DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For the Unexpired Term in the Fifty-Third Congress,

W. LAIRD HENRY,

OF DORCHESTER COUNTY.

For Representative in the Fifty-Fourth Congress,

JOSHUA W. MILES,

OF SOMERSET COUNTY.

FOUR LINES only were necessary to tell "what Congress did." Forty columns would be unequal to telling what it did not that it ought to have done.

THE Easton Star, in referring to the Republican congressional nominees, says: Mr. Mallalieu is engaged with his father and a brother in the manufacture of woolen goods at Millington. He used to be but is not now.

MR. JOHN GOLDSBOROUGH, of Queen Anne's, has been appointed messenger to the Sub-Treasurer, Ormon Hammond. The appointment was through the offices of Senator Chas. H. Gibson.

TAX COMMISSIONER THOMAS J. KEATING is quoted as having said that the appointment of W. W. Woodford to the Centreville postmastership is a triumph for the Keating faction in Queen Anne's.

MR. WILLIAM R. MILLER, of Galena, appointed to a seven hundred and twenty dollar position in Baltimore City Customhouse, but not sworn in on account of lack of appropriation, appeared on Tuesday and qualified.

MR. CORNELIUS J. SCOTT, one of the delegates to the Ocean City congressional convention, and a staunch and abiding friend of President Cleveland, has written to J. W. Miles, Esq., nominee for the long term, asking him for a more explicit statement of his position toward the tariff question and the present administration.

STATE SENATOR H. W. TALBOTT, of Montgomery county, has been appointed chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, vice Hon. Barnes Compton, who recently resigned. As chairman Mr. Talbott will have full control of the collection and expenditure of the campaign funds, will arrange dates for meetings and select speakers for the gatherings to be held in all the counties and also have control of all official notices sent out or published in the name of the committee. He will be paid such a salary as the executive committee may direct. Senator Gorman used to get $50 per day as chairman, but Mr. Compton always declined taking any pay.

MR. A. L. DRYDEN, of Somerset county was nominated for Congress for the long term on the 61st ballot, by the Republican Convention in session at Ocean City on Thursday. Mr. Joseph Mallalieu, of Queen Anne's, was nominated for the short term. The 61st ballot stood:

	Dryden.	Goldsborough.	Barber.
Kent	0	0	3
Queen Anne's	4	0	0
Caroline	0	0	3
Talbot	0	0	4
Dorchester	½	3½	0
Somerset	4	0	0
Worcester	3	1	0
	15½	4½	10

Kent on the first ballot divided favors, giving one vote to each, but changed to Dryden before the announcement of the vote. Col. George M. Russum and Joseph Mallalieu were put in nomination for the short term. On the third ballot Mr. Mallalieu received 17½ votes and Col. Russum 12½ votes. Kent again divided her favors giving 1½ votes for each.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

The claims of the Republican opposition that their congressional champions, Messrs. Dryden and Mallalieu have a "fighting chance" in the First Congressional District, coupled with the openly avowed disaffection of a number of the oldest and most tried members of the Democratic rank and file in Kent, has naturally given rise to no small degree of interest as to the real inwardness of the situation in this county. The great Democratic heart of Kent is indisputably opposed to the Gorman-Gibson regeme to an extent well calculated to challenge the careful attention of State and local leaders, and certain it is, that unless a vigorous campaign is made and the masses are fully informed as to the position of the congressional nominees, Messrs. Miles and Henry, not alone as to their position in regard to the great tariff issue of the national Democracy but relative to their position as regards Messrs. Gorman and Gibson as well, a large stay-at-home vote will weaken the ranks in Kent county, and while success is not despaired of, the outlook is one of a nature to demand prompt attention. Kent county Democracy stands overwhelmingly pledged to support Grover Cleveland, and when the Bryan resolutions were offered before the Ocean City convention and were supported by the unanimous vote of her delegates, Kent county, with her sturdy sister, Queen Anne's, recorded the great sympathetic throb of their people in endorsing the president and tariff reform.

The people demanded that the convention put itself on record, not only as favoring the rugged honesty of the great American in his fight for tariff reform, but as being eternally opposed to the obstructionist measures and the dictatorial methods of the gentlemen who have dishonored their State in so flagrantly misrepresenting its people. That a feeling of unrest exists is certain, but it is stated and expected that the position of the Democratic candidates will be so clearly shown to the masses that even the Republican "fighting chance" will cease to exist.

The Baltimore Sun thus puts it: "No true Democrat can possibly take umbrage at those who insist, at this time, upon a showing of hands. Those whose Democratic hands are clean will not be afraid to show them. It is no excuse for a man now to point to his past record, and say that that must answer for him. What the people want to know, and have a right to know, is where he stands to-day, what is his present position, and what will be his stand in the future, upon the issues raised in the present Congress between the House and Senate, between the President and the "conservatives"—between the People and the Trusts."

KENT COUNTY POLITICS.

The Chestertown correspondent of the Baltimore Herald, among other things, contributed the following to his paper last week:

After the Ocean City Convention, where local and State politics were pretty freely discussed and where State Senator Hepbron was one of the prominent backers of Kent's candidate, all sorts of rumors have been afloat as to "slates" for next year. The ex-senator said some severe things about certain leaders for not carrying out their promises to make him marshal, and whetted a very sharp knife for those he supposed to be opposing him. To this end he is said to have succeeded in arranging next year's ticket. It is as follows:

For State Senator—W. T. Hepbron.

For Legislature—H. W. Vickers, C. J. Scott.

County Treasurer—Thomas Gale.

County Commissioners—First district, Samuel Todd; Second district L. C. Justis, Jr.; Third, R. C. Smyth; Fourth, John Brice; Fifth, C. H. Brown.

Sheriff—J. L. Ringgold.

Whether Mr. Vickers will be satisfied with this remains to be seen. His consent to take second place is explained by some on the theory that the Speakership prize might then be in his grasp. Mr. Scott, also, is well fitted for the Senatorship, and would honor his county in that body, or as Speaker of the House. These "fix-ups" apparently are the outcome of Senator Hepbron's disappointment and the postoffice fight in Chestertown. The latter sore is still unhealed, and the "Gilpin faction" is said to be preparing to slay their opponents.

A Menace to Health.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., Sept. 3, '94.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—To-day our children return to school. Will any one of the three or four hundred parents realize what a dangerous "return" that is? Let some of them go around to the school and observe the foul, noxious, unhealthy surroundings of the place. A score of filthy, odorous hog pens within a stone's throw. The air full of unhealthy odors. The school rooms necessarily more crowded than any other rooms in the town and county, rendered more and more unwholesome by the proximity of hog pens and filth which are a disgrace to any community. Let us hope the school trustees will appeal to the town, the health board or the county to abate the nuisance. Every child who attends this school is in danger. Every parent is interested. Can it be stopped?

PARENT.

J. W. W. WOODFORD APPOINTED POSTMASTER AT CENTREVILLE.

A Defeat for Senator Gibson.

A Baltimore Sun dispatch from Washington, says:

"Senator Gibson, of Maryland, has received a decided setback. President Cleveland has appointed J. W. W. Woodford postmaster of Centreville, Md. Centreville is Senator Gibson's native town. Mr. Gibson recommended for the place John R. Emory, his brother-in-law, who during President Cleveland's former term held a position in the Baltimore custom-house and who is now a clerk in the District Building in Washington. The junior Senator from Maryland was deaf to all appeals from his friends in Queen Anne's county not to recommend Mr. Emory for the position. He insisted, however, that he should have it and left no stone unturned to carry out his determination. He frankly informed a delegation from Centreville, which recently called upon him at the Senate in the interest of Mr. Woodford, that his brother-in-law should have the appointment if he could secure it for him. All papers bearing on the case were sent to President Cleveland a month ago. The papers, however, were returned to the Postoffice Department and there they rested until last week, when President Cleveland selected Mr. Woodford.

"Among the batch of papers was a letter from the late Representative Brattan, of the Eastern Shore district, containing a recommendation for the appointment of Blanchard Emory, who was an applicant for the place and who was well recommended by residents of the town. When Mr. Brattan entered Congress, March of last year, he made an agreement with Senator Gibson that he (Mr. Gibson) should make all recommendations for postmasters for Queen Anne's and Talbot counties, while Mr. Brattan should recommend applicants for the remaining counties of the district. Mr. Gibson suggested this arrangement, and he selected Queen Anne's and Talbot counties, because the former is his native county and the latter is his residence. This arrangement continued without friction during Mr. Brattan's congressional service, although Senator Gibson objected to two of the Representatives' recommendations—one at Galestown, Dorchester county, and one at Preston, Caroline county. The former place has not yet been filled, while in the latter Mr. Gibson withdrew his objection, and the applicant recommended by Mr. Brattan was named.

"Several months before Mr. Brattan died he was advised that Senator Gibson had recommended for appointment as collector of the port of Crisfield H. H. Dashiell, while he had favored Dr. R. W. Dashiell. At the same time Mr. Brattan was informed that Senator Gibson had urged as an objection to Dr. Dashiell's appointment that he was Mr. Brattan's brother-in-law. While President Cleveland's mind was subsequently disabused of this wrong impression, Mr. Brattan felt justified, in view of what he considered Senator Gibson's interference in Somerset county politics, to make a recommendation independent of that of Mr. Gibson for postmaster at Centreville. At the same time, in a letter to the President, he dealt with details and showed the number of relatives of Senator Gibson who had secured government positions. He called attention to the application of John R Emory for the Centreville postmastership, and at the same time called attention to the relationship existing between the applicant and the Senator. It was this letter which decided the President in the matter, and he fully determined that Senator Gibson's brother-in-law should not have the appointment.

"The fact that Senator Gibson was unsuccessful is his efforts to name the Centreville postmaster was noised about this afternoon and led a prominent official who is said to be in the confidence of President Cleveland to speak as follows: 'Neither Senators Gorman nor Gibson can expect any further favors from this administration in view of their attitude toward the President. I speak especially of Mr. Gorman, for Mr. Gibson is nothing more than his shadow. Of course, there are certain departments of the government with which Mr. Gorman is very strong—the Treasury, the War and the government printing office. In the last-named he is especially strong because he is chairman of the Senate printing committee, and in this capacity he is in a position to embarrass the public printer, Mr. Benedict, if his wishes are not respected. And yet in this same government printing office are over seventy-five Republicans from Maryland, as legacies of the Republican administration, whom Mr. Benedict is willing and anxious to discharge with Mr. Gorman's permission. He dislikes to take action independent of Mr. Gorman because they are competent employes and because he does not like to interfere in appointments affecting Mr. Gorman's own State."'

BALTIMORE & EASTERN SHORE RAILROAD SOLD.

A special dispatch to the Wilmington Every Evening, from Salisbury, Md., dated Aug. 29, says: "At noon to-day was completed the last link in the consolidation of the properties of the Baltimore & Eastern Shore Railroad Co., Maryland Steamboat Co., Choptank Steamboat Co., and the Eastern Shore Steamboat Co., when Henry P. Scott, of the banking firm of Elliott, Johnson & Co., Wilmington, Del., representing the purchasing syndicate, bought in at foreclosure sale the Baltimore & Eastern Shore Railroad Co.

"The price paid was the nominal one ($400,000) fixed by order of court in the decree of sale, as the syndicate owned almost the entire issue of the old outstanding bonds issued by the railroad. The new company which has been incorporated under the laws of Maryland to take over these properties is known as the Baltimore, Chesapeake & Atlantic Railway Co., with capital of $2,500,000.

"The properties now owned by this company have practically controlled the traffic of the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia Peninsula along the Eastern Shore of the Chesapeake bay to and from Baltimore for many years past, and the consolidation will permit their more economical management as well as give an improved service through the advantage of sameness in ownership.

"The boat lines extend along all the important water-ways of the Eastern Shore of the Chesapeake bay and include a fleet of 15 high class steamboats and over 112 wharf properties. The railroad extends from Claiborne, Md., on the Chesapeake bay across the fertile Peninsula to Ocean City on the Atlantic Ocean, a distance of about 90 miles.

"The new company represents very powerful interests and not only keeps in the management the services of the gentlemen who made the separate lines successful, but has joined with them men well-known in the business world for marked executive ability as well as great wealth.

"The new board of directors include John E. Searles, Brayton Ives, William F. Havemeyer, Charles C. Pomeroy, Winthrop M. Tuttle, New York City; Enoch Pratt, N. P. Bond, Esq., Hon. J. Upshur Dennis, Baltimore, Md.; Henry P. Scott, Thomas B. Smith, Captain Williard Thomson, Wilmington, Del.; Carroll S. Tyson, Philadelphia, Pa.; J. S. Ricker, Portland, Me.

"This new traffic consolidation will be of great advantage to the farmers and fruit growers of our Peninsula, as with the improved facilities better opportunities are offered them to ship their products to the Baltimore market.

LAWLESS TO THE LAST.

MESSRS. EDS. OF THE TRANSCRIPT:—The Sabbath-day "oyster and clam roast" at Tolchester, described in an item of your last issue, and which has called forth expressions of indignant disapproval from many law-respecting citizens, was a fitting close to Tolchester's season of lawlessness.

In its persistent desecration of the Sabbath its management has evinced a thorough and wicked disregard of all law, sacred and secular, divine and civil; and this recent incident illustrates the fact that the greed of men who prostitute the Sabbath day to their sinful uses, will not hesitate, if unrestrained, to over-ride, evade, or violate any and all law that stands between them and the accomplishment of their selfish purposes. Nothing under heaven is safe or sacred from men who steal God's day.

A week later oysters might have been procured lawfully, but true to its character, Tolchester prefers to be lawless.

Why should Tolchester and Baltimore's "4000 men, women and children," (heaven pity the children!) who were willing to associate with Tolchester in such conduct, wait a week for a matter to become lawful? Doubtless the suggestion of such a thing would have been received with derision.

The "4000" returned to Baltimore with the savor of roast oysters on their lips, and some of them at least, will be known there as reputable citizens we suppose, but they left in Kent county a savor of wickedness that should awaken execration as well as indignation, and suggest to the law-abiding of this community the necessity of a better administration of laws, if they would save themselves from the stain of a wickedness that is working disgrace.

We know not who are responsible for riot and lawlessness in Chicago and other remote points; but in Kent county, without an early change, Tolchester will deserve to stand as the representative and exponent of anarchism, nihilism, atheism and everything else that means disregard or repudiation of law.

And this is the place which some ministers of the gospel and Christian people have delighted to patronize, and against which Christian editors have not lifted their pens.

FEEDING WHEAT TO STOCK.

Grain merchants report frequent references to the larger consumption of wheat for animal food in their letters from Western correspondents. Here are a few extracts from communications received within a few days by I. M. Parr & Sons, of the Philadelphia Commercial Exchange, from business firms in different parts of the West, which give some idea of the extent of the substitution of wheat for other grains which is now in progress.

A Logansport, Indiana, firm writes:—"Saw mills in this section are putting in feed mills to grind wheat, and many farmers have bought cast iron crushers which they will run by horse-power for the same purpose. One farmer, who has raised 3000 bushels of wheat, will feed 2000 bushels."

A Van Wert, Ohio, dealer says:—"All the farmers in this section are feeding wheat and selling oats."

A large shipping firm at Columbus, Ohio, makes this report:—"The wheat we are shipping to New England is nearly all used for feeding purposes, and we have forwarded over 250 carloads so far this month. In our twenty years' experience in the grain business in Ohio this is the first time we have ever shipped wheat to New England for feeding. Farmers who have given the matter careful study claim that a bushel of wheat will go as far 1½ bushels of corn."

A St. Louis correspondent writes that his firm is shipping wheat to Iowa to be used for feeding; and from Topeka, Kansas, grain dealers write: "We have sold a great many cars of wheat for feed, and every day receive letters and telegrams from Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas asking about wheat for this purpose and about its cost. More wheat has been sold for feed in our territory during the last thirty days than has been sold for that use (we believe) in as many years."

A Jamestown, Ohio, dealer reports that farmers in this section secure the best results in feeding to hogs "by crushing the berry of the wheat and casting it over a good grade of clover hay previously cut and dampened for the purpose."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces, such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

It is thought proper to publish in connection with this notice the subjoined sections of the registration law so far as they are applicable to the counties, which bear particularly upon the powers and duties of the Register and the rights of the citizen:

3. Each of the said officers of registration shall have in addition to the other powers hereinafter conferred upon him, or which may be hereafter conferred upon him by law during the respective times of his appointed sittings, the power of the justice of the peace to preserve order and enforce obedience to his lawful commands at or around his place of registration; to keep the access to such place open and unobstructed; to prevent and suppress riots, tumults, violence and disorder, and all other improper practices at, around or near to his place of registration tending to intimidation or to the obstruction of the work of registration, or the revision of the registration, and to protect and keep safe the registries of voters hereinafter referred to while in his custody and possession; he may compel the presence of witnesses before him while sitting as an officer of registration for all purposes connected with the performance of the duties of his office by summons and attachment; he may while sitting as such officer of registration commit for trial any person committing at or around his place of registration any offense forbidden by this article; he shall have the power to issue any of said summons, attachments or commitments when sitting in any county of this State to the sheriff of said county or to any constable thereof; all such processes shall be served by said respective officers in the same manner as if they were issued by a judge of a court of record having jurisdiction of the subject matter or by a justice of the peace exercising police powers within such respective jurisdiction; the sheriff or any constable in any county in this State who shall serve any of the said processes shall receive the same fees and in like manner as it is or may be by law provided that he shall receive fees in other State cases, but no officer of registration shall charge or receive any compensation for any service performed under this article except such as is provided by this article.

15. All persons who prior to the passage of this act shall have vacated or removed from or have gone with their parents from the place of their actual abode, domicile, dwelling-place or habitation within this State, and shall have taken a domicile, dwelling-place, abode or habitation out of this State, shall be conclusively presumed to have thereby intended to abandon their legal residence in this State, and to have surrendered their right to registration as legal voters in the State unless within thirty days after the passage of this act they shall go in person before the clerk of the circuit court for the county from which they shall have so removed or before the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, if their removal shall have been from said city, and make and acknowledge before such clerk an affidavit that when they so removed they did not intend to change their legal residence within the State, but that they had a fixed purpose to return at a definite time, and that they intend to return to this State and take up their actual domicile and habitation therein, on or before six months next preceding the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, eighteen hundred and ninety; * * * and unless the persons respectively making such affidavits shall actually return to this State and shall actually take up their abode, domicile or habitation therein six months before the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety, they shall be conclusively presumed to have lost their legal residence therein and shall not be entitled to registration as legal voters, and the officers of registration shall strike off their names from the registry, if they be entered thereon; and after the passage of this act all persons who shall vacate and remove from the place of their actual domicile, abode, dwelling-place or habitation out of this State shall be conclusively presumed to have lost their residence in this State, and shall in consequence thereof become disqualified to vote, unless at or about the time of such removal or within ten days thereafter they shall go in person before the clerk of the circuit court for the county from which they shall so remove, or before the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, if such removal be from said city, and shall make and acknowledge before him an affidavit declaring that notwithstanding such removal from their domicile, abode, dwelling-place or habitation, they do not intend thereby to change their legal residence, but that they have a fixed and definite purpose to return to this State on or before six months preceding the next succeeding election in November; * * * and if the persons making such affidavits shall fail so to return and take up their actual abode, domicile, dwelling-place and habitation in this State on or before six months next preceding such November election, they shall be conclusively presumed to have abandoned such declared intention, and shall thereupon become disqualified to vote in this State, and the officers of registration shall refuse to register them as qualified voters, or shall strike off their names from the registry if their names be entered thereon; the clerk before whom such affidavit shall be made, shall retain, index and record the same, and shall be entitled to demand and receive for each acknowledgement the sum of thirty cents, and for indexing and recording affidavits and acknowledgements thereto, the same compensation as is allowed by law for indexing and recording deeds, such costs to be paid to said clerks by the commissioners and mayor and city council of Baltimore respectively; such affidavits shall not be admissible in evidence as evidence of the right of the persons making the same to registration, unless they are recorded within five days from the date of the acknowledgement thereto, and a duly certified copy thereof shall be receivable in evidence in the same manner as a certified copy of a deed; false swearing in any such affidavits shall be deemed to be perjury, and shall be punishable as perjury is by the Code of Public General Laws, article twenty-seven, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Perjury;" said officers of registration shall require the production of such affidavits duly recorded, or a duly certified copy thereof in all cases where they shall have reason to suspect that the person applying to be registered as a qualified voter has lost his residence by reason of his removal
