R. HARRISON COLLINS. C. COX HOPPER.

COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

THE FOLLOWING is an endorsement of Mr. Cleveland's letter to Mr. Wilson, sent us in a private letter by a minister of Kent: "I am a Prohibitionist but hurrah for Cleveland."

EUGENE V. DEBS and other officers of the American Railway Union, were put on trial at Chicago on Monday, charged with contempt of court in having disregarded an injunction restraining them from interfering with the transmission of the United States mails and the movement of interstate commerce. The erstwhile irate revolutionist is placid now while in the toils of the law, but will tax his ingenuity to organize a monster labor organization in January.

"THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKABLE LETTER," declares Senator Hill, "expresses better than I can hope to do the true, sound and logical position of the Democratic party. It is an honest and manly statement of the true attitude which the party should assume in this crisis. You cannot doubt his sincerity and patriotism. You cannot stand up against the sentiment of the great Democratic masses of the country which will rally around the President. The time to yield is now, defore there is further humiliation, embarrassment and discord."—David Bennett Hill of New York.

MATTERS AT WASHINGTON give little promise of a speedy solution to the tariff muddle. The brave, ringing words of Mr. Cleveland, it is believed, have so encouraged and strengthened the loyal, patriotic men in the House that they will never yield to the mongrel measure known as the "Gorman Compromise," while the Senate chiefs dare not surrender, fearing that an honorable retreat from their damnable position will be an open avowal of guilt. The situation is certainly one which can give little of promise to the great, suffering masses of the American people; unless haply, the storm of public indignation of the people under the leadership of that great American, Grover Cleveland, may force the tariff barons from their indefensible position and result in the passage of a bill in all essential respects the same as the Wilson Bill.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, in sending his timely and courageous letter to Congressman Wilson last week, made no new record for himself; he only emphasized and made broader and more enduring the platform of the party by which he was elected. Mr. Cleveland's public utterances as well as his official acts, have, during two administrations, been fearless and masterly, and his letter to Mr. Wilson was just such as the American people had a right to expect and the occasion demanded. The document will go on record as one of the strongest State papers of any administration, and the President has again declared himself in a manly, straightforward way as the champion of the people and the eternal enemy of political corruption and duplicity in high places. It was the thunderous applause of sanction to the President's act, which drove Senator Gorman into the fit of despondency during which he gave mental birth to his arraignment of the administration on Monday.

MR. GORMAN'S exhibition in the United States' Senate on Monday, was the mad act of a man, who, wholly forsaken by the great masses of the American people whose representative he was supposed to be; branded as a traitor to the principles upon which he was elected; hounded by his own conscience and desperate in the face of inevitable defeat, turns at bay upon the man who alone stands between himself and his unholy booty and endeavors to shift the responsibility of the masterly wrong which has been heaped upon the people by his own unrighteous acts. It is not enough that Mr. Gorman, with an effrontery born of desperation, shall declare or even prove that the President has been false to his party or the people whose chief executive he is; the Senior Senator from Maryland must stand or fall upon his own record and not upon the failures or successes of the President. Out of touch with his constituents, his acts repudiated by his party and condemned by the whole people, Mr. Gorman forgot that chief factor in his political strength, diplomacy, and made a surrender in his loss of temper. His speech was incisive and bitter, but against the great, rugged honesty of the President, his assault fell like shot which had spent their force, powerless to do harm. The President is right and Mr. Gorman is wrong, and with all of the Senior Senators squirming and speech-making he cannot crawl from under the mass of wreckage from the citadel of his own vaulting ambition.

THE VOTERS of the First Congressional district, and, indeed, of the entire State, will watch with feverish anxiety the action of the convention now in session at Ocean City. Will that convention by its endorsement of Senator Gorman and Senator Gibson, declare that the intelligence and loyalty of the First Congressional District have withdrawn their allegiance from the principles of a sound Democracy, and transferred them to the chief of McKinley proselites? Will it in its selection of representatives of the people in the halls of national legislation commit the voters of the district to a policy at once blighting to their interests and a reproach upon their intelligence and honesty? Will it, in short, sanction the tariff-coal, tariff-iron, tariff-sugar, or will it come out fearlessly, fairly and squarely upon the Democratic platform? The people will demand of the convention that they meet the great issues of the present crisis in a way to leave no doubt as to their position. No half-hearted or halting action will meet the requirements of the situation, and nothing short of a manly, honest treatment will be a warranty of the good faith and honesty of the gentlemen whom they select. It is most sincerely hoped that the spectre hand of the Maryland machine will not be found as an overshadowing figure of the deliberations. Let no "Senatorial Courtesy" miasma pervade the hall. Senator Gibson, the Adonis of the Senate, as well as Senator Gorman, the "lean and hungry Cassius," have shown themselves unworthy of public trust, and the voters of the respective counties did not send representatives to the Ocean City convention to pass misleading and false resolutions of endorsement of these gentlemen. The outraged Democracy of the Eastern Shore will tolerate no such degrading worship of political gods.

OCEAN CITY CONVENTION.

The Congressional Tug-of-War Commences To-day.

VICKERS KENT'S REPRESENTATIVE.

The nominating convention for the first congressionol district, comprising Kent, 3 votes; Queen Anne's, 4 votes; Caroline, 3 votes; Talbot, 4 votes; Dorchester, 4 votes; Wicomico, 4 votes; Somerset, 4 votes, and Worcester, 4 votes; will convene at Ocean City to-day to nominate a candidate to fill out the unexpired term of Congressman Robert F. Brattan which will end on the 4th of March next, and to nominate a candidate for the Fifty-fourth Congress. Every county in the district will have a candidate except Talbot and Wicomico. There are 30 delagates and 16 votes will be necessary for a choice.

Kent county will present as her candidate Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., who received the unaminous and unqualified endorsement of the county convention which convened in Chestertown, on Tuesday, July 17. Mr. Vickers has been a candidate for the congressional nomination before each convention since 1888, commencing his congressional aspirations with the convention of that year, which was held at Denton. The Baltimore News says of him: "Mr. Vickers is a man of independent views, and is comfortably off in fortune, but the State machine does not want him to be honored with the nomination, and, as his county has only three votes, he will be handicapped in the beginning of the race. But the fact that the machine is against him may help him under the circumstances, and he may win, although the odds are against him. Mr. Vickers' father was a member of the United States Senate for six years soon after the war, and it is thought by some of his friends that he hopes at a future day to serve his State in the same body. He has been State's Attorney for Kent and served his people acceptably, declining a renomination. His position as a member of the bar is among the leaders, and he is a forcible and effective speaker. If sent to Congress he would do what he thought right and the State bosses would not control him as they have done many of the representatives from Maryland. The vote in Kent county between the parties is close, in national elections the majorities rarely ever being over a hundred and fifty either way."

Democratic Queen Anne's will present the name of Philemon B. Hopper, State's attorney for Queen Anne's county and junior editor of the Centreville Record.

Ex-State Senator John F. Dawson will represent Caroline. Caroline is a close county, and in national elections generally gives the Republican candidate a small majority.

Doubtful Talbot, in view of the following list of gentlemen aggregating in salaries each year $30,000 will not ask for consideration at the hands of the convention: Hon. Charles H. Gibson, United States Senate; Judge Ormond Hammond, Assistant Treasurer of the United States at Baltimore; Col. Edward Roberts, in the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury; James M. Wooters, Internal Revenue Agent; H. B. P. Holliday, Interior Department; R. C. Holliday, Department of the Navy; Caleb Griffin, Custom-house; W. S. Easter, Department of the Interior; Mack Spence, Government Printing Office; Charles T. Councill, Capitol painter; T. Addison Floyd, Internal Revenue Office, Baltimore; J. Dukes Wooters, page in United States Senate; C. P. Hammond, United States Sub-Treasury, Baltimore; John Straughn, Custom-house; F. G. Wrightson, Live Stock Sanitary Board; Frank Orem, Oyster Inspector; W. S Merrick, journal clerk House of Delegates and several minor places in the State Oyster Navy. And all this in spite of the fact that in all national elections since 1884, both for Representatives in Congress and for President, the county has given Republican majorities. In 1884 Mr. Gibson received a majority of 168, but since that time the majority has always been the other way.

Dorchester is called a "close" county, though in 1888 it gave the Republican candidate for Congress over 500 majority, yet four years ago it gave a Democratic victory. W. Laird Henry, editor of the Cambridge Chronicle will be presented from Dorchester.

Wicomico, the banner Democratic county of the district, will, it is claimed by some, insist upon presenting ex-Governor Jackson, though that gentleman has positively refused to serve.

Somerset, another of the counties which are liable to go either way on election day, will be represented by a working delegation who will hustle for Joshua W. Miles.

Clayton J. Purnell will be the candidate from Democratic Worcester.

The Talbot delegation, it is believed, will vote for the nomination of ex Governor Jackson or Joshua W. Miles. If ex-Governor Jackson's name is presented to the convention Wicomico county will certainly support him.

With a full vote and no disaffection within Democratic ranks, the First district is strongly Democratic, the majorities ranging from two to three thousand. Mr. Gibson carried the district in 1888 by 429; in 1890 Judge Page received 2,200 more votes than his competitor, and there was the same result two years ago when Mr. Brattan was the nominee. Mr. Gibson received 2,200 majority when he ran for his first term in 1884, 1,200 his second term in 1886, and but a plurality of 429 over Col. Thomas S. Hodson six years ago. Just what the result of to-day's convention will be, it is at this time impossible to say. The play of "Good politics" may result in unexpected combinations, and the situation is, to say the least of it, at present problematical.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE QUEEN ANNE'S CONVENTION.

Hopper Won his Fight — President Cleveland Endorsed.

After one of the most hotly-contested campaigns within the history of Queen Anne's county Democracy, the friends of State's Attorney Philemon B. Hopper, who are also the friends and supporters of ex-Congressman John B. Brown, won their fight in the primaries on Saturday last against Mr. Brown's old antagonist, State's Tax Commissioner Thomas J. Keating, represented by A. Randolph Wedon, Esq., and on Tuesday selected delegates to the Ocean City Convention favorable to Mr. Hopper for Congress. There were ties and contesting delegations to the county convention, and the margin being small, it was feared that something might occur to counteract the result at the primaries. But it did not so happen, and Mr. Hopper reaped the reward of his victory. The delegates selected to the convention were:

Alternates—George A. Dever, J. F. Temple, L. C. McGinniss, W. P. Thompson.

The committee on resolutions reported, indorsing the President and his manly fight for Democratic party principles in tariff reform and requiring that the nominee for Congress in the first congressional district of Maryland shall be in full accord with the President on this vital issue. These resolutions were adopted, and read as follows:

"The Democratic party of Queen Anne's county renews its vows in fealty to Democratic principles enunciated at the national convention in Chicago; it demands tariff reform, honest money, the adequate protection of the rights of labor and employer and a reduction of taxation to a minimum.

"The Democrats of Queen Anne's county approve of the noble fight made by Grover Cleveland in vindication of party principles and demand that the nominee of the district convention shall be sound on tariff reform, as the people are not disposed to tolerate nominees who will not actively support true Democratic principles.

"That the death of Hon. Robert F. Brattan is deplored, and that the delegates of this convention use every effort to secure the nomination of Mr. P. B. Hopper to Congress."

The proceedings of the convention were exciting. In fact, the whole county was aroused. The closeness of the primaries caused the delegates to assemble in Centreville on Monday. The consequence was unlimited caucusing and consulting.

When the delegates met at 11 o'clock A. M., in the court house, the convention was called to order by Mr. Thomas J. Keating, State Tax Commissioner, who is the chairman of the State central committee.

Mr. Keating made a speech, advising harmony in the proceedings. He then called for the certificates of delegates claiming seats in the convention.

On this arose the preliminary test of the strength of the Brown and Keating factions. It was fully recognized that the delegates from Queen Anne's county to the congressional convention at Ocean City would be a pivotal factor there, and every legitimate effort was employed to secure control in the county convention.

Mr. Olin Bryan desired to known whether the State central committee or the convention itself had the prerogative of recognizing the credentials of members.

Mr. Keating stated that it was his duty to call for credentials. He did not propose to debar any one from his rights nor did he propose to be debarred from his own.

After some further skirmishing Mr. Keating again announced himself prepared to receive certificates of election as delegates. Owing to the existence of ties in first and fourth districts, Mr. Keating announced that the certificates of the election judges admitted only thirty-two members, one being excluded from the first and two from the fourth district.

Mr. C. W. Smith, of the Brown faction, and Mr. John F. Godwin, of the Keating faction, were put in nomination for temporary chairman. The first ballot resulted in a tie, but on the second count Mr. Smith was elected by a majority of two.

The committee on credentials and permanent organization consisted of Messrs. Sudler, Finley, Wiemer, Norman, Goldsborough, Walls and Bradley. They reported that the temporary officers should continue, and that where ties existed each delegate be admitted with one-half vote. This gave Hopper 18½ votes and Weedon, the Keating candidate for Congress, 16.

On motion of Mr. Bryan, Mr. Hopper was asked to select the delegation he desired to represent his interests at Ocean City to-day, which he did, as above stated.

After the adoption of the resolutions Mr. Hopper, the candidate of Queen Anne's county, was called for by the spectators. As the court house was too small to accommodate the people, the convention adjourned to the green, where the candidate reiterated his staunch Democracy and plainly announced the course which he would pursue should he be elected to Congress. He expressed himself entirely in accord with President Cleveland in his fight for Democracy with principles.

HAVE our readers taken notice of the big red letter Z posted on the fences and other vacant spaces around town? Look at them and read the printed matter, and then go to your druggist and get a 25-cent package of Simmon's Liver Regulator and get your liver straightened out, that's just what nine-tenths of the people need. Tell every cross, crabbed quarrelsome person you meet to go do the same thing, then there'll be more peace in the family, less divorce cases, and more money in the Savings Banks. Wonderful how much devilishness is driven out of a person by the help of a good liver. The two are enemies one to the other. They say that Simmon's Liver Regulator is Better than Pills. Try it.

Dillhofer Laundry Resumed!

We are pleased to inform our friends and patrons of the laundry formerly conducted by the late Miss Kate Dillhofer, that

We Have Resumed the Laundy Business

AT REDUCED PRICES,

on BRIDGE STREET, near Gilpin's Hotel, and will assure clean and superior work. Our process will obviate against injury to fabric and will wear longer. We are thankful for encouragement and former favors. Goods taken in on Thursdays will be delivered on Saturday. All goods called for and delivered without charge.

NURSERY STOCK.

A Few Ideas For Agriculturists to Consider!

Did your Wheat crop last year pay you? Did your last year's Corn yield pay you for the trouble and expense? Is not the present outlook even still more unfavorable? Then why continue an unfrofitable business? Is it intelligence to continue a non-paying or losing business? You can do better, then why not begin at once? Life is too short to delay longer.

BERRIES AND FRUITS PAY WELL,

even handsome prices are the results of GOOD STOCK properly cultivated. Cheap stock is the worst thing in the world to get cheap, as it never grows out of it, never gives satisfaction, never gives fine fruit. Good Stock pays for itself many times before cheap stock comes to fruiting. If our prices appear a little high, as a fact they are not, for we make a specialty of the FINEST stock. Every Tree and Bush is inspected, and if it don't grade, is rejected.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING IN THE NURSERY LINE.

PEAR TREES, GOOSEBERRIES, CURRANTS, ASPARAGUS, MAGNOLIA GRANDEFLORA AND ALL THE ORNAMENTALS.

A resonable time given to responsible buyers. Call on or address.
