Rev. A. P. Prettyman has been suffering with a bad cold.

Mrs. Ruth is still improving.

Preston Shallcross, son of R. A. Shallcross, is very sick at the hospital in Philadelphia with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Colgain attended the funeral of Mr. Joseph Clark, of Morgnec, on Sunday last.

Mrs. Williams, mother of Capt. George Williams, who died in Baltimore and was brought over on Saturday last, was buried in Georgetown cemetery.

Mr. Robert Rasin returned to Baltimore on Wednesday last.

MOVING.

Mr. William Colgain goes on J. H. Johnson's farm. Thomas Stradley takes the house. Mr. Smith takes the place of Mr. Stradley. Mr. G. W. Starr goes to Mr. P. O. Mullen. Mrs. Nickerson takes the place of Mr. Starr. Mr. Oscar Pleasanton takes charge of Samuel Merritt's farm at Locust Grove. Mr. Willard King, of Chesterville, goes on Mr. Gray's farm near here. Mr. Ashley goes on C. Hurtt's farm, Shallcross. Mr. Frank George on Doctor Scott's farm goes to Golts. Mr. John Comegys takes his place. Mrs. Belle Tarbutton goes to the Sutton house. John N. We expect to have a big shooting match at live birds on Saturday. We hear there are about one hundred birds engaged at present.

Farmers around us are complaining of water being very low in their wells. Mr. Steel, our leading pump man says he don't think the wells have been as low for five years as they are at present.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman has stopped work on his dwelling until spring, when he will complete improvements.

Mr. Wm. Steel has a cow which beats the record as a kicker. While he was milking her she kicked a button off his pants and lit a match in his pocket without hurting him. Beat this.

KENNEDYVILLE NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, spent Christmas day with relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Mr. George Glenn, who has been quite sick for several weeks, was able to go home and spend the holidays with his parents in Baltimore. This is the first time he has spent Christmas with them for seventeen years.

Mr. John Strong, of Wilmington, and Miss Nellie Barwick, are spending a few days with friends in Rock Hall.

While watching the fireworks on Christmas night, Miss Lizzie Hessner was seriously burned by one of the stars from a Roman candle which was fired toward her.

Mr. J. Frank Johnston and Miss Emma Coleman, were quietly married Thursday evening, Dec. 21, in the parsonage at Millington by the Rev. H. S. Dulaney.

Mr. Daniel Hill moved into his new home on Wednesday and the old home is awaiting the arrival of its new mistress.

Mr. Chas. Herzog and wife are visiting Mrs. Thomas Redmile.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Powel, of Morgnec.

The Christmas entertainment given by the Sunday school of Grace Presbyterian church was a grand success. The most interesting feature of the program was Santa Claus' speech.

SPECIAL FROM STILL POND.

The marriage of Miss Zelda Coleman, daughter of Mr. Samuel Coleman, to Mr. John Atwell, a prosperous farmer of Lynchs, and son of Mr. Geo. W. Atwell, took place in Still Pond M. E. Church on Wednesday evening at 7 30 o'clock, Rev. E. P. Roberts, recent pastor of the church, officiating. The occasion was one of the principal events of the Christmas holidays in this vicinity.

The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the beautiful moonlight was superb. Miss Jennie Coleman, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Louis Atwell, brother of the groom, best man. Miss Coleman, of Baltimore, presided at the organ, and the ushers were Messrs. Howard Atwell, Howard Rasin, Samuel McKnett and Colin Coleman. After the marriage a reception was held, at which a large circle of friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Atwell, after the reception, drove to their future home near Lynchs.

No one can resonably hope for good health unless his bowels move once each day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, biliousness, headache dyspepsia and piles soon follow. If you wish to avoid these ailments keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

LYNCHS ITEMS.

The Little Folk Present a Delightful Christmas Program.

The large number of persons who were present at the exercises by the children of the Lynch's Sabbath School, on Christmas night, were truly delighted. Amid evergreens and the joyous surroundings of the Christmastide, both children and teachers entered into the pleasures of the occasion and acquitted themselves splendidly. Miss Clara Jones surpassed herself in training the little ones for their respective parts. Old Kris was a delight. The following program will give just an intimation of the pleasures of the evening. No finer music was ever rendered in the pretty village sanctuary than that by Mrs. Akers, Miss Lizzie Hepbron, Miss Clara Mann and others, whose fine voices gave volume and beauty to the songs of Christmas cheer. Good things were in abundance. The smiles and dancing eyes of the delighted children were a supreme pleasure to the older persons present. The following is the program:

Music, "Praise Ye the Lord;" The Lord's Prayer; opening address, Lottie Copper; Ring Ye the Bells; dialogue, —"Christmas Customs," Daisy Jones, Sara Copper, Bertha Biddle; recitation—"Santa Claus," Charlie Jones; solo, Mrs. Akers; recitation—"Bessie's Dream," Bertha Biddle; solo, Lottie Copper; "A Surprise for Santa Claus," Sara Copper; duet, Mrs. Akers and Mr. Edwards; select reading, Miss Clara Jones; music, "There's a King in the Stall;" dialogue —"Christmas Stockings," Daisy Jones, Ruth Copper, Hallie and Lizzie Toulson, Annie Jones, Lottie Copper, Leonard, Frank and Walter Mann, Charlie O'Neil; address by Pastor; collection; Kris; music, "Glad Christmas Bells;" benediction.

WORTON ITEMS.

Christmas Day passed very merrily in this village. The big bonfire and the display of fire works at night were very beautiful.

The young men tendered their lady friends an impromtu dance in the new hall on Thursday evening. At a short notice, Motto with his harp and a new assortment of the latest two-steps, waltzes, etc., arrived via Betterton and furnished inspiring music for the dancers, which the spectators enjoyed with equal pleasure. No invitations were issued as is the usual custom, but a nice crowd gathered from around the neighborhood and all enjoyed the novelty of the affair.

Miss Hope Wallis, of Chestertown, spent the Xmas holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wallis, near here.

Mr. John Duyer was home several days last week suffering from the effects of a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Newsome, of Chestertown, spent Christmas day at the home of Mrs. S. A. Anderson, in the village.

Mrs. Ruth Pennington, nee Wood, of Lewis, Del., spent Christmas at the home of her parents, near Still Pond, and was in our midst several days.

The funeral of Mr. John Miller was held in the Union M. E. Church, this place, on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. B. Merritt. Interment in the old Union burying ground. The bearers were: Dr. J. H. Hessey, Messrs. Samuel Lee, M. M. Rasin, J. W. Kelley, John Rice and Alex Bacon.

Messrs. James and Harry Hepbron, and J. B. Merritt, Jr., spent the holiday with their grandparents in the village.

Miss Katie Parsons spent the week at the home of Mr. Samuel Cooper.

Mr. Harry Williams spent several days of last week in Baltimore.

The Christmas entertainment at the Union M. E. Church was a splendid success. The church was beautifully decorated, and in the back ground was a beautiful tree laden with good things for the children. Old Kris appeared during the evening and caused much fun for the little ones. MADGE.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

CONSUMPTION

Do not think for a single moment that consumption will ever strike you a sudden blow. It does not come that way.

It creeps its way along.

First you think it is a little cold, nothing but a little hacking cough; then a little loss in weight; then a harder cough; then the fever and the night sweats.

Better stop the disease while it is yet creeping. Better cure your cough today.

You can do it with

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

The pressure on the chest is lifted, that feeling of suffocation is removed, and you are cured. You can stop that little cold with a 25 cent bottle; harder coughs will need a 50 cent size; if it's on the lungs the one dollar size will be most economical.

"I confidently recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to all my patrons. I am using it now in my own family. Forty years ago I feel sure it saved my life." A. S. EIDSON, M. D., Jan. 4, 1898. Fort Madison, Iowa.
