COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

A JOYOUS CHRISTMAS AND A PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR IS THE WISH OF THE TRANSCRIPT FOR ITS PATRONS AND FRIENDS FOR THE COMING YEAR.

CHRISTMAS TURKEYS sold for eighteen dollars apiece in Cuba. As a New Years wish to the turkey raisers of Kent the TRANSCRIPT hopes that half this price may be gotten for the Kent county bird in the Chestertown market next year.

TO THEIR ETERNAL HONOR the average Confederate soldier refuses to become a pensioner on the Government at Washington. That sturdy manhood which is invaluable to the Southern soldier in the great conflict of 1861–65 will bear them through to the end.

AFTER SETTLING THE QUESTION of the purchase of the water works, it is hoped that the town commissioners will turn their attention to the condition of the streets of Chestertown. The almost impassible condition of Maple avenue and Washington avenue is such as to demand immediate attention. It would be an injustice to the business interests of the town to allow the miserable condition of these thoroughfares to remain.

IT IS A WELL-ESTABLISHED FACT that the unrestrained use of fire-crackers and other fire-works on the streets of Chestertown on Saturday afternoon and evening had an unwholesome effect upon business. It is true, that in nearly every business this Christmas is reported better to or a trifle better than the year last year, yet it is known that a number of persons left town without being able to complete their purchases, and tradesman and family drove to a distance to buy Christmas stock. Withstanding to abridge the pleasures of the boys unnecessarily, it is earnestly suggested that country purchasers next year be given to understand they may come to town without danger in consequent upon the unrestrained use of fire-works. Let some suitable and convenient place be set apart for the sport of the boys.

IN ANOTHER COLUMN will be found a timely communication from "Citizen," relative to local mail facilities. The writer of the article will doubtles be endorsed by the entire community in his statement that "there comes a time when forbearance ceases to be a virtue" and that such a time now confronts this community. To say that our mail service is miserable is putting the matter mildly. Both people and press have been long-suffering and patient; not that they failed to appreciate the injustice done them; not that personal reasons restrained a protest, but simply that they, in their charity have hoped against hope that conditions would improve. Supt. Stacey is quoted as saying: "It is however, our aim to give the best service possible, and the fact that we give more oftentimes than people on our line are entitled to we regard as a part of our business." Mr. Stacey should remember that the people consider the patron- accorded the miserable facilities the service provides for the public as gen- in the extreme and far more than it is "entitled to." The traveling when they board a train and pay demanded have a right, to at some idea that they will reach destination with whole bones, and of produce may reasonably de- that they be able to approximate some degree of nearness the time of arrival of the goods shipped, both of which are impossible under present conditions. It is an established business principle, that with the present advance in general business methods, that good facilities are a condition precedent to the success of all transportation enterprises, a fact which the superintendent of the local road has apparently lost sight of. Certainly, Mr. Stacey can charge no disposition on the part of the public or press of unreasonable severity in their criticisms, indeed, an almost culpable silence has been adhered to on the part of the press, but, as our correspondent says: "Week after week, month after month, year after year, the people have waited, hoped, complained and hoped again for improvement."

OUR MAIL SERVICE.

MESSRS. EDITORS: The people of this community in common with the American people generally are long-suffering in public matters, but there comes a time "when forbearance ceases to be a virtue."

The irregularity of our mail service has become a matter of universal complaint and dissatisfaction, which nevertheless seems to have escaped the observation of the county press. The mail service of a community is a public matter which effects every household and every business. It is quite as general in the public interest as town waterworks, electric plant, or hog ordinances; and is as properly a subject for temperate criticism as either, and I presume the surprise that the press has not taken up the subject is not unreasonable.

It is not necessary to enter into an argument to prove to this community that the sun and the moon are sometimes obscured by clouds. Neither is it necessary even to review the facts connected with our mail service. The repeated, almost constant delay, at times utter failure, and consequent irritation and inconvenience in business matters is known of all men.

The railroad management explains the delay by saying "Unfortunately the support we receive from the people of Chestertown is such that we are obliged to run mixed trains, which always involves more or less delay."

The railroad management, like the press, seems to be color-blind or have some defect in the eustachian tube for certain facts. Every one else in the community knows that because of the irregularity in the running of the trains and the uncertainty of making the necessary connections, and the risk of spending hours waiting for cars or locomotive to be replaced on the track, travelers seek every available route to avoid the Kent railroad.

Week after week, month after month, year after year the people have waited, hoped, complained, and hoped again for improvement.

The road manager says, "It is, however, our aim to give the best service possible, and the fact that we give more oftentimes than people on our line are entitled to, we regard as a part of our business."

The community and the railroad authorities evidently look through different glasses, and it would seem to be a proper proceeding to have a town meeting to consider better mail facilities.

CITIZEN.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

Two Pointed Questions Answed.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

A wonderful exhibition of mechanical skill, they are life-like in every detail, but still they are automatons four feet in height and skillfully controlled and manipulated. ## W. A. HYLAND,

GALENA, MD.,

Manufacturer and Dealer in

Farm Implements,

has to present to his friends and patrons a full line of such goods as are seasonable for the fall trade. We have

PLOWS

of the best and most popular make, and

PLOW CASTINGS

to fit all the leading Plows in use.

Disc, Spring and Peg Tooth Harrows

which we guarantee equal to any, and at prices which will greatly interest you. We make a specialty of which is manufactured at our own works under our personal supervision, and we warrant them well made of good material. The design of the Roller has never been improved upon, and we think we are justified in our claims that this is the best Roller built to-day. We also wish to offer some suggestions on Grain Drills.

The Celebrated Hyland Roller,

THE EMPIRE DRILL,

for many years before the farmers of this county, is built by the

LARGEST MANUFACTUER

of Fertilizer Drills in the world. That of itself is evidence that the Drill is all right. Your own observation will prove that it is the longest-life Drill in this territory, and the lightest draft.

We Handle This Drill,

and Keep a Full Line of Extras.

Those who contemplate buying a Drill this fall should call and look carefully into the merits of the Empire. If you want your Drill Repaired,

BRING IT IN EARLY,

so as not to be delayed in getting it done. We have the

BEST EQUIPPED REPAIR SHOPS

THIRTY YEARS,

and if you will call here we will supply your wants in our line at short notice, and at the lowest prices. Your patronage of the years past has been greatly appreciated, and we hope you will continue with us.

Yours respectfully,

Aug. 4, 1898. W. A. HYLAND.
