No one can resonably hope for good health unless his bowels move once each day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, biliousness, headache dyspepsia and piles soon follow. If you wish to avoid these ailments keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

BETTERTON ITEMS.

Mr. John Henry Crew in the Fore-Front For the Heavy-Hog Prize.

Quite a number who spent Thanksgiving with relatives and friends here have returned to their respective homes.

Presumably one supposes Betterton to be an exceedingly dull place during the late fall and winter months, but not so, for the long winter evenings are often spent by companies of young people who gather together for mirth and enjoyment. Such an occasion was last Friday evening, when Miss Sadie Brice royally entertained a number of her friends at an evening social. The evening was pleasantly spent in the usual interesting parlor games, etc. Miss Stella Crew rendered some fine selections on the piano.

On Saturday evening Capt. and Mrs. George Moore gave a party in honor of their daughter, Violet, of the State Normal School, Baltimore. During the evening refreshments were bountifully served. Selections on the piano were rendered by Misses Violet Moore and Stella Crew. Among those present were: Miss Clara Adrae, of Baltimore; Miss Della Ford, of Still Pond; Misses Violet Moore, Stella Crew, Flora and Daisy Herbert, Mamie Seny, of Betterton, and Messrs. Maxwell Starkey, Wm. Wheeler, Harvey and Herbert Moore, Clarence Crew and others.

Most of our people have finished slaughtering hogs. Some fine pens have been butchered, but Mr. John Henry Crew takes the prize for heavy weight. He killed four hogs whose aggregate weight was 1807 pounds, the respective weights being 482 lbs., 450 lbs., 440 lbs., 435 lbs. Let us hear from other sections of the county with heavier hogs than these, if there are any.

Mr. John Leigh, moved into his new residence this week, recently built by him. He now has one of the most conveniently arranged houses in Betterton.

Col. Supplee has about completed the very extensive improvements to his "Idlewilde" cottage. Messrs. Geo. W. Owens and William Owens are the contractors.

Mr. John Boone, an expert painter and paper hanger has been kept very busy the whole fall in his line and has completed some fine and artistic work.

Mr. Joseph Wareham has just finished some fine graining in the interior of Mr. Leigh's new residence.

Messrs. Medford Crew and Joseph Owens have greatly added to the appearance of their cottages by giving them coats of fresh bright paint.

One of our best citizens and his estimable wife, Mr. and Mrs. John J Roeder, soon expect to leave our midst and move to Chestertown. They will be greatly missed in our village.

Miss Clara Andrae, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. A. Crew.

The following pupils in the principal's department of our school have made an average of 85 per cent. and over for the month of November:

7th grade—Lolla Crew, 93.6; Gurthu Vanzant, 96.2; Arthur Brice, 94.9; John Crew, 93.4.

OCCASIONAL.

LIVE GALENA ITEMS.

Mrs. Huey's Burial—A Farm Hand Drops Dead—Some Big Porkers.

The funeral of Mrs. Sallie E. Huey, took place at the home of her brother, Mr. W. L. Meredith, near here, at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Albert Ware, of Massey, conducted the services; interment in Massey cemetery. The pall bearers selected by the deceased were: Messrs. C. S. Hurlock, C. C. Hill J. T. Shallcross, Thomas C. Roe, Wm, Cacy and Augustus Malsburger. Undertaker W. T. Hicks had the funeral in charge.

James Pearson, a white farmhand who lived with Mr. George Moffett, near here. died suddenly at Townsend, on Saturday. The man went to Townsend that day and after being at the hotel there but a few minutes, dropped dead. Mr. John McIntyre, the hotel proprietor, had the remains carried to Middletown where they were placed in charge of the coroner.

Mr. L. C. Hayes pen of big porkers are record breakers in this section so far. He killed 17 which averaged 370 pounds, or a total of 6,290. Mr. George McGuyre, on Capt. Woodall's Wilson Point farm, had a pen of 10 which averaged about 350 pounds. The heaviest of Mr. Hayes' hogs ran close to the five hundred mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pleasanton, are again at home after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Pleasanton's mother.

Mrs. Ruth, the aged but highly esteemed mother of our fellow townsman, Mr. F. H. Ruth, is very sick at this writing.

We were very glad to see Mrs. Walls, mother of Mr. James W. Walls, out at church on Sunday. She is over 86 years of age and has been one of the most faithful attendants at the M. E. Church, during the past fifty years.

A live pigeon shooting match took place here on Thursday of last week between Kent and Cecil crack shots. James Mulford, Paul Pennington, L. R. Vansant, and others participated.

Contractor Duling, of Millington, and Mr. Sparks, of Crumpton, plasterer and bricklayer, are doing some fine work in their respective lines, for Rev. A. P. Prettyman.

There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. It tears the tender membrane of the throat and lungs, and the wounds thus made attract the germs of consumption. Stop your cough by using the family remedy that has been curing coughs and colds of every kind for over sixty years. You can't afford to be without it.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

loosens the grasp of your cough. The congestion of the throat and lungs is removed; all inflammation is subdued; and the cough drops away.

Three sizes: the one dollar size is the cheapest to keep on hand; the 50c. size for coughs you have had for some time; the 25c. size for an ordinary cold.

"For 15 years I had a very bad cough. The doctors and everybody else thought I had a true case of consumption. Then I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it only took a bottle and a half to cure me."
