WM. S. WALKER, Chairman.

YESTERDAY'S CONVENTION.

The convention adopted a platform declaring for bemetallism (gold and silver) as redemption money without descrimination. Censured the Republicans for failures to keep pledges both in national and State matters, and nominated Thomas A. Smith for Comptroller and J. Frank Ford for Clerk Court of Appeals.

SATURDAY LAST was strictly Democratic primary election day. Fourteen counties in the State held primaries,

THE NEW TARIFF BILL has received the president's approval and became operative, the secretary of the treasury holds, after twelve o'clock on Friday night.

"FIGHTING BILL" SMITH, the warhorse from Cecil in the last Legislature, became a record-breaker last week by refusing a nomination for register of wills on the Republican ticket. The resignation, however, had a string to it, and has been withdrawn, and Achilles will not sulk in his tent, but will be found in the breach from now until the historic ides of November.

THE DELEGATES from Kent to the Democratic State convention which convened in Baltimore yesterday were: Dr. E. G. Clark, J. C. Sutton, J. H. O. Stokes, Samuel Hicks, Capt. J. B. Willson and Richard Groves. Others who attended from Kent were: Messrs. Thomas C. Maslin, Frank Howard, M. deK. Smith, Wm. B. Usilton, Richard D. Hynson, Lewin W. Wickes, Hope H. Barroll.

MR. C. F. SMITH, brother of ex-Senator Thomas A. Smith, who yesterday received the Democratic nomination for Comptroller, was in Chestertown yesterday and was first told of the nomination by the TRANSCRIPT reporter. He expressed great surprise and stated that he was sure that his brother would be equally as much so. He had made no fight for the nomination and had not antagonized Mr. Deakyne, a pronounced candidate for the place, in his political ambitions.

IT IS NOW being quietly given out that Messrs. Scotten and Price, of Millington, are to be deprived of any substantial results of their victory at the recent primaries. The present programme is that the district shall be entirely left out when the distribution takes place at the county convention. Whether or not Messrs. Scotten and Price and their strong backing will quietly submit to being thus totally ignored remains to be seen. These gentlemen are of the American eagle kind rather than the dove and pigeon sort, and may feel disposed to show fight should occasion demand it.

WHEN THE EARLY INSTALLMENTS were sent out from the State Democratic Editorial Committee, the Baltimore and rural Republican press were disposed to make fun of and belittle the work of the committee in exposing and unearthing the unsavory transactions of the party now in power. For some unexplainable cause one of the matters of most concern before the Republican editorial meeting last week, was just how to deal with and counteract the effects of these exposures. The galled jade winced, but having no plausible defense is forced to bear her punishment in silence, and the Republican quill-drivers have orders that not until the last extremity shall they try to set up a concerted defense of their indefensible position.

THE GOLD AND REPUBLICAN PRESS of the country is felicitating itself upon the substantial rise in the price of wheat, as marking the arrival of the "good times" and "prosperity" promised in the event of the election of McKinley and the continuance of the gold standard. It would be interesting to know in what way the election, or any issue involved in the last campaign, affected the great famine in India or the extended shortage of crops in Australia, Russia, France, Great Britain, Turkey or the Danubian provinces. The unvarnished truth of the matter is, that the extended system of unqualified misrepresentation by which the people were deceived and coerced into voting for a Republican presidential candidate and the perpetuation of trusts, combines and the further enrichment of multi-millionaire corporations, is being again inaugurated to prepare the people for future campaigns of misrepresentation. The rise in the wheat market is but the result of the unusual foreign demands, the inevitable outgrowth of extraordinary conditions in a number of the great wheat growing countries of the globe, and is in no way connected with national honor, the gold standard or the present administration. The American agriculturist is fortunate in having unprecedentedly large harvests, our neighbors across the seas are correspondingly unfortunate and that great fundamental commercial principle of supply and demand has come in and sent prices upward. The American farmers are dealing in grain and the profits come largely to this country whereas under previous conditions Wall street and millionaires were dealing in gold money as a commodity and dividing profits with European money changers.

OUR CHAMPIONS

The Chestertown Base-Ball Team Administers a Goose Egg to the Cambridge Players.

LATIMER, THE "WIZARD."

Pleasures and Discomforts of Base-Ball Excursionists.

10 TO 0.

The Chestertown base-ball team on Monday won on the Washington College diamond the second of a series of three games arranged with the strong Cambridge team, by a score of 10 to 0. Remembering the accounts published of the splendid exhibition given by both teams in the great battle at Cambridge, it is estimated that one thousand persons assembled on the college campus to witness Monday's battle of the giants. No game played in the county had ever been so extensively advertised, and in spite of the threatening weather, ladies and gentlemen were present from every section of Kent. Centreville sent up a contingent of about fifty, Sudlersville was represented, and the Cambridge players brought about two hundred and twenty-five rooters with them.

Chestertown indulged in a sort of half holiday in honor of the occasion, and many public places threw large banners to the breeze and in some instances the decorations were somewhat elaborate. The large base-ball banner across Main street had on the side facing the river the words "Welcome Cambridge." Manager Hurtt received a telegram in the morning that the excursionists had started and their arrival was expected at about 2.30 o'clock. From that hour until 4.30 when the little steamer Forest City crept in sight, an excited crowd thronged the river front to extend a rousing welcome to the visitors. Landed, the players and their friends marched through the town headed by the Cambridge brass band playing El Capitan. Both sides were confident of victory and the players of both teams wore an air of determination which warranted the anticipations of a great and brilliant struggle on the diamond.

The Game.

The home team sent the visitors to bat first, and as the Cambridge players, confident of victory, took position, a rousing cheer went up from along the entire line of rooters.

1st Inning—Jackson, the first man up, was an easy out from second to first. The great pitcher Radcliff fell before Latimer's lightning hot drops and fanned to his death. Stidham, the inimitable second baseman reached first on error, but was caught trying to steal second.

W. Trenchard was easy out pitcher to first. Deakyne was passed to first on balls, went to second on wild throw by Radcliff. Bader sent a single to centre and Deakyne went to third, Bader moving on to second on a throw in. Both scored on a two-base hit by T. Trenchard. Trenchard went out trying to stretch his beautiful two-bagger into a three-basser. Boston was an easy out pitcher to first. Score 2 to 0.

2nd—Trego reached first on error at short, went to second on pass ball by Bader. Purse, McDaniel and Manner went out on strikes 1, 2, 3.

Usilton was given base on balls, went to second on pass ball by Roselle, and Dill drew his base on balls Brice went to first on error by third baseman. Dill moved on to second and Usilton to third on this play. Latimer knocked one to first forcing Usilton home. W. Trenchard was hit by ball and Dill moved in over home. Brice and Latimer scored on single by Deakyne, and Deakyne rushed on to second on a throw in. Deakyne and W. Trenchard scored on a single by Bader. Bader went out trying to steal second. T. Trenchard singled, stole second, Roselle making wild throw. Boston went out on fly to second. Score 7 to 0. The Chestertown rooters were wild with excitement. Latimer was showing up in magnificent form,—indeed his work was a revelation. The visiting players were bewildered by his speed and splendid control of the ball. The red flag brigade led by Mr. George Perkins, the Philadelphia rooter, was leading the onset. The Cambridge team had been strengthened by McDaniel and Jackson, and was supposed by its friends to be invincible. In spite of the waterloo which the splendid rooting powers of the two hundred visitors stood them well and they hurled back storms of answering enthusiasm and encouragement to their men. The irrepressible Hughlett, however, was calm, and the genial representative of the Standard had surrendered the command of his column. But courageous until death the Cambridge ladies sent root after root up to the Chestertown rain clouds.

3d—Johnson had three strikes to his credit but dashed around to second on pass ball by Bader. Roselle flyed out to pitcher. Jackson and Radcliff both fell before Latimer.

Usilton out at first. Dill struck out and Brice went out second to first. Score 7 to 0. Peck Thomas, Parrott and the Chestertonians all giddy with expectancy. Cambridge pulse scarcely normal.

4th—Sidham went out on fly to first. Trego made first on scratch hit, but Purce and McDaniel gave up the ghost and struck out.

Latimer out pitcher to first. W. Trenchard singled to left, went to third on two wild pitches. Deakyne easy out pitcher to first and Bader went out on fly to pitcher. Score 7 to 0. Everybody was rooting, though the Cambridge players and their friends saw that Latimer had been their evil genius and backed by Bader and assisted by Deakyne, the sturdy Trenchards and the other players, the star of their destiny had set, yet they hoped and rooted with splendid energy. The capacity of the Cambridge base-ball rooter is as yet an unlimited and unknown quantity.

5th—Manner fanned out. Johnson went out short to first, Usilton making one of the star plays of the game in a beautiful stop and fine throw. Roselle struck out.

W. Trenchard tipped out to catch. Boston easy second to first. Usilton and Dill both singled but Brice went out second to first. Score 7 to 0. The red flags of Chestertown still waved encouragement and the Cambridge host stood at their posts in spite of odds against them.

6th—Jackson fell pitcher to first. Radcliff easy out second to first. Stidham at this point was forced to retire from the game because of a severe sprain of the ankle in striking at a ball, and Messenger was put in Jackson's place in left field and Jackson put at second.

Latimer went out pitcher to first. W. Trenchard flyed out to second. Deakyne singled but went out third to second. Score 7 to 0.

7th—Trego made the first clear hit of the game off the puzzling delivery of Latimer. Purse struck out. McDaniel went to first on error by Dill, Trego going to second on this play. Manner and Johnson both fanned out.

T. Trenchard singled. Boston forced Trenchard out at second. Usilton flyed to left which was dropped, but Boston went out on ball left to second on this play. Dill singled, went to second, Usilton going to third. Brice flyed out to pitcher. Score 7 to 0. Hope long deferred made the Cambridge rooters heart-sick, but they rooted loud and long.

8th—Roselle out on easy fly to second. Jackson out pitcher to first. Radcliff out on fly to centre.

Latimer singled and went to second on single by W. Trenchard. Deakyne knocked a burner to pitch, which he fumbled, W. Trenchard going to second and Latimer to third. Latimer scored on error at first. W. Trenchard went to third and Deakyne to second on this play. Bader struck by pitched ball, took first. W. Trenchard scored on wild throw by second, and Deakyne on wild throw by Radcliff. T. Trenchard, Boston and Usilton then knocked out in 1, 2, 3 order. Score 10 to 0.

One of the most daring and thrilling plays of this or any previous games, was made by T. Trenchard and First Baseman McDaniel. Trenchard made a short hit near first which was captured by McDaniel. Both men were dashing for first, and both made a dive headforemost for the coveted point. A cloud of dust was raised and the two players dashed together like runaway engines, but Trenchard was safe. The Trenchard Brothers are noted base runners, and are unequaled in sliding to bases.

9th—The inevitable soon came. Messenger fanned out, Trego hurried out pitcher to first, and Purse made the second hit of the game, but McDaniel fell a victim to the Virginia wizzard, and the Chestertown's did not take their last bat. The gallant Cambridge rooters joined the applause with that of the home rooters in honor of their first goose egg on the diomond and third defeat this season.

The Players Banquetted.

James Alfred Pearce, Esq., though unable to be present because of business engagements, extended to the home and visiting teams, the Cambridge band and Managers Johnson and Hurtt, a pleasant banquet at Shuster's Dining Parlors. Ice cream, ices and cake were partaken of, and the afternoon game was again played in most friendly fashion around the festive board. Unlike in the afternoon game, each player scored a run, and made several brilliant plays. Manager Hurtt presided at the head of the table with delicate four-hundred-pound Manager Johnson, of the Cambridge team in the seat of honor. Dr. C. W. Whaland, master of ceremonies, acquitted himself admirably in his short speech of welcome to the guests of the occasion, and Manager Johnson in happy vein responded in behalf of the visitors.

A Dance at Night.

Because of the downpour of rain and windstorm which prevailed, it was determined best not to start on the return trip on the little steamer until 4 o'clock the next morning, and in order that the day of festivities might be well-rounded, the young men of the town gave a pleasant dance in Stam's Hall in honor of the visitors, the Cambridge orchestra furnishing a portion of the music. The occasion was extremely pleasant.

Some of the ladies present from Cambridge were: Mrs. Dr. Hines, Mrs. John Mills, Mrs. Robert LeCompt, Mrs. Dr. C. L. Selover; Misses Lillie Todd, Nannie Hughlett, Sallie Winterbottom, Maggie Mace, Lillie Willis, Belle Ross, Miss Spedden, Miss Gale, Miss Jordan, Miss Ida Lockard, Miss Woodrow, Mrs. Milbourne Bramble, and others.

The ladies from Centreville were: Mrs. J. F. Rolph, Misses Lourina Wilson, Jennie Marten, Reba Hart, Miss Spencer, Sidney Goldsborough, Mrs Alfred Tucker and Mazie Harley.

By universal consent, Pitcher Latimer pitched the most superb game of ball against Cambridge ever seen on the College diamond. Manner declared that he was the only man he ever stood before who could make him "fan out every time."

Manager Hurtt is in Baltimore making arrangements for a steamer to run a grand excursion to Cambridge next Thursday, when a return game will be played with the Cambridge team.

Umpire cannon was a splendid success in Monday's game. Of course he was not infallible but was conscientious in his work, and did well.

After ten hours on the trip to Chestertown, and a delay of until 4.30 the following morning for the start, the Forest City tied up for a time near the mouth of Chester river because of the storm on Tuesday morning. The trip abounded in uncomfortable and in truly tiresome experiences.

GOVERNOR PENGREE, the Republican executive of Michigan, puts some pertinent questions to the gentlemen at Washington and elsewhere who propose to tax people rich. The Governor wants to know how a tax which will add twenty-cents to the cost of every pair of men's shoes, a tax which will increase the cost of every pound of sugar used and other necessary articles, is to benefit the great laboring masses. A reckoning is predicted for these gentlemen at the hands of the people.

William J. Coleman, et al.
Sophia Jones, James Jones.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity.

NO 1272 CHANCERY.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent County, in this State, of which Samuel Jones, late of Kent County, died seized and possessed.

The bill states that the said Samuel Jones was in his lifetime indebted unto William J. Coleman, one of the plaintiffs, in the sum of twenty-nine dollars and six cents, on open account, and also unto William H. Krusen, in the sum of eighteen dollars, on open account, and unto Richard T. Turner, Jr., and Howard Turner, trading as Turner & Son, in the sum of thirty-two dollars and twenty-three cents, on a certain promissory note dated January 1st, 1896, and payable one day after date, as will appear by reference to said note filed in said suit.

That said Samuel Jones, being so indebted, and also unto divers other persons in considerable sums of money, and having a small tract of real estate in Kent county, but no personal estate, departed this life in the month of July, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six, intestate, and leaving a widow, Sophia Jones, and one child, James Jones, as his heirs-at-law, both of whom are adults, and the widow resides in Kent county, Maryland, and the said James Jones resides in the State of Pennsylvania.

The bill further states, that as the said Samuel Jones did not leave personal estate sufficient to pay his debts, the aforesaid creditors are entitled to have their claims paid out of a sale of the real estate of the said Samuel Jones.

It is thereupon, this 7th day of July, 1897, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of August, 1897, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning him to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 23d day of August next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
