COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

MUCH editorial and local matter is forced out of this issue by new advertisements.

THE CENTREVILLE FOOT BALL TEAM was out-classed when it tackled the Still Pond men, and went down with a score of sixteen to four in the Thanksgiving game.

WELCOME CHRISTIAM ENDEAVORERS.

To the noble men and women in convention in our town, the TRANSCRIPT extends a sincere and cordial greeting. In behalf of the great number of God-fearing and Christian people of Chestertown and the county, we bid you welcome, and as emphasizing the welcome from the press already so eloquently given, we bid you thrice welcome to our midst. The keys of our town are at your disposal, and a splendid hospitality and a royal good cheer we promise you in every home. Our people greet you with pleasure, and at parting will wish you one and all a hopeful God-speed.

Locust Grove Items.

Mr. Geo. W. Roeder and family are in Baltimore for a few days.

Mrs. L. V. Hayes is also spending a few days with Baltimore friends.

Miss Emma Shallcross has returned from a visit to her brother in Wilmington.

Mrs. Gilbert, of Wilmington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erskine.

Mrs. Walter Williams, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mrs. G. R. Chrisfield.

Miss Bertha Hayes spent a few days with Miss Mary Pennington, the past week.

The ladies of the M. E. Church are to hold a mum social at Mrs. Henry Kelley's, Tuesday, 11th inst. Proceeds to defray the expenses of a Christmas entertainment. H. M.

From Golt's Station.

EDITORS OF TRANSCRIPT:—Our church "still lives" and the work here is in good condition. We are holding our revival at Golt's station church and are having fine meetings. There have been five converts, four received on probation and others seeking, and the church awakened. We held services morning and night Thanksgiving and both services were interesting and well attended.

The good people of Delaney's church made the pastor a donation of things for Thanksgiving. The people of this charge are very kind. If there is not much money they do not intend to see their preacher suffer.

There will be a festival held at Massey's on Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Christmas. All are invited.

Our fourth quarterly conference for this charge will be held at Golt's, Dec. 22.

Betterton's Newsy Budget.

The Christian Endeavorers held their first anniversary on Sunday, with an enjoyable programme. Rev. Joseph Harper was present, as also the president of the Kennedyville society, and both gave interesting talks.

Mr. Thomas Rasin and Capt. John Brice have been gunning on the Susquehanna Flats, but with poor success.

Mr. William Warram is getting ready to move into his neat new home near the church. Mr. John Leah will occupy the home from which Mr. Warram will move.

Mr. Irving Robinson anticipates, so it is stated, building a pretty home on the lot recently purchased from Mr. George E Owens.

Mr. R. C. Young, formerly of Betterton, has purchased a residence on Fulton Ave, Baltimore.

Loggers are still at work near here. Mr. John Smith says he hardly expects to complete his work this winter. Mr. William A. Crew has about cleared the logs out of Sassafras river.

Capt. Charles Bacon, the devotee of jollity and a good time, will spend the winter in Baltimore.

Capt. Crew has been with his friend, Mr. Perkins, of Beverly, N. J., on a gunning excursion to Spesutia Island.

"ICI ON PARLE FRANCAIS."

The entertainment by the Church Hill Amateur Dramatic Club, at Stam's Hall, on Monday evening, was a pleasant success. The programme was opened with enjoyable musical selections as follows: Instrumental, Mr. Wm. H. Brierley; quartette, "Come where my love lies Dreaming," Messrs. R. G. Duckett, Jr., W. H. Brierly, J. Friel and Dr. J. L. Finley; Solo, "Dreaming of Love," obligato, Miss Nannie Sparks, Mr. E. S. Valiant. The comedy "Ici on Parle Francais" was charmingly rendered with the following cast of characters: Major Regulus Rattan, Mr. Edwin Valliant; Victor Dubois (Frenchman), Dr. J. L. Finley; Mr. Spriggins, Mr. Wm. H. Brierly, Mrs. Spriggins, Mrs. J. L. Finley; Angelina (their daughter), Miss Julia Sparks; Julia, wife of Major Rattan, Miss Nannie Sparks; Anna Maria, maid of all work, Miss Lutie Batte. Mrs. Finley, as usual did splendidly, while Mr. Brierly made for himself a new and most enviable reputation. Dr. J. Lane Finley was at his best as the "adoring Frenchman." Indeed, the doctor never appeared in better form, unless perhaps in his inimitable songs. Next to the fascinating "Box of Monkeys," which was rendered by the same company last year, the embarrassments attendant upon Mr. Brierly's study of "French before breakfast" was one of the most delightful little comedies ever given in Stam's Hall. Miss Parvis who was so delightfully original and at home in her part last year, was not with the company. After the comedy, Messrs. Finley and Friel rendered vocal solos in splendid style. Next came "The Veneered Savage," with the following cast: Lou Dayton, a Chicago belle, Mrs. J. L. Finley; Madge Dayton, her younger sister, Miss Lutie Batte; Dick Majindie, their cousin, Mr. Edwin Valliant; The Duchess of Diddlesex, Miss Nannie Sparks; Lady Fannie, her daughter, a silent young person, Miss Julia Sparks; Lord Algernon Penryhn, a still more silent young person, Mr. W. H. Brierly; Footman, Dr. J. L. Finley. Dr. Finley delivered a laughable lecture on apples, attributing the weaknesses to which the human family is heir, to Mr. and Mrs. Adam as the result of their having put their lips to a trough of apple jack.

Dr. Finley sung several songs which was received by the audience with a whirlwind of enthusiasm. The doctor is par-excellence in his songs and will never fail to be a drawing card with Kent county audiences. By request he sang, "The man that broke the bank at Monte Carlo." The audience was highly satisfactory and appreciative.

FROM CRUMPTON.

Broken Limbs—Sale of Real Estate—Death of an Old Citizen—Creamery and Other Items.

Will Stagle, a young married man of this place who had his leg broken by the kick of a horse over at Mr. Clay Stevens' farm ten days ago, and now under treatment of Dr. F. N. Sheppard, is doing well.

The 12-year-old son of Mr. Charles Cole, on the Pennington farm, near Chesterville, had his thigh broken near the hip on Friday last. The child was at school when Mr. Pearly Moffett's wagon passed with another wagon attached, and the boy with other children, jumped on the wagon tongue for a ride. Caleb fell off, the wheel of the wagon passing over him, making the fracture.

Mr. Jerry Godwin has purchased the Milborn house, on or near the Piney shore. Jerry has the cage, now for the bird. We hope birdie won't fly away.

Mr. C. W. Clements has purchased the Alday Clements house in Crumpton.

Mr. Alday Clements has purchased the Spry vs. Bonwell farm, adjoining Chesterville. Price not known, but supposed to be about $11,000.

Mrs. Lucy Atkinson has been offered $100 advance on the dwelling she recently bought of Mrs. H. P. Merritt.

In the death of Mr. John R. Sparks we have lost one of the oldest residents of Crumpton. He came here in 1861. By common consent he is reputed to have been an industrious, economical, honest, conscientious, upright and God-fearing man. He was a member and active worker of the M. E. Church for many years. Much afflicted of late he patiently suffered the will of the Lord until his change came. He received the summons gladly, and has without doubt gone to the reward of the just. His funeral was attended by a large concourse of people.

Mr. Spencer Merrick is still confined to the house, but is improving.

All signs of the scarlet fever, which took away little Beulah Sparks, and resulted in the closing of the schools for a week, have disappeared.

Mrs. Emma Sheets, after a long absence from her family and home, has returned.

Dr. Carter has been on a visit to Philadelphia, it is said to get a wedding outfit. Madam Rumor has set the marriage day for Dec. 12. The coming bride, formerly of Kent, is now resident of Greensborough, Caroline county.

Joe, a young and worthy batchelor, and who has a nice home in a most desirable part of the town, says he must have a change in life, so we expect the return of Rhoda at no distant day.

The Crumpton creamery gave 85 cents for milk last pay day. Your correspondent interviewed Mr. Ed. Bishop on the milk question. He says he brings 800 pounds per day—not a drop of water in it, not a spoonful of skimmed milk and no petticoats. The last-mentioned article was put in no doubt, by reason of the fact that the Sudlersville creamery is said to have found a child's petticoat in a can of milk.

Rev. J. B. Merritt has been all ready to move for a week or more, and detained by the inclemency of the weather. He and family hope to be in Fairlee before the next issue of your excellent paper.

BENTLEY.

Rock Hall Picks.

There is to be a Prohibition club organized in this place on Monday evening next Dec. 10th at Downey's hall, at 7.30 o'clock. The purpose of this club is to advance the cause of the Prohibition party in the town and district. It is a movement which all true Prohibitionists of the fifth district should join and help for the good work for God, home and native land. This would be a good movement to be carried forward throughout the county.

Miss Laura Greenwood, of Baltimore, is home on a visit to her parents.

Miss Lydia Apsley has returned from a short trip to the city.

Mr. A. Alexander is contemplating moving his large store house up on the vacant lot next Mr. Geo. Lambert's store. This will be a tremendous undertaking, but Mr. A. is fully equal to such tasks, and if he says go, it goes.

Rev. Edward Davis preached in Piney Neck Church on last Sunday afternoon in the absence of the pastor, Rev. L. E. Poole.

Now that we are to have a Prohibition club, the next thing in order will be a Law and Order Society. Good fellow citizens, what say you?

As will be found elsewhere, the U.R.K. of P. will hold a splendid festival and supper at Rock Hall, on Friday and Saturday evenings, December 7th and 8th. The following committees have been appointed:

Table committee—Mrs. Annie Boyer, Mrs. Emma Ayres, Mrs. Ida Ayres, Mrs. Anne Scoone, Mrs. J. A. Greenwood, Mrs. Thos. Rich, Mrs. Molly Durding, Mrs. Wm. Durding, Mrs. Jeff Ayres, Mrs. Wm. Downey, Mrs. Abe Casey, Mrs. John Casey, Mrs. John Downey, Mrs. Wm. Satterfield, Mrs. Wm. Coleman, Mrs. Wm. Scott, Mrs. Harry Davis, Mrs. Ed. Jones, Mrs. Wm. Ashley, Mrs. J. Walmsley, Mrs. Marion Downey, Mrs. L. J. Whaland, Mrs. Marion Sewell, Mrs. George Colyier, Mrs. Lee Durding, Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. D. K. Ayres, Mrs. W. K. Ayres, Mrs. Henry Urie, and Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. George Ayres.

Ticket committee—Messrs. Thomas Rich and William Durding.

Ice cream and cake committee—Misses Nettie Boyer, Bertha Whaland, and Mr. B. I. Ashley.

Confectionery committee—Misses Maggie Hirsch, Mary Hirsch, Maggie McKivitt and Ella Sommers.

Banana committee—Misses Clara Middleton and Bessie Satterfied.

Lemonade committee—Mr. Frank Davis and Miss Hattie Casey.

Peanut committee—Miss Ryan.

Fancy table committee—Misses Hope Greenwood, Myra Ayres and Rhoda Downey.

These committees are guarantees of a royal occasion. X. Y. Z.

Cliff City.

Capt. Benny was at home last week and the bugeye was in charge of the mate down the river. There were a good many remarks about neglect of duty and all of those kind of things which persons can get off when they feel inclined to come down on you with sledge hammer blows, and the captain got the full benefit. But the sequel showed that Benny was attending to his business and it resulted in the arrest of a number of tongers for having an overplus of undersized oysters. Capt. B. says he intends to break it up, and if he does, the very ones who were arrested will thank him for it next year when they find our oyster bars covered with saleable oysters.

Now if there is any way to get the inspectors in Baltimore to do their duty and arrest three or four captains of the run boats the trouble will end.

The Modern Mother

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Massey's Haps.

Mr. S. J. Johnson, above Massey's, is a champion corn-husker. He recently husked 600 baskets of corn and cut the fodder in one day with a "Keystone husker."

Mr. Fred Numbers, the affable agent at Massey's, is building a very pretty frame residence, which he will probably occupy about March 1st.

Mr. A. F. Huey, the newly-elected director in the Second National Bank of Chestertown, expects to move into his spacious new quarters by January 1st, and will have the finest establishment of the kind in the county. His line of carriages, stoves, etc. will equal, if not surpass that of any similar establishment on the Peninsula.

THERE is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucus surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

Order of Publication.

Caroline V. Jones,
vs.
Peter Elizabeth Demby, Wm. Thomas Demby, Anna A. Clower, John Clower, John B. Jones, Hannah Jones, James A. Jones.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate of which James A. Jones, colored, late of Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, died possessed, situated in said town and county and State.

The bill states that the said James A. Jones departed this life in the year 1894, leaving a last will and testament duly executed and admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court for Kent county; that by the said last will and the codicil thereto he devised certain houses and lots of land in fee simple unto the said Caroline V. Jones, and he also devised unto her a one-third interest of, in and to all his property of all and every kind whatsoever, in lieu of whatever interest or proportion she is or might possibly be entitled under the laws of the State of Maryland, and that the said one-third interest as aforesaid was devised to her in fee simple, and shows that as devisee, under said last will and testament, she is entitled to a one-third interest in fee simple in and to all the real estate of the said James A. Jones in common with his heirs-at-law and devisees under said last will and testament, and that the heirs and devisees of the said Jas. A. Jones are Peter Elizabeth Demby, W. T. Demby, Anna A. Clower, John Clower, John B. Jones, Hannah Jones, James A. Jones, and that William M. Jones hath departed this life intestate leaving no child surviving him; and the bill also shows that the said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled thereto, and that in order to make a division of the said real estate it will be necessary for the same to be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their several interests. It is thereupon, this 3d day of November, 1894, adjudged and ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once a week for four successive weeks before the 1st day of December, 1894, give notice to the absent defendants, Peter Elizabeth Demby, Wm. T. Demby, Anna A. Clower, John Clower, John B. Jones, Hannah Jones and James A. Jones, of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 7th day of January next to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
