REGISTRATION DAYS.

Tuesday,	September 22.
Wednesday,	September 23.
Tuesday,	September 29.
Wednesday,	September 30.
Tuesday,	October 6.
Wednesday,	October 7.

LET EVERY DEMOCRAT IN THE COUNTY REMEMBER THAT ON TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY NEXT, SEPTEMBER 22 AND 23, HIS FIRST AND GREATEST DUTY WILL BE TO GET REGISTERED. EVERY MAN SHOULD PLACE HIMSELF IN A POSITION TO EXPRESS AN OPINION RELATIVE TO THE GREAT FINANCIAL ISSUE. THE VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY WHO ARE TODAY IMPOVERISHED BY THE PRESENT SYSTEM, SHOULD BE READY TO REGISTER THEMSELVES FOR FREE SILVER AND BETTER TIMES FOR THE LABORING MILLIONS.

THE political functions of the ministry seem to be increasing with each recurring election.

SENATOR MURPHY, of New York, states that Bryan will sweep the Empire State and win.

MR. BRYAN says that good taste forbids a delivery of his Washington speech from the Capitol steps.

HERR MOST AND DEBS have espoused McKinleyism and McKinleyism has accepted the espousal, and still the Democratic party is the exponent of anarchy and social revolution.

MAYOR HOOPER, while acting in his official capacity as the representative of Baltimore city at the celebration of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics on Saturday, was greeted by the protracted hisses of many of those present.

THE NEW YORK WORLD declares that "never before in the history of the country did a sitting Administration oppose the apparently 'regular' candidates and platform of its party and openly espouse a protesting candidacy." A number of things have occurred in connection with the "man of destiny" which have never occurred before.

HILL "out of politics" smacks very much of the retirement to pastoral life of the Kent county editor who now finds his space too valuable to admit of the publication of the Democratic ticket without a twenty-five dollar indemnity. Political pastures are good enough for these gentlemen so long as the grass is not too short for their time-worn biceps.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has endorsed the Indianapolis ticket. Can the Democratic voters now endorse President Cleveland? We think not. Mr. Cleveland's action is undemocratic, to say the least of it, and his euphonic "the greatest good to the greatest number," should never again find a resting place in his political vocabulary. Democracy and Clevelandism cease to be synonimous terms.

HOWEVER REVOLUTIONARY it may appear, the hog pen has been declared a "nuisance" in Hagerstown. The chief of police recently reported the town to be in a cleanly condition. The health officer denies this and says many of the notices served by the State Health Inspector on persons to abate hog-pen nuisances have been disregarded. The State board of health intends to have these parties put on trial for maintaining nuisances. Why not a similar experiment in Chestertown.

It is not unusual for druggists to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their customers. Many of them have used it from personal experience its great value in the treatment of coughs, colds and croup. They know too that their customers are their best friends and naturally wish to give them the most reliable medicine they have for those ailments. Messrs. Daugherty Bros., prominent druggists of Indiana, Pa., say, "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of any other cough syrup, and always take pleasure in recommending it to our customers." Mr. H. M. Urey, the popular druggist at Fredonia, Pa., who has sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for several years, says: "I can truly say that it is the best cough medicine in the market." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown.

SPEAKER CRISP has given utterance to the following startling facts for the contemplation of the tax-burdened people: "In the last year the United States has issued $262,000,000 of bonds to obtain gold, and the aggregate interest will lay a burden of debt of nearly $500,000,000, or $7 a head, upon the people. This must be paid in taxes at the expense of the laborers and farmers. We do not need the gold in our every-day business. Very little gold circulates among us."

THE SUDDEN disappearance of our gold from circulation would produce the most stringent contraction of the currency on record.—Carl Schurz.

Nonsense! Gen. Sparz ought to know better. There is no gold to speak of in circulation, and, therefore it cannot disappear from circulation. Nearly every dollar of it that is in the country is in the United States Treasury and in bank vaults, or it is hoarded by people who will hold it all the more tightly if by an incorrigirable popular insanity silver should be made the standard of value.—New York Sun.

It would be interesting to know just what the Sun would suggest to Wall Street and the money lords to enable them to hold their gold reserve more tightly awaiting future bond issues for the payment of English debts.

EACH AND EVERY DEMOCRAT in Kent county should feel himself a self-constituted committee of one to impress upon his friends and neighbors the necessity of getting registered at the earliest possible opportunity. The following are the places selected by the board of supervisors of elections where the officers of registration will sit to register voters: Millington, Dr. Fred Walls' office; Golt's, C. H. Smith's residence; Galena, the Rogers property; Kennedyville, Jone's Hotel; Still Pond, Harper's vacant house; Morgnec, Bryan's vacant store-room; Worton, Kiker's hall; Betterton, Owens' vacant store-room; Rock Hall, Downey's hall; Fairlee, Kendall's new building; Melitota, Rasin's barber shop; Pomona, wheelwright shop; Broad Neck, Kilbourn's store; Chestertown, C. M. Lucas' store-room, High street.

NEXT TUESDAY and Wednesday, September the twenty-second and twenty-third, the registers will sit at the respective places throughout Kent county for the purpose of the new registration of voters. The only voters in the State of Maryland to-day are those who were registered on Tuesday last. In conversation with many Democrats it is found that rather than suffer the inconvenience of the jamb incident to the first day's registration, there exists an inclination to postpone the highly important duty until a more convenient and pleasant season. Let every free silver man remember that registration delays are dangerous. The Kent county element which happens to represent the "Honest Dollar"(?) is well-trained, and at the command from headquarters are always at their post. The free silver voters, the men who believe that the solution to the present depressed financial condition is now in the hands of the people, should not be less vigilant. The burning travesty upon honesty and common sense, that the voting masses of the Republican party in Kent county really represent an "honest dollar" or anything more than the dictates of their political bosses, is too well known, and with the vital issues of the present campaign confronting them, the agriculturists and laboring men should arise to the demands of the occasion and put themselves in a position to register an intelligent ballot on November third. Silver men get registered is the demand of the times.

ROWLENSON PREDICTS VICTORY.

J. Hadaway Rowlenson, a native of this county, and well-known here, has a reputation of being one of the best and shrewdest politicians in the State. He was Gov. Brown's political agent, and is said to know more about the politics and politicians of the State than any man in it. His predictions have always received more than ordinary attention.

He made a prediction on the election the other night at the Alpha Club, which, owing to his wide experience deserves more than passing notice:

"Maryland," said Mr. Rowlenson, "will give a majority of 25,000 for free silver. You remember I predicted the majority Frank Brown would get for governor, and I told you that Lloyd Lowndes would get at least 20,000 more votes than Hurst. Just you wait and see if I'm not as close to the result this year as I was last.

"The active Republicans are for McKinley, of course, but there are thousands of quiet Republicans who propose to fool the Republican leaders in Maryland this fall just as the quiet Democrats fooled the Democratic leaders last year.

"I know of a factory in which there are 35 votes. Last year not three of them were cast for Hurst. This fall not more than three of them will vote for McKinley. There is a department of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in which there are 34 votes; of these 7 were cast for Hurst, but this year 22 of them are for Bryan. These are a few samples of what I find. To my mind, they indicate pretty plainly the tendency of politics. Bryan and Sewall will sweep Maryland and they will sweep the nation."—Centreville Observer.

PREPARING FOR THE BATTLE.

Silver Men Organized And Organizing For a Vigorous Campaign.

CHESTER BRYAN AND SEWALL CLUB.

Over fifty gentlemen of the second and seventh districts of Queen Anne county, met either in person or by proxy at the home of W. Irving Walker on Monday evening, and organized the Chester Bryan and Sewall Club of Queen Anne county.

Each and every man was enthusiastically in favor of free silver and the election of Bryan and Sewall, and expressed their readiness to take the field for a vigorous campaign.

W. Irving Walker acted as temporary chairman, and a committee appointed to recommend permanent officers, named the following persons and their report was unanimously accepted: president, W. Harrison Newnam; vice-presidents, L. C. McGinnis and S. R. Hurlock; secretary, W. Irving Walker; treasurer, Geo. H. Snitcher; executive committee, John H. Evans, Albert Story, C. A. Baxter, Isaac Snitcher, Sanford Spray, W. H. Anthony, W. T. Slagle, W. A. Hendrix and S. A. Wallen.

After permanent organization, registration and other important committees were appointed, and as Temporary Chairman Walker put it, the meeting resolved itself into a free silver love feast. Secretary Walker was instructed to take active measures to secure a speaker or speakers for the next meeting, which will be held at McGinnis' on Wednesday evening, September 23d. A representative of the TRANSCRIPT was present and was greatly encouraged by the active, go-ahead enthusiasm of the Queen Anne silver advocates, and now feels safe in putting the Bryan and Sewall majority in the good old Democratic county of Queen Anne at at least 1,000.

A CLUB AT WORTON.

The sturdy free silver advocates of the third district, met at Worton hall on Monday evening and organized the Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club of the third district. J. W. Ivens was made president, W. W. Newcomb vice-president, and John C. Jones secretary. All were enthusiastic in the work which they have organized to do and an aggressive campaign is proposed. Over thirty members were enrolled and others have enrolled since Monday's meeting. Meetings will be held on Monday night of each week, when it is proposed as often as possible to have interesting and instructive speakers address the members on the issues of the campaign.

M. deK. Smith addressed the Chestertown Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club on Monday evening. Names are still being added to the enrollment.

Kennedyville will organize a Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club to-night.

KILLED BY HIS SON.

A Sad Tragedy in Queen Anne County —Jury of Inquest Finds the Shooting Justifiable.

Percy Mullikin, a lad about 17 years old, shot and killed his father, John Mullikin, at their home in the sixth district, about one mile from Hope, last Thursday night about 8 o'clock with a shot gun. The load passed through the heart of the wounded man and death resulted in a few seconds. The news of the homicide was brought to Centreville early Friday by George A. Dever, who went direct to State's Attorney Harper and notified him of the affair. The latter immediately instructed Justice William E. Thompson to summon a jury of inquest, which was accordingly done, and at 10 o'clock the jury, coroner and State's attorney repaired to the scene of the tragedy, where the inquest was held. The jury consisted of Alfred Tucker, Sr., foreman; S. Collins Wright, J. E. Walters, Jr., F. R. Jump, C. H. Kenton, Harry Forman, R. E. Cahall, Samuel Dewing, Robert M. Hopkins, C. M. West, Samuel C. Walters and James H. Straughn.

After hearing the testimony of Mrs. Addie Mullikin, wife of the deceased, Percy Mullikin, the son who fired the shot, Drs. J. T. Holland and W. F. Fenby, and George A. Dever, the jury promptly brought in a verdict "that John Mullikin came to his death by shot from a gun fired by Percy Mullikin in self defense, and that the said Percy Mullikin so acting in self defense was fully justifiable in firing said shot and inflicting said wound which caused the death of the said John Mullikin, etc."

At Thursday noon, Mr. Mullikin came into his dinner somewhat under the influence of liquor. He ate the meal with his family and after some angry words addressed to his son Percy in regard to cutting off corn and picking peaches, he went to the barn and laid down on the floor. There he remained the entire afternoon and did not return to the house until about 8 o'clock, being then in an intoxicated condition. The family had finished supper. Mrs. Mullikin was engaged in her household duties and Percy was seated in the room reading. Mr. Mullikin's supper had been left on the table for him. The latter upon entering the house seemed to be in a frenzy.

He angrily ordered Percy to bed, accompanying the order with oaths and curses and threatening that he would kill the whole family before morning. Percy promptly obeyed and retired to his room on the third floor. Mr. Mullikin then accosted his wife, cursing her and demanding why he had not been sent for when supper was ready. She replied that she was afraid she would anger him as he had been drinking, whereupon he again said that he would kill the whole family that night and ordered her upstairs, where she immediately went after vainly trying to calm him. Mr. Mullikin remained below a few minutes, broke a lamp chimney and from the noise of the dishes, seemed to be breaking them on the table. He then hurriedly rushed upstairs, cursing, threatening and acting like a wild man. He first called to Percy, who was in bed in his room on the third floor, and excitedly asked him, "didn't you know where I was? Why didn't you send for me, you d—s— of a b—? I will kill you for it." His wife was in an adjoining room with their little seven-year-old daughter. He rushed into this room and began to beat her, striking her several severe blows in the face.

Mullikin then ran back to the hall and called to Percy to come down. The boy obeyed and his father rushed upon him, striking savagely at him. Percy managed to grasp both of his hands and pushed him against the wall, at the same time begging him to be quiet and leave his mother and him alone. Mullikin became more furious at this and jerking away from his son, he drew a sharp penknife from his pocket, opened it, grabbed the boy by the throat with one hand and lifted the knife with the other to strike him. Percy caught his arm in time to ward off the blow. Mrs. Mullikin, seeing the knife drawn, rushed to her son's assistance and tried to wrench the weapon from her husband's hand. Quite a struggle ensued during which Mullikin repeatedly exclaimed that "he knew he would be in h—l before morning and he was going to send every s— of a b— of them to h—l before him." In the midst of the struggle, the knife fell to the floor and Mrs. Mullikin, quickly picking it up, ran away with it.

Doubly enraged at this, Mullikin cried, "where is my gun? I will shoot your d— heads off." He ran down stairs into the parlor and looked in the place where the gun was usually placed. He owned another gun and a rifle, but these were kept in the room on the second floor. Not being able to find the gun, he ran out into the yard and picking up an axe, came into the hall and started up stairs.

Percy, his mother and the little girl were at that time standing on the small platform at the head of the stairs. Mrs. Mullikin being in front of the other two, having gone down one step to meet her husband in order to try to take the axe from him. Mullikin had advanced up the stairway as far as three or four steps, holding the axe high in the air and exclaiming with curses, "I will kill you now. I will mash your brains out," when Percy quickly stepped into the room, grasped a gun and without aiming, or seeing his father, as he alleges, shot past his mother in the direction of the foot of the stairway. The whole load penetrated the left breast of Mullikin, who staggered down the steps and fell dead in the doorway leading into the parlor. There was no light in the hall at the time, except what came from a light in the parlor, the door to which was open.

A number of cuts on Mrs. Mullikin's hand show the effects of the struggle for the knife.—Record.

FROM FAIRLEE.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT:—At this writing we can note the fact that the farmers in our neighborhood are up to date with their work. They are generally through corn cutting and getting their ground in order for wheat. Mr. Robert Hatcherson is as usual the early bird and is husking corn.

A good congregation greeted pastor Merritt on Sunday morning, and he gave us a thirty minutes talk on the Seed and the Sower. Among the visitors we noted the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Rhinehart and daughter, Mr. Walter V. Dowling, of Baltimore; Mr. Johnson, of Hanesville, also paid us a visit. Dr. J. A. Perkins, formerly of Chestertown, now of Philadelphia, also paid us a visit, accompanied by Mr. C. M. Lucas. They paid a visit to the Rev. and Mrs. Merritt. Mrs. M. was quite sick.

The members of our cottage meetings will hold their first meeting in Salem Church on this Thursday evening. These meetings heretofore have been held in private houses and have been a source of a great deal of good. We hope they will be largely attended and everybody will be heartily welcomed who wishes to come.

Miss Florence Jewell, daughter of Mr. Daniel E. Jewell, of near Worton, went to Baltimore last week and stood her examination and received her diploma from the State Normal School. She is to be highly congratulated.

We are glad to see our old friend, the jolly captain, back with us again.

Mr. Walter Sparks has purchased of the Frick Manufacturing Co., of Waynesborough, Pa., one of their newest fifteen horse-power engines, which is a beauty. This is one of the largest traction engines in the county.

Quite a number of free silver men will visit Baltimore on Saturday from this place to hear the address by Mr. Bryan.

Mr. L. J. Keyser has on exhibition at his shop several years of corn of his own raising which are hard to beat.

EAST END.

GOLT'S GLEANINGS.

The Epworth League of this place held a festival in our new hall three evenings last week. We believe it was quite successful financially and every one seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

Miss Sadie Hall and little Miss Helen Witzel, of Chester, Pa., have been visiting Mrs. Margaret Rolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Seely, of Philadelphia, are on a visit to Mrs. Seely's parents, Mr. and Mrs Little, of this village.

Mrs. Armstrong and two children spent Sunday with friends in Middletown, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, of Woodland Beach, spent last Sunday with friends in this place.

Mrs. Beltz, of Wilmington, who has been visiting here for several weeks returned home on Monday.

Miss Florence Jewell, the public school teacher at this place, spent last week in Baltimore. Her place in school was filled during her absence by Miss Bertha Higgins. Miss Jewall is at her post again this week.

Miss Carrie Meredith, of Galena, visited friends in this village on Monday.
