WHITE HOUSE ASKS FOR OLD CLOTHING FOR EUROPE

From a White House meeting organized for an April drive to relieve war victims went this call today:

Dig into your clothes closets and clean out your attics to help the ragged and shivering people of Europe.

"It ought not to be very difficult," Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt told approximately two score church and civic leaders forming the National Committee under ship builder Henry J. Kaiser. The goal is at least 150,000,000 pounds of usable clothing to be collected through volunteer workers.

"We are a generous people," said the President's wife. "What we have to do is to make each individual feel he is responsible to see what he can spare. We have enough that we can spare to do a great deal."

That a great deal is needed was stressed by Herbert H. Lehman, Director General of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, who explained that there is not enough new textiles and clothing to come anywhere near supplying the need. To the well-dressed men and women gathered in the White House East Room he presented a picture of great contrast in Europe whence he has recently returned.

"Most of the people I saw were in rags," he said. "There is a great shortage of blankets. Twelve to fifteen million people have had no opportunity to replenish their clothing. Some of the appeals, and from hungry people, put clothing ahead of food."

Mr. Kaiser said that the nation-wide effort to help "can be evidence to the entire world of our national unity, a demonstration that all our diverse and varied interests can be fused into one noble act on behalf of human need."

Keep Your Light Burning!

KIPLING once wrote: "They asked me how I did it and I gave them a Scripture text: 'I kept my light a shining a little ahead of the rest.'"

During a period of business adjustment many firms neglect to keep their light a shining . . . they neglect cultivating new customers and retaining the friendship and confidence of their old customers . . . in other words, they neglect their advertising.

The business institution or organization that waits for "normalcy" to come back or for the signing of an armistice before beginning their advertising, will be left in the dark.

If you want to get your share of business in the post-war tomorrow, you must begin now to lay the foundation by the use of letters and advertising to your old customers and logical prospects . . . You must keep your light a shining a little ahead of the rest. NOW IS THE TIME TO LIGHT YOUR LAMP.

This Navy book can lead you to the proudest experience of your life

WOMEN 20 to 36! Find out now about this inspiring opportunity to serve your country as a full-fledged member of the Navy. FREE OFFICIAL BOOK GIVES ALL DETAILS.

Deep down in your heart, don't you want to play a really important part in winning this war? A part that you and your friends and America's fighting men know is important?

Of course you do; and now you can!

If you are between 20 and 36, yours is the privilege of serving your country as women have never had the privilege of serving before. The privilege of working and winning side by side with the men of the Navy—as a wearer of Navy blue.

"Logging in" a flier—one of the duties of WAVES in aviation

You will get all the facts about this exciting opportunity in the official Navy book, "The Story of You in Navy Blue." A free copy is waiting for you right now at any Navy Recruiting Station or Office of Naval Officer Procurement. Call in person, mail coupon or phone for it today.

It pictures the interesting life you'll lead at recruit school located in New York City—where you'll live, how you'll eat, what you'll study. And it describes the additional special training for which you may qualify at Navy schools on the campus of leading colleges.

Jobs You Can Fill

It shows the kind of work you'll be doing when you go on active duty . . . the jobs in radio, communications, storekeeping, office work, hospital corps, aviation ground work and scores of other posts which WAVES have proved they can fill as well as the men they replace. And there are pictures of some of the fascinating jobs to which you may be assigned.

This book also tells the pay you will earn (up to $126 a month clear), the extra allowances you are entitled to, the advanced ratings you can win . . . the same pay, same allowances, same ratings which men of the Navy get.

It pictures the uniform you will wear so proudly—trim, smart Navy blues. It lists the clothing—$200 worth—which the Navy gives you free when you enlist.

It covers every requirement you must meet . . . gives a sample question from the aptitude test you will take . . . lists the papers you will need for enlistment . . . tells where and how to apply for the WAVES.

That's the kind of opportunity this book offers you. The chance to get off the sidelines, and get into uniform. The chance to be in the Navy, of the Navy, living a real Navy life. The chance to feel important, to be important, to hold your head high.

As a WAVE, you're a full-fledged member of the Navy

Isn't that the part you want to play in winning this war? Is there any part you can play in which you will take greater pride as a patriotic American?

Then today, take the first step toward an experience you'll be proud of always. Get your personal copy of "The Story of You in Navy Blue."
