REGISTRATION DAYS.

Tuesday, September 29.
Wednesday, September 30.
Tuesday, October 6.
Wednesday, October 7.

Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., will address the Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club of the Second District, at Kennedyville, on Wednesday evening next, September 30th.

Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., will address the Democratic Free Silver Club of the Third District, at Worton Hall, on Monday evening next, September 28th. All members and friends of the cause are requested to be present.

A. S. Goldsborough, Esq., of Centreville, is expected to address the Chestertown Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club, at its next meeting, Tuesday evening, September 29th, at 7.30 o'clock. Mr. Goldsborough is one of the most eloquent and ornate speakers on the Eastern Shore, and his presence on Tuesday evening is sufficient guarantee for a treat, the superior of which the members of the club will not likely have an opportunity to enjoy.

LET EVERY DEMOCRAT IN THE COUNTY REMEMBER THAT ON TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY NEXT, SEPTEMBER 29 AND 30, HIS FIRST AND GREATEST DUTY WILL BE TO GET REGISTERED. EVERY MAN SHOULD PLACE HIMSELF IN A POSITION TO EXPRESS AN OPINION RELATIVE TO THE GREAT FINANCIAL ISSUE. THE VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY WHO ARE TODAY IMPOVERISHED BY THE PRESENT SYSTEM, SHOULD BE READY TO REGISTER THEMSELVES FOR FREE SILVER AND BETTER TIMES FOR THE LABORING MILLIONS.

TEN gold standard Democrats who will vote for McKinley in Kent county, is a generous concession.

A STATE OF TERRORISM of employees by moneyed employers exists in all the great centres of amassed wealth throughout the country.

HON. THOMAS S. Hodson, the Republican politician spent several days of last week in Chestertown on business, legal, political or otherwise, or possibly all.

MONEY MAY PURCHASE the defeat of William Jennings Bryan, but it can never compass the overthrow of free silver and the silencing of the eternal voice of the people.

BALTIMORE RAIN was not wet enough to dampen the enthusiasm of the vast concourse of people who assembled to hear Mr. Bryan on Saturday night. The rain fell but the people stood and listened.

"A PRETTY HOW DO DO" about describes the political situation in New York. It would be as easy for the leopard to change his strips as for David Bennett Hill to pass through a heated campaign without smirching his political garments with political dishonor.

A NOVEL CONTEST took place in Kent on Monday evening. At an impromptu meeting of Democrats, two tar barrels were set on fire, one representing free silver and the other gold. The barrel which was first consumed was to represent the defeated candidate in November. The McKinley barrel went up in smoke first.

WHY has not John K. Cowan taken the stand to answer Mr. Bryan's Saturday evening speeches? Possibly the Democratic congressman whose eloquent presence was only felt on pay-days and lobby-days at Washington, has not yet found out that the roar which shook Baltimore to its centre on Saturday was not an earthquake.

OCTOBER THE TWENTY-SEVENTH is the day for the great free silver mass-meeting in Kent county. Chestertown will be the Mecca toward which the Kent Democrats will turn their faces, and one of the greatest outpourings of the people known in years is expected. Speakers of national reputation will be present, and the financial issue will be fully discussed.

GEN'L WILLIAM MCKENNEY and Col. W. Scott Roberts, of Centreville, were two of the most enthusiastic admirers of Mr. Bryan at Dover on Monday. Said Colonel Roberts: "Mr. Bryan is a man embodying many of those magnificent traits of character which distinguished the immortal Washington himself, and which placed him head and shoulders above the great masses of men among whom he moved more than man, little less than a god."

MARYLAND'S RECEPTION to William Jennings Bryan was a tribute worthy of a loyal commonwealth; it honored the man and the great national policy of which he is the most eloquent exponent.

THE Kent county bank officials are the objects of the most profound solicitude on the part of the so-called Honest Money Democrats of Baltimore city, and gold literature is almost daily received by these gentlemen. Acting upon the generous injunction that it is better to give than to receive, these bank officials make free contributions of the literature to the waste basket. One official returned it with thanks, and with the suggestion that he was not an object for the attentions of the educational campaign committee.

EACH AND EVERY DEMOCRAT in Kent county should feel himself a self-constituted committee of one to impress upon his friends and neighbors the necessity of getting registered at the earliest possible opportunity. The following are the places selected by the board of supervisors of elections where the officers of registration will sit to register voters: Millington, Dr. Fred Walls' office; Golt's, C. H. Smith's residence; Galena, the Rogers property; Kennedyville, Jone's Hotel; Still Pond, Harper's vacant house; Morgnec, Bryan's vacant store-room; Worton, Kiker's hall; Betterton, Owens' vacant store-room; Rock Hall, Downey's hall; Fairlee, Kendall's new building; Melitota, Rasin's barber shop; Pomona, wheelwright shop; Broad Neck, Kilbourn's store; Chestertown, C. M. Lucas' store-room, High street.

MR. JOHN BRICE, in describing W. J. Bryan, has said: "I never saw George Washington, but Mr. Bryan loomed up before me in all the unsullied grandeur of the Father of His Country." Mr. Robert N. Boston said: "He is the finest specimen of American manhood I ever saw." Josiah Massey said: "No man who ever looks into the face of the Democratic standard bearer can ever doubt his profound sincerity or question the magnificence of his personality." Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., said: "He is one of the most Remarkable men I ever met. His powers of physical endurance are only surpassed by his unwavering devotion to the people's cause, and his splendid intellectual attainments. The interests of the people are safe in his hands." T. E. Hayes: "He is the grand young man of the present century." D. Arthur Bacchus: "He's a wonderful, wonderful man. The finest speaker I ever heard and a man whose very presence inspires confidence." Others are equally as enthusiastic.

SAW AND HEARD BRYAN.

Over Three Hundred Kent Countians Saw the Great Democratic Leader.

It were a safe estimate to say that Kent's contingent at the great Bryan reception in Baltimore on Saturday numbered between three and four hundred, all of whom saw and many heard him speak.

The B. S. Ford, in addition to quite a number who went on the Emma Ford at 7 o'clock, left Chestertown at 9 o'clock with an excursion of about one hundred persons. Ten were taken on at Rolph's, twenty at Centreville and at Kent Island and other points the number was run up to nearly two hundred persons.

The Tolchester Company run three trips during the day and between two and three hundred persons went over from that point, returning at 11 o'clock.

The steamer Worthley, which ran a fifty-cent excursion in opposition to the B. S. Ford management for the day, was a dismal failure. The boat left Chestertown with about fifteen passengers, which number was not materially increased. In consequence of the small number the boat did not return and her passengers were forced to come back by the Ford.

Each and every section of Kent was represented at the great Democratic meeting, and a more intelligent and enthusiastic party could not have been found in the vast throng which was variously estimated at from 60,000 to 65,000 persons. Then too, they were well provided for. Some were seated on the stage, many had the most desirable seats at the disposal of the committee, and Messrs. John Brice and Jervis Spencer sat "near enough to see the whites of the speaker's eyes."

Baltimore city, never within her history, knew of a greater outburst of enthusiasm than that which greeted the great American on his first visit to Maryland. Like a mighty storm the vast waves of enthusiasm swelled over the crowd. When Mr. Bryan arose, for more than ten minutes he stood in a vain endeavor to bring silence, but before he had closed his speech a profound quiet rested over the multitude of delighted men.

Because of the storm in the afternoon it was reported that the out-of-door meeting had been abandoned and this fact kept thousands away who would have otherwise attended.

After the Music Hall speech Mr. Bryan held an informal reception and many had the pleasure of shaking hands with the distinguished visitor.

AT DOVER.

A number of those who were unable to see and hear Mr. Bryan in Baltimore on Saturday, went to Dover, Delaware, on Monday. Mr. Bryan was there and was accorded a splendid reception by an estimated crowd of 10,000 people. Every possible arrangement had been made for the accommodation of the large attendance and all could hear and see.

Those from Chestertown were: James A. Pearce, Esq., Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., Dr. W. Frank Hines and Dr. C. P. Gilpin, who drove over; Messrs. T. G. Wroth, W. R. Aldridge, Jeff D. and D. Arthur Bacchus who drove over to Price's station and took the train. Messrs. William Lusby, C. L. Dodd, Dr. H. L. Dodd and Walter Goodhand started to drive over but took the train at Sudlersville. Messrs. Josiah Massey and George S. Biddle took the train at Millington. Mr. John Clendaniel, and Bedford Roe, of Kennedyville, also among the crowd.

Messrs. Wroth, Aldridge and Jeff D. and D. Arthur Bacchus had rather an amusing experience. While walking down the streets of Dover they noticed a group of men evidently intent upon watching a certain house. Upon inquiring they were told by the little group that they were not certain but believed that Mr. Bryan was inside and they were waiting for him.

The Chestertown party also concluded to wait, and in a few minutes the Presidential candidate and a party of friends were seen to come out. Mr. Wroth and his associates started, determined, if possible, to shake hands with Mr. Bryan, but no sooner had they started than a gentleman called out, "Go back, Mr. Bryan can shake hands with no one, his arm is too sore." The Chestertonians answered: "We don't want him to shake hands, we only want to catch hold of his hand," and before the unsuspecting object of their admiration knew it he was being lustily shaken by the hand by his Kent county friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith were also among the Kent countians who saw Mr. Bryan at Dover.

DEMOCRACY'S FIGHT.

The People's Battle Still Being Carried Into the Enemy's Camp.

The sturdy Democracy of the second district met at Kennedyville on Thursday evening, and fired the first gun in the second district in the great fight which is now on. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and certainly no laggards will be found in the second on November 3d.

Mr. Philip G. Wilmer was made president of the club which was organized, and the following gentlemen were named as vice-presidents: Howard Gray, Jesse R. Copper, Wattie McKnett, John B. Harris, L. J. Usilton, J. H. Clendaniel, Elworth Bowers, John McKee, Jr., John C. Sutton, Charles H. Jarman, John McGrugan, Jr., Thos. J. Shallcross, Wm. J. Hurlock, Samuel J. Coppage, Willard S. Dill, Harry Kelley, D. J. Noland, H. S. Redmile, Charles L. Gill, John Medders, secretary.

President Wilmer, in taking the chair made a strong appeal for Democracy and Free Silver, treating the subject from the plain, practical standpoint of a farmer and a man deeply interested in the great issue involved in the present fight.

Henry W. Catlin, Esq., made a forceful speech denouncing the vicious financial system which has resulted so disastrously to all classes except those whose money enables them to profit and gamble in the necessities of the less favored classes. Said the speaker: "The election of William Jennings Bryan and the consequent success of free silver form the magic key which alone will open a future of success and prosperity to the American agriculturist and wage earner alike."

Mr. Bates, of Philadelphia, also addressed the meeting. Messrs. Tilghman Shafer, Wm. A. Kennedy and Harvey Beaston were appointed an executive committee to provide speakers.

The club adjourned to meet Tuesday evening of each week until Nov. 3, at 8 o'clock.

Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., will address the club at its meeting on Wednesday evening, September 30th.

THE WORTON CLUB.

The Worton club held a rousing meeting on Monday evening. William W. Beck, Esq., the speaker of the evening, made a happy effort and was frequently applauded to the echo. "Loyalty to party, an intelligent use of the franchise, and the united efforts of the great voting masses in their own defense against corporate greed and the entrenched money power, are the only salvation of the American people in the contest which is now on," said Mr. Beck.

Mr. Thomas D. France also gave a pleasant talk, reiterating his unwavering allegience to the unterrified Democracy, and called upon the voters to stand in unbroken column in opposition to a monetary system which has already resulted in national bankruptcy and the impoverishment of the masses.

OUR JOURNEY AROUND THE WORLD.

Rev. Francis E. Clark's New Book.

This highly instructive and splendidly illustrated volume is a record of a recent journey around the world, by Rev. Francis E. Clark D.D., President of the United Societies of Christian Endeavor, and his wife. Throughout the long journey, which occupied more than a year, and covered nearly fifty thousand miles by sea and land, they enjoyed rare opportunities for observation and study. It is one of the most valuable books ever issued by the American press.

The reader is personally conducted through Australia, India, China, Japan, Egypt, Palestine, Turkey, and many other lands. We see these countries through American eyes, and obtain a perfectly clear view of them and their people, supplemented by two hundred and twenty splendid illustrations from photographs, most of which were taken by Dr. Clark himself; for he carried a complete photographic outfit with him.

Dr. Clark was one of the last Americans to travel through China and Japan before the war between these countries was begun. In this rare volume he gives us the latest and best insight into the daily life of a Chinaman in his own country; his favorite food and odd dishes; opium fiends and their [illegible] witnessed in the [illegible] Clark and of his wife, from recent photographs; a large map, exhibiting the whole world at a single glance, showing the author's journey from the beginning to the end, and 220 fine illustrations, from photographs from life. These must be seen to be appreciated.

We do not know when 640 pages have given us more genuine pleasure. If we speak warmly of the book, it is because it richly deserves it. It is sold only by agents, and is meeting with an enormous sale. Agents who introduce a first-class work like this ought to be cordially welcomed. We believe that the best way to keep out poor books is by introducing good ones, and a better one than this has never been brought to our notice. Put it into your homes. It will se read over and over again by old and young, with pleasure and lasting profit.

The work is published by the old and well-known firm of A. D. Worthington & Co., Hartford, Conn., whose imprint is sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the volume.

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The Prohibition Campaign

IN KENT COUNTY.

THE Prohibitionist of Maryland are preparing to give Maryland's representative in the coming Presidential election and the principles and platform he represents, the largest Prohibition vote ever polled in the State.

That the voters of the State may have an opportunity to hear the principles and purposes of the party, clearly and ably defined and discussed, men of national reputation for logic and eloquence will stump the State, in the interest of the party that aims to increase the wealth by improving the health of the great body politic.

One of the most noted speakers in the State at the present time, an orator of national repute, of Tennessee, will visit Kent county and speak in the following places on the dates mentioned:

MONDAY, Sept. 28, Millington;
TUESDAY, Sept. 29th, Galena;
WEDNESDAY, Sept. 30th, Still Pond;
THURSDAY, Oct. 1st, Chestertown;
FRIDAY, Oct. 2d, Rock Hall.

All persons, ladies as well as gentlemen, are cordially invited to these meetings, and those failing to improve this rare opportunity to hear this silver-tongued, golden-mouthed, clear headed, noble-hearted pleader for God, Home and Native Land will have occasion, when they hear from him, to regard it as one of the lost opportunities of a life time. In the name of the party we invite all members and friends of all parties to hear our side on this issue.

Kent County Chairman Prohibition Campaign Committee.

Maslin against the goods and chattels, land and tenements of Earl R. Strong, I have seized, levied upon and taken in execution all of the interest of the said Earl R. Strong, in and to all that lately occupied and owned by Thomas A. Strong, deceased, more or less, together with the improvements thereon, situated in the Fifth Election District of Kent county, Md., between the villages of Edesville and Rock Hall, and adjoining the lands of William Wagner, Walter Hadaway, George L. Maslin, deceased, and others, being the same tract of land which was bequeathed to Catharine A. Strong, his mother, by her grandfather, James Eagle, by will dated the 27th day of May, 1834, and duly recorded in Wills Liber No. H. folios 314, etc., one of the Land Record Books for Kent county, Md.

Tract or Parcel of Land,

CONTAINING 192 ACRES,

And I hereby give notice, that on TUESDAY, the 20th day of October, 1896,

between the hours of 11 A. M. and 12 o'clock noon, at the Court House Door, in Chestertown, Md., I will sell the above-named property so seized and taken in execution, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay and satisfy the above writ, with costs and interest due and to become due thereon.

Remarkable Offer to Farmers.

I wish to inform the farmers of Kent and Queen Anne counties that I am in better position to buy Grain in this vicinity than I or any grain buyer has ever been. I. M. Parr & Son, Baltimore, have employed me to buy Grain for them. They will telegraph me market daily, and have instructed me to pay Baltimore prices less only cost of handling; in this way farmers will surely save commissions and other costs, or about an average expense of $10 to $15 per 1000 bushels. I will call, examine grain and make offer, upon notice by mail or messenger. Bids will be made for future delivery if desired. We want this grain for export. Parties prefering to consign their grain will receive highest market price, according to grade, though we can't see any chance for consignments, when we are OFFERING SUCH INDUCEMENTS. Where it is not practical for me to see the grain, I will bid on it according to Baltimore inspection.

James A. Pearce, Administrator of Price J. Patton, Pla'ntiff,
William Laning, William F. Burr, Florence Helmbold, William C. Helmbold, and Fannie A. Helmbold, his wife; Edward A. Hollis and Louisa A. Hollis, his wife; Edward R. Helmbold, Jr., and Ada W. Helmbold, his wife; Charles D. Helmbold and Cora C. Helmbold, his wife; J. Kempner Helmbold and —— Helmbold, his wife, defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity

1st.—The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent county, Maryland, which were on the 17th day of September, 1872, mortgaged by Wm. Laning, one of the above named defendants, to one Henry M. Boyd, of the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, who assigned said mortgage to the above named Price J. Patton, since deceased, of whom your complainant is administrator in the State of Maryland.

2d.—The bill states that on or about the 17th day of September, 1872, the said William Laning conveyed certain real estate which is particularly described in the bill and its accompanying exhibits, unto the said Henry M. Boyd, by way of mortgage, to secure the payment of the sum of five thousand dollars with interest from September 17, 1873, which was then due and owing from said William Laning to said Henry M. Boyd in four years from the date of said mortgage, and was evidenced by the bond of the said William Laning to said Henry M. Boyd, of even date with said mortgage in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars conditioned for the payment of five thousand dollars, as above set forth.

3.—That on the 19th day of September, 1872, the said Henry M. Boyd, duly assigned for value, said bond and mortgage to the said Price J. Patton.

4th.—That on the 18th day of September, 1872, the said William Laning, by his deed of that date, conveyed the said mortgaged premises to Edward R. Helmbold, of Philadelphia, subject to the operation and effect of the above-mentioned mortgage.

5th. That on the 26th day of June, 1882, the said Edward R. Helmbold, by his deed of that date, conveyed all his interest in the above-mentioned lands and premises to William F. Burr, of Philadelphia, by way of mortgage to secure an alleged indebtedness from him to said Burr of three thousand dollars to be paid on or before June 17th, 1884, with interest from the date of said deed.

6th.—That the said Price J. Patton has lately died in the city of Philadelphia intestate, and that letters of administration upon the personal estate of said Price J. Patton in the State of Maryland, have been granted by the Orphans' Court for Kent county to the plaintiff, James A. Pearce.

7th.—That the interest accruing on said mortgage first herein mentioned was duly paid to said Price J. Patton in his lifetime up to March 17th, 1888, but that the whole of the said principal sum of five thousand dollars with interest from March 17th, 1888, remains due and unpaid.

8th.—That the bond accompanying said first-mentioned mortgage has been lost or mislaid by said Price J. Patton in his lifetime, and cannot now be found.

9th.—That said Edward R. Helmbold died in the city of Philadelphia several years since intestate, leaving a widow, Florence Helmbold, who resides in the city of Philadelphia, and five children and heirs-at-law, to whom the said lands and premises descended, charged with and liable to be sold for the payment of the aforesaid mortgage debt and interest, and that said heirs are all residing out of the State of Maryland, as follows, namely: William C. Helmbold, who with his wife, Fannie A. Helmbold, resides in Curwensville, Clearfield county, Pa.; Louisa B. Hollis, formerly Louisa Helmbold, who with her husband, Edward A. Hollis, resides in the city of Philadelphia; Edward R. Helmbold, Jr., who with his wife, Ada W. Helmbold, reside in Montgomery, Lycoming county, Pa.; Charles D. Helmbold, who with his wife, Cora C. Helmbold, reside in Columbus, Ohio, and J. Kempton Helmbold, who with his wife, —— Helmbold, reside in Chicago, Illinois.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 24th day of September next, give notice to said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 12th day of October next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
