[LATEST TO TRANSCRIPT.]

At 5 P. M. yesterday, the following telegram was received from Baltimore:

No change from the returns given in morning papers. William L. Wilson beaten by 1000. Delaware legislature, Democratic; State ticket, Republican. Miles and Henry elected by small majority, but Republicans claim fraud in Somerset. Cowen, Rusk and Miles may be unseated by next Congress, giving solid Republican delegations from Maryland. Preparations for contests already under way. Feelings were expressed by the saying, "and the next day it snowed."

ASYNDICATE of Baltimore shipbuilders are contemplating the building of a yacht, which it is expected will prove the defender of the America cup. Come to the Eastern Shore, gentlemen, for your model, and you may have a chance.

EX-GOVERNOR JACKSON gave the Democrats of Wicomico a feast of Jacksonian Democracy last week and delivered a strong speech for Miles and Henry. The speech was truly Democratic, but the setting was as surely Jacksonian. Smithsonian Democracy as well as the local Governor Jacksonian sort are not as popular as some gentlemen would like to have them.

IT WAS MONSTROUSLY PLAIN TALK that Dr. S. R. Murray treated his congregation to on Sunday evening. It was somewhat on the order of what Daniel Webster termed sledgehammer logic. With the proper support of the community at large, the splendid work which the doctor is endeavoring to start will bear an abundant harvest of lasting results, and the birds of passage which were set loose and started on a temporary flight from numerous local rum-holes to await the discharge of the grand jury, and have since returned, will be forced to migrate permanently.

THE ELECTION IN KENT.

The polls have closed, the votes have been counted and Kent has rolled up the substantial majority of seventy-eight for the Republican ticket—a majority phenominal for its largeness even in a county usually close and sometimes divided in its political complexion. The stay-at-home vote was large throughout the county, and wholly to this cause may be attributed the defeat of the Democratic ticket. Though no general organization had been effected within Democratic ranks, active work was done at the close of the campaign, which, but for the thorough organization of the tremendous negro vote would have resulted in Democratic victory. The negro ranks stood almost impregnable against money or Democratic reasoning, and but little buying was done.

The most potent cause for defeat however, is to be found within party lines. Dissatisfaction, quiet but widespread and effective had set in; the masses, unequal to longer submitting to the abominable submission to Gorman and his trusted lieutenants and their methods throughout the State, registered their eloquent repudiation of the organization of which the great national and local machines are the controlling powers, remained at home and defeat has swept over what would otherwise have been a solidly Democratic county. There is a stirring and important lesson to be learned from the result in this county. The official vote given below shows to what extent this repudiation of the State and local machines has taken place.

WITH THE BRETHREN.

Mr. James Young, of the Baltimore Telegram, has purchased all the property, right and title of the Baltimorean, and will merge the paper into the Telegram. The Baltimorean was next to the oldest weekly in Baltimore, and during Mr. Crutchfield's life, enjoyed the reputation of being one of the most successful journals in the city. The subscribers and advertisers will be continued by the Baltimore Telegram.

As the natural result of well-directed energy, judiciously expended wealth, enterprise and advanced methods in nineteenth century journalism, the Baltimore Herald finds itself altogether too large for its old quarters and is now erecting a home commensurate with the demands of one of the most reliable, progressive and ably edited dailies in the south. The Herald is newsy and sprightly, and fulfills every demand of a vigorous and sturdy manhood.

Brother Thomas, of the Peninsula Methodist, fails to agree upon Prohibition matters with certain members of his church, and is receiving some hot-shot and sending back some rather penetrating insinuations Presiding Elder Smith is on the editor's track and it is a case of Greek meet Greek.

Editor Haddaway, of the Easton Ledger, says of the published statement that "The Senator (Gibson) sat in the audience and heard himself denounced," at the Easton meeting; "there never was a more unwarranted and more audacious falsehood permitted to go into a respectable newspaper."

Talbot newspaper men believe in plain English and in following the scriptural injunction of calling a spud a spud and a hoe a hoe.

Editor Bunting, of the Calvert Journal, is eloquently crisp in putting his political philosophies. He says: "A refusal to vote the full ticket, because some man happens on it whom you do not like or is not your choice is too small a business for sensible men to consider.

Editor Chambers, of the Federalsburg Courier, surmises that the Napoleon of the Tariff Bill, Senator Gorman, must feel somewhat lonely at not having had his action on the tariff endorsed by a single Democratic meeting in the country.

Republicans Sweep the Country.

The Lower House of Congress Lost and the Senate in Doubt.

EVEN MARYLAND SHAKEN.

Kent Goes to the Enemy by Seventy-eight Majority.

Wilson Swept Down in the Crash

Hill and Tammany go Down Together Under 190,000.

QEEEN ANNE'S IN A MUDDLE.

Cecil, Kent, Caroline, Talbot and Dorchester the Republican Eastern Shore Counties

KENT.—In another column will be found the official figures of the vote in Kent, figures, too, which remove the grand old Democratic commonwealth of Kent from her time-honored moorings. Mr. John Brice says: "Our Democracy should now whet their knives and at 'em, Kent can not stay out of the fold."

MARYLAND.—In Baltimore city the Democrats elected to Congress, Harry Welles Rusk and John K. Cowen.

The Republicans elect a judge of the Supreme Bench and twelve members of the City Council. This gives that party a majority of two in this Branch and is the first time the Republicans have had absolute control in any department of the city government since 1867.

The Democrats control the Second Branch by a vote of 9 to 2.

The Republicans gained three congressmen in the State; Baker, in the second district; Coffin, in the fifth and Wellington in the sixth.

THE QUEEN ANNE'S TROUBLE.—The Queen Anne's Democracy, after rolling up a magnificent majority of 511 finds itself confronted by a complication which may result in the throwing out of several districts and the possible defeat of the candidates for Congress in the first district.

The ballots of the Church Hill and Crumpton districts became mixed in some way and were voted in this confused condition. The mixing of the ballots, it is stated, was known, but it was mutually agreed between the judges of election in the districts that the voting should go on. It is this which now threatens an interesting contest of the election in the districts affected.

TALBOT—Talbot county gives 225 plurality for Mallalieu and Dryden.

MARLBORO'—The contest in Southern Maryland was marked by a thorough disorganization of the Democratic forces. The entire ticket was snowed under, and no practical attempt was made to sustain the party candidates at the polls.

CECIL—Cecil county gives Baker, Republican, the county over Talbott, Democrat, by 148 majority. License defeated by 576 majority.

DORCHESTER—Thirteen districts in Dorchester give the Republicans a majority of 267. The Republicans will carry the county by 250. W. Laird Henry will run ahead of his ticket.

CAROLINE — West Republican by about 50. The Prohibitionists polled 200.

WICOMICO—Went largely Democratic.

FRAUD CHARGED IN SOMERSET.—No definite reports were obtainable from Somerset to the hour of going to press, but the American's correspondent said:

The most glaring frauds and unprecedented use of money have characterized the election in Somerset county to-day. The Republicans did not spend one dollar, yet the county will remain in the Republican column. A contest before Congress is inevitable.

IN OTHER STATES.

Hill was defeated in New York by about 140,000 majority. Mr. Hill myrtleized the phenomenally small plurality in New York city of 2,549, while in Kings county Mr. Morton has reversed the plurality of 16,000 given to Mr. Flower, and has put that plurality to his own credit, making a Republican gain of 32,000.

In Col. Breckinridge's Congressional district in Kentucky, Owens, the man who beat Breckinridge after a sensational campaign, is said to have been beaten by from 1000 to 2600. Breckinridge treachery is said to have caused it.

Delaware is probably Republican, electing a Republican Legislature and Governor.

Blood-to-the-Bridles Waite, the Populist Governor of Colorado, who was a candidate for re-election, was buried under a Republican plurality of 20,000.

The greatest blow to the great Democratic masses throughout the country was the defeat by about 1000 of Congressman William L. Wilson, of West Virginia. Mr. Wilson, by his manly, straightforward course on the tariff question, had become the most conspicuous figure in American politics. He is the great national hero of tariff reform and Cleveland Democracy. He lives in a close district and his defeat was the result of an exterminating warfare by protected corporations in his district and throughout the country.

In 1882, his first term, Mr. Wilson defeated John W. Mason by 10 votes; in 1884 his majority against W. M. Reynolds was 1534; in 1886 he defeated W. H. H. Flick by 90 votes, and in 1888 again defeated the same gentleman by 378 votes. In 1890 he got his greatest majority of 2065 votes against George Harman, while in 1892 he was returned for his sixth term by 1051 votes.

The Republicans have made sweeping gains throughout the country. Even the south, though still solid was affected by the fatal contagion.

Mr. Cleveland did not vote but received the election news at his home.

WHERE ELECTIONS WERE HELD.

Elections of representatives to Congress were held on Tuesday in all the States of the Union except Maine, Oregon and Vermont, which had already chosen their members—eight in number, and all, as usual, Republicans. On the same day the territories of Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Utah elected one delegate to Congress.

Elections of State officers, &c., were held on the same day in 30 states. Legislatures were elected in two others and a constitution was voted on in California, Colorado, Kansas, Montana, Nevada, North and South Dakota and Virginia Of the legislature selected, 53 will choose United States Senators, 16 of which are now represented by Republicans and 6 by Democrats. Michigan, Montana and North Carolina each selects two United States Senators. Maryland, Georgia and Louisiana only elected Congressmen.

In most of the states in which elections were held the Prohibitionists and the Populists, by that or some other name, had tickets in the field.

CALIFORNIA.—Elected its full list of State officers, to serve four years, and the legislature which will choose a United States Senator to succeed George C. Perkins, Republican, appointed by the governor upon the death of Senator Leland Stanford, Republican. They also voted upon nine proposed amendments to their State constitution—to establish an educational qualification for the suffrage; to exempt from taxation fruit and nut trees under 4 years of age and grape vines under 3 years of age, etc.

COLORADO.—Elected all its State officers, to serve two years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed Edward O. Wolcott, Republican.

CONNECTICUT.—Elected its State officers for two years and the Legislature.

DELAWARE.—Elected its governor for four years and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed Anthony Higgins, Republican. The people also voted upon the question of holding a convention to revise the constitution.

IDAHO.—Elected its State officers for two years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed George L. Shoup, Republican.

ILLINOIS.—Elected minor State officers, one-half its State Senate and all its assembly. The legislature will choose a United States Senator as successor of Shelby M. Cullom, Republican. The people also voted upon a proposed amendment to the constitution of the State directing the legislature to enact laws regulating contracts between corporations and their employees.

INDIANA.—Elected State officers, except governor and lieutenant-governor, to serve two years, and the legislature.

IOWA.—Elected State officers, except governor and lieutenant-governor, for two years.

KANSAS.—Elected State officers for two years and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed John Martin, Democratic Populist. The people also voted upon a proposed amendment to the constitution of the State, extending the privilege of the suffrage to women.

KENTUCKY.—Elected four judges of its court of appeals and three railroad commissioners.

MASSACHUSETTS.—Elected State officers for one year, and the Legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed George F. Hoar, Republican.

MICHIGAN.—Elected State officers for two years, and the legislature, which will choose two United States Senators, as successors of James McMillan and John Patton, Jr., both Republicans.

MINNESOTA.—Elected State officers for two years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed William D. Washburn, Republican.

MISSOURI.—Elected judge of the Supreme Court for ten years, superintendent of public instruction for four years, and the legislature.

MONTANA.—Elected associate justice of the Supreme Court, and the legislature, which will choose two United States Senators, one as successor of Thomas C. Power, Republican, and the other to fill a vacancy caused by the failure of the last legislature to elect. The people also decided by their votes which city, Helena or Anaconda, shall be the permanent State capital.

NEBRASKA.—Elected State officers for two years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed Charles F. Manderson, Republican.

NEVADA.—Elected State officers for four years and the legislature, and voted upon 25 proposed amendments to the constitution of the State.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Elected a governor for two years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed William E. Chandler, Republican.

NEW JERSEY.—Elects the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed John R. McPherson, Democrat.

NEW YORK.—Elected a governor, lieutenant-governor, judge of the Court of Appeals and the Assembly. The candidates were: David Bennett Hill, Democrat, Everett P. Wheeler, Democrat Reform; Levi Parsons Morton, Republican; Charles E. Baldwin, Prohibitionist, and Charles H. Matchett, Socialist Labor.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Elected a State treasurer for four years, chief justice and three associates of the Supreme Court and the legislature, which will choose two United States Senators—one to succeed Matthew W. Ransom, Democrat, and the other to succeed Thomas J. Jarvis, Democrat.

OHIO.—Elected minor State officers.

NORTH DAKOTA.—Elected State officers for two years and the legislature.

PENNSYLVANIA.—Elected State officers for four years, auditor-general for three years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed J. Donald Cameron, Republican.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—Elected State officers for two years and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed Matthew C. Butler, Democrat.

SOUTH DAKOTA.—Elected State officers for two years and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed Richard F. Pettigrew, Republican.

TENNESSEE.—Elected governor for two years, judge of the Supreme Court, and the legislatures, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed Isham G. Harris, Democrat.

TEXAS.—Elected State officers for two years and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed Richard Coke, Democrat.

VIRGINIA.—Voted upon a proposed amendment to the constitution of the State empowering justices of the peace to try cases of misdemeanor without the intervention and cost of a jury.

WASHINGTON.—Elected two judges of the Supreme Court and the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of John R. Allen, Republican.

WEST VIRGINIA.—Elected the legislature, which will choose a United States Senator to succeed Johnson N. Camden, Democrat.

WISCONSIN.—Elected State officers for two years and the legislature.

WYOMING.—Elected State officers for two years and the legislature, which will choose two United States Senators, one for four years, to succeed Francis E. Warren, Republican, the last legislature having failed to elect, and the other for the full term of six years, to succeed Joseph M. Carey, Republican.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP AND
A Great Sale of Dry Goods.
THE FIRM OF STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER
Will Be Dissolved

in January next by the retirement of one of the senior partners.

It is, therefore, desirable to turn the great bulk of the stock into cash in order to facilitate settlement. The stock is large—approaching in value, and almost exclusively made up of seasonable and most desirable goods, carefully selected by skilled buyers,

To prepare for this important event there has been a GENERAL MARK DOWN IN PRICES and

One of the Greatest Distribution Sales

Philadelphia has ever witnessed, is now under full headway.

Every thing in stock has not been reduced. But many lines of seasonable, fine quality goods—in fact, choice goods in every department has been greatly reduced, in some cases more than half. Never before have such money-saving opportunities been afforded.

BUYERS OF DRY GOODS within reach of Philadelphia should make every effort to visit our store at an early date.

BUYERS BY MAIL also share in the benefits of this exceptional opportunity. FOR DAILY BULLETINS of goods and prices, see Philadelphia daily papers.

Caroline V. Jones,
vs.
Peter Elizabeth Demby, Wm. Thomas Demby, Anna A. Clower, John Clower, John B. Jones, Hannah Jones, James A. Jones.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate of which James A. Jones, colored, late of Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, died possessed, situated in said town and county and State.

The bill states that the said James A. Jones departed this life in the year 1894, leaving a last will and testament duly executed and admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court for Kent county; that by the said last will and the codicil thereto he devised certain houses and lots of land in fee simple unto the said Caroline V. Jones, and he also devised unto her a one-third interest of, in and to all his property of all and every kind whatsoever, in lieu of whatever interest or proportion she is or might possibly be entitled under the laws of the State of Maryland, and that the said one-third interest as aforesaid was devised to her in fee simple, and shows that as devisee, under said last will and testament, she is entitled to a one-third interest in fee simple in and to all the real estate of the said James A. Jones in common with his heirs-at-law and devisees under said last will and testament, and that the heirs and devisees of the said Jas. A. Jones are Peter Elizabeth Demby, W. T. Demby, Anna A. Clower, John Clower, John B. Jones, Hannah Jones, James A. Jones, and that William M. Jones hath departed this life intestate leaving no child surviving him; and the bill also shows that the said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled thereto, and that in order to make a division of the said real estate it will be necessary for the same to be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their several interests. It is thereupon, this 3d day of November, 1894, adjudged and ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once a week for four successive weeks before the 1st day of December, 1894, give notice to the absent defendants, Peter Elizabeth Demby, Wm. T. Demby, Anna A. Clower, John Clower, John B. Jones, Hannah Jones and James A. Jones, of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 7th day of January next to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
