CALL FOR

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

The Democratic Voters of Kent county are requested to assemble at their respective polling places in each election district, on Saturday, the 17th day of July, 1897,

at two o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting six delegates, from their respective districts to meet in convention to be held at the Court House in Chestertown, on Tuesday, the 20th day of July, 1897, at 12 o'clock noon, to select delegates to represent the county in the Democratic State Convention, which will be held in Baltimore on Wednesday, the 28th day of July, 1897, for the purpose of nominating one candidate for Comptroller and one candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. Where there are two precincts each precinct will be entitled to three delegates.

RICHARD D. HYNSON,
WILLIAM E. REYSER,
TILGMAN SHAFER,
Democratic State Central Committee for Kent County.

FIFTEEN YEARS of Republicanism on the bench would be insufferable.—Centreville Observer. Ah! that is the talk to which every Democrat can subscribe.

A PRESS CORRESPONDENT of the Baltimore Sun declares that Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., of Chestertown, must be considered a possibility when the question of a United States Senator from the Eastern Shore is under discussion. Kent county will not be found napping when the opportunity presents itself to force the claims of its possibilities.

MR. CHARLES ENGLAND, the Republican candidate for treasurer, was one of the happiest men in Chestertown on Tuesday. In a contest in his district on Saturday he came out a winner and secured additional strength from the first. Messrs. Kendall, from the fifth, and Scotten and Price, from Millington, were also roseate with smiles. Of course there were others, for there were not a few Democrats who felt extremely comfortable.

WHEN WE STROLL along the shores of the Chester and cast a glance over upon next to the best county in Maryland, we pause and sigh when we realize that we lost Hopper for Judge, but a feeling of contentment arises in our breast when we realize that our sister county, Kent, was able to furnish such a grand specimen of nobility, manhood, character and citizenship as is found in James Alfred Pearce to take his place. Queen Anne's is all right for Pearce, Stump and Martin.—Crumpton correspondent of Centreville Record.

SENATOR CHARLES TILDEN WESTCOTT failed to awaken uncontrollable enthusiasm or cause any ecstatic outburst of joy at the mention of his name at the judicial convention yesterday. Cecil had a compliment on tap and gently bestowed it upon the Kent county statesman as a reward of merit for subduing any abiding hankering for judicial honors. No askey no getty, Senator. Proudly submissive is not the thing. It is the voluminous asking which brings results. Take a pointer from your picturesque colleague, Mr. Urie.

MR. WELLINTON has to some extent been brought to a realization of the absurd specticle which he has made of himself in the Warner affair. The brayings of the ass have largely characterized Senator Wellington's public utterances since his elevation to a position which he was utterly incompetent to fill. The Junior Senator is only one of a large class of incompetents who have been elevated at the expence of good government and State credit since the Republicans were placed in command two years ago. Can the people of Maryland afford to continue this farce reform?

IN THIS issue is found a call by the Democratic State Central Committee for primaries, on Saturday, July the seventeenth, for the purpose of selecting six delegates to a county convention to be held in Chestertown on Tuesday, July the twentieth, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State convention to select a candidate for Comptroller and a clerk to the Court of Appeals. Every Democrat in the county should respond to this call. The Democracy of Kent county should respond as a unit to every call which has the best interests of the party in view.

THE CECIL COUNTY CONVENTION, held at Elkton on Monday was a veritable love feast of the old-fashioned sort. The following ticket and delegates were named: R. L. Christie, for clerk; W. J. Smith, for register of wills, and J. L. More for treasurer, were nominated by acclamation. John G. DeWitt, I. R. Ford and Ross R. Smith, were nominated for the Legislature, on the second ballot. John W. Falls was nominated for the Senate. Henry Watson and Joseph England, were named as candidates for county commissioners, and A. G. Brown for sheriff. R. C. Thackery, Henry R. Torbert, J. L. Crothers and H. H. Haines, were selected as delegates to the Centreville convention. L. Marshall Haines was endorsed for the associate judgeship.

WHEN WE CONTRAST the three names of Pearce, Stump and Martin with those of Russum, Haines and Mullikin, and when we further contrast the principles which each set of men will carry with them to the bench, can there be any doubt as to what Democrats will do? Surely the Democracy can never allow Republicans to step into the judicial ermine by mounting to such heights on Democratic apathy. If the election of a Democratic judiciary requires unusual energy on the part of Democrats at large, then, for the sake of our people's interests, let us put forth these unusual energies and not relax them until Republicanism is defeated.—Observer. The press of Queen Anne, realizing the deplorable results of handing over the judiciary of the second judicial circuit to Republicans has risen superior to personal disappointments and is putting in some ringing blows for Democracy, and an appreciative people respond with a sturdy "amen."

THE REPUBLICAN JUDICIAL TICKET is partially good and partially bad. The Repulicans in Mr. Haines' county of Cecil two years ago pledged themselves to wipe out the outlawed race-track, and after having failed to touch the evil, that gentleman is now placed upon a supposed vote-catching platform in a most conspicuous fashion. Then too, the placing of His Honor, Judge Russum, on a no-whiskey platform, is like depriving a fish o' its natural and necessary element, water. The result of the convention's proceedings is amusing, to say the least of its august deliberations.

"IT IS ALL-DAY with the Democratic hosts of the Second Judicial District" declared the Kent county Republicans when it became known that Queen Anne was not represented on the judicial ticket. A look of picturesque solicitude overspread the countenances of the political sages of the opposition as they analyzed the situation. Our friends of the Centreville Observer, in an hour of disappointment, or possibly for the purpose of playing a practical joke upon the Republicans of the district, have struck several discordant notes since the Denton convention. The Observer last week quietly sent out the following gentle reminder: "Republicans need not felicitate themselves on the fictitious advantages accruing to them by reason of Queen Anne county's disappointment. If so, they are extracting sweetness from nothing more substantial than a bubble. Bitter though may be our disappointment, it has not so paralyzed our arm as to prevent us from striking a strong, powerful, effective blow in behalf of Democracy."

"FROM DEMOCRATIC sources it is given out that the Hon. Charles Tilden Westcott, of Kent, is a candidate in his own county for the nomination for the Chief Judgeship of the Second Judicial Circuit. This change of front on the part of the wealthy and whiskered "hold-over" Senator is explained upon the hypothesis that if the Kent Delegation to Centreville is not a Westcott delegation it will vote for the Hon. John (lately)-Democratic Urie, who is pushing to the front much faster as a Republican than he did as a Democrat."—Baltimore News.

Subsequent developments prove that there was more of method than madness in the Senator's action in preparing protracted lists of his fervid and undying anti-Judgeship sentiments and scattering them from the oyster fields on the south to the "forest" huckleberry patches on the north, and from Tolchester to the fretful Chester, that his political digestion could not and would not tolerate a judicial nomination. The nomination, which of course only awaited the Senator's asking has been placed upon a silver salver and put in cold-storage by Messrs Russum, Haines and Muillikin, "to be called for." Mr. Urie may be deputized to do the calling for.

JUDGE JOHN WESLEY WRIGHT is not doing an unhealthy advertising business or trying to annex political Hawaiias to which he has no right or claim, but the supreme head of the Cannon street police court gave the leaders a display of lurid pynotechnics at the Republican caucus on Thursday night which made drops of perspiration sizzle and dry up on foreheads of greatness, and even Senator Westcott, Capt. Wm. D. Burchinal and that spectacular representative of political independence, John D. Urie, were unable to stay his vengeful outbursts. A love feast had been called in the office in which the senatorial thought shop of Court street disports itself. Judge Wright is the only Republican candidate from the fourth district for the nomination of Register of Wills, and demanded that he be allowed to name and send an instructed delegation to the convention to be held on Tuesday, which was refused. Then must we be strangers henceforth, he said. I withdraw, I secede and as an independent will be a thorn in the flesh, not of the Republican party, but of its arbitrary leaders and masters. An effort was made to explain, and thereby calm the bursts of burning indignation, but without success. There was no balm in Gilead and the storm only abated when its force had become spent and the full glare of the set-piece of the occasion had been fired off. There were troublous times on court street that night, and the trouble is not yet a matter of ancient history and beyond recall, but like Banquo's ghost may be a political night-mare about the ides of November.

RUSSUM, HAINES AND MULLIKIN.

The Republican Judicial Candidates in the Second District.

The Republican judicial convention for the Second Judicial Circuit assembled in the court house, Centreville, yesterday (Wednesday) morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. John E. Wilson, of Queen Anne, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee called the convention to order and in a very forcible speech outlined the duties of the convention. Committees were then appointed on credentials, permanent organization and resolutions. Mr. John E. Wilson was made permanent Chairman and Mr. Joseph Wells, of Cecil, permanent secretary. Resolutions condemning horse racing in Cecil county were adopted, also resolutions pledging the Judiciary to the suppression of the liquor license and the conviction of all local option offenders, in case of election. Mr. Albert Towers placed in nomination for chief judge the name of Hon. George M. Russum. Mr. H. C. Dodson, of Talbot county, placed Mr. James C. Mullikin in nomination for associate, and Mr. Henry Torbett, of Cecil county, put in nomination Mr. L. Marshall Haines as associate. A letter from Mr. Charles T. Westcott, of Kent, was read declining to allow his name to be presented to the convention. Upon motion of Capt. Burchinal, of Kent, the nominations as made were endorsed by acclamation. At this point the convention adjourned by giving three hearty cheers for the nominees and the citizens of the town of Centreville.

The delegates to the convention were:

Cecil County—R. C. Thackery, Henry R. Torbert, John L. Crothers and H. H. Haines.

Kent—Wilbur Eliason, Joseph W. Harper, W. D. Burchinal, Willard Scotten, Harrison Jenkins and Louis Henry.

Queen Anne—John E. Wilson, George Barton, George Lee and Thomas Denby.

QUEEN ANNE SPEAKS.

A Manly and Eloquent Endorsement of the Judicial Ticket.

"The Democratic Judicial Convention of the Second Judicial Circuit of Maryland, is now a thing of the past—it belongs to ancient history. Men live, act and die—their deeds live after them; so it is with political and judicial conventions. We have now to do with the work done by the late convention. It was done with dispatch. We can say, this work was well done, if not altogether wisely. No Democratic voter, no good citizen, having the best interests of the people of the circuit at heart, can possibly object to the personnel of the ticket. The candidate for Chief Judge is well known in Queen Anne county. He is a man of collegiate education, of literary tastes, a student and a writer. He has been devoted to his profession, and is a lawyer of skill and experience gained by long practice in the courts and in the discharge of office duties. He is a gentleman of genial temper and disposition, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow-citizens, and is of an impartial caste of mind. He will fill the bill, if elected, and of this there can scarcely be a doubt in the mind of any right-thinking man. Judge Frederick Stump, one of the candidates for Associate Judge, is too well known among us to require any special comment at our hands. He will have filled the office of Judge, when his present term expires, for the period of thirty years. He has constantly grown in ability and usefulness. He is eminently fitted for the position of nisi prius judge. He prefers the position to the more exalted one of higher salary. He would rather be among the people of his circuit in the discharge of his official duties than feeding on the leeks at the ancient city of Annapolis. Too much good living down there with its sedentary habits, would soon kill him. He is essentially a man with the people. There is no man, who should be dearer to the class among us known as Prohibitionists, than Judge Stump. He is a total abstainer from ardent drinks and has been so for a long time, although he has not heralded it with a blast of trumpets and Rams Horns. Not one drop of stimulating liquor has passed his lips for five years, and under this regimen he has improved in mind and body. What stronger argument, in favor of their peculiar views, can the Prohibitionists give, than having him as an example, on the bench, of the ultimate results they design to accomplish? At the same time, he cannot fail to attract the votes of those holding opposite views, for he has the manliness and courage to expound, explain and administer the laws as he understands them. He does not assume to himself as judge, and never has, the role of legislator. The people are responsible for the laws, not the judge. A judge, who will not expound the laws as he understands them, is a faithless and dangerous servant of the people. If some of his charges to the grand juries, in expounding the liquor laws, have not suited the views or desires of our prohibition friends, it was not because he loved Cæsar less, but because he loved Rome more. A judge only elevates himself as a man and a citizen, when against clamor and adverse criticism, he freely and fearlessly dispenses and enforces the law as he understands it. The people, admonished, can change the laws to accomplish their purpose—let not the judge undertake the work. Then, lastly, there is Wm. R. Martin, of Talbot, a candidate for associate judge. In physique he will soon overtop and outweigh either of the two others, for he is young and in the full tide of health. In education, legal learning and ability, he is entitled to be esteemed their peer and equal. He is particularly suited for judge by his evenness of temper and the impartiality which is one of his recognized characteristics. He will grow in the esteem and affections of the people. He is young and vigorous and will have time and opportunity to grow and expand beyond that of his fellow candidates. The new Democratic bench will be a good one and a worthy successor to the old bench, which served so long a time the people so well and so satisfactorily. We will not discriminate between the three. We really believe it would have been wise to have honored our county in view of the unswerving devotion she has always exhibited to the maintenance of Democratic principles and practices, and the Democratic majorities she usually rolls up. She has for the last fifty to sixty years, under all dispensations, furnished a judge and they, all of them, have stood high on the list for judicial attainments and usefulness, and we had hoped she would have been honored in this deal. But we are satisfied Queen Anne county, although disappointed, does not propose to act the part of the dog in the manger. But in the coming election will give the usual good account of herself in maintaining the supremacy of Democratic judicial control."—Centreville Record.

The Record was until recently partally owned and edited by Mr. Philemon B. Hopper, Queen Anne's defeated candidate for the judgeship nomination and is now owned and edicted by that sturdy Democrat, Col. W. Scott Roberts, and Mr. John B. Brown, Jr., son of ex-Senator John B. Brown, who put Mr. Hopper in nomination at Denton. The Record, therefore, is in a position to expound this clear-cut, unwaving doctrine of pure Democracy.

INTERESTING SESSION OF COURT.

Two Important Cases Argued at the Mid-summer Term on Monday.

The mid-summer non-jury term of the Circuit Court for Kent county held on Monday, Judge Wickes presiding, was one of unusual interest.

The case of Mrs. Sarah P. W. Rasin and Joseph Rasin against M. deK. Smith, receiver, which has been watched with much interest for some months was argued.

It will be remembered, as stated in the TRANSCRIPT at the time, that last year Marion deK. Smith, Esq., was appointed receiver for the farm of Mrs. Rasin located on Paca's Island, Queen Anne county. The peach crop on the farm was estimated by the receiver at about 50,000 baskets and provision was made to market this crop. It turned out, however, that he was wrong in his estimate and only eight or ten thousand baskets of fruit were marketed. Taking 50,000 baskets as a basis, Mr. Smith went to considerable expense, and while the receipts were only $2,200 his expenditures were over $3,100. Mrs. Rasin claims that under the bill filed by Mr. Smith for a receivership, which grew out of a claim of the Groves estate under his lease, that only the lease hold interest was in controversy and the receiver had no right to expend more than the tenant's share or one half of the crop in saving the same. Mr. Smith's claim is that he was receiver for the whole crop and had the right to spend not only the tenant's one-half interest but the landlord's half to save the crop. He admitted that Mrs. Rasin is not responsible for his expenditures in excess of the $2,200 income. Mrs. Rasin's claim for the landlord's half, amounts to $1,000.

This case grows out of the case which went to the court of appeals last fall when the appellate court decided that the receiver should never have been appointed and that Mrs. Rasin was entitled to the possession of the farm from January 1st, 1896.

Mr. Smith was represented by himself and James A. Pearce, Esq. Mrs. Rasin was represented by James P. Gorter, Esq., who is prominently spoken of for the next Baltimore judgeship, and Hope H. Barroll, Esq.

THE JOHN S. WARD TRUST ESTATE.

Last fall John S. Ward, the notorious canner at Lynch's Station, executed a deed of trust to John D. Urie, who filed the deed and bonded as trustee in Kent county. A controversy arose between Mr. Urie and the creditors, who insisted that the fund be distributed promptly, and who claim that he should have paid the money over without undue delay. Failing to obtain a settlement with the trustee, his creditors applied in Harford county for the adjudication of John S. Ward as insolvent debtor, an order was recently passed adjudicating Ward as insolvent, and appointing Jas. J. Archer, Esq., of the Bel Air bar, his trustee. Mr. Archer, as trustee, thereupon, through Hope H. Barroll, his attorney, filed a petition in the Kent county court, asking that Mr. Urie, the trustee, be ordered to pay to the insolvent trustee the entire fund in his hands, and turn over all personal property he may have received under his deed of trust. Mr. Archer claims that as Ward was a resident of Harford county, under the Code the deed of trust to Mr. Urie should have been filed in Harford county for record, and he should have filed his bond in that county likewise. On account of the failure of the Kent county trustee to comply with the requirement of the statute, it was claimed by Mr. Archer that no title passed by the deed of trust recorded in Kent county. The case was argued for the insolvent trustee and Judge Wickes gave Mr. Urie until Wednesday morning to answer, as the latter claimed he had been taken by surprise, and had had no time to prepare his brief.

With the Horsemen.

In last week's issue, in commenting on the death of the promising young stallion Happy Partner, it was erroneously stated that he was sired by Mambrino Chief. As a matter of fact, Happy Partner was foaled in 1887, and was sired by Happy Medium, sire of Nancy Hanks, 2.04, and about ninty others in the list, and his dam was Minnie Patchen (dam of Abbot Wilkes, 2.11, Island Wilkes, 2.12¾, Red Pointer, 2.17¼, and Senator Blackburn, 2.20,) by Mambrino Patchen, the greatest of all brood-mare sires. Happy Partner was undoubtedly the best bred stallion on the Eastern Shore, and his early death was the greatest loss the breeders of Kent and Queen Anne have felt for years.

Mr. J. Biddle Pennington, who is working some of the most promising young goers in Kent and Queen Anne counties on his Pine Plain track, was in Chestertown several days ago and gave most encouraging reports. He is now arranging a series of races for August 5th, and expects some of the best goers on the Peninsula to report for the contests. There will be a 2.45, 3.00 and 3.30 races, in addition to a go for pacers, with probably other events.

Hon. C. B. Bush, president of the Gilmer County (W. Va.) Court, says that he has had three cases of flux in his family, during the past summer, which he cured in less than a week with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. Bush also states, that in some instances there were twenty hemorrhages a day.—Glenville, W. Va. Pathfinder. This remedy has been used in nine epidemics of flux and one of cholera, with perfect success. It can always be depended upon for bowel complaint, even in its most severe forms. Every family should keep it at hand. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Toulson druggist.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity.

NO. 1372 CHANCERY.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent County, in this State, of which Samuel Jones, late of Kent County, died seized and possessed.

The bill states that the said Samuel Jones "as in his lifetime indebted unto William J. Coleman, one of the plaintiffs, in the sum of twenty nine dollars and six cents, on open account, and also unto William H. Kruse, in the sum of eighteen dollars, on open account, and unto Richard T. Turner, Jr., and Howard Turner, trading as Turner & Son, in the sum of thirty-two dollars and twenty-three cents, on a certain promissory note dated January 1st, 1896, and payable one day after date, as will appear by reference to said note filed in said suit.

That said Samuel Jones, being so indebted, and also unto divers other persons in considerable sums of money, and having a small tract of real estate in Kent county, but no personal estate, departed this life in the month of July, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six, intestate, and leaving a widow, Sophia Jones, and one child, James Jones, as his heirs-at-law, both of whom are adults, and the widow resides in Kent county, Maryland, and the said James Jones resides in the State of Pennsylvania.

The bill further states, that as the said Sam'l Jones did not leave personal estate sufficient to pay his debts, the aforesaid creditors are entitled to have their claims paid out of a sale of the real estate of the said Samuel Jones.

It is thereupon, this 7th day of July, 1897, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of August, 1897, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning him to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 23d day of August next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
