THE STATE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, YESTERDAY DECIDED UPON JUNE THIRTIETH AS THE DATE FOR HOLDING THE SECOND DISTRICT JUDICIAL CONVENTION. DENTON WAS SELECTED AS THE PLACE. THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION WILL BE HELD ON JULY 28TH.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION WILL BE HELD AT OCEAN CITY ON AUGUST 26. THE DATE FOR THE JUDICIAL CONVENTION WAS LEFT WITH THE COMMITTEES OF THE COUNTIES COMPOSING THE CIRCUIT.

CRISFIELD had a ten-thousand-dollar fire on Monday. Four large oyster houses and the ticket office of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad were destroyed.

SENATOR WELLINGTON's maiden speech in the United States Senate was a masterly stroke for Spanish brutality and butchery, and was worthy of the Maryland dictator and his methods.

THE Postoffice Department has announced its policy as to the appointment of minors to office. The rule to be followed is that all minors will be debarred from chief clerkships and deputy postmasterships, except in a few third class offices.

THE BALTIMORE Sun is perfectly welcome to all the comfort which it can possibly draw from the prolonged "Amens" of approval of the Republican press. The bravos of these enemies of Democracy and the people, is but a service of notice that the Sun has drifted into the enemies' camp.

THE WHEAT ACREAGE of France for the present year is placed at over a million acres less than the average seeding, with a corresponding falling off in yield of over fifty millions of bushels If this be true, she will be forced to go upon the markets of the world to make up her deficiency of crop.

NEW RICHMONDS continue to appear in the Democratic political field. Mr. John Medders, that staunch second district Democrat, has served formal notice of his candidacy for the office of Register of Wills, and Mr. John McClary, of the fifth district, is in the race for the commissionership as the successor of Commissioner Samuel J. Vickers.

THE DEEP CONCERN of the Baltimore Sun relative to Mr. Gorman's position on the Cuban question is in marked and impressive contrast with its clam-like silence in regard to Boss Wellington's convention of five, which behind closed doors designated a Republican candidate for Mayor of Baltimore. The palpable flimsiness of the position held by the would-have-believe Democratic press of Baltimore is daily becoming better understood by the people. "All the people can't be fooled all the time."

THE APPOINTMENT OF WOMEN as trustees of public schools in Kent and several other counties of the State, has been productive of much comment. The school board of Talbot county addressed an official communication to the State Board of Education, and that body decided that in their judgment there is no legal reason why women cannot serve on boards of district school trustees, and that a married woman can be a school trustee. In response to the inquiry of the Talbot county School Board, namely, "As a mere matter of sentiment, in the absence of any popular demand, would it be wise to inaugurate a movement so new to our people?" the State Board replied that "this is a matter entirely within the discretion of a board of county school commissioners, and that such board can judge of the propriety and expediency of such action from their knowlege of public opinion in any county better than can the State Board of Education."

WHETHER OR NOT Ex-State Senator John B. Brown proposes to enter the judicial fight, as yet remains to be seen. P. B. Hopper, Esq., of Centreville, an avowed candidate from Queen Anne was in Chestertown on Monday, and gave no evidence of an intention to make room for Mr. Brown by a withdrawal from the contest. On the contrary, Mr. Hopper was emphatic in outlining his position and stating that his candidacy would be carried through to a finish. As a matter of course, the vigorous manner in which the friends of the ex-Senator are disposed to push the claims of that gentleman are extremely embarrassing to the candidacy of his brother, Col. Edwin H. Brown, and it is claimed by some, if persisted in, will result in squeezing him from the field. Some gentlemen, prominent in politics in Queen Anne, declare that the situation has become so complicated as to virtually place the Queen Anne delegation in Mr. Hopper's hands. Rumor has it that a conference of the friends of ex-Senator Brown took place in Centreville last week for the purpose of canvassing the outlook, but as yet the result is unknown, and no details of the meeting have leaked out to give an idea of the probable outcome.

COMMUNICATED.

A QUESTION OF METHODS.

MESSRS EDITORS:—The Kent News' statement of the "Hibernia Affair" said, that "the grandson whipped the boy that had made these annoying aggressions."

Does it not seem a strange fact that this grandson, whom they are rearing upon the theory that "corporal punishment is degrading, both to the one receiving and the one inflicting it," should have so far digressed from his instructions, as to inflict corporal punishment upon the boy, whom he considered should be punished for his aggressions?

Why did he not "appeal to the higher faculties of this boy and more successfully attain the end desired and exalt his character, instead of degrading it?" The boy whose faculties are so highly developed that they could be appealed to, and it prove more successful than corporal punishment, certainly ought not to be found lacking in the faculty to appeal to another boy's "higher faculties rather than inflict corporal punishment, and so degrade the one receiving and the one inflicting it." If he realized the fact that bodily punishment would correct the fault in this boy, could he feel degraded by having another correct a fault in him by the self-same method?

This is written in reference to the fact that Mr. Pearson and his grandson do not sanction corporal punishment under any circumstances, therefore under no circumstances is his grandson excusable in inflicting upon another. I take the privilege of quoting another's words: "Corporal punishment is indefensible in theory, indispensible in practice."

POLITICS IN THE FIFTH.

The Republicans Not a Happy Family—Other News Items.

Political gossip is quite prominent nowadays all along the line in the new Fifth, among both Democrats and Republicans. The principal theme is the complexion of the tickets, and the "modus operandi," of the primary campaign. Some of the leading ones seem to be ignorant of, or have forgotten that the old fifth has had several slices slabbed off of her staunch old sides which have gone to assist in the formation of two new districts. When we name certain of our qualified citizens for this or that position, we are told by local "pollys," "Why, my dear sir, you have Mr. —— for the Legislature, and Mr. —— for Treasurer, and Mr. —— for Commissioner. Surely you ought to be satisfied with such an allotment of good timber, and all from the 5th." When as a matter of fact, none of the gentlemen are residents of the 5th at all.

Some of our local Republican workers are red-hot for a fight against their party. Numerous transactions of the appointing powers have been very distasteful, prominent among which, are the distributions of several pieces of the public road work in the county,—to wit: One man it is claimed has a road and is paying his men off with 90 cents per day. Another road, it is stated, is given ostensibly to three different men but in reality one man is supervisor of the whole, receiving pay as such, and it is said employs Virginia colored men,, and pays them 60 cents per day, and not one of them is a registered voter of the county. Our friend "Cast," who has been a worker from workersville, says the county allows supervisors $1.00 per day for one horse, or $1.80 for two horses; 25 cents per day for each man he has employed, and the laborers $1.00 per day, but the commissioners give out the roads to men who are compelled to borrow the money to prosecute the work, and as a consequence, they are compelled to shave the laborer's dollar in order to meet the interest on the money borrowed. "Now," says "Cast," "why in thunder don't the commissioners let out the roads to men who have money to invest, and thus are in a position to pay off their men with $1.00 per day." He says that he has money, and would gladly accept a road just for the purpose of employing men needing work, and would guarantee to pay his men all that the county allows, but he and others like him have been ignored, and worthy men have been imposed upon by having their wages shaved down to accommodate others who are no better workers for the party than he has been.

Another section of the county's supervisors, are reported as having adopted the plan of employing a squad of men for five days, then discharging them and taking on a new squad for five days, thus giving work to a larger number of men in the neighborhood. This plan, though a fair and just one, has created a lot of dissatisfaction in the rank and file of the Republican voters, who swear to get even next November.

The Democrats here see a bright prospect for the transfer of the old ship to the management of Democracy next fall. They are therefore going to place themselves in such positions as will best promote the interests of the people, and the party and its ultimate success at the polls. They consider the primaries the principal election, and with that issue in view, will in the near future, organize a club for thorough work in the primary campaign.

The wave of prosperity so long looked for, has struck Capt. Jack Allen with a vengeance. He is crowded with work, and still orders are rushing upon him from various parts of the county. He is compelled to leave his own land and boat property untouched, in order to accommodate others in need of a first-class boat and house carpenter.

Capt. Jack Boyer has completed extensive preparations for the crabbing business. He has fenced off a cove in Huntingfield creek with wire netting, as a crab pound, and has engaged quite a number of the watermen to crab for him at so much per hundred. Mr. Lemuel Downey several days ago, met with a painful accident. He was standing on a ladder whitewashing a building, when the ladder broke into, precipitating him to the ground, breaking one of his toes.

Capt. George Davis, caught in a haul siene, while fishing in Swan Creek, 22 German carp, many of them weighing 25 pounds each.

A number of our fishermen have been very unfortunate of late in their dealings with the fish, oyster and game companies' of Baltimore, the firms bursting with the business of the fishermen unsettled.

Overhauling, repairing and painting the crafts of our harbors, are now the order of the day. Every boat owner is his own carpenter and painter as a rule, and takes great pride in the execution of his work.

There was a lot of valuable timber adrift in the bay on Tuesday morning of last week. A number of our watermen secured quite a quantity of it. It is supposed that a lumber-laden vessel shipped her deck load during the squall of Monday evening.

Wheat and grass in this section never looked finer than now. A large crop of each is sure.

Fruit so far, also looks promising, and farmers and others are in good cheer.

The cool weather and cut worm has made corn and truck very backward.

BON JOUR.

OVERTON MATTERS.

A Charming Dance in Edesville Hall—Other Interesting Items by "Writer."

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Everything is moving along lovely in this locality. Mr. J. A. Flemmer, Supt. of the Government Coast and Geodatic Survey, with two assistants, is with us again. Mrs. Flemmer paid her husband a flying visit and spent Sunday in Kent.

Mr. Walter Snyder and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harvey, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wickes.

Miss Fannie Goldsborough, of Baltimore, also paid Mr. and Mrs. Wickes a visit last week.

Soft crabs have become very plentiful and cheap. They have brought as low as eight cents per dozen. Hard crabs are in demand, and nearly all of our tongers will go into the catching of hard crabs.

Mr. Robert Wickes, on "Napley" has one of the finest two-year-old peach orchards the writer ever saw. The trees are scarcely two years old but branches less than twelve inches long have from 7 to 10 peaches, all of good size and perfect. Should the fruit remain on the trees Mr. Wickes will gather an average of a basket to the tree. The prospect on the island is fine for a good crop. Wheat looks well, but corn and garden vegetables are backward because of the cool weather.

J. H. Ruth has finished painting his new store and is comfortably settled in his new quarters and ready for business.

He is better prepared than ever to accommodate his large number of patrons.

The last and one of the most pleasant dances of the season was given in Edesville Hall, on Friday evening. The committee, Messrs. Charles Jessop, Horace Beck, W. W. Camp and James H. Ruth, were untiring in their efforts to make every one present have a good time. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, water ice and cake were served about midnight. The giddy whirl of pleasure was kept up until the first streak of dawn appeared in the east, when all agreed that a delightful evening, and morning too, had been spent, and dispersed to their homes. The hall was crowded with guests from far and near, Baltimore, Millington, Chestertown and Queen Anne being represented. Some of those present were: Mrs. Kershaw, Misses Fannie Goldsborough, Edna Taylor, Lizzie Diggs, of Baltimore; Miss Nannie Comegys and brother, of Millington; the Misses Mathiott, and Miss Frame, of Hanesville, Mr. Tom Perkins, Miss Annie Brice, Chestertown; Willie Hepbron, Still Pond; the Misses Laura and Selina Jessop, Misses Edna, Lula and Mamie Strong, Misses Marie Camp, Violet Beck, Sophie and Bertie Beck, Louise B. B. Price, Mrs. Howard Perry, of Queen Anne; Misses Anna and Katie Willson, M. S. Wickes, Bettie Wallace, Alice Willson; Mr. Bart Hatcherson and wife, Mr. John Brice and wife, Mr. Rob't Wickes and wife, Messrs. Chas. Jessop, Geo. Camp, Howard Parrott, Horace Constable and others too numerous to mention. Profs. Willison and Ayres furnished music.

Yours, WRITER.

STILL POND NEWS.

The Messrs. Jewell have opened a first-class meat market in the building adjoining F. H. Harper & Son.

A runaway in our town last Saturday resulted in the ruin of a wheel and a little temporary excitement. The runaway team was driven by a Mr. Sheets, of Worton, and he was racing through the street at the time it occurred.

On Sunday morning it was our privilege to hear a scholarly and eloquent sermon by the new Presiding Elder of Easton District, Rev. W. F. Corkran. A large congregation greeted him, and a very favorable impression was made.

Next Sunday evening Still Pond Sunday school will hold its annual Children's Day exercises. The programme has been prepared under the supervision of Supt. Harper, Rev. E. H. Nelson, Miss Nelson, Mrs. Harper and Miss Baynard, and an unusually fine entertainment is promised.

Rev. E. H. Nelson has been suffering from throat trouble, and his place was filled last Sunday evening by W. M. Watts. The pews were not filled, however, as the Children's Day exercises at Kennedyville attracted nine-tenths of the congregation.

The Epworth League entertainment at Mrs. W. G. Rasin's last Thursday evening, was a success, both socially and financially. The only drawback was the coolness of the evening, which rendered out-of door enjoyment out of the question.

As usual, somebody has forestalled events by reporting to your excellent paper an event which had not yet occurred. We refer to the discussion of Cuban belligerancy by the Knights. Such reports are blamed on yours truly, so much the innocent must suffer for the guilty. Why don't those persons who thus misinform you, give a circumstantial account of the end of the world? It would be as near the truth as some of their other news. These remarks refer to your last issue.

G. W. Harper, Esq., of the Mutual Reserve, accompanied by his son, C. F. Harper, of national fame as an insurance detective and counsellor, spent several days with Mrs. Davis, and other Still Pond friends, this week.

The Epworth League social and business meeting will be held at the parsonage Tuesday evening, June 8th, at eight o'clock. All are invited. W. M. W.

KENNEDYVILLE NEWS.

Delightful Children's Day Services—McKnett—Edwards Wedding.

The M. P. Church was filled to its utmost capacity on Sunday both morning and evening, the occasion being "Children's Day." The morning service, which was participated in by the little folks, was rendered in a very interesting and most complimentary manner. An immense crowd, numbering at least three hundred persons, assembled early to witness the evening programme, entitled, "The Conquoring Cross." In this the older members of the school participated and presented each part in the most creditable manner. As on former occasions, the exercises throughout were of a high order of entertainment, and great credit is due to all who took part in the service.

A very pretty wedding was witnessed at the M. P. Church last night (Wednesday). Miss Laura Archer McKnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McKnett, of Urieville, and Mr. Howard Edwards, of Philopolis, Baltimore county, were united in marriage, Rev. Jesse Shreeve officiating. The church was profusely decorated with plants and cut flowers. Miss Mary McKnett, sister of the bride, presided at the organ, and as the strains of Lohengrin's march were being skillfully rendered, the bride and groom entered, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. J. D. and S. H. McKnett; bridesmaids, Misses Nellie Barwick and Annie Shafer; maid of honor, Miss Adaline Edwards, and groomsman, Mr. Wattie McKnett. The bride was dressed in white silk trimmed in chiffon and satin ribbon, with square corsage, and carried bride roses; maid of honor, white India linen with lace and ribbon, and carried white roses; bridesmaids, white Persian lawn with pink underdress, trimmed in lace and ribbon, and carried pink roses; organist, white organdie with Nile green underdress. Mendelssohn's march was rendered as the bridal party retired. The writer extends congratulations.

In evidence of the patriotic spirit of the Juniors, the stars and stripes floated gracefully from the flag staff on Weer's hall, the place of meeting, on Decoration Day.

Misses Nellie Barwick and Susie Johnston, of the State Normal School, are home for vacation, the former a graduate.

Mr. Chas. Herzog and sister, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. Thos. Redmile.

Rev. W. R. McKnett, Messrs. S. H. and Kent McKnett are visiting their parents at Urleville.

Miss Ellen Medders, of Locust Grove, spent Sunday with her uncle, Mr. John Medders. RIVERA.

"Last summer while attending court at Uniontown," says D. B. Patton, a prominent druggist of Fayette City, Pa., "three witnesses were suffering from diarrhoea. I gave each a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave immediate relief. On the way home one of my neighbors was taken with a severe cramp in the stomach and was suffering with intense pains. I gave him a dose of this remedy and within five minutes the pain had ceased. This remedy is a favorite here. I know of many who are never without it. I always take it with me when going away from home." For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

Amanda F. Rollinson, Plaintiff, vs. William H. Rollinson, Elizabeth R. Rollinson, A. Elizabeth Rollinson, William Rutter, Florence M. Rutter Howell, Augustus Howell, Sarah M. Rutter Taylor, Andrew Taylor, Henry M. Rutter, Lillian Rutter Greenwood, James W. Greenwood.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate which was held by Henry M. Rollinson, late of Kent county, deceased, in trust.

The bill states that a certain Araminta S. Turner conveyed a certain lot of land to Henry M. Rollinson in trust for the benefit of William H. Rollinson, Joseph T. Rollinson, Susan A. Rollinson and Lewin Rollinson; that the persons entitled thereto are William H. Rollinson, Elizabeth R. Rollinson, his wife, and the children of Susan A. Rollinson, who married William Rutter, both of whom are dead, leaving the following heirs-at-law:

William Rutter, Florence M. Rutter Howell, Augustus Howell, Sarah M. Rutter Taylor, Andrew Taylor, Henry M. Rutter, Lillian Rutter Greenwood and James W. Greenwood, and the children of Lewin Rollinson, namely:

Amanda T. Rollinson and A. Elizabeth Rollinson, Joseph T. Rollinson having died unmarried, and that these are the heirs-at-law and entitled to said lot of land as tenants in common in fee simple.

The bill further states that the said lot of land which lies at Perkins' Hill, containing nearly two acres of land, is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein, and in order to make a division of said interests therein it will be necessary for said real estate to be sold and the proceeds divided among the parties entitled according to their several interests therein, but in order for this to be done it will be necessary to sell the property for purposes of partition, and to appoint a trustee to make such sale.

The bill further states that A. Elizabeth Rollinson, Lillian Rutter Greenwood and James W. Greenwood are non-residents of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon, this 26th day of May, 1897, adjudged and ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county once a week for four successive weeks before the 27th day of June, 1897, give notice to the absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 15th day of July next, to show cause, if any they may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
