The amendment of Mr Berrien was modified so as to embrace only the company officers of the volunteers, and then the vote on the same was taken The vote on adopting this amendment stood. yeas 26, nays 26, The Vice President voted in the negative—and the amendment was lost.

Mr Corwin then offered an amendment proposing to give the volunteers land warrants instead of land, so that the soldier could dispose of it when he receives it He advocated the amendment at some leugth—Other Senators spoke on it—Messrs Huntingdon, Rev erdy Johnson, Woodbridge and Benton

Mr Corwin moved that the bill and amendments be postponed until to-morrow, and that the amendments be printed

Mr Mangum opposed postponement and printing—He wanted action on the bill

Finally the amendments were ordered to be printed, and on motion, the Senate adjourned.

Gentlemen:—Having used Hunt's Liniment in my family, and having seen its effects on some of my neighbors, I have no hesitancy in testifying to its merits, as a curative agent in the diseases for which it is recommended by its inventors; and I think the interests of the public would be greatly subserved by your making its virtues known through the medium of your excellent Journal. I am persuaded that much suffering would be relieved, and many obstinate cases cured, if its uses were known; and I cannot but hope that its use may become general in the community. STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY CALLED HUNT'S LINIMENT,

Is now universally acknowledged to be the INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Rheumatism, Spinal Affections, Contractions of the Muscles, Sore Throat and Quinsy, Issues, Old Ulcers, Pains in the Back and Chest, Ague in the Breast and Face, Tooth-Ache, Sprains, Bruises, Salt Rheum, Burns, Croup, Frosted Feet, and all Nervous Diseases.

The TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS which has attended the application of this most WONDERFUL MEDICINE in curing the most severe cases of the different Diseases above named,—and the HIGH ENCONIUMS that have been bestowed upon it, wherever it has been introduced, gives me the right to call on the AFFLICTED to resort at once to the ONLY REMEDY THAT CAN BE RELIED ON.

From the New York Mirror.

HUNT'S LINIMENT.—This invaluable Remedy of the many "ills that flesh is heir to" continues to shed its untold benefits upon all classes of society.—We have seen a Certificate from some of the most respectable, intelligent, and influential citizens of Westchester, where the Proprietor resides, who are above all attempts to mislead the public in reference to any medicine, remedy, or preparation; and as this testimony is at once spontaneous and uniform in commending this truly excellent Medicine for Rheumatism, and various other diseases named in the advertisement, there can no longer be a reasonable doubt entertained of its extraordinary success and triumph over the maladies in question.

Sing Sing, May 13, 1845.

We, the undersigned, do certify that we have used Mr. George E. Stanton's External Remedy, called HUNT'S LINIMENT, and have proved it to be fully equal to the character he gives it. Its healing properties are truly extraordinary; and we most confidently recommend it as one of the most certain external remedies that has yet been discovered.

PROSPECTUS

JAMES W. CONNER'S

Classical School for Boys,

CAMBRIDGE, MD.

LOCATION.

THE situation of the School is retired. The room large, well ventilated, and will be comfortably furnished. It possesses the advantage of a yard, which gives ample room for exercise and distant from street exposure.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The choice and arrangement of the studies, the mode of recitation and text-books adopted, shall comport with the custom of the best seminaries; associating the two great elements of sound scholarship—order and completeness. The course of study embraces the various branches of education, necessary either for business, or for college course. Great labor will be bestowed upon Declamation, Composition Criticism and Penmanship.

DISCIPLINE.

The Discipline of the School is designed to be, as much as practicable, mild but strict, As much care will be taken of the moral and religious conduct and habits of the scholars, as of their intellectual advancement. The intercourse between the professor and his pupils is designed to be frank and unrestrained.—A brief lecture will be delivered at the opening of the school every morning upon subjects connected with their future welfare, &c. The design of this is to engage attention to study by inculcating a firm and intelligent conviction of duty. A short account of progress and deportment will be sent quarterly to each parent. Patrons and any who may feel interested, are invited to visit the school on any day during its session between the hours of 10 and 12 A. M. or 3 & 5 o'clock P M.

SESSIONS.

The scholastic year will be divided into two sessions:—the first beginning on the first Monday in January, and closing the last of July—the second commencing on the first Monday in September and ending about the 21st of December.

TERMS.

For the common English studies, per session $12,00
For the higher branches of English Literature, 16,00

No deduction will be made for absence except in case of protracted illness.

Chancery Sale.

A RARE SITUATION.

BY virtue of a decree from the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale, in the village of New Market, on SATURDAY, the 30th day of January, inst., between the hours of 10 o'clock, A M, and 4 o'clock, P M, the farm whereon the late Joseph Ennals resided; called, or known by the name of "Indian Land, No. 1," and "Indian Purchase," containing about 253 1-4 Acres.

This situation is regarded as one of the most eligible in the county, being finely situated on the Choptank River, and combining advantages that are rarely to be procured. Among these are a very good Mail privilege, an abundance of fish, oysters, and ducks, a most delightful neighborhood, together with proximity to New Market, one of the principal towns in the county, from which it is only 21-2 miles distant.—

The HOUSE is of brick, and very capacious, having two large rooms and a large passage below stairs, with a good cellar, and three rooms above; requiring but little improvement to make it a fine mansion. The internal resources for improving the land are good and abundant. A good orchard of APPLES and PEACHES, good drinking water; and a sufficiency of timber for the supply of the farm.

This situation is about 11 miles from Cambridge.

The above property will be sold free from all incumbrance whatever.

The terms of sale are, one fourth cash on the day of sale, and the remainder of the purchase money in 6, 12 and 18 months, all secured by bond and security approved by the Trustee, with interest from the day of sale. On payment in full of the purchase money, a conveyance will be made to the purchaser.

Farm for Sale.

THE Subscriber will offer at public sale, on a reasonable credit at Bradshaw's tavern, Cambridge, on Monday, 18th January—if not previously disposed of, the farm in Transquakin, between the lands of Dr. William H Muse, and Dr Phelps, containing 315 acres—230 of which, is in cultivation, and 85 in valuable timber.

This Farm, from its variety of soil—possessing a clayey loam, and a siliceous loam, and intermediate grades, is adapted to a variety of crops; and the infallible prospect of a future growing, and permanent demand for our Breadstuffs—especially, Indian Corn, in foreign markets, offers a strong incentive to agricultural energy and enterprise, which, for many years have been parallyzed. Endless resources of manure are presented on this Farm to make it a rich investment, by a moderate share of skill and attention. It has a neat small and nearly new dwelling house, two rooms on each floor; also two corn houses, one of them lately built and in the best manner, and will hold 3000 bushels;—the other 2000;

A well of pure, soft water is directly at the door, and many fine springs, elsewhere on the land.
