REGISTRATION DAYS.

Tuesday, October 6.
Wednesday, October 7.

Henry W. Catlin, Esq.,

will address the Democratic Free Silver Club of the Third District, at Worton Hall, on Monday evening next, October 5th. All members and friends of the cause are requested to be present.

LET EVERY DEMOCRAT IN THE COUNTY REMEMBER THAT ON TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY NEXT, OCTOBER 6TH AND 7TH, HIS FIRST AND GREATEST DUTY WILL BE TO GET REGISTERED. EVERY MAN SHOULD PLACE HIMSELF IN A POSITION TO EXPRESS AN OPINION RELATIVE TO THE GREAT FINANCIAL ISSUE. THE VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY WHO ARE TODAY IMPOVERISHED BY THE PRESENT SYSTEM, SHOULD BE READY TO REGISTER THEMSELVES FOR FREE SILVER AND BETTER TIMES FOR THE LABORING MILLIONS.

TAMMANY HALL in a downpour of rain welcomed Mr. Bryan with a reception committee fifty thousand strong.

THE CHESTERTOWN FREE SILVER CLUB has contributed ten dollars to the New York Journal's campaign fund for Bryan and Sewall.

MAJOR WILLIAM E. STEWART, of Easton, is making the welkin ring in Southern Maryland for Free Silver and Bryan, and will shortly take flight to the middle west.

"IF WE DON'T HAVE FREE SILVER, in ten years two or three men will own every foot of land in Kent county." This is the statement of a leading Kent county Republican. Suggestive, isn't it?

THE NEW YORK World says that Mr. Bryan's Tammany speech was "masterful." The first thing that Mr. Bryan has ever done that was even creditable in the estimation of the World.

ILLINOIS, outside of Chicago, is said to be about evenly divided between gold and silver, leaving Chicago to decide as between sixteen to one and goldbugism, Hannaism and McKinleyism.

IT IS TO THE eternal credit of the sound usverving Democracy of Kent county, that not one vice-president of the Palmer-Buckner gold-standard meeting was drawn from within her borders.

A MINISTER, in referring to the political situation, recently made the statement that he had a small amount of insurance in a New England company, and that he had long ago received a circular letter almost "commanding" him "to vote the Republican ticket." What does it all mean? This is a Kent county minister.

THE BOLTER from the Democratic party on the financial issue who calls himself a Democrat, reminds one somewhat of the time-honored nursery strategy of catching birds by throwing fresh-salt or clean-dirt on their tails, or cooping them near one of Chestertown's "clean hog pens."

THACHER, David Bennett Hill's gold-standard candidate for Governor of New York, has withdrawn, and David Bennett's success in foisting a gold bug candidate on a strong free silver platform was only half a victory after all. The New York Democracy may now prepare to fight Hill in the present campaign.

THE New York Sun was the only one of the great dailies which had the audacity to commend the Yale student roughs for insulting Mr. Bryan when at Boston. Even the Choctaw and Cherokee Indians condemned such conduct and admonished "all Indians who think of sending their sons to Yale that associations with such students could but prove hurtful alike to their morals and their progress towards the higher standard of civilization."

WITH AN EVIDENT DISHONESTY OF PURPOSE some members of the press have garbled a portion of Mr. Bryan's Wilmington speech into an attack upon ministers of the gospel as a class. Rev. S. M. Morgan, pastor of Mt. Salem M. E. Church, in a communication to the Wilmington Every Evening, one of the most pronounced and bitter of the garbelers, stating that he was within twenty feet of Mr. Bryan and "heard every word he said and watched him as he said it." Mr. Morgan says that he is not a "Bryan Democrat nor any other sort. I do not think, however, that we of this city, and especially the clergy, can afford to do him or his party injustice—the injustice of misrepresentation. Nothing, manifestly from the language he employed, was farther from his thought than what has been attributed to him. He did not embrace all the clergy, and carefully worded the passage in reference to them, so as to indicate it. He did make the declaration attributed to him of some. And it would be strange, marvelously so, if it did not apply to some."

THE PULPIT in the present campaign is one of its most interesting features. Parkhurst, the New York slum remodeler, has taken up the "Honest Dollar" swag for his millionaire congregation and has changed his pulpit into a political throne for stump speeches. Unfortunately both sides have ministerial representatives who delight more in the excitement of political sermonizing than in the salvation of souls. Save the dollar and let the souls take care of themselves, is their motto.

REFERRING TO POLITICAL PULPITS, Dr. Talmage says: "During the last six Presidential elections I have been urged to enter the political arena, but I never have and never will turn the pulpit in which I preach into a political stump. Every minister must do as he feels called on to do, and I will not criticise him for doing what he considers his duty; but all the political harangues from the pulpit from now until the third of November will not in all the United States change one vote, but will leave many ears stopped against anything that such clergymen may utter the rest of their lives."

IT IS DESIRED that every reader of the TRANSCRIPT should read the article on the fourth page of this issue under the caption, "Gentleman Defends His Political Views." The piece is published because of the emphasis with which it voices the opinions of so vast a number of the advocates of the gold standard congregated in the great centres of wealth and population. One of these gentlemen from Baltimore, about ten days ago boldly stated that while the gold bug element of Baltimore did not claim a higher standard of honesty, they did claim a higher degree of intelligence than the people of Kent and other rural sections. The people of the counties repudiate the unwarranted assumption, and claim to be as fully competent to form judicious and intelligent opinions of current matters as their brothers across the bay.

AS AN EVIDENCE that the advocates of Free Silver are not afraid of their own proposition of 16 to 1, R. H. Kleinschmidt, owner of the American National Bank, of Helena, and one of the richest and most responsible men in Montana, has written as follows to the New York World:

"I hereby authorize you to publish that I will make a contract for one hundred thousand dollars' ($100,000) worth of silver for which I will agree to pay one dollar and ten cents ($1.10) per ounce in United States gold coin, and to be taken as soon as W. J. Bryan, as President of the United States, has signed a coinage bill, which will provide for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio compared with gold at 16 to 1, and if any of those who are talking about 50-cent dollars desire this contract, and are willing to put up a forfeiture, I am prepared to secure this offer by a forfeiture of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000 dollars. I feel confident that I can arrange similar contracts among my circle of business acquaintances for twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) to be taken one million a month for 20 months after the signing of such a bill."

AS YET professional betters are rather cautious as to staking their wealth on the result of the November election for President. A New York firm has sent out the betting status which is at least interesting. The States quoted as even bets for McKinley are California, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland and West Virginia, and the same thing is quoted as to New York city. Odds for McKinley are given as follows: Connecticut, 10 to 7; Delaware, 10 to 7; Illinois, 5 to 4; Indiana, 10 to 7; Iowa, 10 to 9; Maine, 4 to 1; Massachusetts, 6 to 1; Michigan 10 to 7; Minnesota, 10 to 9; New Hampshire, 4 to 1; New Jersey, 2 to 1; New York, 6 to 1; Ohio, 2 to 1; Pennsylvania, 10 to 1; Rhode Island, 2 to 1; Vermont, 6 to 1; Wisconsin, 10 to 7. The odds for Bryan are: Alabama, 2½ to 1; Arkansas, 4 to 1; Colorado, 4 to 1; Florida 3 to 1; Georgia, 3 to 1; Idaho, 8 to 5; Mississippi 3 to 1; Missouri, 10 to 7; Montana, 3 to 1; Nabraska, 5 to 4; Nevada, 3 to 1; North Carolina, 2½ to 1; North Dakota, 3 to 1; Louisiana, 2½ to 1; Oregon, 5 to 3; South Carolina, 4 to 1; South Dakota, 3 to 1; Tennessee, 3 to 1; Texas, 3 to 1; Virginia, 2 to 1; Washington, 3 to 1; Wyoming, 5 to 3.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS.

The Good Work Still Going on Among the People.

The Democratic masses are thoroughly aroused to the vital importance of the issues involved in the present campaign. Clubs have been formed and the work of organization and education is still going on. Henry W. Catlin, Esq., of the Chestertown bar, addressed a rousing meeting of the Chester Bryan and Sewall club of Queen Anne, at McGinnis, on Wednesday evening. Mr. Catlin was given a splendid reception. Says the Centreville Record: "He spoke for about an hour, and from the applause it was clearly manifested he had the hearts of the audience, and carried the question of the hour forcibly to those who were interested in this campaign."

The next meeting of the club will be at Crumpton on Saturday evening next, October, 3d, when three speakers have promises to be present. Seats will be reserved for ladies, and a general invitation is extended to all who are desirous to hear the issues discussed.

A ROUSER AT WORTON.

If the attendance at the Free Silver Club at Worton on Monday evening was encouraging to the advocates of the financial doctrine of the Bryan Democracy, it was certainly complimentary and should have been correspondingly gratifying to Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., the speaker of the evening. Fully two hundred and fifty persons, Democrats (one gold standard Democrat) Prohibitionists and Republicans, were present, and for more than an hour listened to one of the clearest and most forceful presentations of the financial question involved in the present campaign, heard in the county during the campaign. The audience was inspiring in size, and from the very first sentence to an eloquent close gave the speaker their sympathy and undivided attention. Applause punctuated the strong points of the argument presented, and in every respect the meeting was a splendid success. The club adjourned to meet again on next Monday evening, October 5th, when interesting speakers will be present.

AT CHESTERTOWN.

The most enthusiastic and largely attended of the series of meetings of the Chestertown Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club, was on Tuesday evening. In spite of the storm Mr. A. S. Goldsborough, of Centreville, was present, and a full hall greeted him. Mr. Goldsborough, though a young man is eloquent and has marked ability as a public speaker. His treatment of the financial issue was practical and so extremely plain that he was pleased to term his methods of handling and illustrating the subject the Kindergarten system. Mr. Goldsborough is profoundly earnest and sincere in his advocacy of the cause of silver and it was but a few moments before the speaker had entirely captured his audience. When reference was made to the lateness of the hour he was enthusiastically appealed to to proceed without limitation. The speech, while scarcely referring to old party lines and issues was a currency speech pure and simple and a splendid success.

Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., addressed the second district Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club at Kennedyville last night.

GET REGISTERED.

Two days, OCTOBER SIXTH AND SEVENTH, remain in which those entitled to registration may have their names properly entered. It should be remembered that this is a new registration and no one whose name is not placed on the registration books this fall will be eligible to vote on November the third. Delays, always dangerous, are too often fatal in regard to registration to be experimented with. The work so far shows that the Republicans are organized and have availed themselves of early opportunities to become possessed of the right to cast a ballot this fall. There may be those who are indifferent upon the subject of voting, at present, but even this class of citizens, however small it may be, should register and at least possess the right to exercise an intelligent ballot should they become impressed with the vital importance of doing so before the day of election arrives. The key to Democratic success in Kent county and throughout the State, is a full and complete registration of the Democratic vote. Next Tuesday and Wednesday, October the sixth and seventh, will be the last chance for this important work. The sitting of Tuesday, October thirteenth, will be solely for revision of the lists. Democrats, remember!

NORTHERN CONVOCATION.

Notice having appeared in your paper that the Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton would meet in Christ Church, I. U. Parish, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 23d and 24th days of September, in accordance with said notice the Convocation met at the appointed time and continued in session until the evening of Thursday, when it adjourned. As observed in connection with many of the sessions of this Convocation, those of the clergy who live at the greatest distance and have to attend at some sacrifice to themselves, answered to the roll-call. On Wednesday, after morning prayer and a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Edson, of Shrewsbury, there was a celebration of the Holy Communion. A recess then followed until 3 P. M., during which a most bountiful collation, abounding in the most tempting and inviting viands was prepared on the grounds surrounding the church, to which a most cordial and pressing invitation was extended to every member of the congregation present to come forward and partake.

At 3 P. M. the services were resumed, and after evening prayer, addresses were made by Rev. Messrs. Edson, Schouler, Davidson and Cooke on the appointed subject, "Christian Literature." A telegram was received from Mrs. Sioussat, who was to have addressed the Woman's Auxiliary of I. U., that on account of illness, she was prevented from being present. On Thursday, at 10.30 A. M., after morning prayer, a most lucid, instructive and interesting address in the form of an elucidation of the 23d Psalm, was delivered by Mr. J. R. Matthews, evangelist and candidate for Orders, now pursuing a course at Magdalen College, Oxford, Eng., which was highly appreciated by the assembled congregation. A recess followed until 3 P. M., during which there was a business meeting of the Convocation, followed by a bountiful and sumptuous collation, provided on the grounds for a much larger number of guests than were present the day before and yet all left the tables cheerful and well satisfied. At 3 P. M. the services were continued, and after evening prayer, addresses were delivered on the appointed subject given on the programme, "Church Going," as a duty, by Rev. Dr. Roberts; as a benefit and privilege, by Rev. Mr. Davidson, and as a spiritual blessing, by Rev. Mr. Cooke, who as Dean of the Convocation, concluded with an address of thanks to the congregation for their earnest, unwearied and respected attention to the services and deliverances and to the much-ridden rector for his genial and hearty welcome to the Convocation and display of executive ability in managing for its entertainment; to the choir for their excellent music, and the sexton for his unceasing attentions and active efforts in adding to the pleasure of the meetings. The weather was all that could be desired. The congregation abounded in hospitality and were only anxious lest some one should be neglected. And those who were entertained will ever remember with a grateful spirit the warm welcome and unwearied kindness and hospitality of the I. U. congregation.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

The Woman's Christion Temperance Union of Maryland held its twenty-second annual convention in Frederick, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week, the Y's or young woman's branch holding their conference on Friday. The delegates from Kent were: Mrs. E. B. Pennington, Mrs. Emma Shafer, Mrs. Walter Skirven, Mrs. H. L. Crew, Mrs. S. E. Stewart, Mrs. Emma Jarrel, Mrs. M. E. Brown, Misses Mimmie Smyth, Minnie Hudson and Anne R. Stewart. Delegates arrived Tuesday afternoon from Baltimore city and the counties of the State. They were met at the depot by the reception committee, who had carriages in waiting to convey them to the homes of their entertainers. Frederick, with her many places of attraction, opened wide her doors, and visitors and delegates were delightfully entertained during their stay.

It is a matter of regret that Miss Willard, the national president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, could not be present. Miss Willard, whose health is not strong, is resting (and working) at the home of Lady Henry Sommerset, England, but is expected home in time to attend the national in St. Louis.

One of the foremost, best known and most enthusiastic promoters of the W. C. T. U. cause was present as a delegate. She is Miss Anges Slack, an English lady of world-wide reputation as a speaker and organizer. Many other distinguished and well-known workers were present. The day or business meetings were held in the chapel of the First Lutheran Church, evening meetings in the city opera house. Both buildings were handsomely decorated. On the right of the stage was an excellent portrait of Miss Willard, resting upon an easel. The entire front of the stage was banked with goldenrod, while stately palms and ferns were arranged in the rear. A beautiful emblem of white moire silk, richly adorned with gilt lettering and fringe was prominently displayed on the stage. This banner was made expressly for the occasion by Miss Mamie Dill and Miss Hemlien, and contained the words, "Women's Christian Temperance Union of Maryland." Another silken banner had upon it in gold letters, "In the name of our God we set up our banner. W. C. T. U. of Maryland." The kindergarten for little ones, the band of hope for children, the Loyal Legion for the boys, constitutional prohibition for the State, the gospel for the drunkard. "We, then, that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves."

It would take too much space, I fear, to tell you all the beautiful decorations. Over two hundred delegates were in attendance. Addresses of welcome were given by the mayor, Mr. A. R. Yeakle, for the city, and Miss Kate Bartgis, for the local union, and was responded to by Mrs. A. E. Robinson, of Baltimore. The music was of the highest order, and was under the direction of Prof. Geo. Ed. Smith. Miss Slack was the most notable speaker of the convention. She is young and girlish in her appearance, and is a brilliant conversationalist. Her head is adorned with an abundant supply of rich auburn hair. Miss Slack gave an interesting account of the progress of the temperance reform in Great Britain. Sir William Harcourt, Lord Roseberry, all the leading men of the nation have made it the key-note of their political campaigns. John Mosley said the drink question is at the root of social reform. She poked some sharp fun at the "Royal Commission," who, she said, were now trying to find out the cause of so much drunkenness, "Never dreaming, poor souls, that the cause of drunkenness is drinking. We have a great deal to-day," she said, "of the relation of the currency standard to national prosperity. But it is not the gold or the silver standard that will save a nation. It is the reform that will do away with licensed temptations in the streets, laws that will protect men and women, boys and girls from the hand of evil." The temperance cause, she said, was stronger in England to-day than ever. In the last speech from the throne the necessity of "regulating" the liquor traffic was referred to. The first instance in the history of England where we succeeded in bringing the government to notice our cause so authoritatively, and we regard it as a sign of the times.

I wish I might be permitted to give you more of Miss Slack's address. The gain in membership for the State is between eight and nine hundred. A decision had not been reached as to where the next convention would be held. Could we venture to invite it to Chestertown? Mrs. Walter Skirven was elected a delegate to attend the national convention in St. Louis. The day meetings were well attended, while the opera house, with a capacity of twelve to thirteen hundred, was nightly packed.

IN KENT COUNTY.

THE Prohibitionist of Maryland are preparing to give Maryland's representative in the coming Presidential election and the principles and platform he represents, the largest Prohibition vote ever polled in the State.

That the voters of the State may have an opportunity to hear the principles and purposes of the party, clearly and ably defined and discussed, men of national reputation for logic and eloquence will stump the State, in the interest of the party that aims to increase the wealth by improving the health of the great body politic.

One of the most noted speakers in the State at the present time, an orator of national repute,

COL. R. S. CHEVIS,

of Tennessee, will visit Kent county and speak in the following places on the dates mentioned:

THURSDAY, Oct. 1st, Chestertown;

FRIDAY, Oct. 2d, Rock Hall.

All persons, ladies as well as gentlemen, are cordially invited to these meetings, and those failing to improve this rare opportunity to hear this silver-tongued, golden-mouthed, clear headed, noble-hearted pleader for God, Home and Native Land, will have occasion, when they hear from him, to regard it as one of the lost opportunities of a lifetime. In the name of the party we invite all members and friends of all parties to hear our side on this issue.
