EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

UP TO date over eighty thousand applicants for post offices have been filed with the department at Washington, with new applications still coming.

PROMINENT Queen Anne Democrats are making an energetic move to have the judicial convention meet in Centreville. The Queen Anne metropolis is admirably located for the purposes of the convention.

THE Leonardtown Beacon states that ex-Governor Brown is the man for the present crisis. Says the Beacon: "With him at the head of our State Central Committee, Democrats from Hutton to Point Lookout, from Maryland to Franklin City would know that a fight was on that must result in victory."

WHERE WILL Mr. Wellington stand as between Governor Lowndes and the aspirations of Congressman Sydney E. Mudd for the United States Senate? Hopeful Eastern Shore Republicans may at least consider themselves shelved so far as a restoration of the Eastern Shore Senatorial law is concerned.

THE Maryland Democratic Publishing Company has been incorporated by Messrs. W. E. Beveridge, A. L. Blessing, Francis H. Williams, H. S. Mancha and Caleb Cherbonnier. The avowed object of the corporation is to publish a Democratic newspaper in Baltimore city. It is proposed that the new paper shall be an exponent of Jeffersonian Democracy pure and simple, and not one of the type whose chief excuse for existence is to rule or ruin.

HALLUCINATION A. PARR and his Honest-money (?) confreres are now asking that President McKinley retain Democratic (?) Postmaster Warfield in his present position. The Democratic Advocate very pertinently asks what assurances the Baltimore postmaster would be able to give to the President that he would not betray his new-made friends just as he did the Democracy last fall. After receiving his pay from a Republican President, by what means could this superlatively honest Democratic-Republican be kept within the ranks into which he has gone on probation? Mr. McKinley will in all probability make haste slowly in the promotion of the members of Mr. Parr's devoted band of patriots.

DR. GEORGE WELLINGTON BRYANT, heir apparent to the throne of Madagascar, orator, physician, theologian, editor, leader of the colored Republicans of Baltimore and superintendent of street cleaning for the Third district of that city, was on Friday removed from office by Mayor Hooper for irregularities in his accounts. His official bond was forfeited. Bryant, during his short official life showed great ability as an organizer, and the excellence of his work was a matter of general comment. Fast horses and general fast living consumed his one thousand dollar salary and he embezzled from the city and his employes, all colored men. His bondsman was also colored. He claimed to be the Prince of Madagascar, stating that his mother and himself were kidnapped and sold into slarvery while he was as yet an infant.

THE Centreville Observer announces in its editorial columns this week that the local central committee has reached the conclusion to hold the primaries for the county convention and the judicial convention at one and the same time, and thus do away with one contest, and with the consequent bitterness which a primary contest always arouses in that Democratic stronghold. Our neighbors in Queen Anne's will set a good pace for a great Democratic victory this fall if they succeed in taking the after-the-primary fight out of the losing aspirants for nomination, or in other words, shall present a solid front to the common enemy. The time is propitious for oiling up the party machinery so thoroughly that there will not be a "hot box" in the whole judicial trip this fall, and we can make the running with a next to certain victory ahead of us.—Denton Journal.

THE FORMAL announcement of Governor Lowndes' candidacy for the United States Senatorship, will fail, it is but natural to suppose, to create any marked degree of enthusiasm among the colored voters of the State. Afro-American, the official colored organ of the State, printed in Baltimore, has this to say in regard to the Governor's latest ambition:

"Many of his colored friends who had confidence in him labored hard and long in his behalf, and finally secured delegations for him which resulted in his nomination. Then the campaign began. In his speeches and addresses, Mr. Lowndes used plain and direct language which could not be misunderstood. He practically pledged himself to know no such thing as color in his dealings with the citizens of Maryland. How far he has kept his promises is not necessary to say, inasmuch as Mr. Lowndes' administration thus far has been conspicuous for its absolute and unqualified ignoring of colored Republicans.

"If Mr. Hurst, his Democratic competitor, who received the united opposition of the colored voters of Maryland, had been elected, he could hardly have more effectually fulfilled the function of setting down upon the colored voter than has our present Governor, Lloyd Lowndes, and yet in spite of all this, Mr. Lowndes has the courage to appear before and address colored men, dealing in a lot of vague generalities and feeding them on "taffy." Mr. Lowndes may succeed in his senatorial aspirations, but if such be true, it will be in spite of the active opposition in the primaries, of colored Republicans. And as colored men we should not support any man for the State Legislature who is favorable to the election of Lloyd Lowndes as senator from Maryland. We have not the slightest hope or ground for believing that Mr. Lowndes as Senator will be other, so far as we are concerned, than Mr. Lowndes as Governor. Mr. Lowndes seems not to have the courage of his convictions. He has demonstrated his untrustworthiness so far as colored people are concerned."

Mrs. Samuel Stamm of Loganton, Pa., bore her thirty-four years of suffering with courage and fortitude. Her trouble was rheumatism in the knee. In consequence her limb had become so stiff that she could hardly walk. Mr. Stamm is a well-to-do merchant, and had spared no pains or expense to relieve her, but with little success, until one night when it grew so painful that she could hardly endure it, he persuaded her to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The effect was magical. The first application relieved the pain, and its continued use has removed all stiffness and given her the free use of her limb once more. If you have a friend who is troubled with rheumatism (assist on their giving this remedy a trial. You can do them no greater favor, as it is sure to give prompt relief, and if they are a little patient it will effect a cure. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

WITH THE HORSEMEN.

Purchase of Finely-Bred Horses by Kent Countians.

Capt. Cecil R. Atkinson, of Bel Rio Stock Farm, visited the Kellogg combination sale of trotting horses, held in Madison Square Garden, New York, on Thursday, and purchased possibly the finest bred colt ever brought to Kent county. A prominent horseman, after reading the pedigree said: "That is perfection in breeding." This promising youngster is Adiado, sired by the great Advertiser, 3-year-old record 2.16, by Electioneer, dam Lula Wilkes by George Wilkes. Adeado's first dam is Wildmont 2.27¼ at three years, by Piedmont; second dam, the great Wildflower two-year-old record 2.21; dam of three in the list. Advertiser's dam, Lula Wilkes, is the dam of three in the list. Wildmont, the dam of Adiado is dam of Ardetta, 2.32¼ at two years, and Adwild was third in two-year-old race in 2.19¾. Advertiser, 2.15¼ is the sire of Adbell, 2.23, as a yearling—the champion yearling of the world. Capt. Atkinson also bought Olivette, sister to Emulation, 2.21, by Onward, 120 in list; dam, Santa Claus, the dam of Vatican, 2.18; Emulation, 2.21; Position, 2.22¼; Magic Wilkes, 2.29¼. Nell Almonarch, sired by Almonarch, dam Minnie S., 2.29¼; by Hambletonian Prince (Bairds). And standard bred filly by Monterey, 2.25¼; he by Electioneer, Dam by Major Benton. These are also some of the fine youngsters by Edward Wilkes, now at Bel Roi Farm and belonging to Capt Atkinson.

Mr. Harry L. Boyd has bought from Mr. A. J. Smith, of Caroline county, Shadeland Nora, one of the finest-bred mares in Kent county. She is a handsome bay, seven years old and was purchased by Mr. Atlee, of Caroline, at the Shadeland Stock Farm, Pennsylvania, for $300 at one year old. She is by Usurper, sire of Harry W. out of Maud. Usurper was the son of Red Wilkes out of Ella B; Red Wilkes was a son of the great George Wilkes out of Queen Dido. Ella B. was a daughter of of Almont by Topsy Taylor. Maud is an unbroken brood mare, a daugter of Satelite out of Maud. Satelite is the sire of 6 in the 30 list and sire of 15 sires in the 30 list and of 30 trotters and 11 pacers.

The handsome six-year-old Sanborn driving horse of Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard died of laryngitis on Sunday. This was one of the finest young roadsters in the county.

Mr. Wm. B. Edwards, of Worton, has purchased of "Doc." Wm. H. Cooper his gray trotter. The price paid is said to be $200. This horse can trot in 2.40 and is one of the finest roadsters in the county.

The running horse "New South" was sold at public sale in Elkton recently at a bid of $7. John Slack was the purchaser.

THE QUEEN ANNE RAILROAD.

An Enjoyable Trip of Inspection Over the New Road.

An inspection of the new Queen Anne's Railroad, which has been completed from Queenstown, on the Chester river, to Greenwood, Delaware, was made on Saturday by a number of gentlemen interested in the new road, which, it is expected, will be completed to Lewes and to Rehoboth Beach by summer.

The party left Baltimore on the steamer Emma A. Ford and rode down the river, across the bay and up Chester river to Queenstown, where they disembarked and took the special train which was awaiting them. From Queenstown they sped through fields green with wheat, through forests of oak and pine, until they finally reached Greenwood, Del. Thence they returned to Baltimore by trains over the Pennsylvania system, getting home about 9 P. M.

In the harbor the renovated steamer B. S. Ford was saluted. The B. S. Ford has been chartered by the railroad company to ply between Baltimore and Queenstown. She was on her way to her pier on Light street wharf, and will begin her trips on April 7, when trains on the new road will begin their daily trips between Queenstown and Greenwood, Del. Trains will later run to Lewes, to Rehoboth Beach and other points. After a time there will be lateral branches to other Eastern Shore towns.

Mr. W. H. Bosley, president of the Queen Anne's Railroad Company, said:

"The peculiar relationship existing between Baltimore and the Eastern Shore of Maryland caused the projectors of the road to believe that this line would prove a profitable enterprise. We believe that the entire Eastern Shore lying in a triangle formed by Chestertown, Denton and Cambridge, with Queenstown for the base, required such transportation facilities as would enable the people to leave home in the morning, transact business in Baltimore and return home early in the evening of the same day. Queenstown was selected as the western terminus because it is but twenty miles from three county seats—Chestertown, Denton and Centreville—while Cambridge is but 30 miles distant.

"Under our schedule it will be possible for a passenger to leave Denton at 7 A. M., arrive in Baltimore at 10 A. M., and, returning, leave Baltimore at 4.30 P. M. and arrive at Denton at 7.30 P. M."

The schedule as given is: Leave the Chester River steamboat Company, Pier 7 Light street, at 6 A. M. and 4.30 P. M., and arrive from Queenstown at 10 A. M., and 9 P. M.

The telephone wire to connect Centreville with Queenstown was strung Wednesday of last week. This telephone is of the long-distance type and is being erected by the Queen Anne's Railroad.

Three passenger coaches for the new road were carried to Denton last week.

Wilmer Emory, Esq., attorney for the Queen Anne road last week extended to the General Assembly and Constitutional Convention of Delaware, an invitation to take a trip over the new road some time within the next two weeks convenient to the members of the two bodies. He proposes to take them from Greenwood to Queenstown, Md., by train and thence to Baltimore by boat.

NOT SCHOFIELD.

The Baltimore and Wilmington Men Were not Schofield, but Easton Authorities Believe They Have the Man.

Sheriff James A. Casey on Saturday received a telegram from Marshall Frey, of Baltimore, stating that a man believed to be Samuel Schofield, the supposed assailant of Mrs. William Godwin, was being held for indentification, and asked that some one be sent to the city to identify the Baltimore suspect. The arrested party called himself William Smith and said that he had been oystering since December and had gone to Baltimore on a bugeye named Jordan, but inquiries by the police failed to reveal that there was a boat of that name engaged in the oyster trade.

Smith was arrested by Patrolman Wilkinson on Saturday on the retail wharf at the foot of Chester street because the officer thought that he answered the description of Schofield. About the only discrepancies were in the unknown man's height and the size of his feet. Smith's height is slightly greater than that accorded Schofield and his feet are also larger. These discrepancies may result from the absence of accurate measurements of the fugitive.

Marshal Frey believed that Smith was Schofield. When arrested by Patrolman Wilkinson, Smith was loafing about the retail wharf and had been doing so for several days. The officer did not tell him why he was arrested until he got him to the station. The prisoner, under a rigid cross questioning, kept cool. He said that he was a sailor, seventeen years old and was born in the West Indies. His home at present, he stated, was in St. Mary's county.

While being delivered from the jail van into the custody of the warden of the jail Patrolman Eustace remarked to the warden that Smith was supposed to be Schofield. The prisoner instantly spoke up, saying:

"If I am Schofield you will have to prove it."

It was the first time that Schofield's name had been mentioned in his presence, and it was thought by his quickness in picking up Patrolman Eustace's words that he betrayed himself.

Smith has all of the marks and scars that are said to be important points leading toward the identification of Schofield. A slight scar is on his forehead, another scar on the left side of the back part of his head. He has a crooked forefinger on the left hand and an injured nail of the little finger of the left hand, which had been partly cut off in an accident and grown up into a ridge at the point where it was cut off. All of these marks and scars Schofield is said to have.

The age of seventeen does not agree with that of Schofield, who is put down as between twenty-two and twenty-five, but it is a hard matter to judge the age of a colored man, and many of them are not cognizant of the date of their birth. Smith looks as if he might be anywhere from twenty to twenty-five years old.

A dispatch was received from the authorities in Wilmington, Delaware, on Sunday stating that a colored man had been arrested supposed to be Schofield.

The man was arrested by the officers on information that he was wanted in Philadelphia on the charge of hitting his brother in the head with a hatchet.

Officer Amos B. Kelley, who is thoroughly familiar with Schofield's appearance, went to Baltimore on Monday but found that the man supposed to be the party wanted in Kent had been released. Messrs. W. A. Hendricks and Samuel Rolph, of Queen Anne county, and Samuel Baker and James Connelly, of Kent, all decided after looking at Smith that he was not Schofield.

Officer Kelley proceeded to Wilmington on Saturday evening to identify the man there, but found that he was not Schofield. The only points of resemblance were that the man held had a scar on his head, a cut on the hand and was about the same color, but in other respects was totally unlike the man for whose arrest a reward of $800 has been offered.

A man whom the authorities believe to be the fugitive from Kent county justice is still held at Easton.

Parties from Talbot county came to Kent on Sunday, saw Mrs. Godwin, also Mr. Hatcherson, with whom Schofield lived, and the Talbot county visitors description given to Mr. Hatcherson on Sunday, of the man held at Easton, tallies in every respect with the description of Schofield. Sheriff Casey received a letter from the Sheriff of Talbot on Tuesday requesting that some one be sent down to identify the man held. It is known that Schofield has a mother and sister living near Easton, and the two women were seen clandestinely carrying food to the man in a woods near their home. This fact coupled with the suspicious movements of the man led to the arrest. Many insist that the Easton man who claims to be named Plater, is none other than Samuel Schofield.

William S. Maxwell vs. Daniel Gilbert, Joseph Gilbert, Editha Gilbert Celia Gilbert Holley and Isaac Holley.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

No. 1252 Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate situated in Kent county, Maryland, of which Daniel Gilbert died seized and possessed.

The bill states that a certain Daniel Gilbert, colored, late of Kent county, deceased, departed this life sometime in the month of February, 1897, leaving a certain house and lot of land situated in the third election district of Kent county, Maryland, near Coleman's, and that he left no last will and testament, but died intestate, and his said real estate thereupon descended to his children and heirs-at-law, namely: Daniel Gilbert, who resides in Kent county, Maryland; Joseph Gilbert, who resides in the State of Pennsylvania, or in New Jersey; Editha Gilbert, who resides also either in the State of Pennsylvania or in the State of New Jersey; Celia Gilbert, who intermarried with Isaac Holley, both of whom reside in Kent county, in the State of Maryland, that these are the only children and heirs-at-law of the said Daniel Gilbert, deceased.

And the bill further states that at the time of his death the said Daniel Gilbert was indebted unto the plaintiff upon an open account for medical services rendered to him and his family, which said account the said Daniel Gilbert repeatedly promised to pay in his lifetime, but died without having paid the same.

And the bill further states that the said Daniel Gilbert left no personal estate out of which the account can be paid, and the plaintiff is entitled to have the real estate of the said Daniel Gilbert sold for the payment of his debts:—to the end therefore:

That the real estate of the said Daniel Gilbert, deceased, may be sold, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the claims of the plaintiff, and of the other unsatisfied creditors of the said deceased, and that he may have such other and further relief as his case may require.

It is thereupon, this 27th day of March, 1897, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, printed and published in said Kent county, once a week for four successive weeks before the 1st day of May, 1897, give notice to the said non-resident defendants, Joseph Gilbert and Editha Gilbert, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of May next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Earnest C. Reiche vs. Laura Bordley, widow; Richard Bordley, Rachel Houston, James Houston, Mary E. Stewart, Charles Stewart, Fanny Bordley, infant; John D. Urie, Administrator.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity.

No. 1181.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county, of which John Bordley, (colored), late of Kent county, died seized and possessed.

The bill states that John Bordley, (colored), late of Kent county, deceased, departed this life some time in the month of November, in the year 1893, and left no personal property sufficient to pay his debts, and cost of administering upon the same, but did leave a lot of land situated, lying and being in Kent county, in the Fourth Election District, in what is known as Quaker Neck.

And the bill further states that the said John Bordley, died intestate, and left no will or testament but did leave the following children and heirs-at-law, namely: A widow, Laura Bordley, (colored), who resides in Chestertown, Kent county, Md., and Richard Bordley, who lived in Morgan's Creek Neck, having removed from the State of Maryland; Rachel Bordley, who intermarried with James Houston, and the said Rachel Houston and James Houston formerly resided in Kent county, but that she has not been heard of for six or seven years, and no one at present knows where she lives, but the supposition is that she does not reside in the State of Maryland; and Mary E. Bordley, who inter-married with one Charles Stewart, and they now reside in the City of Baltimore; and Fannie Bordley, an infant, who resides in Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, and these were the only children and heirs at law of the said John Bordley, deceased.

And the bill further states that the plaintiff was the Funeral Director who had charge of the burial of the remains of the said John Bordley, colored, deceased, and furnished the coffin and other material necessary for the decent and proper burial and funeral expenses of the said John Bordley.

And the bill further states that John D. Urie was appointed administrator of the personal estate of the said John Bordley, and he having left no personal estate out of which the funeral expenses could be paid, and there being no way by which the plaintiff can secure the payment of his account except by a decree for the sale of the real estate above mentioned, which sale the bill prays may be sold or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the claims of the plaintiff, and of the other unsatisfied creditors of the said deceased, and that he may have such other and further relief as his case may require.

It is thereupon, this 18th day of March, 1897, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county, once a week for four successive weeks before the 24th day of April, 1897, give notice to the said non-resident defendants, Rachel Houston and Richard Bordley, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 11th day of May next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

John W. Latimer vs. Annie S. Young, George S. Young, Samuel S. Young, Benjamin A. Peaker, and the unknown heirs of Moses Young, colored, dec'd.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

No. 1247.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county, of which Moses Young, colored, late of Kent county, died seized and possessed.

The bill states that a certain Moses Young, colored, late of Kent county, deceased, departed this life sometime in the year 1867, leaving a certain lot of land situated in the First Election District of Kent county, Maryland, on the public road leading from Galena to the Head of Sassafras, containing 8 acres of land, more or less, it being the same tract of land which was conveyed to the said Moses Young by Anna M. Scott. The said Moses Young died intestate, and said tract of land descended to his heirs-at-law, the following children:

Charles E. Young, who has since died, and who left no children, but who left a widow, Annie S. Young, one of the defendants, who resides on the said place.

Also one son of the said Moses Young was William S. Young, who is now dead, but who left a child, George S. Young, who is over 21 years of age, and who resides in Baltimore or some place unknown.

Another child of Moses Young was Samuel S. Young, who is also dead, and the said Samuel S. Young left a son, Samuel S. Young, who resides in Philadelphia.

And another child of the said Moses Young was Ellen Peaker, whose husband is dead, and the said Ellen Peaker left a child, Benjamin A. Peaker, who is in the city of Chester, Pennsylvania, and who is over 21 years of age, and all the other heirs-at-law of the said Moses Young, are unknown.

And the bill further states that after the death of the said Moses Young, the lot of land left by him was never divided, nor was any partition thereof ever made among the said heirs-at-law, and the said Charles E. Young, at the time of his death, was seized of an undivided one-fourth interest in the said lot of land, and the said Charles E. Young, being in his lifetime indebted unto the plaintiff upon a certain promissory note bearing date March 7th, 1893, payable nine months after date, for the sum of $75.66, departed this life, seized and possessed of an undivided interest in and to the said real estate during the year 1896, leaving no last will and testament, and leaving no child, nor any child of any deceased child, but leaving Annie S. Young, his widow, who is a defendant in this suit, and the heirs-at-law of the said Charles E. Young are the brothers and sisters of the said Charles E. Young, at the time of his death, was also indebted unto divers other persons.
