DIED,

At McKeel's Point, near Tobaccostick, on Sunday morning last, after a short illness, Miss ELIZA JANE, daughter of John Jones, of Col., in the 16th year of her age.

In the death of this young lady, society has been deprived of one of its most lovely members, and the Church one of its most promising children. The writer of this poor tribute to her memory, being a school-mate, knew her well, and he can safely say, she has left but few equals behind. She was kind and obedient to her parents and courteous and respectful to her friends and acquaintances.

By what a slender thread hangs our mortal existence. Death with its silent, noiseless step, is forever in our midst, plucking not only those whose decaying nature tells plainly that their earthly pilgrimage is drawing to a close —but the young with cheek mantled with beauty.

At an early period of her life she was convinced of the natural depravity of the human heart and of the necessity of regenerating grace. And under the effectual teachings of the Methodist Ministers, she was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus. She then united herself to the Methodist E. Church, of which she remained a worthy member until death. A holy life was her constant aim—the Bible was her Book—the house of God the place of her happy resort. As she remembered her Creator in the days of her youth, He did not forget her in the trying hour. I have been informed that when death came she was ready; and her bereaved parents had the unspeakable happiness to see that the religion of their daughter could smooth the bed of death, and drive away all fear even in the dark valley. Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like hers.

Parents dear weep not for me,
I've only gone my Jesus to see;
Prepare to meet me in Heaven above,
Where all is joy and perfect love!

There we shall shout in Heavenly bliss
And shall each other greet and kiss,
Around the throne of God on high
That dwells eternal in the sky.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS,

BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr. G. Benj. Smith's improved Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills, has induced a number of persons to make something they call pills, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short, they are an intended fraud upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y. has given them up, as he says, on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public, Dr. Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits.

REMARKABLE CURE OF COLD.

New York, March 2, 1846.

I very imprudently went out last week with a pair of shoes on, having sent my boots to the boot-maker for repair, and I took a very severe cold, which settled in my limbs, stiffened my neck, and rendered me wholly incapable of attending to business. On the following night I took six of Dr. Smith's Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills, which entirely relieved me, and the next day I felt as well as usual.

I know they are the best medicine that can be used for colds.

COMPLICATED DISEASE CURED.

[From the Rev John Kellett.]

Brooklyn, 127 Myrtle St. Oct 1, 1846.

Dr. Smith—Sir, It is with great satisfaction I acknowledge the benefit my wife has received from the use of a few boxes of your pills which she used at the recommendation of a friend. Having fallen into bad health early in winter, she used them with perfect safety, even in that cold season. She has at times, used Morrison's Moffat's and others, and she states she has received more benefit from them than all the others. She believes they may be used with perfect safety by females, without changing either their employment or diet, and that at any season of the year.

Yours respectfully, JOHN KELLETT,
Wesleyan Methodist Minister.

To Dr. Smith, 179 Greenwich street, New York.

AGUE & FEVER CURED.

Mr G B Remson, (Grocer, Middle Village, L I) says he sold Dr Smith's Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills to two persons there for the fever and ague, and a permanent cure was, in both cases, speedily effected. For headache, colds, fevers, dyspepsia low spirits, &c. there is not their equal to be found in the whole range of pharmacy Be careful of imitations, base counterfeits, and mind that the written signature of G Benj Smith is on the bottom of each box otherwise spurious pills will be palmed on you

BAD COUGH CURED:

DYSPEPSIA CURED

Portsmouth, N H Feb 28, 1846

Dear Dr Smith—I have been afflicted for the last five years with dyspepsia, unable most of the time to attend to my business. I have tried every thing that was recommended, but without any good effects By chance I saw a notice of your pills in the N H Gazette, and determined once more to try something that might restore my health, and to my unspeakable joy I found that they had the desired effect; and feeling it a duty I owe my friends and the community at large, I make these statements. If you think it worth while to publish the above, it is at your disposal.

Yours very respectfully,

WM. G. CHOATE.

A Great Bargain Offered.

THE subscriber will sell on a considerable credit, and upon reasonable terms, the FARM, a part of North Yarmouth tract, in Transquakin, and adjoining the residence of Dr. Wm. H. Muse, containing 315 acres—230 of which, in cultivation, and 85 in valuable timber.

This Farm, from its variety of soil—possessing a clayey loam, and a siliceous loam, and intermediate grades, is adapted to a variety of crops; and the infallible prospect of a future growing, and permanent demand for our Breadstuffs—specially, Indian Corn, in foreign markets, offers a strong incentive to agricultural energy and enterprise, which, for many years have been paralyzed. Endless resources of manure are presented on this Farm to make it a rich investment, by a moderate share of skill and attention. It has a neat small and nearly new dwelling house, two rooms on each floor; also two corn houses, one of them lately built and in the best manner, and will hold 3000 bushels; —the other 2000;

A well of pure, soft water is directly at the door, and many fine springs, elsewhere on the land.

THE public are notified that the undersigned hath presented to the Board of Commissioners for Dorchester County a list of lands, whereon no personal property can be found liable for the payment of the County charges due me thereon, and whereas by an Act of the last Legislature of Maryland Chapter 133, the laws in regard to the sales of such lands by Collectors have been materially altered & amended and whereas many of those lands have changed owners since those charges have become due. In consequence of which it is desirable that land holders generally would examine carefully the advertisement; as some of their lands may be exposed to sale for charges due under former owners; and tax payers generally are interested in making the lands sell, as all deficiences will have to come against the County as insolvent and will if large swell the county levy beyond the usual amount.
