DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For the Unexpired Term in the Fifty-Third Congress,

W. LAIRD HENRY,

OF DORCHESTER COUNTY.

For Representative in the Fifty-Fourth Congress,

JOSHUA W. MILES,

OF SOMERSET COUNTY.

THE large amount of advertising matter has necessitated the leaving out of much that would be of local and personal interest this week.

REPUBLICAN primary elections will be held in Queen Anne's county on Saturday next. Republican leaders claim a "fighting chance" in every Congressional district of the State, and they declare that a strong fight will be waged.

OUR WORTHY, patriotic and always would-like-to-be-thought-consistent contemporary lowered her banner of well-paid Gormanism entirely too soon. With a less experienced "flopper" these frequent migrations and counter-migrations would result in considerable embarrassment and vexation of soul but no serious results are feared in this case. No "mongrel affair" was wanted, but we will watch and see with what grace and evident relish the "mongrel" dose is swallowed.

THE PROHIBITION State Convention at Glyndon last week, favored the appointment of a commission to make an investigation of the tariff and report with recommendations to Congress. It also declared in favor of governmental control of railroads and telegraph, an income tax, woman suffrage and the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. The Congressional candidates named for the First district, were: Short term, Jas. T. Anthony, of Queen Anne's county. Long term, Bennett P. Miles, of Somerset county.

A CAUCUS of the Democratic members of the lower House of Congress by a vote of 130 to 21, on Monday, receded from the disagreement to the Senate amendments to the Willson Tariff Bill, and the Gorman-Havemyer tariff monstrosity was passed and only awaits the signature of the President to at once become a law. Senator Gorman's treachery and apostosy is complete, and in this hour of the apparent unparalled triumph of his foul conspiracy, the ominous handwriting of a Belshazzar's debauch is seen on the political horizon. "Gorman, thou hast been weighed in the balance and found wanting. The star of thy destiny is set."

WE ARE AGAIN forced to call the attention of correspondents and contributors, to the fact that communications not bearing the full name of the sender, will certainly not be given room in our columns. An interesting letter is forced out of this issue simply because it is not known who the sender is. An interesting account of a marriage was excluded from last week's issue for the same cause. If not desired, the names of correspondents will not be printed, but in every case we must know who has sent any and all correspondence. The communication of "A friend of the family" will be gladly put in next week's paper if we are advised of the identity of the writer.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES will be held in the respective districts of Kent county, on Saturday, August eighteenth, between the hours of three and seven o'clock for the purpose of selecting five delegates from each district to meet in county convention at Chestertown, on Tuesday, August twenty-first, at twelve o'clock M., to elect three delegates and three alternates to represent Kent county in the First Congressional District Convention at Ocean City on Wednesday, August twenty-ninth, to nominate a Republican candidate for Congress for this district. The primaries are called by the Republican State Central Committee for Kent county, composed of Messrs. C. T. Westcott, F. H. Harper and Louis Henry.

W. LAIRD HENRY, the Democratic nominee in the First district for the unexpired term of the late Congressman Robert F. Brattan in the Fifty-third Congress, thus strongly outlines his position on the tariff question, and emphatically declares himself in touch with the Lower House of Congress, President Cleveland and the people. Mr. Henry says in his paper, the Chronicle:

"That sickness which comes from hope deferred is keenly felt by the great Democratic heart. The tedious delays in the passage of a tariff bill have been much more than disappointing—they have been irritating and exasperating. To an extent which approaches almost to unanimity, the Democratic masses are behind the Wilson bill, the House of Representatives and the President. In this position the people are undoubtedly right, for Mr. Cleveland has certainly properly interpreted the Democratic platform as well as touched the chord of popular desire in insisting upon the admission of coal and iron ore and other raw materials free of duty. Let us indulge the belief that a few more days will see the realization of the hope that the Conference Committee will report an agreement based upon this principle, that such a bill will be speedily passed by both Houses of Congress and promptly signed by the President."

IF ANY UNCERTAINTY EXISTS in the minds of the Maryland people as to whether or not United States Senator Charles H. Gibson shall be his own successor in 1897, or Senator Arthur P. Gorman succeed himself in 1899, the responsibility for such doubt rests entirely with the people themselves. It is a matter to be decided by the voters, whether the State of Maryland shall be rid of the burden and disgrace of being flagrantly and persistently misrepresented in the Upper House of Congress. The intelligent voter is called upon to reflect seriously as to his duty to himself, his party and the State. The masses are aroused, and back of the scathing criticisms and denunciations of Messrs. Gorman and Gibson is a sentiment of outraged manhood and citizenship which will not down at the bidding of the Maryland managers and their henchmen in Chestertown and elsewhere. The fierce waves of public indignation which now beat against the strongholds of the Maryland machine means something or nothing, just as the people may decide. Mr. Gorman is not better known now than he has been for years past. That he is not, and has never been a Democrat is now and has been notorious for years; that he is a traitor to his party and his constituents is now proven beyond all question of doubt, and it only remains to be seen whether the people will further allow themselves to be misrepresented and their rights outraged. The sovereign remedy for the Gorman-Gibson State contagion, and the not less blighting system which prevails in Kent county will be at the primaries next fall, when representatives will be nominated to represent the State in the Maryland Legislature which will be called upon to elect a successor to Charles Hopper Gibson, the "Me, too," and picturesque Man Friday of Senator Gorman. Let those who distrust the State organization under the Gorman-Gibson regeme and the little coterie of sanctimonious lordlings of the political temple, in Chestertown, turn out in force and demand recognition; let it be understood that the first requisite of a candidate on the legislative ticket, in the Democratic county of Kent, shall be an open and honest avowel of their uncompromising opposition to Messrs. Gorman and Gibson and their political henchmen throughout the State. Let the people be sincere and consistent in their professions of Democracy; let them not forget these gentlemen who have heaped shame upon their party and created a feeling of national distrust in its principles, and an easy victory awaits them. It is not a premature warning to call upon the voters throughout the State to strike at the root of the trouble, by relegating the Gorman machine to the delightful shades of quiet life at the primaries in the fall of 1895.

QUEEN ANNE DEMOCRACY.

The Maryland Senators Arraigned—Interesting Questions for Their Perusal.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—No county in Maryland is more solidly Democratic than Queen Anne, and she can always be relied upon for a rousing majority in favor of the Democratic ticket if satisfied that it faithfully represents the letter and spirit of the Democratic platform. Her people are sturdy, energetic, intelligent, thoughtful and honest. They form their own opinions upon all matters of public interest, and are not easily misled, though at times their simplicity and innocence have been shamefully abused. Some persons whom they, in their innocent credulity, have trusted, have proven treacherous and taking advantage of their guilelessness, annulled their acts.

This was the case in 1893. The Brown wing of the party had, after a hard fought battle, carried the county by a handsome majority, as it had done for the preceding twelve or more years, but through the treachery of certain trusted friends ("smart politics" they called it) it was robbed of the fruits of its victory.

The same tactics were tried at the recent primary, resulting in ignominious defeat. The Brown wing had learned wisdom from experience and was, as usual, triumphant and will continue to be so, for it is thoroughly in accord with President Cleveland in all of his principles and utterances and is emphatically the true party of the people.

Then too, it is a unit in favor of a tariff for revenue only, though this is the preponderating sentiment of the Democratic people of our entire State with a few Republicans thrown in. We are an agricultural people and utterly opposed to being beggared that the "infant" combines, trusts, manufacturers, and needy corporations whose necessities so pleadingly appeal to the sensitive hearts or pockets of our Senators, may amass collossal fortunes.

Our liberal minded, generous handed Senators, whose chief occupation seems to be antagonizing the Democratic administration, fighting against a reformed and reduced tariff and distributing government positions to the faithful, so called, are fully aware of the sentiments of our people; of their earnest desire that the burdensome tariff tax that falls heaviest upon the farmer, should be abated; that wool, coal, sugar and raw materials generally should be admitted free and all other articles scaled down to the lowest possible limit consistent with the actual requirements of the government.

Their attention has, time and again been called to the popular demand for a low tariff, but they have paid no heed to the prayers and beseechings of our people, seeming to labor under the delusion that all the knowledge of what was best for the people was hermetically sealed in their own capacious intellects, and that they alone were capable of understanding the needs of the people and the best methods of ministering to them.

This is not satisfactory to a large majority of Queen Anne Democrats or to a majority of the Democrats of the State, who, in their childish simplicity, imagine that they themselves best know their needs and the easiest means of providing for them.

The question is constantly recurring as to "what object have these two Senators in so persistently ignoring the pronounced will of the people?" Can it be that the creature has become greater than its creator? Have the people no longer any rights that these autocratic lordlings are bound to respect? What do they care for the people, for their wishes or their will, their sorrows or their sufferings? The only interest attaching to these poor deluded people, in the minds of Maryland's distinguished (?) Senators, is the use that may be made of them in retaining their high positions or possibly attaining more exalted. They only want the people's votes, they care nothing for their wishes or necessities.

These are the wise statesmen, the pure patriots, the honorable gentlemen who, entrusted with the sacred duty of relieving and protecting the helpless, starving masses, piously exclaim, from their exalted positions, "damn the people."

What have they in common with the people? What have they or either of them in their senatorial or any other capacity, ever done for the benefit of the people? Can they show a single measure introduced or advocated by either of them for the betterment of the masses? Have they acted fairly and honestly towards the people who have so guilelessly confided in them? Is there any ground for the suspicion of treachery or worse, attaching to them? Are their skirts clear and hands clean? Are there no crumbs of sugar clinging to them? Can they, dare they hope ever again to be trusted by the people whom they have so shamefully deceived, whose prayers and desires they have so persistently disregarded?

What has become of the promises and pledges of the Democratic platform on which the party was carried into power? Have these Maryland Senators striven to redeem them? Have they not, for some unexplained cause, industriously sought to repudiate those promises, to dishonor those pledges, permitting them to be protested and threatening the Democratic party with bankruptcy and consequent dissolution? Have they not helped to cover that party with shame, to emasculate it and make it a by-word among the people, a stench in the nostrils of honest men, while ostensibly acting for and with it? Has not the Senior Senator assumed the toga of dictatorship, and defied the legally constituted head of the nation? Is he not amenable to the charge of mutiny when he viciously assaults his superior officer, and is not the penalty of mutiny death? Does he imagine that the people, whose servant he is, will longer submit to his daring assumption of authority or tamely condone his offence? He little knows the temper of this quiet, gentle, credulous people if he so imagines. They "asked for bread and he gave them a stone."

From one end of the State to the other this sharp, shrewd, calculating Senator, this once esteemed astute politician is proclaimed traitor, and his treason is clearly established. Traitor to the people who so often have honored him, so unhesitatingly trusted him; traitor to his State, his country, his party and his God. Has he forgotten the solemn obligation he was required to take before being installed as Senator? Has he been faithful to that obligation? Is it true, as has been charged, that he has bartered his vote and his influence for a consideration? Can he hope, under the circumstances that environ him, to escape the shameful suspicion?

The party was pledged to a revision of the tariff, to a reduction of duties to the lowest figure commensurate with an economical administration of the government, as opposed to the protection of any class of our population at the expense of the rest, and the people demand the fulfillment of that pledge. This over-wise Senator, with a modesty radiantly becoming, presumes to ignore these solemn pledges of the party, and to act in defiance of the expressed will of the people, holding them incapable of judging as to what is best for them. He may esteem us people fools, but we can at least tell a cabbage from a cucumber, and being honest, we demand that our pledges be redeemed, or that those recreant servants whom we employed to execute our will, shall at once resign and allow us to fill their places with others who will unhesitatingly and faithfully perform the duties imposed upon them. Maryland can proudly boast of many such.

It is thought proper to publish in connection with this notice the subjoined sections of the registration law so far as they are applicable to the counties, which bear particularly upon the powers and duties of the Register and the rights of the citizen:

3. Each of the said officers of registration shall have in addition to the other powers hereinafter conferred upon him, or which may be hereafter conferred upon him by law during the respective times of his appointed sittings, the power of the justice of the peace to preserve order and enforce obedience to his lawful commands at or around his place of registration; to keep the access to such place open and unobstructed; to prevent and suppress riots, tumults, violence and disorder, and all other improper practices at, around or near to his place of registration tending to intimidation or to the obstruction of the work of registration, or the revision of the registration, and to protect and keep safe the registries of voters hereinafter referred to while in his custody and possession; he may compel the presence of witnesses before him while sitting as an officer of registration for all purposes connected with the performance of the duties of his office by summons and attachment; he may while sitting as such officer of registration commit for trial any person committing at or around his place of registration any offense forbidden by this article; he shall have the power to issue any of said summons, attachments or commitments when sitting in any county of this State to the sheriff of said county or to any constable thereof; all such processes shall be served by said respective officers in the same manner as if they were issued by a judge of a court of record having jurisdiction of the subject matter or by a justice of the peace exercising police powers within such respective jurisdiction; the sheriff or any constable in any county in this State who shall serve any of the said processes shall receive the same fees and in like manner as it is or may be by law provided that he shall receive fees in other State cases, but no officer of registration shall charge or receive any compensation for any service performed under this article except such as is provided by this article.

15. All persons who prior to the passage of this act shall have vacated or removed from or have gone with their parents from the place of their actual abode, domicile, dwelling-place or habitation within this State, and shall have taken a domicile, dwelling-place, abode or habitation out of this State, shall be conclusively presumed to have thereby intended to abandon their legal residence in this State, and to have surrendered their right to registration as legal voters in the State unless within thirty days after the passage of this act they shall go in person before the clerk of the circuit court for the county from which they shall have so removed or before the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, if their removal shall have been from said city, and make and acknowledge before such clerk an affidavit that when they so removed they did not intend to change their legal residence within the State, but that they had a fixed purpose to return at a definite time, and that they intend to return to this State and take up their actual domicile and habitation therein, on or before six months next preceding the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, eighteen hundred and ninety; * * * and unless the persons respectively making such affidavits shall actually return to this State and shall actually take up their abode, domicile or habitation therein six months before the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety, they shall be conclusively presumed to have lost their legal residence therein and shall not be entitled to registration as legal voters, and the officers of registration shall strike off their names from the registry, if they be entered thereon; and after the passage of this act all persons who shall vacate and remove from the place of their actual domicile, abode, dwelling-place or habitation out of this State shall be conclusively presumed to have lost their residence in this State, and shall in consequence thereof become disqualified to vote, unless at or about the time of such removal or within ten days thereafter they shall go in person before the clerk of the circuit court for the county from which they shall so remove, or before the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, if such removal be from said city, and shall make and acknowledge before him an affidavit declaring that notwithstanding such removal from their domicile, abode, dwelling-place or habitation, they do not intend thereby to change their legal residence, but that they have a fixed and definite purpose to return to this State on or before six months preceding the next succeeding election in November; * * * and if the persons making such affidavits shall fail so to return and take up their actual abode, domicile, dwelling-place and habitation in this State on or before six months next preceding such November election, they shall be conclusively presumed to have abandoned such declared intention, and shall thereupon become disqualified to vote in this State, and the officers of registration shall refuse to register them as qualified voters, or shall strike off their names from the registry if their names be entered thereon; the clerk before whom such affidavit shall be made, shall retain, index and record the same, and shall be entitled to demand and receive for each acknowledgement the sum of thirty cents, and for indexing and recording affidavits and acknowledgements thereto, the same compensation as is allowed by law for indexing and recording deeds, such costs to be paid to said clerks by the commissioners and mayor and city council of Baltimore respectively; such affidavits shall not be admissible in evidence as evidence of the right of the persons making the same to registration, unless they are recorded within five days from the date of the acknowledgement thereto, and a duly certified copy thereof shall be receivable in evidence in the same manner as a certified copy of a deed; false swearing in any such affidavits shall be deemed to be perjury, and shall be punishable as perjury is by the Code of Public General Laws, article twenty-seven, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Perjury;" said officers of registration shall require the production of such affidavits duly recorded, or a duly certified copy thereof in all cases where they shall have reason to suspect that the person applying to be registered as a qualified voter has lost his residence by reason of his removal from the State hereinbefore mentioned, and they may also in such cases put any question which they may deem proper to such applicant, concerning the place where he dwelt in the county or legislative district before such removal out of the State, his occupation before such removal and since, the time when he so removed, and when he returned, and all other pertinent facts and circumstances touching the right of such person to be registered, and they may require the truth of the answers of all persons to such questions to be corroborated by independent evidence if in their discretion they shall think proper; and if in answer to their questions or upon testimony produced before them it shall appear to their satisfaction that the person applying to be registered had left the State without any intention of returning at some definite time in the future he shall not be entitled to be registered as a legal voter.
