THURSDAY, MAY 13, 1897.

R. HARRISON COLLINS. C. COX HOPPER.

COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

APPOINTMENTS come and appointments go, and still the names of Kent county leaders are conspicuous by their absence from the appointive slate.

OVERPOWERED by superior numbers, Greece has sued for peace, and in her humiliation will be forced to accept what the powers may see proper to give.

...OM PRESENT indications the taxable ...in Cecil county will be reduced ...wo millions of dollars by the new ...ment. The towns show gains but ...ming districts a falling off.

PETER CLARE CASE was well ...ted at trial by judicial aspirants. ...S. P. B. Hopper, Edwin H. Brown, ...s T. Westcott, were engaged in the ...s attorneys, and Judges Stump and ...m, all judicial candidates, were on ...ench.

...OSS WELLINGTON" has selected ...Senator James M. Sloan, of Alle...y county, as the successor of Treas...r Ormond Hammond. The Duke says ...re is no hurry about other places, and ...is unwilling to cross the bridge before ...gets to it.

THOMAS MCNULTY, the sweet singer ...he "Farmer Brown" campaign, is a ...didate for the sheriffalty nomination ...Baltimore city. Mr. McNulty's ...armer Brown" song was printed and ...ttered broadcast in Kent during the ...morable campaign.

IT IS NOW quietly hinted that the Re...blican judicial slate has been some...hat modified, and that Kent county will ...t be represented on the bench of the ...judicial district even should the Re...blicans succeed. There is said to be ...ore truth than poetry in this bit of Re...publican rumor.

A CHESTERTOWN REPUBLICAN said on ...riday: "Well, I see that Steelton is ...booming up, but I suppose it will boom ...own as soon as the fall elections are ...ver." Judging from the boom record ...o far, the gentleman is about right, and ...est of all, was honest enough to express ...n opinion of fake booms throughout the ...country.

SUPERINTENDENT George E. Noland has acceded to the solicitations of his friends, and has consented to the announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the State Legislature, subject to the decision of the Democratic convention. This announcement ushers another excellent man into the political arena.

IT IS RATHER REMARKABLE that so dead a personage as Senator Gorman, and so thoroughly demoralized an institution as the Maryland Democracy should be the cause of so relentless a fire from the ...ves in the Republican camp. Even ...Rasin's "ghost" causes an attack of ...tical ague which nearly shakes the ...nalistic beds to pieces.

...ENTREVILLE enjoyed a boom in the ...of judicial candidates last week. ...ng the gentlemen in attendance upon ...whose candidacy has been formally ...nced on the Democratic side were: ...A. Pearce, Esq., Hon. Frederick ...Col. William R. Martin, Col. ...Lewis, P. B. Hopper, Esq. and ...dwin H. Brown. Of the gentlemen ...e discussed for the honor in the ...can household were: Judge Geo. ...um and Charles T. Westcott.

...RMAN HATTERSLY W. TALBOTT, of ...mocratic State Central Committee ...turday issued a call for that body ...t on Wednesday, June 2, at noon, ...Carrollton Hotel, in Baltimore ...e has asked for a full attendance, ...as notified all the members that ...re expected to attend unless pre...d by very serious reasons. This is ...ally the first gun of the campaign, ...an aggressive fight will be the ...of the day after June 2.

...MURDERER JAMES M. GORDY, ...to be hanged at Georgetown, Del... has indulged in several radical ...s from the usual custom. He has ...d the commonwealths' attorney ...rosecuted him and several of the ...important witnesses against him, ...l-bearers. Six ministers have been ...ed to sing while he is on the scaf... and Robert Short, one of the tip...s at the trial, is requested to make a ...yer on the scaffold. Rev. J. H. S. ...ell is to officiate at the funeral, and ...witnesses against the condemned man ...e requested to hear the funeral sermon.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the ...Maryland Democratic Editor's Associa...ion, at its meeting in Baltimore last ...week, selected Centreville as the next ...place of meeting. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, May nineteenth, twentieth and twenty-first are the days decided upon for the meeting. A pleasant programme will be arranged and the convention promises to be one of the most pleasant within the history of the association. With its splendid hospitality, a section of unsurpassed beauty and one of the prettiest towns on the Eastern Shore, Centreville starts out with many natural advantages to assist her in delighting her Editorial guests. Just what the itinerary will be has not as yet been given out.

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION of the Republican League of Maryland clubs will ...e held in Baltimore on June the ninth. ...ach club will be entitled to send two delegates and two alternates to this convention and the president of the club is also ex-officio a delegate. The convention will select 24 delegates to represent the State of Maryland in the coming National Convention of the Republican League, to be held in the City of Detroit, July, 13th, 14th and 15th. The executive committee, of which Col. William J. Vannort is a member, has issued a call to all Republican clubs of the State to send delegates. The call places Maryland among the "Republican Strongholds" and calls for active work.

"CHIEF JUDGE RUSSUM has a host of Democratic friends in this judicial circuit who will spare no effort to secure his election this fall to the seat he now so ably fills. Judge Russum is popular with all classes, is a jurist of sterling ability, and since becoming a member of Maryland's highest court, has distinguished himself by handing down some very able opinions."—Easton Gazette.

Certainly, our Easton contemporary is ...ly poking fun at those Democrats ...for two campaigns were unwise ...ough to assist Republicans into office. The Gazette, if it really means to be serious, should know that Democrats will ...ot be found swarming into the enemy's ...amp this fall. The Maryland Democ...cy has had a gorge of questionable ex...riments, and will not trifle with a buzz ...again. Judge Russum may consider ...elf extremely fortunate should even ...faithful of his own line be found ...within the fold.

THE BALTIMORE News has assumed the unique role of the political "Irishman's flea." It would be interesting to know just where this journal of high moral ideas would place itself politically. In one paragraph it upraids and condemns the Dingley Tariff Bill, in another it says:

"It must not be forgotten, however, that the conduct of the Republicans in Washington, at Annapolis, and at the City Hall, has been such that thousands of voters are inclined to swing back to their old moorings, and that there is consequently danger of Gorman getting back to the Senate, not because of any increase of regard for him, or of any diminution of sound-money sentiment, but simply because of a feeling of weariness and disgust with the Republicans."

Then with a wail of holy horror it advises its readers to vote for this party of weakness and corruption in opposition to a party which it concedes to be sound on the great national issue of the Tariff and other not less important national matters.

THE REPUBLICAN POLITICAL KETTLE assumed a decided simmer on Tuesday. But few persons were in town, yet those few were fully alive to the demands of the occasion.

A modest reserve was of course noticable among the gentlemen who are being discussed for official promotion. Judge of the Orphan's Court F. H. Harper was in town, and while he made no formal announcement of a desire to be custodian of the Clerk's office vaults, he did not hesitate to announce that he was in the field and appreciated the good wishes of his friends. School Commissioner Joseph W. Harper, was also in town, and while guarded concerning affairs political was evidently not averse to the clerkship plum coming into the Harper family and smiled suggestively while discussing the candidacy of the senior member of the firm of F. H. Harper & Son. Sheriff James A. Casey, whom Dame Rumor endeavored to read out of the County Treasurer fight last week, only shrugged his shoulders good naturedly when his attention was called to what was going on outside of his official circle of duties. While it is a fact that Mrs. Casey always enjoyed the quiet of her Rock Hall home, it is equally true that she has no desire to place her personal wishes as an obstruction to her husband's success in securing substantial recognition at the hands of his party. When seen by a TRANSCRIPT reporter, the sheriff simply said: "I have nothing to say further than to state that I have never announced any determination to withdraw. Wait and see how near Dame Rumor strikes the mark. I am not ready to make any announcement of withdrawal as yet."

Mr. Charles England, whose name has been freely used in connection with the treasurership, was in town and gave every evidence that the association of his name with so substantial a salary as accompanies the office to which his friends would advance him, had caused no mental or physical discomfort. He was in evident good spirits, and while his natural modesty precluded any Wellingtonian political proclamations, the second district farmer knows a good thing when he sees it, and if his friends want him to serve his party and county in the treasurership he will not turn his back upon its responsibilities, for "Barkis is willin." He came out point blank with a "Yes, sir, I am a candidate for the treasurership. I want the office, and have strong backing." Now, our old friend George T. Williams, of Worton Station, was not disposed to allow his interests to be neglected, and was in town. So far as we know, Mr. Williams has made no official announcement of his candidacy, but it is well-known that he is in the hands of his friends, and his friends are willing that the place should come to their champion. Mr. Thomas A. Jacobs, of the first, was also on hand, but was non-commital as to his political aspirations. He is evidently keeping himself posted as to the situation and will talk later. Judge J. W. Wright, the outspoken champion of a fair fight and an open field, is well posted as to the movements of "the other fellows," and says that he is in the fight to succeed Register of Wills Dixon, and will stay to the finish. He means business and is not backward in making his wants known to his political friends. Capt. Burchinal was in the field and gave no evidences of alarm at the prevalence of aspirants for the clerkship and other places. He wears the satisfied smile of a man sure of his vantage. Col. W. J. Vannort wore a boutonniere of lilies of the valley, and was not "talking politics," but was evidently dreaming of a big peach crop and good prices. The Colonel will doubtless be heard from at the proper time. Senator Westcott, States-Attorney Urie and others, were taking an interest in the situation. The general field was canvassed in a most interesting manner.

IMPROVEMENTS AT TOLCHESTER.

Added Attractions at the Beach for the Coming Season.

The TRANSCRIPT's reporter visited Tolchester Beach on Saturday to inspect the improvements being made for the approaching season. Supt. George E. Noland was found busily engaged in overseeing the work of getting the beautiful resort in readiness for the opening.

The steamer Louise has been remodeled and fitted up for the season, which will open May 29, on which date the Sunday school of St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church, Rev. F. W. Clampitt, rector, will hold its annual summer outing.

Painters were at work, among the number, by-the-way, being Master Conlyn Noland, who had donned his painter suit and was vigorously plying the brush.

The hotel was being scoured inside and general work was being pushed to completion.

The seating capacity of the grand stand has been doubled to accommodate the increased number of persons who are expected to witness the numerous events on the excellent trotting and cycle tracks during the season. Trainer Stevens stated that the track is in splendid condition, the only further requisite needed being use for training purposes. He has eight roomy box stalls and will commence working his trotters at once. The quarter mile cycle track is in fine condition and was tested by the reportorial scorcher. The track is to conform to the regulations of the national racing board of the L. A. W., of which Mr. Albert Mott is chairman. He inspected the track on Saturday and made suggestions which, when carried out as promised by Captain Eliason, will gain for the track Mr. Mott's indorsement and recommendation to the L. A. W.

Trotting races will also be held under the rules of the National Association.

Captain W. C. Eliason, president and general manager of the Tolchester Company, on Saturday brought over a party of friends to inspect the improvements, according to his annual custom. The trip was made in the steamer Emma Giles.

Among the new attractions this year will be the exhibition of the Amet magniscope, which will display a number of moving life-size pictures portraying biblical scenes. This will be shown in a large frame building now being erected and will be under the direction of Mr. Charles E. Fountain.

The fair, however, will be the great attraction of the season, and Supt. Noland states that the outlook is most encouraging. A general interest is being taken in the enterprise, particularly by the ladies. Handsome prizes will be offered and it is expected that most of them will be kept right here in Kent county, because of the incomparable excellence of our local exhibits.

[COMMUNICATED.]

A SERIES OF QUERIES.

MESSRS. EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT—By the annual report of the commissioners for Chestertown, ending April 20th, 1897, for the year beginning April 20th, 1896, it appears that $2,079.14 is a balance on hand April 20th, 1897. In the entire statement there is not one word said about any sum of money levied to the town, and paid over to the town by the county commissioners under the special Act of the Assembly providing for this payment. Was this sum paid by the county to the town for the past year? If it was not, why not? Can you inform your readers? With over $2,000 in hand, and a large sum unaccounted for or uncollected from the county, why is it that the board walk from Mr. Copper's to the college should not be entirely replaced by a brick pavement? The latest information from those who are doing the work is, that they have been told by the town authorities to extend the pavement no further than where the boards at present are taken up. As the work may stop at that point, will you please make inquiry and advise your readers upon this point? Yours respectfully, CITIZEN.

FAIRLEE ITEMS.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT:—The Junior Order of United American Mechanics met and organized in Fairlee hall last Wednesday night. This council will be known as Fairlee Council, No. 183, Junior Order United American Mechanics, under the jurisdiction and by charter granted by the State Council of Maryland. The following officers were elected: For councilor, A. M. Kendall; vice-councilor, W. H. Crosby; junior past councilor, T. H. M. Bramble; recording secretary, Walter B. Barnes; asst. recording secretary, Harry P. Jones; financial secretary, R. A. Smyth; treasurer, James Bramble; conductor, F. H. Ward; warden, W. T. J. Keyser; trustees, Geo. W. Bramble, L. J. Keyser, Walter Stokes; chaplain, John L. Lewis; sentinels, Jas. W. Middleton and Frank Leaverton.

The revival meetings at the Union M. E. Church closed on Sunday night last. It is estimated that there was not less than five hundred persons at the church. Rev. J. B. Merritt thinks the report is not exaggerated. The amount paid Brother Galloway for his services of four weeks at the two charges was sixty-two dollars and fifty cents, all of which was obtained by the regular church collections, all of which was freely given.

Mrs. Wm. Mahlon returned home from the City Hospital in Baltimore on Saturday. She is getting along very nicely, and expects to be able to be about soon.

Mrs. Wm. Godwin is able to take an occasional drive.

The mumps still prevail in our community.

Miss Minnie Smyth and Miss Ida Adkinson spent some time in Baltimore last week.

Mrs. John L. Hudson is visiting at Mrs. Clay Lusby's.

Miss Della Lee is visiting relatives in Chestertown.

Mr. John L. Lewis has started a butcher shop at Betterton, where he will try and accommodate the people with the choicest of meats. Mr. Walter B. Barnes will take charge of the establishment and conduct the business. They both have the best wishes for success from the community.

Our prayer service on last Sabbath evening was more largely attended than usual, which shows the interest in these meetings to be on the increase. Mr. J. C. Statts was the leader. EAST END.

KENNEDYVILLE NEWS.

With sincere regret the W. C. T. U. learned of the inability of Mrs. Ellis, of New Jersey, to be present at the meeting on Friday evening last. The union however, with exemplary promptness, prepared an interesting programme that atoned in a measure for the fine address that had been anticipated. The meeting was called to order by the president, and the devotional exercises were led by Rev. Jesse Shreeve. With Miss Lula VanDyke presiding at the organ, the choir sang "A Helping Hand." Miss Nettie Whiteley gave an excellent reading entitled "The Bible and Liquor Traffic." A pathetic solo was sung by Mrs. James Archibald, who was assisted in the chorus by Miss Lula VanDyke and Messrs. Hague and Davies. Readings were given by Mrs. Jarrell, Mrs. Othoson, Mrs. Godwin, Mrs. Shafer, and Miss Clara Redmile. "The Prohibition Battle" was very sweetly sung by Miss Clara VanDyke, sustained by a quartette chorus. One new member was enrolled. After singing, "Rally For The Right" the meeting closed.

Misses Netting Goodling and Nellie Walters, of Chestertown, were the guests of Miss S. B. McKneet on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Orrell, of Caroline County, has been visiting her brother, Mr. J. R. Jarrell.

Mr. Carroll Nickerson, of Philadelphia, is visiting his brother, Mr. C. W. Nickerson.

Misses Bertha Redmile and Nettie Whiteley, Messrs. H. C. Jarrell and W. E. Sanders spent Sunday with friends near Centreville and witnessed the very interesting exercises of the semi-centenuial of the M. E. Sunday school of that town.

Mr. Wattie McKnett had his foot mashed one day last week, by the wheel of a thresher passing over it. RIVERA.

IN QUEEN ANNE.

Fifteen Lashes on the Bare Back—Lawyer A. R. Weedon Presented.

The Queen Anne grand jury last week brought in eleven indictments against O. T. Davidson, the Queenstown merchant, for selling liquor without a license.

Presentments were brought in against three delinquent tax collectors.

The grand jury on Saturday found a true bill against A. R. Weedon, attorney at law, for obtaining money under false pretenses from ex-Governor R. J. Reynolds, of Delaware.

Charles Wilson, colored, was convicted of wife beating and sentenced to receive fifteen lashes on his bare back and be confined in the county jail for fifteen days. This is the first case in which the whipping post has been used in the county since the war.

The taking of testimony in the Gray-Blackiston case was commenced in the court yesterday morning. The assault, it will be remembered, took place at McGinnis.

Mr. George W. Smith, of Chestertown, visited Centreville on Tuesday.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is only by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall' Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Henrietta M. Willson by Thomas B. Willson, her next friend and husband, vs.
The unknown heirs of Patrick Murray, dec'd.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

No. 1261.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county of which Patrick Murray, late of Kent county, died seized and possessed.

The bill states, that heretofore, to wit, on the 17th day of April, 1853, a bill of complaint was filed in a cause wherein Henrietta M. Willson, at that time a married woman, the wife of Thomas B. Willson, one of the plaintiffs in this case, was plaintiff, and Patrick Murray, at that time a resident of Kent county, in the State of Maryland, was defendant, but which said bill was defective in that the suit was instituted by Henrietta M. Willson, a married woman, in her own name, instead of being brought in the name of the said Henrietta M. Willson by her husband and next friend, Thomas B. Willson, who was not a party to the said suit.

And the bill further states, that by the said bill of complaint it was alleged that the said Patrick Murray was indebted unto the said Henrietta M. Willson in the sum of $240.00 on and by a certain mortgage on a lot of land near Edesville, Kent county, Md., which was executed to secure the payment of the same, dated the 8th day of March, in the year 1850, and the said bill alleged that no part of said sum of money or interest accruing thereon had been paid to the said Henrietta M. Willson, although the time limited for the payment thereof by the condition annexed to the said deed of mortgage had long since expired, and payment thereof had been demanded of the said Patrick Murray.

The bill further states, that the whole of said sum of money and interest from the 8th day of March, 1871, was due and owing to the said plaintiff, and the said bill prayed that the said Patrick Murray might answer the several matters and things therein stated, and that the premises might be sold for the payment of the claim of the said plaintiff, and that she might have such other and further relief as her case may require, and the said bill prayed for process against the said Patrick Murray.

And the bill further shows, that an interlocutory decree was obtained against the said Patrick Murray, which recited that he had been duly summoned to appear, but failed to appear and answer the said bill of complaint, and subsequently the said Patrick Murray died by his solicitor, Charles T. Westcott, appear to said suit, and admitted the allegations in the said bill of the complaint filed in the said cause, and submitted to a decree for the sale of the premises.

The bill further states, that subsequently, to wit, on the 5th day of November, 1874, a decree for the sale of the said real estate was passed by this court, and Richard Hynson was appointed trustee to make such sale and, the cause and manner of his proceedings as such trustee was fully set forth in said decree, but the said decree was never executed by the said Richard Hynson in his lifetime, and no sale of said mortgaged premises has ever taken place, although the mortgage debt and interest due to the said Henrietta M. Willson as aforesaid remains due and unpaid, all of which will appear by reference to said chancery cause, entitled Henrietta M. Willson vs. Patrick Murray, being No. 357 equity, the papers of which cause are prayed to be taken as a part of this bill of complaint, and reference to which is made for the purposes of this suit as fully as if the same were set forth at length in this bill of complaint.

And the bill states, that she is advised it is now impossible to obtain the enforcement of said original decree, for the reason that the suit was improvidently brought in the name of Henrietta M. Willson without joining her husband and next friend, Thomas B. Willson, as a party plaintiff to said bill, and also because of being put in first-class condition, and the best possible results are expected.

And the bill further shows, that the plaintiff is advised that since the filing of the Original Bill in said Chancery cause No. 357, the said Patrick Murray hath departed this life, that he died in the Alms House, in Kent County, Maryland, many years ago, that he never married, and never had any children, that he came from Ireland some 30 or 40 years since, and at the time of his death he left no estate out of which the said mortgage debt so due as aforesaid to the plaintiff could be paid, and the only property left by the said Patrick Murray was the house and lot on which rested the mortgage so due as aforesaid to the plaintiff, and the said Patrick Murray died intestate, and no letters of administration were ever committed unto anyone on any estate which he might have had.

And the bill further states, that Richard Hynson, who was appointed trustee in the said original Decree, hath departed this life, having died about the month of October, in the year 1885, to the end therefore, that the said suit and decree in No. 357 Chancery may be revived against the said Patrick Murray, or his heirs, whoever they may be, and that a new trustee may be appointed in the place and instead of the said Richard Hynson, deceased, in order that the premises described in the bill of complaint and in the mortgage as well as in Chancery cause No. 357 may be sold. And that she may have such other and further relief as her case may require.

It is thereupon this 12th day of May, 1897, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county, once a week for four successive weeks, before the 12th day of June, 1897, give notice to the said unknown heirs of the said Patrick Murray of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 28th day of June, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
