and exactly at 1.39 P. M. the drop fell, and the unfortunate man shot through into eternity. The body fell seven feet, and after a few slight jerks of the limbs and twitching of the muscles, the tide of life had apparently ebbed and gone. The neck, upon examination, was found to have been broken, thus causing instant death.

STATEMENT OF JACKSON.

"Jackson made the following statement to a visitor in the jail a few days before his execution: 'I was born at Richmond, Virginia, in 1832 and belonged to Dr. George Seiser. When ten months of age I was carried to Little Rock, Arkansas, where I remained until 1885. I came to this county in the fall of 1893. I was in the Arkansas penitentiary for five years, having been convicted of several offenses. I once shot a colored man, named John Hunt, in the arm and was sent to jail a short time for it. I have a father, two sisters and other relatives at Little Rock. I am contented and prepared to die. I have been baptized by Rev. Mr. Webb and am praying and looking to God for mercy.

"'On the day that Mr. Leager was shot I went in from the field, put my tools away and helped him to put the cutter up in the loft. I then slopped the hogs and got my clothes and went over to the barn and called Mr. Leager and asked him for a little change. He said he would be down in a minute. He came down and we walked together towards the pump. Mr. Leager asked me where I was going and said you had better stay on here. I told him his wife said if I staid on she would poison me. Mr. Leager said if you leave you will be killed anyhow. Then he asked me about having words with his wife and said there was a lie out somewhere and I'll fix you here and now and made for me with the hatchet. I said hold on, Mr. Leager, hold on! and stood still. He kept striking at me and I wrenched the hatchet from him and then struck back at him. The boys, Sam and Nathan, came rushing after me and Mr. Leager said come on boys we'll fix him now. I then shot and left Mr. Leager walking off towards the house. I did not know I had hurt him. I went out to Mr. Kibler's store and bought some cakes and went from there to Wesley Stevens' at Uniontown. I told Wesley I thought I had better go to Crumpton and give myself up, but was so tired I would wait until morning.

James Allen, colored, was hung at Upper Marlboro', on Friday, July 6, at 8.52 A. M. for committing an outrage upon the person of Cora Simpson, the eleven-year-old daughter of J. Thomas Simpson, of Woodmore, Queen Anne district, Prince George's county. The scaffold and rope were the same that were used in the execution of Barber and Pinkney the murderers of Mr. Bowie.

THE GREAT STRIKE.

1,000,000 Out of Employment—The Strike Costing Untold Mil-lions—Mr. Gorman a Reported Arbitrator.

The greatest strike which this country has ever known, is now on at Chicago and other large centres of trade in the West and Northwest. Millions of dollars have already been lost, in property destroyed, in wages, and as a result of the almost total paraylsis of trade. Portions of Chicago are virtually under martial law, and United States troops have been called out to quell the threating uprising in the ranks of labor organizations throughout the West. Already a number of men and women have been shot down by regular troops of the United States Army, and at this writing it is impossible to foretell the final outcome.

On Tuesday Knights of Labor throughout the country, numbering nearly 1,000,000 men, were called upon to strike for the cause of organized labor. General Master Workman Sovereign issued an order to all members of the organization to cease work until the conflict originating in the strike of the Pullman employes shall have been settled.

The expected effect on Chicago, if all trades obey the order to strike, will be to throw from 50,000 to 100,000 persons out of employment.

Armed strikers are terrorizing Sacramento and other California towns.

A special United States grand jury at Chicago on Tuesday indicted Eugene V. Debs, president; George W. Howard, vice-president; W. S. Kelliher, secretary, and L. W. Rogers, a director of the American Railway Union, for alleged conspiracy to obstruct the United States mails. James Martin was also indicted on the charge of throwing a switch at Blue Island. The four American Railway Union officers were arrested on bench warrants issued by Judge Grosscup, and were released on bail in $10,000 each.

It was rumored in Washington on Tuesday that Senator Gorman had been called into the Chicago strike as an arbitrator. Mr. Gorman was at his home, near Laurel, having left the city at 5.30 o'clock P. M. in company with State Senator Finley, of Queen Anne's.

Senator Gibson, who is supposed to be familiar with Mr. Gorman's movements, said that he was not aware that Mr. Gorman had been summoned to Chicago. Other Senators cognizant of Mr. Gorman's plans did not credit the rumor.

At the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Station it was stated that Mr. Gorman was not seen on the Chicago express which left at 8 o'clock.

It is pointed out that Mr. Gorman's interest in the conference over the tariff bill would prevent his departure from Washington at this time.

IS COSTING MILLIONS.

Competent authority up to Sunday, when the strike was comparatively in its incipiency, estimated the property loss in Chicago alone by fire and waste at $2,000,000, a loss traceable directly to the strike. But that vast amount is insignificant in comparison to the loss due to a sacrifice of wages and paralysis of business. The railroad tie-up has thrown not less than 200,000 railroad employes out of work.

Now it is announced, as the result of a careful canvass, that industrial establishments in Chicago and its environs, employing 100,000 men, will shut down until the strike is settled. Other manufacturing communities throughout the West are doing the same thing, and it is not an exaggeration to state that the ranks of idlers in the West will be increased 1,000,000 men by reason of the strike.

The Western country is, therefore, losing $2,000,000 a day in wages, estimating the pay of the men at the low average of $2 a day. On the basis of the estimate of men out of work in Chicago now by reason of the strike, the workingmen are contributing $300,000 a day in lost wages and $300,000 more in drafts upon their resources for the cost of living or a daily total of $600,000.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
