SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER ANNUM.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 3, 1896.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Public Sales of Personalty.

Mr. Wm. H. Cacy will sell at public sale on Wednesday next, Sept. 9th, the personal estate of the late Samuel Cacy. See advertisement in another column.

Mr. Wm. Meeks will sell at public sale his fine personal effects to discontinue farming, on the farm where he now resides, near Union M. E. Church, on Thursday next, Sept. 10. See his advertisement in this issue.

Labor Day.—Monday next being Labor Day and a legal holiday, the banks of Chestertown will be closed.

Chestertown's Tax-Rate. — The tax-rate of Chestertown has been fixed at twenty-five cents on the $100. The rate in 1895, was 30 cents and in 1894, 35 cents.

Superintendent of Almshouse.—Mr. Joshua Bryan was yesterday elected superintendent of the almshouse, vice Mr. W. O. B. Knight, whose time will expire on December 31st, 1896.

Farm Sold.—Mr. A. F. Huey has sold the valuable property known as the Ireland Farm, situated between Galena and Massey's and containing 115 acres, to Mr. Lemuel Marks, of Baltimore, for $4,600.

Temporary Removal.—During this week T. S. Bordley will move his entire stock of clothing to the adjoining store room in order that the corner store may be thoroughly overhauled and repaired. During these two weeks he will sell the balance of his spring goods for any reasonable price offered.

The Strike Off.—Consul W. C. Brown, Uncle Sam's newly selected representative at New Castle, New South Wales, Australia, reached his new home at the close of one of the greatest strikes within the history of that extensive coal region. The miners yielded to the inevitable and accepted the masters' terms.

Fine Sport.—Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Barnard, of Middletown, and Mr. Lester Covington, of New York, spent several days of last week on the fishing grounds at Betterton, and were very successful with hook and line. The party took to Middletown with them a fine lot of perch "of the Chesapeake variety" which their friends declare were as toothsome as they were pretty and abundant.

Died on the Road.—Mr. Jesse L. Shepherd, of Middletown, lost a valuable horse on Monday of last week while driving from Masseys to Sassafras. The animal was taken sick and when near Sassafras Mr. Shepherd drove up to a farm house and endeavored to relieve the horse's suffering, but it died in a short time.

Dredge Boat Numbers.—The work of painting the dredge and scrape boat numbers, is being done this year by Salisbury painters, and was finished last week It costs the State about $1,000 to furnish these numbers. To complete the contract it took 4864 yards of canvass, which cost over $4,00.00; 75 gallons of paint and oil, and cost $350.09 for the work. Altogether there are 3410 pieces, each piece containing one number, running from one to three figures.

Successful Corn Harvesting. — The corn cutters and carriers sold by Mr. George W. Smith have been objects of great interest during the past ten days. Work done has been entirely successful. Exhibitions have been given of from four or fifteen fields in the day. The work has been entirely satisfactory in every case, and the longedfor relief from the great manual labor formerly necessary in cutting off and carrying up corn has been filled by this machine.

The Public Schools.—The public schools of the county opened on Tuesday for the new scholastic year, but because of the fact that some delay will of necessity be experienced in making out lists of books and securing supplies under the new system, no work was done as a rule. Examiner Smyth has requested teachers of the schools to ascertain the number of text books needed by pupils in each of the several grades and forward a list of same to him at once, that he may fill the order, so that teachers may take books from the Association meeting to be held tomorrow.

Peach Train Derailed.—The peach train consisting of eighteen loaded peach cars on the Queen Anne road, was derailed just before reaching Millington station on Thursday. The conductor thought the train too long to side track at Millington in order that the passenger train might pass, he therefore made the attempt to leave part of the train at a switch a mile below Millington station, proceeded to make up his train at Millington and return for the cars left. In making the switch three cars jumped the track and blockaded the road, delaying the passenger train about three hours.

Business Sold.—Mr. A. J. Cahall, one of the oldest of Chestertown's merchants, on Monday sold his stock of goods and good will to Mrs. S. A. Hurlock, who, in addition to a general line of dry goods, will continue the dressmaking and millinery departments which had so successfully conducted at the Medley building, from which she removed. Mr. Cahall retires from active business because of failing health and transfers to his successor an established and desirable patronage. He has conducted business at the one stand, corner High and Queen streets, for 36 years, first as clerk for the late Thos. B. Hynson, whom he succeeded in 1877.

A Profitable Peach Crop.—"Rose Hill, on the Sassafras, one of the finest of the numerous estates of Captain Woodall, in spite of overstocked markets and low prices for peaches has been the source of a handsome revenue. On Monday morning of last week nineteen wagons waiting to be loaded were seen in the orchard, waiting to be filled with peaches, fresh from the orchard, men and women having come from far and near to get choice fruit. There were hucksters and small dealers among them and many Pennsylvania farmers, who wanted peaches for family use, working on the cooperative plan of one man getting a load to be divided among several neighbors. Nine hundred baskets at 50cts. per basket were that readily disposed of.

Scholarship Appointments. — The school board Tuesday, made the following appointments to scholarships, viz: Western Maryland College, Miss Mary E. Pierce, of Galena; the other applicants were, Miss Anna Loud, Chestertown; Mr. John Welsh, Sassafras; and Mr. Kent McKnett, of Kennedyville. St. John's College, Mr. Unit Rasin, of Still Pond, no other applicant. Maryland Agricultural College, W. Frank Hines, Jr., of Chestertown; no other applicant. Baltimore Normal School, Miss Bertha Bacon. Washington College Normal Department, Miss Gussie Cannan. Other applicants for the last named were, Misses Eva H. Wallis, Worton; and Ethel J. Maslin; Rock Hall. The board also issued teachers certificates to Mr. Wm. M. Watts, Jr., of Still Pond, and Miss Mary Burchinal, Chestertown.

Church Notes.

The St. Dennis Chuch picnic, held in McCauley's woods on Tuesday evening of last week, was a splendid success, and all present were loud in their congratulations of Father Hughes and his assistants. Price's orchestra, of Middletown furnished music, and dancing was a delightful feature of the occasion. The supper was one of those treats for which the ladies of St. Dennis Church have become justly noted for miles around.

The pastor of the M. E. Church will return on Saturday next and occupy his pulpit the first Sunday in September The order of services for Autumn and Winter will be resumed next Sabbath; 9.30 Sunday morning class, J. B. McIntyre leader. 10.30 Morning service, sermon subject "Learning of Christ;" Holy Communion at the close of the morning service. The Sabbath school will resume the afternoon sessions for Autumn and Winter. A special programme will be presented. The monthly missionary exercises will be part of the programme. A full attendance of the school is in order, and it is hoped that a large missionary opening will be presented on this, the first Sabbath of the Autumn and Winter term. Epworth League at 6.45. Evening preaching service at 7.30, sermon subject, "Is my Boy Safe?" All week night services at 7.30 instead of 8 o'clock after Sept. 1st.

Public cordially invited to all services.

The "Northern Convocation" of the Diocese of Easton, Rev. Giles B. Cooke, Dean, and Rev. C. T. Denroche, rector of the parish, will be in session at Christ Church, I. U. Parish, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 23d and 24th of September, 1896, and will carry out the following programme: Christ Church, Wednesday, 10.30 A. M., administration of holy communion, sermon by Rev. Sam'l Edson. 3 P. M.—Subject: "Christian Literature." Speakers, Rev. Messrs. Wm. Schouler, Sam'l Edson and Dr. Thomas Duncan. Thursday, 10.30 A. M.—Sermon by Rev. C. S. Davidson. 3 P. M.—Churchgoing as a duty, Rev. Dr. S. C. Roberts; as a benefit, Rev. Albert Ware; as a privilege, Rev. C. S. Davidson. Mrs. Souissat, secretary of Maryland Woman's Auxiliary, will address I. U. Woman's Auxiliary during convocation. Collation from 1 to 3 P. M. each day. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

The tent meetings at Galena, conducted by Pastor Frank Fletcher, assisted by Rev. Mr. Kreamer, are gloriously successful.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Kennedyville M. P. Church are arranging for a birthday party, the proceeds to be used in repairing the church. In an extremely dainty poem the invitation is given for each guest to send in as many cents as he is old. Small bags are enclosed, in which the funds are to be sent. The pleasant party will be held on the lawn of Mrs. Redmile to-morrow evening.

"Protestant Day" was observed at Tolchester on Wednesday of last week by a crowd of 2,000 excursionists, who enjoyed the sail down the bay and back on the steamer Louise. The visitors gathered in the evening and listened to patriotic addresses by C. A. Warner, Charles Stangmyer and Rev. I. E. Staib. National hymns were sung during the speech-making and on the return trip on the steamer. During the day the Stonewalls beat the Browns at base-ball by a score of 14 to 1.

John G. Wooley, the celebrated orator who is to lecture in Stam's Hall on September 9th, is one of the most polished and eloquent speakers on the American platform. His reputation is also known throughout every country of Europe. The Royal Society for the study of inebriety, of which Dr. Norman Kerr is president, has invited Mr. Wooley to accept a reception in his honor at the society rooms, in London, and address the members. When in Edinburg he was given a dinner by the theological students of the university and has been invited to return. For the present he is declining these many invitations abroad so he may prosecute in his own country the movement of Christian Citizenship.

ROCK HALL NEWS.

The boat race on Saturday, the 22d, was so disappointing it was determined by the managers to have another race on Wednesday of last week. Accordingly, on that day, with a stiff westerly wind, the race took place over the same course as formerly run, resulting in a triumph for the Sparkling Sea, Mr. Geo. Colyer owner. One prize only was offered, which was a purse of $4.00. A number of the canoes entered, met with mishaps on the course, and as a result, the superiority of one boat over another as to swiftness is still a contested point. Mr. N. Bogle's boat was not allowed to enter because of her extreme length, as it is conceded that she is a sure winner, except in a heavy wind.

Mrs. Sam'l D. Sewell, after a prolonged and painful illness, died on Thursday evening. Funeral services were held at the residence in South Rock Hall, on Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. Mr. Carroll. Interment at the M. P. cemetery.

Mr. James Davis continues in very feeble health.

Chills and fever in our locality are on the ranpage.

Mr. Wm. G. Hindes suffered an attack of vertigo on last Sunday afternoon while standing in front of his home talking to a gentleman, and fell heavily to the ground. He was carried into the house and a doctor summoned. He is now better.

Wilbur, the seven-year-old son of Mr. J. O. Harrison, met with a painful accident on Sunday. While playing in the yard he trod on a nail, which ran through his foot. The little fellow heroically pulled the rusty nail out and with it came large rolls of flesh. His father immediately applied laudanum and turpentine. The child has a very sore foot but is doing remarkably well under the circumstances.

Mr. John N. Colyer returned to the Presbyterian Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital last week for further treatment to his eyes. He can now see a distance of six miles, whereas a few weeks ago he could scarcely see plainly objects at a distance of fifty yards.

Mr. S. D. Sewell has rented his residence to a Mr. Johnson, for 1897. Mr. J., we understand, has accepted a position at Messrs. Leary & Son's factory. Mr. Sewell will reside with his parents.

The opening of the oyster season was the dullest for many years. Tuesday was very windy, consequently the catch was small. The buyers seemed to think it rather risky in buying more than 50, 75 or 100 bushels. The price paid was from 25 to 35 cents, "McKinley's Ridge" bringing the former and "Bryan's Lumps" the latter price. There were about 200 tonging boats and 14 buy boats on the bayside. Many of the tongers and buyers in this section were in Chester river. The oysters have made very little increase and are in poor condition. A number of mishaps occurred during the day in consequence of the wind, but no serious damage was done to any of the tonging boats except that of our gallant constable, S. J. Davis, who had his head gear carried away by being run into by "Mike," the skipper of the Island Queen. BON JOUR.

TOLCHESTER'S GREAT FAIR.

A Splendid Success Which Will Doubtless be Followed by Others at the Beach—Prizes and Prize Winners.

Superintendent George E. Noland, who inspired the Tolchester Fair, and the Tolchester Company who endorsed the movement, are to be congratulated upon the splendid success which attended their first effort in breaking away from time-honored precedents and inaugurating an entirely new and interesting feature on the list of annual amusements.

The handsome "annex" was arranged for the occasion, and on Thursday, when the extensive array of exhibits was thrown open to public inspection the scene was one, which, while reflecting great credit upon the Tolchester management, was an eloquent tribute to the progressive spirit of the Kent county farmers and the exquisite skill of the ladies of Kent. From the very first the ladies and the farmers took an active interest in the movement and aided Mr. Noland in his work, and as a natural result, a splendid success crowned their united efforts.

A very one-sided game of base-ball was played between the Waverly Club, of Baltimore and the Aberdeen Club, of Harford county, with a victory for Waverly by 28 to 7. Michael, for Waverly, struck out ten men. Whiting caught for him. Aberdeen's battery were Mitchel and Unglaub. Following the base-ball was the horse-racing, the entire track being surrounded with people.

In the trotting race Victor B. had a virtual walkover in each heat.

In the running race Maggie won the first heat easily, but in the second she bolted to the stable. In the third heat she won by two lengths. The summaries:

2 30 class, trotting; purse $100; best three heats in five.

E. B. Emory's Happy Rose. (owner)	2	2	2
E. B. Emory's m. Lord Baltimore, (Dr. Jarman)	3	3	3

Time, 2.42, 2.45, 2.42.

Running, half-mile heats, best two in three; $15 to first horse and $10 to second.

J. H. Huth's Maggie, (Sappington)	1	3	1
J. A. McClary's mare, (owner)	2	1	2
M. Smyth's mare, (owner)	3	2	3

Time, 1.02¼, 1.06, 1.01.

The officers were: William Stephens, starter; Jack Hynson and C. H. Davis, judges, and Jack Hynson, timer.

A Roman standing race was run by John Blakston, Phillip Brooks and Edgar Joiner, the racers each riding two horses. Blakston won.

Friday's programme opened with a game of ball between the Betterton and Rock Hall clubs. The Betterton started out finely and soon had the game well in hand to win, but the Rock Hall giants, never for a moment losing confidence in their ability to wrest a victory from their strong competitors, kept conscientiously at work, and in the last part of the game scored the winning runs, the score at the end being 19 to 11.

The three-minute trot for a purse of $75—$40 to first, $25 to second, and $10 to third, resulted as follows:

Minnie Russell, by Happy Russell, Emory	1	1	1
Alcantell, by Alcantara, Jarman	2	3	2
Fanny, Merryfield	3	2	3
Tom, Jones	4	Dis.
Dirty Rag, by Grover S., Duycr	5	Dis.

Time, 2.46, 2.42, 2.50.

A hotly contested bicycle race resulted in a victory for George E. Copper, of Baltimore, with John Kaufman, also of that city, second. The prize was a gold medal.

Aeronaut Reynolds made a successful balloon ascension at 5.30 P. M. Considerable fear was manifested for a time by many of the spectators upon seeing the balloon drift out toward the bay. The aeronaut, however, saw his danger, and, cutting loose, fell into the water. He was picked up and taken to land safely. The supposed danger of the daring navigator of the air sent a thrill of anxiety through the breasts of the great throng of spectators.

The third and last day of the great fair was one of the most interesting, the principal event being the race, which resulted as follows: 2.25 class—

Victor B., Stevens	1	2	1	1
Belle B., Emory	2	1	3	2
Sailor Girl, Hynson	4	4	2	3
Kitty Hanks, Riggs	3	3	Dr.

Time, 2.29¼, 2.25, 2.29½.

Of eight mules entered in a race only three could be induced to cross the finish line, the winner being a big mule owned by Mr. H. S. Todd.

Great interest centred in the award of prizes, which had been made on the afternoon before.

Kent county came out more than victorious in the trotting events. Victor B. registered herself as one of the finest in the State, and gave a magnificent exhibition whenever she appeared upon the track. Sailor Girl, the splendid mare belonging to A. J. Hynson, was always the centre of an admiring crowd, and her work was a matter of general congratulation to her fortunate owner. Alcantell, the beautiful stallion belonging to Dr. G. Allen Jarman, gave evidence of being one of the finest in the State.

The ladies are in an especial degree the subjects for congratulation. The beautiful work of Miss Cleaver approached perfection in the harmony of colors and execution. Miss Gale, Mrs. McClary, Mrs. James Beck, Miss Beck, Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Trew, Mrs. Dickinson, Mrs. Egan, Miss Todd, Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Durding, Miss Maslin and Miss Friedman, all of whose names appear in the list of prize-winners, deserved even greater honors than it lay in the power of the management to bestow, and the world may be challenged to surpass the work of the ladies of Kent in any department, either useful or ornamental.

The fair was a success and should become, as doubtless it will, an annual attraction at Tolchester.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Jonathan Pennell, vice president of the Tolchester Company, spent last week at the Beach.

Mr. Walter E. Giles, one of the directors of the Tolchester Company, spent last week at Tolchester. Mr. Giles was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Emma Giles, in whose honor the fine steamer Emma Giles is named. A handsome picture of the charming young lady graces the top of the mirror in the main saloon.

Mr. Frank W. Hopper, of Baltimore, spent several days of the past week the guest of Kent county friends. Mr. Hopper is an enthusiastic cyclist and spun off fifty miles on each day of his stay in Kent.

Kennedyville Items.

Miss Nora Insley, of Wicomico County, is the guest of Miss S. B. McKnett.

Misses Bersha Edwards and Mamie Hayes, of Middletown, have been visiting Mrs. C. W. Nickerson.

Miss Laura McKnett, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents at Urieville.

Miss Lena Sauers, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Emma Hessner.

Mr. George Pote, of Wilmington, spent part of the week with his brother, Mr. W. A. Pote.

Mr. Edward Dodson and family, of Moores', Pa., spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. T. Shafer.

Mr. W. H. Whiteley and daughter, Miss Nettie, spent Sunday with relatives at Marydel.

Mr. H. L. Davies and little daughter, Naomi, have returned from a pleasant trip in Virginia.

Messrs. S. H. McKnett and Geo. Medders spent part of the past week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Whittington, of Baltimore, is visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. T. A. Godwin.

Miss Emma Shafer has a pretty new wheel and is already a very graceful rider.

Part of the material for the improvement of the M. P. Church is in place and the work will soon be in progress. The members of Grace Presbyterian Church have kindly extended an invitation to hold service in their church while the M. P. Church is undergoing repairs. JUNO.

Golt's Gleanings.

First of September, school begins today. Our new teacher, Miss Florence Jewell, arrived in the village yesterday and will start on her duties to-day.

Mr. John Rolph and family and a visitor, Mr. Lonnie Hall, went to Nelson's Point yesterday on a crabbing expedition and were quite successful in their catch.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and son, from Philadelphia, are the guests of Mr. W. H. Davis. Miss Ella Beltz and Miss Avon Golt, of Wilmington, are also visiting there.

Miss Viola Simpson, one of our most popular young ladies, is quite sick with remittent feyer.

Master Leon Stein and Master Thomas Wharton have returned home from visiting friends in Baltimore and Port Penn.

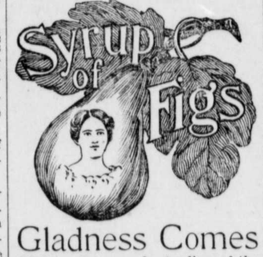
Last Sunday the Junior Epworth League held a Temperance meeting in the grove. The Juniors read selections condemning the use of tobacco. They were then addressed by Bro. Walter Ford and Bro. Phillips, after which Bro. Conway delivered a lecture on temperance. The services were interesting and there was quite a good attendance. W. W.

DIED.

Reed.—Miss Urenia Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reed, died of typhoid fever at the home of her parents, corner High and Mill street, on Monday morning, aged twenty-four years. She had been in poor health for several years past. The remains were taken to Busick's Chapel, in Queen Anne, for interment.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Company, printed near the bottom of the package. For sale by all responsible druggists.



Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Order of Publication.

James A. Pearce, Administrator of Price J. Patton, Plaintiff,
William Laning, William F. Burr, Florence Helmbold, William C. Helmbold, and Fannie A. Helmbold, his wife; Edward A. Hollis and Louisa A. Hollis, his wife; Edward R. Heimbold, Jr., and Ada W. Helmbold, his wife; Charles D. Helmbold and Cora C. Helmbold, his wife; J. Kempner Helmbold and —— Helmbold, his wife, defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity

1st.—The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent county, Maryland, which were on the 17th day of September, 1872, mortgaged by Wm. Laning, one of the above named defendants, to one Henry M. Boyd, of the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, who assigned said mortgage to the above named Price J. Patton, since deceased, of whom your complainant is administrator in the State of Maryland.

2d.—The bill states that on or about the 17th day of September, 1872, the said William Laning conveyed certain real estate which is particularly described in the bill and its accompanying exhibits, unto the said Henry M. Boyd, by way of mortgage, to secure the payment of the sum of five thousand dollars with interest from September 17, 1872, which was then due and owing from said William Laning to said Henry M. Boyd in four years from the date of said mortgage, and was evidenced by the bond of the said William Laning to said Henry M. Boyd, of even date with said mortgage in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars conditioned for the payment of five thousand dollars, as above set forth.

3.—That on the 19th day of September, 1872, the said Henry M. Boyd, duly assigned for value, said bond and mortgage to the said Price J. Patton.

4th.—That on the 18th day of September, 1872, the said William Laning, by his deed of that date, conveyed the said mortgaged premises to Edward R. Helmbold, of Philadelphia, subject to the operation and effect of the above-mentioned mortgage.

5th. That on the 26th day of June, 1882, the said Edward R. Helmbold, by his deed of that date, conveyed all his interest in the above-mentioned lands and premises to William F. Burr, of Philadelphia, by way of mortgage to secure an alleged indebtedness from him to said Burr of three thousand dollars to be paid on or before June 15th, 1884, with interest from the date of said deed.

6th.—That the said Price J. Patton has lately died in the city of Philadelphia intestate, and that letters of administration upon the personal estate of said Price J. Patton in the State of Maryland, have been granted by the Orphans' Court for Kent county to the plaintiff, James A. Pearce.

7th.—That the interest accruing on said mortgage first herein mentioned was duly paid to said Price J. Patton in his lifetime up to March 17th, 1888, but that the whole of the said principal sum of five thousand dollars with interest from March 17th, 1888, remains due and unpaid.

8th.—That the bond accompanying said first mentioned mortgage has been lost or mislaid by said Price J. Patton in his lifetime, and cannot now be found.

9th.—That said Edward R. Helmbold died in the city of Philadelphia several years since intestate, leaving a widow, Florence Helmbold, who resides in the city of Philadelphia, and five children and heirs-at-law, to whom the said lands and premises descended, charged with and liable to be sold for the payment of the aforesaid mortgage debt and interest, and that said heirs are all residing out of the State of Maryland, as follows, namely: William C. Helmbold, who with his wife, Fannie A. Helmbold, resides in Curwensville, Clearfield county, Pa.; Louisa H. Hollis, formerly Louisa Helmbold, who with her husband, Edward A. Hollis, resides in the city of Philadelphia; Edward R. Helmbold, Jr., who with his wife, Ada W. Helmbold, reside in Montgomery, Lycoming county, Pa.; Charles D. Heimbo'd, who with his wife, Cora C. Helmbold, reside in Columbus, Ohio, and J. Kempton Helmbold, who with his wife, —— Helmbold, reside in Chicago, Illinois.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 24th day of September next, give notice to said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 12th day of October next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
