FROM MILLINGTON.

Holden's Children's Day was postponed until next Sunday at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Prof. Henry Tonkin is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Mary Blackiston is very much improved in health.

Assistant postmaster Prices' wife and children are away on a visit.

Two members were received by certificate in the Millington M. E. Church last Sabbath.

Mr. E. Gambrill is to move to Unicorn Mills.

Mrs. H. R. Maas, of Ridley Park, has returned home from a visit with her sister, Mrs. S. L. Pratt, at Unicorn Hill.

Dr. W. H. Jacobs, spent Monday and Tuesday in Wilmington, Del.

Miss May Green and Annie Talbott, spent Sunday with friends in Sudlersville, Md.

Mrs. W. H. Jacobs, spent Monday and Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Maloney, Townsend, Del.

Miss Annie Meginniss, is visiting relatives and friends in Chestertown.

Farmers have begun threshing their wheat. The yield is expected to be very good.

Miss Fannie Meeks, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mrs. M. E. B. Mallalieu.

Mr. DeCoursey Ruth, of Wilmington, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wroth.

FROM ROCK HALL.

Mrs. Harriet Higgins died very suddenly, at the home of her son, Mr. John Higgins, in Skinner's Neck, last Saturday evening. She had been suffering from neuralgia of the heart for some time, but for several days had been improving, and had been about the house as usual. Two little grand-daughters were with her when she was attacked by the final pain, and they hastily summoned assistance, but all was over in a few minutes. She leaves two sons, John and James, and a daughter, Mrs. Samuel Canaan. Mrs. Higgins was well-beloved by her relatives and friends, and will be sincerely mourned. The funeral was preached by Rev. Mr. Mollineaux, at Wesley Chapel, on Monday afternoon.

It is with regret that we hear of the death of Mrs. A. R. Kelley, of Chestertown, and of Mrs. George Holliday, of Baltimore. Both have many friends in this section.

Among the Adventists attending the conference in Baltimore, are Mr. and Mrs. George Apsley, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Judefind, Mrs. Josie Warner, Mrs. Romie Stevens, Mrs. Ella Satterfield, Mrs. J. J. Blackiston, Mr. and Mrs. Oregon Leary, Mrs. Martha Coleman, Mr. John Legg, Mr. Dreer.

KENNEDYVILLE NEWS.

Wheat harvest is over, and our farmers are getting ready to thresh.

Mr. Clarence Cochran had, we believe, the heaviest wheat in the district, and cut it with a seven-foot Buckeye with three horses.

Mr. Wm. T. Jones cut one hundred and fifty acres in five days.

Mr. George Jones was badly kicked by a horse, his cheek being torn open. Under the skillful operation of Dr. G. Irving Barwick, we hope he will not be permanently disfigured.

Mr. Edward Wallis was thrown from his mower and was badly cut, one of the guards piercing the calf of his leg two inches deep.

Miss Nellie Barwick's picnic at Angora school, was equal to the best. Everybody delighted.

Too hot to hunt more news to-day.

HUDA HARDFLINE.

A BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Cecelia Taylor eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Taylor, of near Still Pond, and Mr. Harry Crew, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crew, of Betterton, was one of the most strikingly impressive and beautiful home weddings of the season. The bride's home was elaborately decorated with ferns, cedars and beautiful potted plants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. Roberts, pastor of Still Pond M. E. Church. The bridal party was preceded by Miss Ida Smith, of Baltimore, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Walter Crew, brother of the groom. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white organdie with trimmings of lace and white ribbons, and carried a bouquet of beautiful white flowers. The maid of honor was also attired in white organdie with trimmings of lace and white ribbons. The groom and best man wore suits of black with boutonnieres of a white rose bud. A reception followed immediately after the ceremony. They were the recipients of a great many beautiful and useful presents, such as lamps, glassware, dishes, table linen, etc. Miss Lillian Taylor, Miss Minnie Taylor, Miss Lota Smith, of Baltimore, and Miss Blanche Duyer, of Worton, sister and cousin of the bride, received the guests. As the wee small hours were approaching Mr. and Mrs. Crew left, amid showers of rice and the best wishes of a host of friends, for their future home in Betterton.

MADGE.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recomend it to all my friends—F. A. BABCOCK, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.
