R. HARRISON COLLINS. C. COX HOPPER.

COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

JAMES H. TRUSS will be hanged at Elkton to-morrow for the murder of Captain Thomas Camp, at Chesapeake City, on January second.

ADDICKS, the Delaware boss, was voted out of the St. Louis Convention, and now the gas-man eloquent is swearing vengeance against his tormentors.

DAVID BENNETT HILL, the New York Democratic leader, says that W. C. Whitney, of New York, and Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, will be the Democratic national ticket. This of course means sound money at Chicago.

IN THE DEATH OF William S. Busick, yesterday, at his home in Still Pond, Kent county loses one of her most estimable and highly respected citizens, and the news of his death will be learned with profound regret by a wide circle of friends.

EUGENE HIGGINS, the Baltimore politician, is reported as having given his reasons for being a free silver man at a ratio of sixteen to one, as because he will have sixteen chances to one to get hold of the mighty dollar. About the size of Mr. Higgin's politics.

WHO KNOWS BUT THAT Senator Gorman may consider himself a member ex-officio of the Maryland delegation to Chicago, and is even now, as he did four years ago, having A. P. G. badges and buttons stamped for the tear-extracting occasion when the Maryland Senator shall be put in nomination for the natiopnal presidency.

IT IS NOW AN OLD, old story, that William McKinley, Jr., of Ohio, is the Republican presidential standard bearer in the coming campaign, and Garret A. Hobart, New Jersey, holds second place on the ticket. "Sound money and protection" are to be the campaign slogans, but the prospects are that the Republican Napoleon will endeavor to force the question of finance as only a secondary matter.

THE VALUATION placed upon Kent county real estate has called forth an expression of surprise from the Centreville Observer, which is worthy of note. The Observer says in referring to the maximum valuation of forty dollars per acre without the buildings, placed on Kent county real estate by the board of assessore: "On many farms the value of the buildings would make the price run up beyond $50 per acre. Farms in Kent county must be very valuable if they will sell now for $50 at cash sales, and even if they would it is doubtful whether lands or property generally ought to be assessed at the full value. Who knows how long property is to remain even as high as it is now?" The exception is well taken. The valuation is excessive and out of all reason.

IT IS ALWAYS a pleasure to write about the work of the Children's Fresh Air Society. This beautiful charity has now been in operation in Baltimore city five years and the work is growing marvellously each year. During these five years many neglected "little ones" have been taken from poverty-stricken homes, where vice abounds and where a breath of fresh air is an almost unobtainable luxury, and have been transported to the midst of green fields to be ministered to by kind and loving friends. Another year the Fresh Air Society of Baltimore appeals to those living in the country to take these children into their homes for two weeks, where they can have fresh air for their little lungs, good country milk for their hungry little bodies, new ideals of liying for their ready little minds to see and perhaps try to imitate, and love and kindness to make happy memories in lives that have all too few bright days. The society prefers to send the children in parties of ten to sixty or more. Every expense is paid by the society; the children are provided with suitable clothing and are pronounced free from contagious diseases. No salaries are paid in the fresh air work.

Let the people of Kent lend their aid to this magnificent charity. The pleasure to be derived from having one, two or three of these little fresh-air-hungering ones in the country home would far more than repay for the trifling trouble occasioned by their visit. Any who will undertake this mission of beautiful charity may send their name, with the number of children they will take for one or two weeks to the TRANSCRIPT office, and they will be forwarded promptly to the proper parties.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF WHEAT.

Through the kindness of Mr. H. M. Brown, one of the most extensive buyers of grain in the county, the TRANSCRIPT is enabled to give the following from the Daily Produce Report, relative to the shipment of the present crop of wheat:

"As the season is close at hand for the new crop of wheat to make its advent in this market, and considering in this connection the mixed and irregular manner in which it has been marketed in previous years, we feel that it will be both timely and of pecuniary benefit to re-publish, for the information of nearby shippers to this centre, the new descriptive grade, which goes into effect on and after July 1, 1896. It is as follows:

"'No. 2 red winter wheat (western) shall be dry, sound, reasonably clean red winter wheat, FROM ANY SECTION, and may contain a very limited number of white grains, BUT MUST BE FREE FROM GARLIC.'

"In view of the above, we would respectfully advise shippers and handlers to sort and forward separately that portion of their crop which may be free of garlic from the garlicky product, instead of mixing it as has been their custom heretofore. The percentage of nearby wheat free of garlic may be small, but the mere fact of the presence of garlic exerts more or less of a depressing influence upon prices and deteriorates the offering. The carrying out of these suggestions might necessitate considerable extra labor, but those interested will find, in the end, that their adoption has been well remunerated."

PEACH CROP ESTIMATES.

The Outlook for Over 1,000,000 Baskets in Kent—Estimates from Other Great Peach-Growing Sections, Including California.

It is now comparatively safe to make estimates of the peach crop for Kent county and the other great peach-growing sections of the country. The "June drop," which is now over, was unusually light, and barring dangers from storms of an unusual character, the crop may now be said to be moderately safe. Through the kindness of Managers Stacy, of the Baltimore and Delaware Bay Railroad, Mr. F. C. Numbers, of Massey's, and other friends, we are enabled to present this week what may be claimed to be the fullest and most complete estimate of Kent's peach crop for the present season.

The most of our trees have been taken out, owing to yellows, but what are left show a good crop. The pear crop is almost a complete failure, many of our trees having no fruit at all on them, and several orchards of 4000 to 5000 trees will only yields 100 to 200 baskets. Apples very few.

In the vicinity of Tolchester the crop is estimated at 55,000 packages.

At Grey's Inn and Rock Hall the crop will mostly be gathered from small orchards, and altogether the outlook is for about 30,000 packages.

Grand total of packages in the county, 1,169,950.

IN QUEEN ANNE.

Just across the Chester, in Queen Anne, are some very heavy crops, as follows:

William Hendrix	8,000	40,000
A. J. Hynson	4,000	2,500
George W. Smith	2,800	7,000
S. L. Wright	2,500	3,500
W. Irving Walker	17,300	25,750

George Snitcher is reported as having already purchased 20,000 baskets in which to market his crop.

Eighteen Double Creek peach growers report fine crops. 250,000 baskets is not an over-estimate for our friends across the river.

FROM OTHER IMPORTANT POINTS.

Through the kindness of Mr. Hiram M. Brown, who is largely interested in the peach outlook himself, and is one of the most extensive dealers in fruit and grain in the county, we are enabled to give authoritative and reliable information from other great peach sections. In a letter to Mr. Brown Messrs. Will & Co., of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Western New York, which has always cut a big figure with the peach crop, especially in our local market, will have no peach crop, as the late spring frosts killed the buds."

Snow & Co., of Boston, write: "We can not forecast anything about peaches, but anticipate a good demand; we have a good crop, and there is always a good demand when there is a good crop. We should like very much to operate with you, as we recollect the fine Reeves that came from Chestertown in the past.

Earle & Bros., Chicago, write: "The prospects for peaches in Michigan are very favorable indeed, and if the crop there turns out as favorable as it looks now, we do not think there will be any opportunity for Maryland stock to come this way, as Michigan will probably supply this and neighboring markets."

William S. Sweet & Son, Providence, Rhode Island, say: "As far as we can learn the outlook promises a large crop throughout the States of Maryland and Delaware. Of course, you understand, large supply means low prices. Our people haven't had their fill of peaches for the past two years. Our trade will take large quantities of peaches."

FROM WESTERN MARYLAND.

Peaches promise well. Low lands not much. Some growers will thin trees next week.

IN DELAWARE.

Says the Dover Index in summing up the outlook:

"Our little State ought to have plenty of money next autumn. The peach crop promises to be larger than ever before. If prices are good, and the growers do not have to pay too much for transportation, there ought to be enough money sent here to tide them over the winter very comfortably.

"It is about a fair estimate to say this year's crop will be almost equal to the crop of 1893. The June drop has not been heavy except on trees that were not properly tilled last season and upon those that produced a full crop last year. Farmers can rest assured that their fancy fruit, at least, well packed, will bring good prices at the station, but poor fruit, badly and carelessly packed, will not find ready sale anywhere. We would advise growers to pack their fancy yellow fruit in Georgia carriers, and when this is done good prices can be obtained.

"We have inspected many orchards and found the trees loaded with fruit and in many cases overloaded. The peaches are of good size now and the seed has become hard. It is said that when the seed has become hard, nothing short of a cyclone can destroy the crop."

CALIFORNIA'S OUTLOOK.

Reports direct from the great peach counties of California under date of June 9th are: Marysville, Yuba county; Some early apricots and peaches are coming into market. Shot-hole fungus still affects the apricots, and the disease is increasing, and is extending to all the orchards in this vicinity, which will have a very damaging effect on that particular fruit. Pears are doing better, as the dropping of that fruit has stopped. What peaches are left will be exceptionally large and fine. Sacramento county; First shipment of early apricots made this week.

Lake county: The shortness of the fruit crops from the late frosts will be largely compensated for by the better quality.

Sanjoaquin county: Fruit is slowly advancing to maturity, but the crop of all varieties, excepting pears, will be short. Highest and lowest temperatures, 81° and 45°.

Tulare county: Wheat is looking fine. Harvest is ready to begin.

Santa Barbara county: The fruit crop is light.

Los Angeles county: The fruit crop is almost an entire failure.

San Diego county: Peaches, apricots and prunes have about all dropped from the trees. The failure of peach and prune trees to leaf out is quite frequent.

These are all official from Mr. James A. Barwick, a former Kent countian who has acquired a fortune and golden honors in California, the golden empire of the far west.

Church Notes.

The Sunday school board of the M. E. Church of Chestertown, decided at a meeting held Monday evening to hold the sessions of the school at 9.30 in the morning instead of 2.15 in the afternoon, during the months of July and August. This change is only for the heated period covered by these months, and the usual afternoon session will be resumed in September. The morning preaching service during this time will be held at 10.30, the usual hour, and it is earnestly desired that all persons attending will be prompt so that both services may be concluded in two hours.

The sermon's subject of next Sunday morning will be "Self-Sacrifice." In the evening the service will be held at 6.30, the Epworth League occupying the first half hour, the leader using the League topic for the date. The subject of the pastor's discourse in the second half hour will be: "Should we Patronize the Summer Base-Ball Club?" Public cordially invited to all services.

Rev. Mr. Butler, at one time rector of North Kent Parish, and now of Baltimore, preached in Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, on Sunday, and Dr. S. C. Roberts filled Mr. Butler's pulpit.

The St. Michaels Comit says: "Rev. Harry A. Cresser, of Christ Church, has received a unanimous call to St. Luke's Parish, Church Hill, Queen Anne county, to succeed Rev. Algernon Batte. Mr. Cresser's many friends in this parish would regret very much if he should decide to accept, and it is to be hoped this parish will look to its own interests by doing everything possible to keep such a good minister in our midst." Mr. and Mrs. Cresser and little girl visited Chestertown during the recent convention, and were guests of Lewin W. Wickes, Esq.

"Last summer while attending court at Uniontown," says D. B. Patton, a prominent druggist of Fayette City, Pa., "three witnesses were suffering from diarrhœa. I gave each a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy and it gave immediate relief. On the way home one of my neighbors was taken with a severe cramp in the stomach and was suffering with intense pains. I gave him a dose of this remedy and within five minutes the pain had ceased. The remedy is a favorite here. I know of many who are never without it. I always take it with me when going away from home." For sale by M. A. Toulson, Chestertown, Md.

A Handsome Book on Summer Travel.

The Baltimore & Ohio R. R. Co. has just issued a handsome book descriptive of the various summer resorts, in the mountains and by the seaside, adjacent to or reached by its system of lines.

It is finely printed and illustrated by a number of very fine cuts. Send 10 cents to Chas. O. Scull, Gen'l Passenger Agent, Baltimore, Md., for a copy.

SUMMER BASE-BALL.

Chestertown's New Team to Surpass the Great Record of the Washington College Champions.

A thing entirely unknown in Chestertown before the present summer, was a summer base-ball team, a team worthy in point of strength to enter competition with the strongest amateur nines of the State for honors on the diamond.

Messrs. W. F. Russell, John S. Vandergrift and several others of the enthusiastic rooters of the old college team, conceived the idea of effecting the organization of a strong team for a season of ten weeks. A popular subscription was started, and in an incredibly short time the necessary four hundred dollars for a starter was subscribed, and on Saturday night the new base-ball organization was brought into existence by the election of Cashier W. F. Russell, president; L. B. Russell, secretary and treasurer; H. Rickey, F. G. Usilton and Dr. T. H. Cooper, a supervisory board. Prof. Thomas D. Bowers was elected manager. Correspondence was at once opened with the Monumentals, the Aberdeens, Maryland Athletic Association and a number of the best clubs of the State.

The Tolchester Company proposes to make the Fourth of July a royal occasion, and as a drawing feature has requested the Chestertown club to play a game of ball at Tolchester on that date. The team to oppose the home nine has not as yet been secured. President Eliason, of the Tolchester company offers a purse of sixty dollars to be divided into two prizes, forty for the winning team and twenty for the loser; and supper at Hotel Tolchester for both teams.

No captain has as yet been selected, but it is expected that Mr. Deakyne, who captained the college team, willl be selected for the position.

Suits, balls and bats, masks and a full equipment have been ordered. The composition of the club will be and their probable positions: Murray, catch; Davis and Stephens, pitch; Usilton, first, Stidham, second; Deakyne, third; Stephens, short; Massey, Estes and Cannan in the field.

The Maryland Athletic Club, which broke the victorious record of the old college team, will play on the college diamond on Wednesday, July first.

Referring to the Washington College-Cambridge base-ball game, the Cambridge Chronicle says: "Cambridge was outclassed in her game with Washington College on Monday, and got her first whipping of this season. It was an overwhelming defeat, the score being 21 to 2. The Cambridge boys left here at 4 A. M. Monday morning, on a tugboat, reaching Chestertown in about nine hours. Some allowance ought to be made for the weariness resulting from the early start, but not enough to overcome the difference in the score. The boys left here in high feathers, hoping to make a good fight, though rather anticipating defeat, as they had heard of the strength of the college boys. At Chestertown they were politely received and kindly treated."

The Standard, referring to the same game says:

"Our boys had begun to think that there was no amateur club in the State that could beat them, and some of the rooters were beginning to think that they could push the champions, the Orioles, of Baltimore; but alas, their ardor has been dampened. There is no question but the long and tedious trip and the unusual hour of rising and getting ready for the journey, together with a light breakfast and the crowded quarters on the boat, had a demoralizing effect on the nine, but, under all the disadvantageous circumstances, they ought to have put up a better game than they did. It is believed that the Chestertown is a little too strong a team for our boys."
