GALENA NEWS.

Mr. Peter Donohoe has probably the finest piece of clover in the first district. Dr. A. E. Scott has a fine spot of big clover, but it is only a sample of what the doctor's land can do.

The cut-worm is playing havoc with Mr. F. X. Kraft's corn. This gentleman is deeply interested in alfalfa growing.

Mr. F. P. Cochran is cutting some of the finest asparagus ever shipped from Kent county—but there are others.

The Galena Cornet Band will be in tune for summer excursions, picnics, etc., indeed, will be open for engagements of any kind during the summer or fall. The boys, as the TRANSCRIPT has so often stated, make fine music on any and all occasions.

Mrs. J. F. Voshell is still sick with rheumatism.

Mr. Viola Ford is very sick with pneumonia. Dr. J. W. Latimer, his physician, is very attentive.

Several of our young ladies and gentlemen spent a pleasant evening at a party given in honor of Miss Hattie Ford, at the residence of her father, Mr. W. B. Ford. The following left town in pairs: Mr. Robert Shallcross and Miss Etta Whitaker, Mr. Elmer Price and Miss Bessie Hayes, Mr. Wm. Dempsey and sister, Miss Carrie, Mr. James Woodall being the most fortuate yet most crowded, had Misses Kate Tarbutton and Mattie Welsh. The most appropriate games of the evening were thimble and wins, at which the girls knew how to play as well as did the boys. About 10 o'clock refreshments were served, consisting of all the delicacies of the season. The young men drew slips from a souvenir dish to see which young lady they were to escort to table. The crowd left about 11 o'clock.

Mr. Wm. Steel has been at work four miles beyond Odessa, during the past week.

Miss Lillie Boyd is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Miss Lena Ireland made a flying visit to Baltimore Monday and returned on Tuesday.

Mr. Henry Parr went on a business trip to Baltimore Wednesday.

Our Presiding Elder, Rev. Dr. Corkran, will preach here Sunday, May 26.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman's dogs, having shown some signs of madness, he had them killed by Officer Wood on Thursday. Mr. Wood, our town bailiff, has also been authorized by the town commissioners to kill all dogs found in town unmuzzled.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Convention of the M. E. Church Sunday schools was held on Wednesday, May 22.

The ladies are preparing for a festival, to be held on the church green, and hope for good weather and good attendance.

The selection of school trustees throughout the county has given us a good man, Mr. A. J. Hackett, in place of a valuable and active one in school matters.

Our school is in good order and prospering, under the good and popular management of two worthy and efficient ladies, Miss Link and Mrs. S. B. Hepburn.

Mr. Hyland Jones has removed to Chestertown to engage in house painting.

Mrs. Maxwell has greatly improved and beautified her farm, the old Hepburn homestead, a fit monument to neatness and order—a worthy lady well matched to a good and noble husband.

Measles have prevailed among the children. Nothing serious and all are doing well.

All of our merchants are doing a rushing business. Messrs. Medders and Harper are both agreeable and pleasant gentlemen, as are also their clerks.

Mrs. Price, widow of Rev. Mr. Price, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Maxwell.

Corn and all vegetables are doing well, considering the cool weather. KENT.

CHESTERVILLE ITEMS.

Mrs. Charles Roeder and Miss Bessie Cooper have been visiting their parental home.

Miss Ethel M. Solloway spent Saturday and Sunday with Rev. J. W. Mitchell's family, in Church Hill.

Mrs. W. G. Gale is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell.

Mrs. Stevens is in Philadelphia, visiting her daughter, Miss Katie.

Mr. Robert Cooper, one of our prosperous young farmers, entertained two of his friends last week—Mr. Will Stewart, of Baltimore, and Mr. Lyman of Townsend, Del.

Children's Day services will be held in the M. E. Church, South, about the last Sunday in June. RESIDENT.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: "I really beleive that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he at once fell to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smiling informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by M. A. Toulson.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

The Social held by the young people of the M. E. Church, at the parsonage, last Thursday evening, was well attended. Ice-cream, cake and lemonade were for sale. The proceeds will be used to purchase a new Bible and hymnals for the church.

The first election district Sunday School Convention will be held in the M. E. Church here on Saturday and Sunday, May 24 and 25. The program for the convention was printed in the TRANSCRIPT last week.

While working on the railroad one day last week, Mr. John Biddle had a pick stuck in his foot. He has been unable to be at work since, but is now improving.

Mr. George Harrington met with a painful accident on Tuesday. While assisting in breaking up an old boiler one of the rivet heads or nuts struck him in his left eye, greatly discoloring it and causing him much pain.

Misses Sarah and Ella Jones are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. A. E. Crane, Miss Julia Cacy, Mrs. R. E. Feddeman, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins attended the funeral of Mr. Collins' mother, Mrs. Jane Collins, at Centreville, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Gambrill, of Havre de Grace, are visiting Mr. Gambrill's son Mr. E. E Gambrill and family.

Mr. Samuel Mallalieu spent Monday in Philadelphia.

Mr. James Iliffe, of Millsboro, Del., is assisting Mr. J. P. Ahern at the station.

Mr. W. C. Jones is beautifying Mrs. Emma Cochran's residence with a coat of paint.

Mr. F. A. Emory, of Centreville, is also having his property here, occupied by Messrs. Rolph & Hackett, improved by paint. Mr. A. T. Kendall, of Centreville, is doing the work.

Mr. B. W. Duling, contractor and builder, is still at work on the residence of Rev. A.P. Prettyman, of Galena. Mr. Duling has much work ahead of him for this year.

Miss Willie Moffett has been spending a few days with relatives in Wilmington.

Miss Martha Sozinski has returned to Philadelphia, after a few week's visit to the Misses Vic and Helen Power.

The last few days being so cool has kept the asparagus back very much. Messrs. J. C. Vansant and J. W. Jarman are the largest growers and shippers.

Wheat is looking very well, notwithstanding the severe weather of last winter, but grass is very poor.

The lot of alfalfa of Mr. R, E. Feddeman, sown this spring, is looking nicely. Mr. Feddeman is also one of our largest chicken raisers.

Mr. J. T. Power has greatly improved the appearance of his lot by placing a neat wire fence around it.

FROM ROCK HALL.

The oyster has has gone into summer quarters preparatory to an active campaign next fall.

The Coburn track will be ready for any and all trotters which may put in appearance on Whit Monday.

Mr. Charles H. Smith shipped the first strawberries from this point this year.

Dr. A. P. Sharp continues his efforts to secure for Rock Hall the best possible boat facilities. The doctor's latest offer is the use of his fine wharf free of charge for one year to anyone who will run a passenger steamer from it to Baltimore.

That astute politician, Mr. James A. Casey, has his political eye well open. He was in Chestertown on Tuesday taking a birdseye view of conditions.

Mr. Emory Downey, now in the Philippines, has sent a beautiful collection of sea shells to his aunt, Mrs. Emma Smith.

Mr. Max Alexander has been the guest of city friends.

The Rock Hall cannery will not be operated this season.

The big plant of Messrs. Leary & Son commenced operations on peach baskets this week. They have a heavy stock of timber on hand and will run their mill at full capacity during the entire season. They already have orders ahead to keep their plant in operation during the entire summer.

LYNCH'S ITEMS.

Tired Heads.

So often tired heads mean in reality tired eyes. You will help the brain by taking the extra load from its faithful servant, the eye.

There is no need of suffering from defective sight when our perfect-fitting glasses will help you so much. Eyes neglected will get worse steadily, while eyes well cared for may become much better. Our success in filling the demands of the most exacting wearers of glasses is due to our use of the finest of lenses and the utmost skill with the best scientific operators for testing the eyes and fitting glasses.

We employ a graduate optician, and can test and fit your eyes as well as the city optician, and our charges are less. We guarantee satisfaction. No charge for examination. We fill oculist's prescriptions, replace broken lenses, etc.

SEASONABLE GOODS ALWAYS.

Deering Binders and Mowers

and DEERING HORSE RAKES,

with all the modern improvements on same for the coming harvest.

BUG DEATH.

Be sure to use Bug Death on all plants, the great exterminator of insects, for house and garden plants and small shrubs. While it is non-poisonous to man it is sure death to insects. The farmers who used Bug Death freely on potatoes the past season had a large crop of good smooth potatoes, which actually brought higher prices in the market. It does not injure the potatoes or vine in the least.

DEERING BINDER TWINE. "New Twine from New Mills."

Deering Binder Twine.
