SATURDAY, APRIL 28 1900.

IF SENATOR WELLINGTON is not careful, Mrs. Senator Wellington will have as much trouble in locating his politics as had Mrs. Dewey when she was grooming the great admiral for his debut into the political world. Where are you "at," Senator?

THE TRANSITORY New York Sun terms United States Senator Wellington, from Maryland, the "industrious muddler." Certainly, no one should be able to speak more authoritatively than the Sun as to the qualifications of a "muddler"—she speaks from experience.

AN ORIENTAL SPLENDOR hangs about the forehead of the Hon. Syd Mudd as he buckles on his armor and starts out "weeping for new worlds to conquer." The Hon. Syd is jubilant that the "black belt" remains in tact and he remains the controling inspiration of the fertile acres thereabout.

EX-MAYOR WILLIAM MALSTER contemplates with wounded pride the changed conditions in his native city. With a broken leg, and though confined to his bed, Mayor Tom Hayes is navigating the municipal ship, while fragrant bouquets are being tossed at him by hosts of admiring friends.

MR. CHARLES L. DODD, was the only candidate in the field on Monday for the position of commissioner of Chestertown. In view of the fact that there was no opposition, the poll was light. Mr. Dodd is his own successor, and has entered upon his second two-year term. The other members of the board are: Col. Wm. J. Vannort, president, republican; Messrs. James Brice and C. L. Dodd, democrats.

THE HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN DRYDEN, with a consuming eloquence born of the necessities of the case, has convinced the other political leaders of his party that the Eastern Sho' should and must be represented in the national convention. Very true, Senator; now, can't you convince them that Col. William J. Vannort should be the man to represent this fair oyster country as a district delegate? "Barkis is willin'" that you should.

THERE IS HUMILITATING SORROW in the political household of the Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay. By a vote of thirty-two to thirty-three, the Senate decided on Tuesday that the great political autocrat and boss from Pennsylvania should not become a member of the United States Senate to which he had been appointed by the governor of his State. Dollar-Mark Hanna and the pious John Wanamaker opposed Mr. Quay, and have bathed their handkerchiefs in tears of exultant joy at the "triumph of the people."

MR. J. C. PRICE, of Earleville, Cecil county, has been in town this week for the first time in a number of years, and was enthusiastic in his endorsement of the Ladies' Improvement Association in beautifying the business centre of Chestertown. Mr. Price's father took the TRANSCRIPT for a number of years before his death, and the son has never allowed a week to pass without the "welcome messenger from Kent." He paid his subscription in advance, and said, "Don't let it stop." "Next to Cecil," he thinks Kent the most beautiful county in the State.

DURING THE PRESENT TERM OF COURT the TRANSCRIPT has been more than gratified at the unanimity of the endorsement with which the public has received the recent changes which have been made. Many persons from every section of the county have been in town, and apart from the great number of new names placed on the subscription list, with few exceptions the change to Saturday as publication day has been most heartily approved of by a great majority of those who had taken the paper for many years. Then, too, the change in form has met with most gratifying expressions of approval. These practical evidences of measuring up to the high standard set for an up-to-date and reliable journal, have of course, been extremely gratifying to all concerned. New subscribers continue to come in with nearly every mail or with each day.

The Best in the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and cough. The Hearld, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by M. A. Toulson.

A BALTIMORE ARCHITECT was in Chestertown yesterday, in reference to the proposed new school building. The visit was a trifle premature.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS are casting their nets for an available congressional candidate in the First District. Hon. Robert P. Graham, of Salisbury; Phillips Lee Goldsborough, of Cambridge; Hon. Isaac A. Barber, of Easton, and Hon. Abraham Lincoln Dryden, of Crisfield, are mentioned, but the congressional breezes fail to toy, even shyly, with the name of John David Urie, of Kent. Why is this thusness? Has not Mr. Urie been in the ranks of the faithful sufficiently long to make him elligible for promotion?

EX JUDGE GEORGE M. RUSSUM has been one of the most interesting figures at the Chestertown bar during the present term of court. He was one of the three attorneys representing the Pennsylvania Railroad in the ten-thousand-dollar damage suit which closed yesterday. It was while engaged in this case at the trial table on Wednesday that Judge Russum was first apprised of double honors having been thrust upon him. He has been appointed to a place in the Judiciary Department at Washington, in place of Judge Cambell W. Pinkney, of Baltimore, who has resigned, to take effect May 5, and was on Tuesday named as a delegate from Caroline county to the republican State convention. Though engaged in an important case, he renewed many friendships with both democrats and republicans. Judge Russum has a standing invitation to Chestertown.

SOME INTERESTING developments took place yesterday, and it is now certain that an animated fight will take place in to-day's republican primaries between the friends of Col. Vannort and Mr. Wilbur Eliason. The contest will be confined to the fourth or Chestertown district, but will be none the less spirited and interesting. Col. Vannort will run the following delegates in Chestertown,—William J. Vannort, A. M. Brown, George C. Atkinson, George R. Carmichael and John Wesley Anderson. The latter two are colored. Mr. Eliason's delegation will be Wilbur Eliason, Jr., Larry Bates Russell, William Burke, Marshall Pittman and Gus Royal. The latter two are colored. The situation yesterday afternoon began to assume interesting features and there is little doubt that before ten o'clock to-night some one will know that a fight has taken place.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES will be held throughout Kent to-day to select delegates to a county convention to be held in Chestertown on Monday. The convention will select three delegates and three alternates to the Salisbury convention; three delegates and three alternates to the State convention, which will select four delegates and four alternates to the republican national convention. The Salisbury convention will select two district delegates and two alternates to the national convention to meet in Philadelphia and make the republican national ticket. As already stated in the TRANSCRIPT, the friends of both Col. William J. Vannort, and Mr. Wilbur Eliason, chairman of the State Central Committee for Kent, are insisting that their respective candidate be made a district delegate. While there is no probability that contests will be made in any of the other districts, unless some satisfactory arrangement is reached Col. Vannort and Mr. Eliason will measure strength in Chestertown district. Col. Vannort has had extensive experience, and has a strong following. Mr. Eliason, while not having been so long engaged in practical politics, is resourceful, energetic and has strong backing. As a natural result of these conditions, the outcome of to-day's primaries will be watched with no small degree of interest by both republicans and democrats.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE met at the Carrollton Hotel on Wednesday afternoon and selected the following dates: State Convention, Baltimore, Tuesday, June 5. First Congressional District, Ocean City, Wednesday, August 15. Second District, Havre de Grace, Wednesday, August 15. Third District, Baltimore city, Wednesday, September 26. Fourth District, Baltimore city, Wednesday, September 26. Fifth District, Chesapeake Beach, Wednesday, September 5 Sixth District, Rockville, Wednesday, September 5. The State Convention will adopt a platform and select four delegates and four alternates at large to the National Convention to meet at Kansas City on July 4. It will also select two candidates for presidential electors at large. The representatives of the several Congressional districts will select two delegates and two alternates from each district and announce them at the State Convention, as well as a candidate for presidential elector from each district. Messrs. R. D. Hynson and W. B. Usilton were among those present from Kent. Speaking of the Congressional situation in his county, State's Attorney J. Frank Harper, of Queen Anne, said: "Our people will be glad to support either Mr. Brown of Mr. Hopper. I think an arrangement will be made by which only one will be presented to the district convention. Queen Anne feels that it is due this nomination, and will make every effort to secure it. We will demand the long term and do not intend to be content with the short term."

ALLEN M. MYERS, of Ohio, in responding to a toast at a banquet, which had just been addressed by William Jennings Bryan, turning to Mr. Bryan gave utterance to the following remarkable warning:

"You may be elected, sir, by a million majority, but they will not permit you to take your seat in the Presidential chair. Look at the fate of William Goebel. Men whose pastime is bribery find in murder amusement. Ohio was bought; in 1896 the country was bought; it will be bought again in 1900, and Mark Hanna's reward for it is a seat in the United States Senate."

New Advertisements.

Joseph Guest, of our town, comes out in this issue, offering goods in his line, and he authorizes us to say that he stands prepared to meet every legitimate drop in price of wire fence and steel roofing, cheerfully, (though much it may hurt) and assures his patrons that he will sell his goods as low as they can be bought for anywhere.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces, such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free Sold by druggists, price 75c. per bottle.
