DUCK SEASON CUT INDICATED FOR YEAR

The Fish and Wildlife Service, meeting today with more than a score of Maryland sportsmen, indicated the forthcoming ducking season may be reduced to less than 30 days and the bag limit to not more than five.

Officals of the service also indicated that the 1947 regulations would probably be based on the duck populations in the three major flyways.

Photographic slides were used to illustrate the waterfowl situation and also the number of ducks in the three flyways—the Atlantic Mississippi and Pacific.

In the Atlantic flyway photographs indicated that the "pressure" or kill totaled 14 per cent. It was said that the percentage was extremely high. The Pacific coast flyway fared better, the Wildlife Service explained.

Albert M. Day, director of the service, disclosed that in addition to discouraging reports from the breeding grounds in the United States, reports from Canada "are very discouraging."

Mr. Day said that the country is in another waterfowl crisis. He said 126 million birds were killed last year out of a dwindling population.

"Next season must be reduced. Some hunters have recommended a closed season, but we don't want to do that," Mr. Day declared.

"A completely close season would dry up our sources of revenue. We think that under our estimates we can go through another year without a closed season."

The discussions included suggestions that each State be permitted to determine the length of its season, but this seemed to be a minority opinion.

Who says you're only young once?

Take a look at this trim, new Buick – or better, take its wheel – and see just how wrong that old saw is!

One look at these sleek lines, the long, taste-of-tomorrow fenders – and just watch yourself start getting young ideas.

Find an open road, gun this beauty just a bit – and see how the spirit of springtime wells up in your soul and sets the red blood coursing.

Good road or bad, on these soft all-coil springs you take everything with youthful zip and zest, quite freed from jar or jolt.

City street or country road, with all this poised and husky roadweight beneath you, you travel your level course, steady and non-swerving even on curves.

Pull up somewhere – and see how people turn to note the Very Important Person who's arriving.

Take it through the tangle of traffic and see how nimbly it maneuvers – check it at a boulevard stop and see how sure and positive its controls are.

In all truth, here's a car that's any man's darling, every man's pride. A car that not only meets your needs for transportation, but satisfies your every hankering for size and power, style and room, solid worth and top-dollar value.
