TO THE COUNTY Democratic Executive Com.

You are hereby requested to meet on TUESDAY, JULY 6th, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of consultation and of doing anything that may be deemed advisable with regard to the coming campaign.

WM. S. WALKER,
Chairman.

The committee is composed;

First District—John F. Ernest, Thomas C. Roe, James R. Hicks, Thomas M. Britton and N. E. Pennington.

Second—Dennis J. Nowland, Garrett Foxwell, Wm. J. Hurlock, W. R. Price, A. Stavely.

Third—James S. Harris, E. P. Beck, T. J. Davis, J. H. O. Stokes, Medford M. Rasin.

Fourth—W. S. Walker, C. F. Stam, R. D. Hynson, Wm. Thomas Maslin, vacancy.

Fifth—Wm. E. Keyser, James B. Wilson, John. E. Hadaway, James M. Wood, Thomas D. Glenn.

TO AVOID a further concentration of political glory in Cumberland, Governor Lowndes has determined to apply for registration in Annapolis.

THE TICKET is nominated, and it now becomes the duty of every Democrat in the five counties composing the Second Judicial District to see that it is elected. It is worthy the support of the entire people.

UNTIL THE DEATH of Chief Judge John M. Robinson in 1896, the personnel of the bench of the Second Judicial Circuit had remained unchanged since the adoption of the constitution in 1867, a condition true of no other circuit in the State.

JOHN WANAMAKER is still sending hot-shot into the administration prosperity and restored confidence camp. The ex-Postmaster General's Sunday School conscience has gotten at work and his behindsight is now coloring his public utterances with a tincture of truth.

JULY WHEAT PRICES of this year are ten cents above the offerings of a year ago. The price this year is about sixty-seven cents, whereas it was but fifty-seven cents last year. The Dingley prosperity tariff will more than swallow up this pittance of advance in the price for farmers' products. The American people will soon commence the experiment of accumulating wealth by paying taxes.

A SPECIAL from Easton states that Chief Judge George M. Russum will find trouble in Talbot. There is said to be a movement on foot to leave the Chief Judge off the ticket and nominate H. H. Haines, of Cecil, for chief judge, and Charles T. Westcott and Colonel Mullikin for associates. It is said that Mr. Westcott is averse to running on the judicial ticket, and that his consent has not yet been obtained. It is not believed, however, by the best skilled politicians that the pins can be successfully set up against Judge Russum.

A LUNOR RAINBOW is now engaging the political telescopes of Kent county Republican leaders. There is trouble in camp, and some rather plain English is being indulged in. The recruits of 1895 and the regulars are failing to fraternize, and a political emulsion will be tried before the meeting of the county convention to bring about harmony, but the result of the experiment is extremely uncertain. The come-alongers of two years ago are demanding the same (and in some cases even greater) recognition than the men who have grown gray in party ranks and who were Republicans when there was neither profit nor honor in standing in the Republican breach in Kent. These men think that the probationers should stand back and at least serve a short apprenticeship before relegating to the rear the men who were firm in the faith and furnished the sinews of war before the tempting allurements of spoils ever entered the undeveloped political brains of the young recruits.

BOSSISM-MAD, is the existing condition of Republican politics in this State. The imagined Republican statesmen of two years ago have become dwarfed into time-servers, place-hunters, and dictators of the rankest sort. Wellington, styled the Junior Senator from Maryland, has become the great overshadowing nightmare of his party and its destinies. A me-too Governor has become the successor of the vigorous Governor Brown, and is using official patronage to buy himself into the United States Senate. The reverberating shouts of "reform of old methods" which went up loud and long have been forgotten in the general scramble. With an audacity born only of despair, these grape-seekers are now appealing to the sturdy intelligence of the people to overthrow "Democratic bosses" and a "Democratic ring." And for what! In order that men and an organization which would make any Democratic boss or his animated machine which ever existed blush for shame, may be further entrenched in power. The time has come when every Democrat, aye, every Maryland voter should look the issue fairly and squarely in the face. It is a time when men should, regardless of the past, take a profound interest in the general welfare and not be led astray by false prophets and blighting heresies. Democracy pure and simple should be the shibboleth of the coming campaign.

Hon. C. B. Bush, president of the Gilmer County (W. Va.) Court, says that he has had three cases of flux in his family, during the past summer, which he cured in less than a week with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. Bush also states, that in some instances there were twenty hemorrhages a day.—Glenville, W. Va. Pathfinder. This remedy has been used in nine epidemics of flux and one of cholera, with perfect success. It can always be depended upon for bowel complaint, even in its most severe forms. Every family should keep it at hand. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Toulson druggist.

PEARCE, STUMP AND MARTIN.

The Democratic Judicial Standard-bearers.

The Democratic Judicial Convention in session at Denton yesterday, selected on the first ballot James Alfred Pearce, of Kent county, for chief judge of the Second Judicial Circuit, and Frederick Stump, of Cecil, and W. R. Martin, of Talbot county, associate judges. The work of the convention in making these nominations will, beyond all question, receive the hearty endorsement of the great masses of Democrats. Mr. Hopper has hosts of friends here who received the news of his defeat for associate judge with the most profound regret. The convention has done its work and the supreme duty of the hour is to labor for the election of the ticket. Both Judge Stump and Mr. Martin are sterling Democrats, gentlemen of eminent ability and thoroughly qualified for the important duties of the office for which they have been nominated. In short, a winning ticket has been put in the field.

DENTON, 5.40 P. M.—Convention called to order at 2.15, J. Boon Dukes, of Caroline, chairman; A. L. Barrie, secretary. Candidates put in nomination—Cecil, Frederick Stump; Kent, James A. Pearce, chief judge; Talbot, Wm. R. Martin; Caroline seconded the nomination. John B. Brown then put in nomination Philemon B. Hopper. Ballots were then taken by counties, and Pearce, Stump and Martin received the unanimous votes of all the counties except Queen Anne, who voted four for Pearce for chief judge, four for Hopper, two for Stump and two for Martin, associate judges.

A communication from Mr. P. B. Hopper was then read, in which he asked that the nomination be made unanimous, and pledged his hearty support for the ticket. The nominations were made unanimous.

Mr. Hopper's Congratulations.

The nomination met with an enthusiastic reception by the Democrats of Kent. Mr. Pearce received the announcement of his nomination in his office without further comment than that he believed that the ticket could and would be elected.

Many persons called and extended congratulations. Among the very first congratulatory telegrams which he received was one from Mr. P. B. Hopper, of Queen Anne, offering congratulations and pledging his hearty endorsement and earnest work for the election of the ticket named.

THE CONVENTION.

Denton was filled with local politicians from the counties composing the second judicial circuit. The Talbot county delegates were the first to arrive on the field. They opened headquarters on the first floor of the Brick Hotel, where all visitors were impressed with the importance of nominating Mr. Martin. The Kent delegates secured the hotel parlor and put in hot shot for James Alfred Pearce. The Cecil delegation were on the second floor, but claimed that when the convention adjourned they would be on the ground floor with their favorite, Judge Frederick Stump.

The Queen Anne delegates arrived at night and put in strong work for their favorite, P. B. Hopper, Esq. The convention convened at 2 o'clock P. M., with J. Boon Dukes, of Caroline, as chairman. Mr. Pearce was placed in nomination by Hope H. Barroll; Judge Stump, by Wilson L. Coudon, while Mr. Charles S. Carrington nominated Mr. Martin. There were 18 votes in the convention, 10 necessary to a choice.

The counties which compose the second judicial circuit are Cecil, Kent, Caroline, Talbot and Queen Anne's. The present judges of the circuit are Judge George M. Russum, Republican, Chief Judge, and Associate Judges Stump, of Cecil; and Wickes, of Kent. The terms of all three will expire next November. Judge Wickes was disqualified for re-election by being over seventy years of age.

The last convention met in the old town hall, Chestertown, fifteen years ago.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Mr. Clift Shot by a Thief-trap.

Our whole community was startled on Saturday evening last, at the report that Mr. Griffith Clift, a prosperous young farmer near here, and a grandson of Mr. Robt. S. Griffith, had accidentally shot himself about 8 o'clock P. M. The wound, though not considered serious, is a very painful one. Mr. Clift's henery had been entered by thieves some nights previous and had some fine fowls stolen. He then determined upon a plan of capturing the thieves, should they re-appear. He placed a double barreled gun on the inside of the henery, the muzzle pointing towards the entrance with a cord attached to both triggers, and so fastened at the latch that upon the opening of the door, the gun would be discharged. So upon the evening mentioned Mr. Clift and his wife were about ready to leave home for a short while, when he had occasion to go to the henery, and unfastening one of the cords he forgot the other, and upon opening the door the contents of the other barrel was discharged, the whole passing through his leg below the knee, the shot passing on splintered a portion of the sideboard of the carriage in which Mrs. Clift was sitting, one shot striking Mrs. C's. hand. Dr. Jeter, of this place was immediately summoned and dressed the wound. The doctor states that had the shot deviated just a very little from the course which it took, it would have necessitated the amputation of his leg. At last reports Mr. Clift is resting very easily and doing as well as can be expected.

On Saturday evening, June 19th, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Beaston gave a birthday supper in honor of the ninth birthday of their daughter, Mary. A large gathering of both the younger and elder folks were present, and a most enjoyable evening was spent, all leaving, wishing Miss Mary many such pleasant birthdays.

The old driving horse, "Mac," of Mr. Augustus Dreka, dropped dead on the road from Middletown to Sassafras, last week. He was about 27 years old, and seemed to be in perfect health that morning when Mr. D. left home.

Mrs. McGinniss and daughter, Mrs. Cann, of Delaware, spent Thursday with friends here.

Mr. Luff Spry, left last Friday for a two weeks visit to friends and relatives in Wilmington and Philadelphia.

Miss Lena Staats, of Townsend, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John F. Ernest.

Mrs. Crusard, of Philadelphia, is on a visit to her son, Mr. Fred Crusard, who has charge of the large roller mills of Mr. Dreka.

Misses Nora Dickerson, principal of the Bridgeville public school, of Delaware, and Miss Nan Toulson, of near Kennedyville, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Frank Sylvester.

Quite a little excitement was caused among the children of the town one day last week by the presence of two Italians with a large tame bear, which went through the ordinary performance of dancing, climbing trees, etc.

Master Willie Shallcross was very badly poisoned last week by the handling of poison oak. He was confined to the house for several days.

Mr. Chas. Beaston came near being overcome by heat on Friday afternoon while superintending the wheat binder of Mr. Lynn Caulk.

Mr. Robert Lusby, of Chesterville, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Johnson, near town, and also attended the forty-hour devotional services at the Catholic Church at Galena.

Mrs. Zimmish and daughter, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dreka.

Miss Emma Shallcross, daughter of Ex-Judge T. J. Shallcross, of Locust Grove, spent several days last week at the beautiful home of her cousin, Mr. J. Shallcross, near town.

Miss Pierce, of near Cecilton, is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Fannie Griffith.

The Aid Society of the M. P. Church, met last week at the home of Mrs. Arthur John's. A large crowd was in attendance. Refreshments in abundance were served during the evening.

A graphophone concert was given in the rooms of the school building last Sunday evening by Mr. R. W. Comegys, of Millington. There was an appreciative audience present, and all were well pleased with the entertainment. Misses Alice Dreka and Fannie Griffith, two scholars of the school, sang two beautiful solos which were reproduced by the wonderful little instrument. C.

FROM THE FAR WEST.

W. W. H. Fails to Find General Prosperity in Missouri.

MESSRS. COLLINS & HOPPER—Gentlemen:—In reply to your question as to "What's the news" will say that I know of nothing startling. I do find, however, since coming here and seeing many of my old friends and acquaintances, some of whom are Republicans, that they, as well as the Democrats, have not felt as yet the promised McKinley prosperity. I met on the train the other day a farmer from Arkansas and asked him if they had seen down in his country the "General," and when asked who, I replied "General Prosperity" and he said oh, no! Things were bad enough before (and gave me to understand he was a Republican) as he said, "my Republican papers said if I voted for Bryan my dollars would only be worth 50c., and I only wish I had some of those dollars now. I have just lost my wife and fear if t' ings continue to decline I will lose my farm."

This is a sample of how they are talking.

It was my pleasure to attend, with Mrs. Hubbard, on Wednesday evening, a course dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Cook, at their home in this City, Mrs. C. being an old college-mate and bridesmaid of my wife, and Mr. Cook you will remember was, and is still the Democratic State Chairman of Missouri, to whom the credit was given for having carried Missouri last fall as the banner Democratic State of the Union. I asked Mr. Cook about Bryan and the future, and he being well posted and a personal friend of his, said there is no doubt in the world but that Bryan will be overwhelmingly elected President in 1900. As an evidence of that, he told me of an election held two weeks ago in the first Congressional dist. which resulted in the election of Lloyd by a majority of 4800 in a Republican section, their majority having been two years ago 2200. Lloyd was elected to succeed Giles who died a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook left yesterday for Minnesota as guests of the same gentleman of St. Louis who entertained them and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan down on his gunning reserve last fall after the election They are now all invited again to join a house party given at his home on the lake in Minnesota.

I believe that a great many of our Maryland Democrats who bolted their party last fall will be like those in the first district this State,—kick themselves for having done so and come back home at the next election.

It was my pleasure to witness a fine game of ball yesterday between the Mexico "Whizzers" and the Wawensburg "Reds." I never heard so much coaching, and asked who one elderly gentleman was that took such interest, and was informed that it was James Robinson, the world renowned bare-back rider, who had made a fortune, collected a raft of souvenirs, among which is to be seen a jeweled belt given him at the instance of Queen Victoria, who saw him ride, and has now returned to his old home to settle down.

I could go on and tell you in detail of Mark Twain's birth place and old home near here; of a train that was held up two days ago; of the excessively hot weather and other things, but suspect I have written now more than you desire.

Very truly yours,
W. W. H.

THE QUEEN ANNE CONVENTION.

P. B. Hopper Won in the Primaries of Saturday.

Queen Anne has been an object of unusual interest throughout the State because of the vigorous fight waged by the friends of P. B. Hopper, Esq., and Ex-State Treasurer Edwin H. Brown, both candidates for the judicial nomination. The primaries of Saturday were warm in all of the districts, but Mr. Hopper won with a comfortable working majority.

The following is a condensed report of Tuesday's convention proceedings. The convention nominated the following ticket: County commissioner, Geo. Dever, of the sixth district; surveyor, Harry Graham; sheriff, George M. Vansant; members of the House of Delegates, W. J. Price, Jr., S. Collins Wright and E. S. Dudley.

John L. Rhodes, T. J. Keating, Jr., John M. Perry and J. Arthur Reed were elected delegates to the State convention, and John R. Cook, Clayton Wright, R.J. Catlin and Robert M. Price delegates to the judicial convention at Denton Mr. Joseph Parvis was chairman and E. J. Merrick secretary of the convention.

It was intended to make an attempt to suppress factional differences, but immediately after the primary it became evident that matters were being arranged along old lines. The delegates had numerous caucuses and the above ticket was a surprise. The convention consisted of twenty-five of the Keating wing and ten of the Brown wing of the party, and the voting closely coincided with those figures. Of course, there is some disappointment expressed.

The delegates to Denton left on Tuesday confident of their ability to secure Mr. Hopper's nomination.

One of the sursrises in the personnel of the ticket was the failure of Mr. W. W Busteed to secure a place among the legislative delegates.
