LOCAL MATTERS.

Judgment Confirmed.—The court of Appeals on Wednesday confirmed the judgment of James D. Jamar, of Pomona, this county, for $4,000 damages against the Baltimore Boot and Shoe Manafacturing Company for injuries sustained by Mr. Jamar while in their employ.

An Error.—The advertisement of Dewey Park was ommitted through an error on the part of our foreman from the columns of the TRANSCRIPT last Saturday. We very much regret the error as we are advised by the managers of the Park that by this omission the attendance was much reduced. Dancing will be continued every Wednesday night at Dewey Park during June and July.

An Automobile—A patent medicine tourist visited Chestertown this week in an automobile carriage. This is the second automobile carriage ever in Chestertown. The first one came here to participate in the celebration at the unveiling of the Market Square fountain June — 1899, and conveyed to the centre of the square Miss Ida Smith, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, the successful contestant for the honor of drawing the curtain and exposing to public view for the first time the handsome fountain which now adorns the centre of the square and stands as a monument to the efforts of the Ladies' Town Improvement Association of Chestertown.

LITTLE LOCALS.

† Amicable Lodge I. O. O. F. on last Mondry night elected officers as follows: N. G., Wm. M. Culp; Vice G., J. C. Loud; Secty, John R. Rollison.

† A white English sparrow was an attractive visitor in and around Market Square and the TRANSCRIPT office on Tuesday His sparrow-ship was viewed and pronounced by many a curiosity.

† A telegram was received by Prof. Clarke yesterday stating that the Hon. G. L. Wellington would certainly be present to address the Mt. Vernon Literary Society, at Stam's Hall, Monday evening, June 17.

† Mr. W. C. Sutton has been awarded the contract for plumbing and heating the new school building for Chestertown, at a bid of $1,943.58 for the heating apparatus, and $591.21 for the plumbing.

† The nine farms of Mr. and Mrs Irving Walker situated in Queen Anne county, near Chester Bridge, and advertised at public sale for June 25th, by Messrs. Stephen E. Ford and George Warfield, trustees, have been withdrawn and the property has been transferred to Mr. and Mrs. Walker by the trustees.

SUMMER WEDDINGS.

Two Well-known Young Ladies of Kent Become Brides This Week.

PAINTER—STRONG.

One of the prettiest weddings ever held in St. Paul's Church, took place in that Old Temple of Worship on Tuesday afternoon, June 11, the contracting parties being Miss Anna Page Strong, eldest daughter of Mr. T. Romie Strong, and Mr. Warren G. Painter, of Doublin, Va.; Rev. C. T. Denroche officiating. At 4.30 o'clock the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father to the strains of Mendelsons wedding march and preceded by the matron of honor, bride's maids and ushers, Misses Deane and Lula Strong, Messrs. Elwood Strong and John P. Parrott, Miss Selby and Miss Edna Strong, Dr. Wm. Selby and Page Strong and matron of honor, Mrs. Walter Selby, sister of the bride, and were met at the alter by the groom and his best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party retired from the church with each usher accompanied by a bride's maid and the best man and the matron of honor.

Mrs. Arrow Smith presided at the organ.

The bride was dressed in white organdy over white silk, trimed with narrow white ribbon and wore a veil caught with a spray of orange blossoms and carriad in her hand a bunch of magnifficent bride's roses and ferns. The bride's maids were becomingly dressed in white organdy and carried bride maids' roses.

The bried and groom left on the Tolchester boat for Doublin, Va, their future home, where the groom is engaged in the hardware, paint and carriage business.

They were the recipients of a large assortment of beautiful presents.

The TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations.

RUTH—IRELAND.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized in the Mt. Olive M. E. church, of Galena. The contracting parties were Miss Lena Ireland, organist for many years of the above named church and Mr. F. H. Ruth, one of Galena's leading merchants. The friends of the extremely popular couple had transformed the church into a bower of lovliness. The pulpit was banked with potted plants and foliage. The bride and groom entered the church at the appointed hour, 12.30, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. J. E. Ireland, brother of the bride and Dr. E. A. Scott, and four flower girls, Fannie and Mary Scott, and Bessie and Anneta Hurtt. The bride was becomingly gowned in mode crepe de chine trimmed with velvet and Arabian lace, hat and gloves to match, carrying a lovely boquet of bride's roses tied with pink ribbon. The groom looked his best in the conventional black. The flower girls were dressed in white organdie with lace and inserting trimmings and white ribbon. Rev. A. P. Prettyman performed the impressive ceremony which made them man and wife. The aisle was strewn with white carnations. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home to which only the relatives of the contracting parties were invited. The presents were numerous and handsome. After the reception the couple were driven to Massey, where they took the 3 37 train for a trip to the Pan American Exposition and other northern points. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the groom in Galena.

Mr. Walter T. Morris entertained Anthony Higgins, Esq, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. John Higgins, his brother, of Scotland, at his beautiful country home this week. These gentlemen came to Kent to inspect Mr. Morris' fine herd of Guernsey cattle. Both gentlemen expressed themselves as delighted with beautiful Kent. Mrs Morris treated the visitors to some Maryland buiscuit and Kent county corn bread which they said was the finest bread they had ever eaten.

A sewing class has been organized by twelve young ladies of Chestertown. They meet once a week at the homes of the members. The first meeting was held at Miss Mary Rogers, on Water street.

Mr. James W. Chapman was at Atlantic City last week.

It is our pleasant duty to report a marked improvement in Mr. W. W. Chapman's health, which is most gratifying to his many friends.

Mrs. Mary Mann moved this week to Baltimore. Her oldest son, William, has a position in the Law Library in that city. Mr. James Lucas will occupy the house vacated by Mrs. Mann.

Mr. Thomas Hill and son, Norman, were guests of Chestertown friends this week.

Mr. Louis K. Stam, who has been stationed in the Phillipine Islands as a volunteer in the United States army, has been honorably discharged from service, and arrived in Chestertown, Thursday evening on the steamer Emma A. Ford.

Miss Annie Dryden, a well-known Soprano singer of Baltimore, sang before a large and appreciative audience Sunday morning in Still Pond church and again in the afternoon at I. U., both times evincing the great richness and beauty of her voice, due to hard and earnest study. She will sing in the Still Pond church on Sunday both morning and evening.

Mr. Harry Clay Brown, wife and child is expected in Chestertown today. He has resigned his position at Fort Wroth and will probably locate in business in Baltimore. Mr. Samuel Beck, son of the late Dr. Samuel Beck, has been promoted to the position vacated by Mr. Brown.

OBITUARY.

J. H. R. BOONE.

Mr. J. H. R. Boone died suddenly of heart disease Thursday morning about seven o'clock at his residence near the American Strawboard Co's Mill, Chestertown. He was apparently in as good health as usual up to the time of his death. Mr. William Clough who was passing the house on his way to Chestertown saw Mr. Boone lying in his yard and went to him to see what was the matter and found him unconscious and apparently lifeless. He called for assistance and with the help of some of the paper mill men carried him in the house and sent for Dr. Catlin but before the doctor arrived he died.

He was 65 years old and leaves six children, viz: George and Owen, of Baltimore; John, of Betterton; James, Harry and Alfred, of Chestertown.

Funeral services will be held to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, at his late residence; interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: Thos. H. Topping, Charles Rolph, Wm. Clough, J. B. McIntire, H. S. Barnett and Alex. Gray. J. E. Ferguson, undertaker in charge.

MORGAN BROWN.

Mr. Morgan Brown, one of Kent county's best known citizens, died at the home of his son, Mr. Charles M. Brown, near St. Pauls church, last Saturday, aged 72 years. Mr. Brown was born in the lower part of Kent county, and has resided in that section all his life. He was prominent in county politics until a few years ago, when he retired to private life He was tax collector for the fifth district in the seventies. One son, Mr. Charles M. Brown survives him. Funeral services were held Monday, conducted by Rev. C. T. Denroche; interment at St. Pauls. The bearers were Messrs. James L. Beck, Wm. J. Beck, A. Carroll Willson, B. Neal Willson, Thomas Conner and Walter Francis. Undertaker John N. Dode, had charge of funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARION L. TURNER.

Mrs. Marion L. Turner, widow of the late Edward J. Turner, and daughter of the late Mr. McDaniel, who kept hotel in Chestertown, died very suddenly at the residence of her son, Mr. Clarence L. Turner, near Millington, last Saturday evening, aged 75 years. She was taken suddenly ill Saturday evening and a physician was immediately sent for, but before he reached her bedside she had passed away, dying within about 20 minutes from the time she was taken sick. She is survived by five children, four sons and one daughter, viz: John, Clarence, Edward, Dr. Philip and Miss Gertie. Mrs. Turner was a consistent member of Millington M. E. Church. Funeral services were held from her late residence Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. C. Sunfield. Interment in the old Quaker burying ground in Millington.

[CONTRIBUTED.]

"By their fruits ye shall know them."

The transition of Maria L. Turner to the mansion that was daily prepared for her, took place on the first of June, after a life of nearly three quarters of a century, at her quiet home, "Andover Farm," Kent county, Md.

Mrs. Turner was loved by all who knew her, and her sweet influence was felt wherever she went. We have known her many years. The truths that were learned and taken into her brilliant mind, were lived in her daily life. Her trials were not a few. The loss of her first child, a beautiful daughter, was her first great sorrow. By the fruits of the spirit she soon saw the cause and sought to become reconciled. So through all the trials of life and the battles that all must have in the process of regeneration with inherited infirmities, she learned the lessons to be taught. This was the beauty of her life—she was conscious of the "haven within." She was not soured by disappointments. The pride and worldly ambition of early life were sweetly outlived. She learned through revealation, to look to the substance rather than the shadow. Her growth was not instantaneous, nor can it be, but each obstacle overcome, brough its blessing, and so on, until the "Peace that passeth all understanding" was hers.

At one peroid in her life, the shadows seemed so great that she could hardly be induced to leave the environment of her home. The time came when she could go and come. The little visits among her many friends were seasons of great pleasure to all with whom she came in contact. As a young cousin said of her to his mother during one of her visits, "Mother it makes the house feel bright and happy to have cousin Marie with us." So it is when the Divine life is allowed to be expressed. What greater tribute could this mother have than the sacredness in which she was held by sons and daughter. The simple faith in mother's prayers sustained them through many trials. One hour before she dropped the mortal, she walked to an adjoining room and happily discussed some arrangement of the home. She returned again to her reading. A few minutes later her son and daughter were called, and with but a short struggle of the physical she withdrew. So in the midst of those who loved her, she passed on to the Better Land quietly and peacefully, "As one who drew the draperies of her couch about her and lay down to pleasant dreams."

GRAIN MARKET FURNISHED

BY STEVENS BROTHERS,

226 South Charles Street, Baltimore, Md., GRAIN AND FRUIT Commission Merchants, Members Chamber of Commerce.

WHEAT.—Receipts of southern to-day were confined to several small bag lots, which sold, by sample, at 70 and 77 cents, as to quality and condition. Market inactive at slightly easier prices. Quote No. 2 red at the close nominally lower at 76¾ cents.

Western yesterday afternoon was steady. July, 72⅝@73.

Western to-day opened steadier—July 73. Foreign markets were fairly steady, considering the decline on this side and speculative markets in America were under the influence of large selling of July. There was not much doing in cash or options, though the former sold early at 75¾. July, from 73, eased off to 72⅝, and August from 72½ to 72¼, but neither of these options was offered with any freedom. Private cables quiet and steady; not so much demand. Receipts Northwest to-day, 287 cars; last year, 484. Western advices say September holds fairly steady in view of the pressure in July. Sales 20,000 spot, 75¾; 10,000 July, 72⅝.

Inspections of wheat to-day, 28 cars, including 3 No. 2 red, 5 No. 2 red Western, 18 No. 2 Hard, and 2 special bin.

Settling price, Contract, 75⅝.

Settling price, No. 3 Red, 72¼.

Settling price, Steamer No. 2 red, 72¼.

CORN.—The market for southern today was quiet and about steady in tone, with the receips very limited and confined exclusively to white, several hundred bushels of which sold at 50 cents, afloat. Quote prime yellow, as to location, at 47@47½ cts. Demand slack. COB CORN is slow sale now in any quanity, the call for it being mostly of a jobbing character. Quote carloads prime yellow on spot at $2 50@2 55 per bbl.

Western yesterday afternoon was easier, July, 45¼.

Western today was a shade better but the improvement did not hold. June declining to 45, and July 45¼. Very little corn came on market and interior holders are not selling very freely, and hence trading is light. Private cables dull; not much demand. Western advices say offerings light on easy prices.

Inspections of corn to-day, 138 cars, including 1 No. 2 white, and 137 mixed.

Settling price, mixed, 45.

Settling price, steamer mixed, 44.

GRAY STREAKS

Why let all your neighbors and friends think you must be twenty years older than you are? Yet it's impossible to look young with the color of 70 years in the hair. It's sad to see young persons look prematurely old in this way. Sad because it's all unnecessary; for gray hair may always be restored to its natural color by using—

Ayer's Hair Vigor

For over half a century this has been the standard hair preparation. It is an elegant dressing; stops falling of the hair; makes the hair grow; and cleanses the scalp from dandruff.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for over 20 years and I can heartily recommend it to the public as the best hair tonic in existence." MRS. G. L. ALDERSON, April 24, 1899. Ector, Tex.

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the Vigor, write the Doctor about it. Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.
