FROM MILLINGTON

Sunday was a red letter day in the M. E. Church here. The pastor, Rev. H. S. Dulaney, held a Cross and Flying Leaf service in the church in the morning, also the same service in the tent on the lot in the evening. The object of the services was to liquidate an old debt that had been incurred by the board for improvements to the church property, building stable, etc., and then the collection or pledging of money for all the benevolent collections of the year. Thus the one collection will be all that will be made. Between five and six hundred dollars were paid and subscribed. The meetings at the tent are still in progress with a number of conversions to crown the efforts of pastor and members.

Mr. Paul Comegys, who for the last three years has been employed as salesman for Mr. J. J. Morris, Jr., has opened a gentlemen's furnishing store where Messrs. Gordon and Elliott were in business.

Mr. Geo. Baily, who for the past year has been with Mr. C. M. Hurtt in his cash store, has taken Mr. Comegy's position with Mr. Morris.

Mrs. M. E. Blackiston, who for the past month has been so much improved in health is again ill.

Mr. Henry S. Cook, our largest merchant and a prominent member of the M. E. Church and its official board, suffered a severe stroke of paralysis when returning at his home on Monday night. His condition is quite serious.

Mr. L. S. Price and family spent last week with friends at Reybold, Del.

Miss Beulah Crawford has returned to her home at Middletown, Del., from a visit with Miss Mary Hazell.

Mrs. Martha McWhorter spent last week with friends near Chestertown.

The Misses Aldehelm, of Philadelphia, have returned home from a visit with Mrs. W. H. Jacobs.

Misses Pearl and Clara Ahern have returned home from a visit with friends and relatives at Blackbird, Del.

Miss Helen Power has returned home and resumed teaching, having spent the greater portion of her vacation away from home.

Miss Lillian Wright, of Seaford, Del., is visiting Miss Rose Comegys.

Miss Josephine has returned to her home at Wilmington, after a visit of several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. E. A. Gambrill.

Miss Ella Jones has returned from Asbury Park, where she has been spending the summer.

Miss Margaret Jones is spending a few weeks at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, N. J.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FESTIVAL SCHEDULE.

The ladies of St. John's church, Rock Hall, are completing all arrangements for their annual festival to be held on Friday and Saturday evenings of next week, September 14th and 15th. Oysters, fish, roast pig and every delicacy will be served in abundance at the supper. Refreshments served each evening.

The annual festival and supper by the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church, on next Wednesday evening, September 12, promises to be a most enjoyable occasion Apart from the elegant supper of fish, oysters, salads, etc., the annual supper has become a most delightful social event. This year will be no exception to the rule.

The Big Show is Coming.

The largest and most famous 25-cent shows on earth—Sig Sautelle's—are coming to Chestertown Monday, September 10. No reader of this paper will make a mistake in witnessing one or both performances, as an imperial program of most startling features will be offered afternoon and evening. There will be aerial acts without number, foreign artists in unique feats, death defying leaps and dives, single and double trapeze exploits, daring and sensational bareback riders, a post-graduate class of clowns, charming acts by handsome ladies, two schools of educated ponies, trained donkeys, unduplicated marvels, in fact a world of wonders in three hours. Don't miss the grand free spectacular street parade. It is the most gorgeous pageant of modern times, truly indicating the scope and extent of the most progressive shows of all the world by the glistening, scintillating mile of enchanting processional amazements.

STOCK NOTES.

Mr. James L. Beck, near Tolchester, has lost two work horses of meningetis. Cause of the trouble not known.

Mr. Herbert Strong, of Rock Hall, recently bought two horses in Baltimore. One of the animals was taken sick on the steamer while being brought to Rock Hall and died some hours later.

Mr. C. H. Crew lost one of his best work horses by lightning on Tuesday morning. The bolt struck the animal on top the head, burned a track down its mane, divided at the shoulders and ran down each of the horse's four legs.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea after Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in the reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

TEACHERS ASSOCIATION.

Public School Savings Banks Will be Given a Trial in Kent.

Almost the entire session of the Kent County Teachers Association was occupied yesterday with a discussion of the feasibility of introducing the Public School Savings Bank system as an adjunct to public school work in the county. The question was discussed in its every detail.

While many of the teachers thought the idea excellent in principle, they were doubtful as to its desirability, in view of the fact that the schedule prepared for the teachers provides about as much work as the average teacher can satisfactorily do.

After discussing the question a vote was taken and by a vote of 29 to 28 it was decided to establish Public School Savings Banks at Millington, Galena, Still Pond, Chestertown and Rock Hall.

Mr. Peterson named Messrs. J. A. Greenwood, L. J. Smyth, Walter Sparks and Misses Helen Link and Mollie Noland a committee of five to draft rules and outline the work of inaugurating the new system. Among others who spoke upon the question were Messrs. Milton Melvin, Henry Tonkin, Walter Sparks, J. A. Greenwood, J. F. Copper, Olin Wilson, W. C. Copper, Misses Helen Link, N. E. Gooding, Sophia Miller, Nina Roberts, Mollie Noland and others. Messrs. Eben F. Perkins, W. F. Russell and C. C. Hopper were present and made some remarks relative to the Savings Bank question.

Examiner Peterson stated that it is the intention of the school board to provide grammar school advantages for pupils at Millington, Galena, Still Pond, Chestertown and Rock Hall.

The examiner read a number of rules relative to the government of the schools of the county.

One of these rules was to the effect that the teacher, or in schools where there were more than one teacher, one of the teachers, should be on the playground with the children during each recess.

The session was unusually animated and interesting.

No. 1391.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Md., in Equity.

THE object of this bill is to take testimony to the end that it may be recorded for perpetual memory. The bill states that Anne E. Allen, late of Kent county, Md., departed this life during the year 1870, leaving a last will and testament, duly executed, and which was admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court for Kent county, Md., as will appear by reference to a copy of said last will and testament which is filed and prayed to be taken as part hereof, and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1.

And the bill states, that by the terms of said will among other devises and bequests, the said Anne B. Allen devised as follows: Item; all my farms, lands and premises in Still Pond, Kent county, designated "Home," and which was devised to me by Rebecca Lamb, being all my lands, I give and devise to my daughter, Robertine R. L. Raymond, for and during her natural life, and my will is that my brother, William L. Bowers, who is the tenant and resides thereon, shall continue to rent and reside there during his natural life, if he concludes to do so upon the payment of the same rent that he has paid to me, and upon the terms of his present renting. If my said brother shall survive my said daughter, the same amount of rent to be continued to be paid by him, until the property shall go into the hands of my devisees.

Item—After my daughter's death, I give and bequeath out of the rents and profits of the said lands, if my personal estate shall be insufficient to pay them, the following legacies and charges to my nephew, Robert A. Bowers, one thousand dollars; I also will and direct that my said nephew, Robert A. Bowers, be sent to school for four full terms, and to be comfortably clothed during that period, and I charge the cost and expenses of the same upon the rents and profits of my said real estate. Also to my nephew, John Thomas Bowers, one thousand dollars.

Item—Should my brother, William L. Bowers, survive my said daughter and after paying the said legacies to John Thomas Bowers and Robert A. Bowers, and the charges for the education and maintenance of the said Robert A. Bowers, I will and direct that the rents and profits of the said real estate shall be equally divided among and paid to the children of my sister, Mary R. Usilton, and my brother, Thos. L. Bowers, share and share alike, and per capita. It is my will that as much of the rents as may be necessary, shall be used to keep the said property in as good repair as it now is, the said rents to be paid during the lifetime of my said brother, William L. Bowers.

Item—After the death of my said daughter, Robertine R. L. Raymond, and of my said brother, William L. Bowers, I give and devise the said farm and lands, subject to the legacies aforesaid to the children of my sister, Mary R. Usilton, and of my brother, Thomas L. Bowers, and their heirs as tenants in common, and to take per capita; but if my said daughter shall leave a child or children living at the time of her death, I give and divide the said lands in fee to such child or children in preference to the children of my said sister and brother.

And the bill further states that under the provisions of said will in accordance with said devise of the farm and lands of the said Anne E. Allen, in the event of the death of her daughter, Robertine R. L. Raymond, and of William L. Bowers, subject to the legacies as aforesaid, the same are devised to the children of Mary R. Usilton and Thomas L. Bowers, and your orators show that William L. Bowers is dead, he having died about the year 1886, and May E. Usilton is also dead, leaving surviving her the following children, viz: Rachel B. Roeder, her only surviving child, and Charles B. Warren, the son of a deceased daughter, Sarah Warren, and the children of a son, Geo. B. Parrott, whose names are: George B. Parrott, Howard H. Parrott, E. May Parrott and Lillian B. Parrott, all adults; the children of Thomas L. Bowers are: J. Thomas Bowers, Robert A. Bowers, William H. Bowers, Ellsworth C. Bowers, George L. Bowers, Lavenia S. Bowers, Linda Maude Bowers, Archer B. Bowers, J. Raymond Bowers and Florence K. Stavely, the wife of Harry Stavely, all adults, and the children of a deceased daughter, Mary Elizabeth Bowers, who intermarried with Jas. T. Greenwood, there being four of said Greenwood children, namely: Walter B. Greenwood, Mary E. Greenwood, James Carson Greenwood and Minnie Belle Greenwood, Jas. Carson and Minnie Belle being minors, and the other two adults.

And your orators show that under the provisions and conditions of the said will in the event of the said Robertine R. L. Raymond dying without leaving any child or children living at the time of her death, your orators and the other heirs at law of Mary R. Usilton and Thomas L. Bowers are entitled, as tenants in common, to take per capita said farms and lands of the said Anne E. Allen, but have no right to sue for said lands until the death of the said Robertine R. L. Raymond.

That your orators are informed and verily believe, and therefore charge the said Robertine R. L. Bowers, being moved and instigated thereto by causes unknown to your orators, has for a long time in the past claimed that she had a daughter, viz: the said Therese Raymond, alleging that she was born of her body, and has assigned various times and different places as the time and places of the birth of said child, and said Therese Raymond, the alleged daughter of the said Robertine R. L. Bowers, is the said Therese Raymond Carrington, one of the defendants in this cause, she having intermarried with a certain Omer H. Carrington, another defendant, both of whom your orators are informed, live in the City of Philadelphia in the State of Pennsylvania.

Your orators show that the said Robertine R. L. Raymond was married about twenty years before she claimed that she was delivered of the said Therese Raymond Carrington, that she left her home and family in Kent County, Maryland, at the time she alleges she was born, and on her return produced the infant, claiming it was her own, stating to various persons it was born in Brooklyn, in New York City, in New England and in Paris, and that upon the return of the said Robertine R. L. Raymond, the members of her family upbraided her with the fact that she was guilty of an imposture, and she knew at the time and has ever since known of the fact, that the legitimacy of the birth of her alleged daughter, was never believed by her family, and the said Therese Raymond Carrington is not the child of the said Robertine R. L. Raymond, but the said Robertine R. L. Raymond is attempting to deprive your orators of their rights under the will of Anne E. Allen.

And the bill further states that by reason of the deception, imposition and false claim made and set up by the said Robertine R. L. Raymond, in the event of her death it will so come to pass (unless the said claim made by both the said Robertine R. L. Raymond and by the said Therese Raymond Carrington, that she is the legitimate daughter of the said Robertine R. L. Raymond,) is not disproven and exposed, may prevent your orators who are as above set forth interested in the said lands of the said Anne E. Allen, from coming into the lands devised to them under her last will and testament.

And your orators show that the said Robertine R. L. Raymond is now alive and can establish beyond the peradventure of a doubt the legitimacy of her alleged daughter, if she be her said child, and can show the time and place of her birth, and can forever quiet the conflicting claims as to the legitimacy of the said Therese Raymond Carrington.

And the bill further states that the said Robertine R. L. Raymond is a lady of advanced age, about 70 years, at the present time, and in the event of her death it will be impossible for your orators to secure evidence which she alone can furnish as to the legitimacy of the birth of her putative daughter. Upon the death of Robertine R. L. Raymond the question will immediately arise whether her alleged daughter be entitled under the provisions of the will of the said Anne E. Allen orators and the other heirs designated by the said will be entitled thereto in accordance with said devise, and in the event of the death of the said Robertine R. L. Raymond without a free and complete discovery, the evidence which she alone can furnish will die with her, and will be entirely lost, and on this account in order to perpetuate the testimony of the said Robertine R. L. Raymond, your orators allege they are entitled to this discovery, since at the present time your orators have no immediate cause of action.

To the end that the testimony of the said Robertine R. L. Raymond be taken, in order to perpetuate said testimony, and that your orators may have such other and further relief as this case may require.

It is thereupon ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a court of equity, this 24th day of August, 1900, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, Md., once in each of four successive weeks before the 25th day of September next, giving notice to the non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of October next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
