DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For the Unexpired Term in the Fifty-Third Congress,

W. LAIRD HENRY,

OF DORCHESTER COUNTY.

For Representative in the Fifty-Fourth Congress,

JOSHUA W. MILES,

OF SOMERSET COUNTY.

REV. JONOTHAN WILLIS, originally of Talbot county, was nominated for Congress at the Republican convention held at Dover, Delaware, on Tuesday.

MR. W. T. BREERWOOD, who has been severely criticised. and charged with having sent a communication to the Baltimore Sun calculated to injure the political prospects of Mr. W. Laird Henry, sandidate for Congress, repudiates any such intention and requests that we so state.

AT THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION at Salisbury, Wicomico county, last week, Robert P. Graham, a leading Republican, made a speech urging the convention to pass resolutions commending Senator Arthur P. Gorman for his untiring efforts in behalf of protection. He said no Republican Senator had done so much to uphold the principles of the protective Republican party as Senator Gorman had in the present great tariff struggle.

WE CALL particular attention to our supplement issued with to-day's issue of the TRANSCRIPT. No progressive fruit grower should fail to read the report of Mr. Marlatt on the Pear-tree Psylla. We acknowledge our indebtedness to that stirling and progressive journal, the Baltimore Herald for the use of the cuts illustrating the picturesque beauties of Chester river. Much interesting matter has again been forced out because of want of space.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Pursuant to call of the Republican County Central Committee, Republican primaries were held in the respective districts of the county on Saturday last and delegates were selected to the county convention, held in Chestertown on Tuesday, to select three delegates and three alternates to the Ocean City Congressional Convention, to convene on Wednesday, August 29. The convention was called to order by C. T. Westcott, Esq., chairman of the Central Committee. Mr. Charles S. Smith was made chairman of the convention, and W. H. Lambert Jr., secretary. The following delegates were in attendance: 1st dist. Clarence Price; 2d dist. Charles England; 3d dist. Henry Wright, Samuel Freeman, John V. Greenwood, Alfred Anderson, George E. Owens, 4th dist., 1st precinct, C. S. Smith, W. H. Lambert, Jr., W. P. Howard, J. Dunn, F. Nichols, Jr., 2d precinct, Ben. N. S. Wilkins, Jno. C. Davis, W. T. Hadaway, Joseph Elias and W. F. Thompson; 5th dist. James A. Casey, T. A. Hudson, Virgil W. Kendall, Emory Ward, Louis Henry. The delegates selected to the Ocean City Convention are: Charles T. Westcott, Franklin H. Harper, Charles S. Smith; alternates, W. H. Lambert, Jr., Jno. C. Davis and Louis Henry. The delegates will go uninstructed, and are left free to act in the best interests of their party. Messrs. C. T. Westcott, Capt. William D. Burchinal and Wilbur Eliason have been prominently spoken of for the Congressional nomination, but Mr. Westcott and Mr. Eliason have positively refused the use of their names, and it is not known that Capt. Burchinal will allow his name to be used.

FROM STILL POND.

News from our Up-county Neighbors.

Mr. Joseph W. Harper, superintendent of the Sunday school, occupied the pulpit at the M. E. Church on Sunday last, and preached quite an interesting sermon. Mr. Harper also spoke at Betterton in the afternoon.

The Still Pond creamery is being very successfully run by Mr. Frank Dalton, successor to Mr. Tull, and Mr. Dalton is getting up a reputation en butter, besides is very obliging.

The fire at Kennard's Corner, near here, was started, it is thought, by some one wishing to burn the place out because it is claimed that it is being run as a pear cider rauch.

It is stated two different parties in this neighborhood are selling intoxicants in violation of the law. A pity Still Pond should be harassed and degraded by such dens. Is there no way to enforce the law? The law-abiding citizens of this vicinity would do well to think the matter over.

E. H. Harper has his cannery running at full capacity now, canning tomatoes and corn. Employment is given to a good many people, nearly all of whom live in this neighborhood.

An Adam's express office was opened at Hepbron station on Monday by Express agent Darrell. Miss Daisy Stavely has been appointed agent.

Mr. Joseph S. Clark is building quite an addition to his residence.

Mr. Wm. M. Watts has returned from a pleasant visit at Bryn Mawr.

Mr. Charles F. Harper, of Mew York, at home on a vacation, spent several days in Baltimore this week.

The young folks have had several enjoyable strawrides recently.

Mr. L. W. Ford has a home full of summer boarders.

Medders & Co., report business very fair. The cash business attracts attention.

The Misses Jump, of Baltimore, are spending a few weeks at their country residence, Locust Lawn.

A great many young folks go to Betterton in the evenings.

Mr. Julien Gale, of Philadelphia, is visiting in the neighborhood.

Rumor says several marriages are to take place in our little village this fall.

Misses Delia Crossley and Josephine Jones having returned home after visiting in Washington and Laurel.

LOCUST GROVE HAPPENINGS.

Fired by Lightning—General News of the Week.

During the thunder gust on the night of Wednesday, the 15th, lightning struck a post in a wire fence on the farm of Mr. S. J. Hill, near here, and then ran along the fence, setting fire to a rick of straw 40 panels distant, entirely destroying it.

Quite a number from here went to Tolchester last Thursday on the Chesapeake City excursion.

The heaviest rain of the season reached here Saturday, much to the delight of the farmers. At Black's a heavy wind storm was reported doing much damage to corn, blowing it down.

The schooi house is being painted and a vestibule being built to the assistant's room. Mr. J. L. Byron is doing the work.

Mrs. Owen Hayes has returned from a visit to Seaford and other points down the Peninsula.

Mrs. Harry Coverdale, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. W. Shalleross.

Miss Laura Jones, of Chesapeake City, is visiting Miss Helen Hayes.

The game of ball to be played last Saturday with the Clings, of Chestertown, was postponed on account of the rain.

MARIE.

IS HE A SWINDLER?

A Case of More Than Usual Interest to Farmers.

A case of more than usual interest to the farming community has created considerable interest in Chestertown during the past several days. About two weeks ago W. T McGee, claiming to represent W. T. McGee & Co., Cincinnatti, Ohio, manufacturers of a combination wire and picket fence, put in an appearance in Kent. He wanted to establish a factory in Chestertown, and saw Mr. Joseph Guest and entered into a contract with him to manufacture the fence, all necessary machinery to be furnished by McGee & Co., within thirty days. McGee evidently knew Mr. Guest to be well-known, and as being looked upon in the community as a thoroughly reliable business man. Without one word of authority from Mr. Guest he proceeded to have circulars printed holding out Mr. Guest as the "manufacturer" of the fence. He then canvassed the county and sold district rights to Eugene M. Bonwill, Biddle Hossinger, E. J. Plummer, W. S. Maslin in Kent, and to John H. Evans, S. A. Wallen and others in Queen Anne's, for prices ranging from $125 to $250. He frequently went up and down on the Chester river boats and attracted considerable attention because of the large amounts of money shown. This was also the case in Chestertown. Mr. Wallen suspected that something was wrong and on Monday morning, acting upon the advice of Hope H. Barroll, Esq., had the man arrested. McGee, when asked for the note stated that it had been disposed of for valuable consideratious in Centreville, but in the same conversation stated that for $50 he would deliver the note. This was refused and McGee was placed in jail to await the action of the Queen Anne's officers. McGee, on Tuesday surrendered the note and contract to Mr. Barroll, Mr. Wallen's attorney, and left town at 3 o'clock A. M. Since his departure telegrams and letters have been received asking "where is he at?" Farmers should at least be on their guard in giving notes to unknown canvassers through the country. As soon as Mr. Guest became aware that his name was being usen in the matter, he wrote to all of the interested parties so far as known and made a public and emphatic disavowel of having any connection with the McGee transactions any further than stated above, and demanded of him that he immediately surrender the circulars.

CLIFF CITY NOTES.

Damages by Lightning—Summer Boarders, etc.

Losses from the effects of lightning have been of unusual frequency in Kent during the present summer. Much property has been seriously damaged, and a large amount completely destroyed. During the severe thunder and rain storm of Wednesday of last week, lightning struck the residence of Mr. Emory Crouch, near Cliff City. The bolt struck near the chimney, passed down, tearing off much of the weatherboarding and scattering plastering over the floor, and slightly burning the carpet on the floor of the room next the chimney struck, occupied by Rev. William Lister. Mr. Lister felt the shock but was not injured. The entire side of the house will have to be renewed. The damage was covered by insurance in the Phœnix company, represented by Mr. Harry L. Boyd.

Many people in Kent do not know how to take city people for boarders. All you have to do is to put up some trestles and put boards (soft boards) covered with a piece of bed-tick, that will do for beds, put them in the kitchen or any place, advertise plenty of fresh fish, peaches, etc., and be careful not to give them the fish until they are old enough to last several meals. Tell your boarders they are not good till they get ripe. You don't have much washing to do, just turn your pillow and bolster cases, sheets, etc., and they will last twice as long as if you were to renew them every time they ought to be. If any of them kick tell them you have been to a great expense in bringing out this grand farce and fraud, of course you will bring great discredit on the county, but if you get the cash you are all right and can move some place else and start the game anew. A small piece of tainted meat will last several meals. When the boarders rise in their wrath and seek another boarding place, appear to be surprised, and tell them all your other guests were well-pleased and sorry to leave. You need not care how bad a name you give the county, just so you get the cash. Of course permanent citizens of the county won't follow this plan as they have too much regard for the good name of their home, and it is not their nature, but it is the duty of all good citizens to see that none of our summer visitors leave the shores of Kent with a bad and false impression of our county and our people.

Rev. Wm. Lister is visiting friends in Pine Neck, and preached for them on Friday and Sunday nights.
