ELIMINATION OF TEACHER SHORTAGE DUE

Elimination of the teacher shortage in Maryland high schools by the beginning of school next fall seems "virtually assured," State schools authorities revealed this week.

Further, they said, teacher ranks within the State's elementary schools will have been "greatly replenished."

Large numbers of school teachers, attracted by the new salary rates approved at the last session of the General Assembly, already have applied for positions in the Maryland State school system, Dr. E. Clarke Fontaine, State Supervisor of High Schools, declared.

Mostly from out of State, particularly from Southern States, applications for positions in the Maryland system began "flooding" the system immediately following passage of the pay increase, Dr. Fontaine told a panel in the fourth annual State High School Principals' Conference in the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

"Teachers literally are flocking to the Maryland system, attracted by the minimum wage of $2,200, and the increased yearly increments," declared Dr. Fontaine.

"We have had so many applications for high school positions that undoubtedly we will be able to exercise selectivity in placing teachers.

"We are closing the school year with a teacher deficit which we will erase by September at the rate applications are coming in."

Asserting that the last legislative session gave the Maryland school system, "substantially what we needed," Dr. Fontaine stated teacher pay in Maryland now is "based on one of the highest salary schedules for teachers in the country."

"There is no doubt the sales tax made possible that salary scale," he declared.

Who says you're only young once?

Take a look at this trim, new Buick — or better, take its wheel — and see just how wrong that old saw is!

One look at these sleek lines, the long, taste-of-tomorrow fenders — and just watch yourself start getting young ideas.

Find an open road, gun this beauty just a bit — and see how the spirit of springtime wells up in your soul and sets the red blood coursing.

Good road or bad, on these soft all-coil springs you take everything with youthful zip and zest, quite freed from jar or jolt.

City street or country road, with all this poised and husky roadweight beneath you, you travel your level course, steady and non-swerving even on curves.

Pull up somewhere — and see how people turn to note the Very Important Person who's arriving.

Take it through the tangle of traffic and see how nimbly it maneuvers — check it at a boulevard stop and see how sure and positive its controls are.

In all truth, here's a car that's any man's darling, every man's pride. A car that not only meets your needs for transportation, but satisfies your every hankering for size and power, style and room, solid worth and top-dollar value.

Naturally, it's a much wanted car. America's most wanted automobile, in fact. Definitely not the number to be picked up off the counter any time, anywhere.

That's why forethought pays and prompt decision gets results. You are simply playing safe when you get your order in now!
