CALL FOR

Democratic Primaries.

To the Democratic voters of Kent county, pursuant to the action of the County Executive Committee, the Democratic voters will meet at their respective election districts and precints on Saturday, 11th day of September, 1897, between the hours of two and six o'clock P. M., for the purpose of appointing six delegates from each district (where there are two precints each precinct to have three delegates), to meet in Chestertown on Tuesday, the 14th day of September, 1897, at 11 o'clock A. M., to nominate two candidates for the House of Delegates; one candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court; one candidate for Register of Wills; one candidate for County Treasurer; one candidate for Sheriff, and two candidates for County Commissioners, and one candidate for County Surveyor.

The judges of nomination hereby named for each district and precinct shall appoint two clerks, and shall open and close the polls at the hours herein prescribed, and when the polls are opened, shall receive the votes of all persons offering to vote who are well known and recognized as Democrats, and whose names shall appear upon the registration books, and also the votes of those not registered, but who will be entitled to registration and to vote at the ensuing November election, provided such person shall give satisfactory proof equal to that required by the officers of registration to said judges, and shall further pledge themselves to support all the nominees of the Democratic party and of none other. And upon the closing of the polls at the hour herein directed, the said judges shall proceed to count the votes cast, and shall certify to the six persons receiving the highest number of votes as delegates; the number of votes cast for each person for the aforesaid respective offices to be filled, whereupon it shall be the duty of the delegates to proceed to Chestertown on said Tuesday (September 14th, 1897,) and cast the vote of the several districts for the persons receiving the largest number of votes, until it shall be made to appear that all or part of such persons cannot be nominated. In this event the convention shall proceed to nominate a ticket by the majority vote of the same.

The candidates for county commissioners to be nominated as follows: The fifth and seventh districts to select one candidate by a majority of the whole number of votes cast in said two districts, and the third and sixth districts to select one candidate by a majority of the whole number of votes cast in said two districts; the two candidates so selected to be voted for by the delegates in convention assembled.

The mode of procedure herein prescribed shall be strictly followed, any other method will not be legal, as this committee has full power so to decree. The clerk of the circuit court is hereby requested to furnish each election district with the registered voters thereof.

The following persons were named for judges:

First District, Millington precinct—S. J. Johnson, E. W. Spear and John S. Newnam. Galena Precinct—G. W. Jacoby, Henry Parr and B. F. Pierce.

Second—Howard C. Grey, John C. Sutton and J. B. Hossinger.

Third—John W. Carter, Jas. T. Ireland and Thomas Gale.

Fourth—Willard Melvin, Wm. H. McFeely and Thomas G. Wroth.

Fifth—James D. Kelly, Lewis C. Ayres and Charles D. Wood.

Sixth—Thomas J. Davis, Wm. T. Brice and Jesse H. Usilton.

Seventh—J. Cordrey Loud, Wm. McKee and Walter Fletcher.

WELLINGTON, the idol of the Baltimore Sun has fallen and the Sun will not be comforted because he is not.

WITH THE LOCAL LINE OF BATTLE KNOWN, the Kent county democracy is patiently awaiting the result of the republican State convention. Smith and Ford are a team which the average Kent county democrat believes it will be extremely difficult for the opposition to snow under.

MAYOR HOOPER, of Baltimore, demurs to the statement that he was ever guilty of saying that he believed that the Honorable Ferdinand C. Latrobe VII, could defeat the belted champion of the Ocean City prize ring, Hon. Wm. T. Malster. The mayor has never been guilty of saying half he thinks.

THE BROWS of Senator Westcott, Treasurer W. D. Burchinal and Clerk W. H. Lambert were roseate with light and irridescent with sunbeams upon the result of the Ocean City convention. Wellington is fallen were words dulcet with harmony and saturated with joy to these leaders in Kent.

KENT PLACED HERSELF IN THE RANKS of the opposition to Wellington last week, an entirely consistent thing to do, but may not Mr. Wellington be able to make the gentlemen who danced so merrily over his fallen carcass last week pay the fiddler when the final reckoning comes? The senator is an extremely lively corps in spite of last week's developments.

THE AGITATED AIR OF SEPTEMBER will be eloquent with the oratings of the politician and the political garden will bud and blossom as the rose. If some gentlemen will listen closely they will be much wiser as to the details of family history and their personal eccentricities. The candidate analyst is abroad in the land.

"THE MOST UNKINDEST CUT OF ALL" comes from the military head of the Baltimore American. With a blood-congealing absence of heat the noble Felix says:

"We rejoice that the republicans at Ocean City heeded the warnings of the American and the demands of justice, and rebuked Chairman George L. Wellington as no boss has been rebuked and repudiated in the history of the State.

COL. W. SCOTT ROBERTS of the Centreville Record, is the knightliest knight of them all, and has told the sturdy young yeomanry of Queen Anne more about the dark ages and that chivalry which throughout the centuries has been the defense and refuge of shrinking and beautiful women, than all the orators on this side of the Chesapeake. Col. Roberts charged the Knights at Queenstown last week.

JUDGE FREDERICK STUMP, JAMES A. PEARCE AND WILLIAM R. MARTIN, ESQS., democratic nominees for the second judicial circuit, spent several days at Tolchester last week, and met many democrats of both Kent and Queen Anne.

AFTER ACCOMPLISHING the temporary downfall of Senator Wellington, the Ocean City convention declared the Baltimore city primaries null and void, called new primaries for September the ninth, and adjourned to meet in Baltimore city to name a State ticket on September the fifteenth.

UNTERRIFIED AND UNSWERVING in his allegiance, Col. William J. Vannort received the news of the unhorsing of the plumed knight of Allegheny. "He laughs best who laughs last," is the living, pulsating maxim of the sturdy Kent county champion of the administration, and that his season of laughter will come in due time, he has no doubt.

THE SUBLIMITY OF A GREAT MAN struggling with the storms of fortune, about sums up the over-the-left-shoulder condition of the statesman of the Western Maryland mountains who no later than last Thursday wanted to know what the sad waves at Ocean City were talking about. The bushes of humanity are now enjoying a ghost-dance over this fallen king of the political forest, the Honorable George L. W.

THE COLORED VOTERS of Somerset county have reached the time-honored point past which patience ceases to be a virtue, and on Tuesday just before the republican convention convened a strong portion of the colored element of the county made a demand for recognition on the ticket. The demand was refused and it is thought that an independent ticket may be the result of the bolt in party ranks.

THE DROOPING SPIRITS of the democratic world are now taking a bath in the great ocean of roseate felicitation, because of the announcement by the Baltimore Sun that that pre-historic luminary is not a republican journal. It is far removed from the delicately penciled line dividing the independent and democratic clover-fields or ambrosial pastures, so the expectant world will now anxiously await the announcement of just what the Sun is if it is not republican.

THE TALBOT COUNTY democratic convention on Tuesday nominated the following ticket: State Senator, J. Frank Turner; House of Delegates—Joseph Mallalieu, John E. Wilson and J. Frank Barwick; county commissioner, John H. Tolson; sheriff, Samuel C. Walters; surveyor, Walter W. Hynson.

Resolutions were adopted, among other things, directing attention to the present high price of wheat and the low price of silver, in an effort to show the falsity of the assertion made by the silver democrats during the campaign of last year that these commodities were so strongly linked together that they must of necessity rise and fall together in value. The resolutions also pledge the nominees to the Legislature to secure the passage of a law preventing the destruction of our oyster beds by the use of patent tongs. They also pledge the legislative candidates to secure the passage of a law making the term of office of county commissioner two years, the compensation, including mileage and all other expenses, in no case to exceed $400 annually, and to other local reforms and retrenchments.

THE POLITICAL FIELD.

Democrats Lining up for the Big Battle of the Ballots.

With the republican ticket in the field republican leaders are apparently resting on their arms watching the movements of the opposition and waiting for the wearing off of the keen edge of political disappointments which resulted from the work of the Chestertown convention.

F. H. Harper was in town on Tuesday looking as serene and hopeful as though the battle had been won and his ticket purchased for the State House. Mr. Jacobs, from the first district, Capt. Dan Hill and some other leaders were on hand, apparently ready and anxious for the fray. Mr. Henry Tonkin, one of the very best men in his party, was also in town on business and did not hesitate to say that he did not want the nomination for county surveyor, and that his name had been used without any authority. Col. William J. Vannort, while not mixing to any extent with the politicians of his party, did not hesitate to drop a word of encouragement to the friends of Senator Wellington and the State's chief executive, Governor Lowndes.

The democrats evidently felt on Tuesday that they had a peculiar right to the political field and many of them were availing themselves of every possible opportunity to put in a good word for the harmonious adjustment of a ticket for the approaching fight. As the eleventh day of September, the day set for the democratic primaries, draws near, contrary to all expectation, the crop of candidates becomes more abundant. With a restoration of confidence in the result candidates are evidently less averse to entering the fight.

The sheriffalty seems to be a prize of peculiar temptingness to the average democrat and on Tuesday Ex-Sheriff Edward J. Plummer entered the ranks as a candidate. John Startt and Ned Biddle were already in the field and still there was talk of others. Mr. Biddle was emphatic in his denials of a report to the effect that he had withdrawn from the contest. "I am still in the ring" he said "and no one has any authority to withdraw my name."

The general situation was revewed by leaders from every section. The first district which has remained silent as to the subject of the personnel of the ticket, entered two of its strongest and most representative democrats for a place. Mr. C. S. Hurlock, whose political strength is conceded throughout the county, was announced as a candidate for register of Wills, and Dr. E. G. Clarke, a gentleman whose strength, like that of Mr. Hurlock, has been demonstrated by winning in a hotly contested battle at the polls, was announced as a candidate for the Legislature. As announcements were in order the friends of Mr. Bedford Roe entered their champion in the sheriffalty contest.

So far as could be seen all the gentlemen before the people for position on the ticket are making their contest in good faith and with a most encouraging absence of personal bitterness. Both the aspirants and their friends are willing to abide the decision of the people and support the nominees of the party. There is ample material from which to select a winning ticket and there is little doubt but that winners will be named in every case.

SOME AGRICULTURAL PROBLEMS.

These Questions are of Interest to Kent County Farmers Too.

A writer from Centreville to the Country Gentlemen, puts the following pertinent query: "What is the best means of exterminating rag weed? I live in a country where it grows as nothing else will—king among weeds, though we boast all sorts in singular profusion. A neighbor this year had a fine stand of clover in his wheat field, whe grian was first cut. In two weeks, the rag weed had completely choked the clover out. I have a lot now luxuriant in rag weed, and I should like to get a good stand of clover on it for next year. What is the surest method?"

"Mow the clover and wheat stubble, a little higher than grass is generally mown, as soon as the rag weed appears. Should it grow up a second time in considerable quantity, mow again. This will serve not only to hold the rag weed and summer grasses in check, but will induce the clover to tiller and so occupy nearly all the ground. The mowing should not be deferred until there is a great mass of material to cut, for this may smother out the clover."

A New York fruit grower asks of the Country Gentlemen the two varietes of apples and the three of peaches most in market that would grow in this latitude"? and receives the following reply:

"In Mr. Jackson's locality, if he desires early apples for market, he probably cannot do better than procure Red Astrachan and a little later Duchess of Oldenburg If he desires winter apples, we should advise him to select largely of Baldwins, some Greenings and perhaps a few other varieties that are known to do well in his locality. The Duchess of Oldenburg is the best of its season, very productive, a vigorous grower, very hardy, very attractive in appearance, and desirable for culinary use.

"For peaches, Crawford's Early is a universal favorite, and probably is more largely planted than any other variety.

Elberta, coming a little later, is very choice, productive and attractive; and latter still, Oldmixon, and if more than these are desired, might well add Red Cheek Melocoton and Late Crawford. If a nice peach earlier than Early Crawford is desired, Early Rivers is the one to select, and it is very choice.

PEACH NOTES.

Jersey Peaches Cause a Glut of the Market.

Peach prices have ruled low during last and the first of the present week.

A blight also struck the mountain peach district on Monday, when the following telegram called a halt in the work of harvesting the crop: "Would advise holding off two days; market overstocked; twenty cars on track this morning; will sell at fifty to sixty cents a crate." New York commission men telegraphed to their agents to stop buying for two days and to buy only strictly fine fruit. The extreme hot weather has caused underconsumption and heavy shipments. New Jersey peaches are said to have caused the New York glut. Thousands of bushels are now ripening and the growers will have to get rid of them in some manner. Growers were afraid to ship, many of them fearing that they would not sell for enough in the cities to pay the expressage.

Reports from Millington on Tuesday were to the effect that the crop in that vicinity has been very small, shipments scarcely averaging sixty baskets a day. From twenty-five to thirty-five cents were paid for fruit at Millington on Monday.

Mr. J. H. O. Stokes, whose orchard would have been a mine of wealth with big prices or even moderate returns, reported on Tuesday that the low-water mark of twenty-five cents had been reached for some of his shipments.

The Still Pond cannery is preparing to commence canning peaches next week. The run is now being made exclusively on corn and tomatoes.

An effort is now being made to induce city pear buyers to locate in Still Pond. The crop of Duchess and Kieffers in the vicinity is estimated at 80,000 packages.

The shipments of peaches over the P., W. & B. Railroad have been lighter this year than for several years back, the total shipments in three days being but ten full carloads. The total up to Tuesday was 438 carloads.

Order of Publication.

Richard Chase,
vs.
Frances Groves, Eugene Groves, Emily Price, Henry Price and Charles Thompson.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in equity.

NO. 1276 CHANCERY.

THE OBJECT of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent County of which George Green, late of Kent County, died, seized and possessed.

The bill states that George Green (colored) late of Kent County, Maryland, was in his lifetime indebted unto Richard Chase in the sum of $20 on his certain note dated Aug. 20, 1896, and that the said George Green left but little personal estate, not sufficient to pay the costs of administering upon the same, and no one has ever taken out letters of administration on his said personal estate, and there is no way by which his debts can be paid unless his real estate be sold for this purpose.

The bill further states that the said George Green being indebted as aforesaid and also unto divers other persons, and having real estate in Kent county, Maryland, departed this life in the year 1897 intestate, leaving no widow nor children surviving him, but leaving the following half brothers and sisters, namely: Frances Groves, whose husband's name is Eugene Groves, and Emily Price, whose husband's name is Henry Price, and each of these live in Queen Anne County, Maryland. And a half brother, Charles Thompson, who resides in Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania.

The bill further states that in order for the claims against the said George Green to be paid it is necessary for the real estate, which consists of a house and lot of land near Millington, in Kent county deeded to the said George Green by James Ricketts, be sold so that the creditors of the said George Green, may be paid.

To the end therefore, that the real estate mentioned aforesaid or so much as may be necessary for the purpose may be sold for the payment of his debts.

That the plaintiff may have such other and further relief as his case may require.

It is thereupon, this 2nd day of August, 1897, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, as a Court of Equity that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county, once a week for four successive weeks, before the 4th day of September, next, give notice to the said absent defendant, Charles Thompson of the object and substance of this bill and warning him to appear in the court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 9th day of September next, to show cause, if any may be had, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
