Call for Democratic Primaries.

The Democratic voters of Kent county are hereby notified to assemble at their respective polling places in each election district, on Saturday, the 19th Day of June, 1897,

AT TWO O'CLOCK P. M.,

for the purpose of selecting six delegates from their respective districts to meet in convention to be held at Stam's Hall, in Chestertown,

On Tuesday, the 22d Day of June, 1897,

AT TWELVE O'CLOCK NOON,

to select six delegates to represent the county in the Democratic Judicial Convention, which will be held at Denton on WEDNESDAY, the 30th day June, 1897, for the purpose of nominating one candidate for Chief Judge and two candidates for Associate Judges of the Second Judicial Circuit of the State of Maryland. Where there are two precincts each precinct will be entitled to three delegates.

RICHARD D. HYNSON,
WM. E. KEYSER,
TILGHMAN SHAFER,
Democratic State Central Committee for Kent County.

IF THE DEMOCRATS of the the Second Judicial Circuit are wise they will nominate James Alfred Pearce, of Kent county, for Chief Judge. Such a nomination would reflect the greatest credit upon the party besides placing a strong man upon the ticket. The bench should be graced only by men of the highest moral character and acknowledged legal attainments. Mr. Pearce is such a man, and we hope he will receive the nomination.—Cecil Democrat. In this short but pointed editorial reference to Kent's candidate for Chief Judge, the Democrat is not only voicing the unqualified sentiment of Kent county Democracy, but the outspoken opinion of many representative Democrats in each and every county of the judicial circuit. A jurist whose splendid legal abilities are recognized beyond the limits of his own State; possessing peculiar natural qualifications for the high office to which he aspires, and being by education, one of the most eminently well-fitted men in the State, the judicial convention would honor itself by honoring Kent's candidate, and would insure to the citizens of the second judicial circuit the services of one of the purest and most polished gentlemen in Maryland.

A CALL HAS been issued by the Democratic County Central Committee for judicial primaries to be held at the respective polling places on Saturday next, at two o'clock. At no time within the history of the Democracy has it been more important that the whole people should take an interest in all primaries and other meetings held for the advancement and upbuilding of Democratic principles. Kent has a candidate, in the person of James A. Pearce, Esq., for the judicial nomination, and it is of first importance that a widespread and general interest should be manifested. The TRANSCRIPT has from time to time endeavored to emphasize the fact that the very bed-rock of personal rights and civil liberty is a pure, capable, and uncontaminated judiciary. The man or men who remain quietly at home with a total disregard to the selection of proper delegates to represent the people in convention, can with poor grace enter complaints and criticisms after the delegates have been named. Then too, a feeling of party and county loyalty and pride, as well as a desire to see one of the most cultured and honorable citizens of this or any other State, promoted to the responsible position of chief judge of the Second Judicial Circuit, should appeal to every voter of the Democratic party in Kent to go to the primaries on Saturday next and register his choice. Let every Democrat awake to his individual responsibilities wherever and whenever they may present themselves, and Democratic victory in Kent at the November election will not be so much a matter of uncertainty as our Republican friends would have us believe.

AN ANSWER TO AN ANSWER.

As an expression of mine has been quoted in that interesting controversy in regards to corporal punishment growing out of the Hibernia case, I would fain have a finger in the argumentative pie. Mr. Pearson seems to think that corporal punishment is justifiable when forbearance ceases to be a virtue. This is the gist of his position, though I have no ears to hear what he writes. I read it with my eyes. Well, then, joking aside, for this question of corporal punishment is no joke, Mr. Pearson does not rebut the statements of "Look Before You Leap," but attempts to be witty. A dangerous experiment. It is not an edifying example to any child to read exhibitions of their elders' brilliant verbal pyrotechnics. Too often it leads the youthful mind into the grievous error of mistaking word flinging for logic.

The conclusion that corporal punishment is indefensible in theory, indispensable in practice, rests upon six premises. Corporal punishment is indefensible in theory—1st, because it is morally wrong, Solomon to the contrary notwithstanding. Solomon (I say it reverently) is not any more of a modern authority than is the retaliation of his moral code, which has been superceded by the Golden Rule. 2nd, because it is generally ineffective, and changes love to fear. Those who say that whipping makes good children are simply ignorant. 3rd, because it has a pernicious effect upon the child's after life. At the door of corporal punishment we lay most of the impudence, irreverence and infidelity of this generation. Thousands of New England children have been whipped into hell by stern parents who have driven them to hate the name of goodness. But corporal punishment is indispensable in practice (in the schools) of to-day—1st, because very few teachers can afford to ignore the standards already set up in the childish mind. 2nd, because some parents will spoil their children, and lead them into the natural opinion that kindness means blindness and liberty means license. 3rd, because vindication of outraged justice sometimes, though not often, demands capital, no, corporal punishment. If this be illogical, make the most of it. W.M.W.

"For three years we have never been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house," says A. H. Patter, with E. C. Atkins & Co., Indianapolis, Ind., and my wife would as soon think of being without flour as a bottle of this Remedy in the summer season. We have used it with all three of our children and it has never failed to cure—not simply stop pain, but cure absolutely. It is all right, and anyone who tries it will find it so." For sale by M. A. Toulson, Chestertown, Md.

FROM ROCK HALL.

Harbor Improvements Commenced—Bon Jour at his Best in the News Line.

The contractors for deepening Rock Hall harbor and cutting through the Swan Island bar have at last begun operations by placing a dredging machine at the inside end of the proposed cut-off channel, beginning the outside work first. This move caused considerable comment and apprehension by the "vox populi," lest, through some jugglery, the work on the cut-off would be consummated, and the entire appropriation be used thereon, and our harbor would remain untouched. But later reports of the coming of a second dredging machine in a few days to be placed in the harbor with the object of prosecuting the work at both points simultaneously, has removed this apprehension, and all now look forward with pleasant anticipations to greatly improved conveniences accruing to shippers and travelers to and from the metropolis.

Mrs. Jos. R. Ryan was removed from the Johns Hopkins Hospital to her home on Tuesday of last week, in a greatly improved condition from the accident befalling her on May the 8th. While a complete recovery must of necessity be of slow progress, yet the family and friends are happy in the assurance that in a few weeks a complete recovery will result. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan speak very highly of the efficient management of the case at the J. H. H., and of the courteousness of the officials and attendants with whom the family came in contact during the four weeks' stay there. The family are also loud in their appreciative comments upon the substantial sympathy meted out to them by neighbors and friends generally, and by the Knights of Pythias, the Odd Fellows and Mr. Geo. E. Leary, and last but not least, to Dep. Commander J. F. Stevens, are the family specially grateful for his prompt action in placing the State schooner A.B.Smith for the conveyance of the patient to the city on that memorable night of agony and dispair. The A. B. Smith never did better sailing service, than on the nights of May the 8th and 9th, and Capt. Stevens and crew deserve great credit for their skill in the management of the vessel and tender service rendered to the patient during the two and a half hours voyage. The crew of the postal steamer Lannan also deserve great credit for the humane and prompt transfer of the patient and her husband from the Smith to the hospital. For all those noble acts, a bounteous reward must await the performers thereof at the grand round-up of their mortal existence.

Messrs. L. I. Whaland, W. P. Durding, Chas. Sewell, J. D. Ayres and Frank Ayres, Knights of Pythias of this place, attended by invitation a meeting of Rathbone Lodge No. 118, K. of P., of Centreville, on Thursday evening of last week. They report a royal good time with the Queen Anne brethren. Initiation of candidates, speech-making and feasting were the order of the occasion. A large audience was present and enjoyed the exercises to the fullest extent. The Kent members, on their return for home on Wednesday morning, were compelled to go on to Baltimore, owing to the disability happening to the Gratitude, but were not in the least nonplused, as enjoyment lingered throughout the trip.

As Mr. Bridon and lady, of Pine Neck, were on their way to the village a few days ago the horse took fright and ran away, throwing the occupants from the buggy, causing slight bruises. The horse was caught by Mr. George Urie, and the damage to them was trifling.

The horse of Mr. T. A. Hudson, while on his way home from Chestertown last Tuesday, when near Mr. George Hatcherson's, took fright at the white horse of Mr. Bart Hatcherson and ran away, causing a general smash-up, and an injury to Mr. Hudson's hand. Henry Ward Beecher, the noted colored politician, was riding with Mr. Hudson, but escaped injury beyond a general scare. Through the aid of friends and after a walk of several miles, Mr. H. reached home O. K.

Mr. A. Alexander's first year's operations in the coal business was so successful that he is now preparing for better facilities in the operations for the coming season. He is now erecting weighing scales adjoining his store, and is making other improvements about his coal yard. The Messrs. W. K. and J. D. Ayres and S. J. Coleman are doing the work.

The festival held on the public school premises on Saturday evening was largely attended by the youth and beauty of the community. The affair no doubt panned out satisfactorily to the interests concerned.

The pleasure and instructions incident to the Children's Day exercises annually held by the M. E. Church was considerably marred by the down-pour of rain on last Sunday afternoon. The main programme was rendered at night, and was equal in beauty and rendition to past occasions of the kind.

Many peach growers are much in the "dumps," owing to the immense June drop, which was never known to be greater in this locality.

The watermen are having a hard "beat" of it to gather in a dollar or two, owing to the scarcity of fish and crabs, and the prevailing low prices.

This community was given a complete surprise on Wednesday evening last in the quiet marriage of Mr. B. F. Urie, one of our most popular young men, and Miss Annie McKivett, the charming daughter of Mrs. Frank McKivett. They go forth on the voyage of connubial bliss with the best wishes of a host of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Usilton, of Philadelphia, who have been spending a delightful visit of several weeks duration among relatives here, returned to their home on last Thursday.

Many of our ladies are lamenting the destruction of their grapes by the rose bugs. Wonder if the "Major's" determination to dispense wine at the White House has anything to do with this?

Order of Publication.

Mary Louisa Bright and Thomas Bright, colored, plaintiffs. vs. Margaret Davis, Ambrose Davis, Lucinda Gale, Henry Gale, Ellen Flamer and Robert Flamer, John Brown, Sarah M. Wilson, Jenny Wilson, Jeffrey Wilson, William Houston, Isaac Houston, Cedella Gale, Florence Nichols and Chas. Nichols, colored, defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county of which Louisa Caulk, late of Kent county, died seized and possessed.

The Bill states that Louisa Caulk, wife of Isaac Caulk, was in her life time seized and possessed of a certain lot of land situated in what is known as the Big Woods, near the Fountain A. M. E. Church, in the second election district of Kent county, Md., near Lynch, containing 10 acres of land, more or less, which she inherited from her father, Isaac Cotton and the said Louisa Caulk departed this life some time in the year ——, but died intestate leaving surviving her a husband, Isaac Caulk who held the said lot of land during his life in virtue of his marital rights, and the said Isaac Caulk died some time in the year 1895.

The Bill further states that the children and heirs at law of the said Louisa Caulk are Mary Louisa Bright, who intermarried with Thomas Bright; Margaret Davis, Ambrose Davis, who reside in the city of New York; Lucinda Gale and Henry Gale, her husband, who reside in Kent county, Md.; Ellen Flamer and Robert Flamer, who reside in the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania; John Brown, Florence Nichols, Charles Nichols, also reside in the city of Philadelphia, and said Sarah M. Wilson, Jenny Wilson, Jeffrey Wilson, William Houston, Cedella Gale, Isaac Houston, all reside in Kent county, State of Maryland, except Isaac Houston, who was last heard of in the Maryland penitentiary, having been sent there eight years ago to serve a sentence of five years, and who has not been heard of, except certain information had shortly before the expiration of his sentence that he died in said institution; and these are the only states, the only children and heir of the said Louisa Caulk.

The Bill further states that the property is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to those interested therein, and that certain of the heirs entitled being infants under the age of 21 years, a partition by agreement cannot be made without the aid of the Honorable Court, in order that a division of said interest may be made by a sale of said property, so that the proceeds may be divided among the parties entitled according to their several interests therein.

And that the plaintiffs may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

It is, thereupon, this 16th day of June, 1897, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, sitting as a court of equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county once a week for four successive weeks before the 16th day of July, 1897, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 2nd day of August next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
