Valuable Property

ON TAYLORS ISLAND, FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers at private sale, the Farm on which the late Capewell Keene, Esqr., formerly resided, pleasantly situated on the South end of Taylors Island, immediately on the water, and in view of the Bay.

The farm contains 220 *acres: the land is tolerable good, and is susceptible of improvement by manuring and clovering. A portion of the land is heavily timbered. The improvements, without particularizing, are equal, if not superior, to any in the county—constructed by the late Mr. Keene, without regard to cost. There is upon this farm a Wind-Mill in good repair, and commanding a large custom.

ALSO—Another tract of land containing 194 Acres, partially timbered, upon which there is a small tenement. This tract lies to the Eastward of, and closely adjoining the above mentioned farm, and is also on the water.

The terms will be liberal and made know to those wishing to purchase, upon application to the subscriber.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

No. 39.

Passed by the General Assembly of Maryland. at their session, which commenced on the last Monday of December, 1847.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT ENTITLED, AN ACT TO REGULATE SALES AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

Whereas, By the fourth section of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter two hundred and sixtynine, establishing Biennial Sessions of the Legislature of this State, it was provided that the officers heretofore annually appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice of the Senate, should be after the confirmation of said act appointed biennially; and whereas, Auctioneers will under the operation of that law, be hereafter appointed biennially, while their license issued by the Treasurer are for the term of one year only, and their bonds are required to be renewed annually, and whereas, difficulty and confusion might arise hereafter in regard to the issuing of said License by the Treasurer, therefore.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Licenses issued to Auctioneers by the Treasurer, shall be as heretofore for the term of one year only, and at the expiration of the first year from the date of the appointment of each and every auctioneer, the Treasurer shall be, and he is hereby authorised and required to issue said auctioneers as a second License for the like period on his paying the same fee now required for an annual license provided, the Treasurer is satisfied that the bond of said auctioneer has been renewed as is now required by law, and provided also, the said auctioneer has settled in full, at the Treasury office for all amounts due from him on account of auction duties, under the act regulating sales by public auction, and its supplements: and any auctioneer selling any goods, wares, merchandize, property, or effects which are liable to duty under the said last mentioned act and its supplements, during the second year of his said appointment, without having renewed his license, shall be liable to the penalties imposed by the auction laws of this State, or any person selling as aforesaid without first obtaining a license therefor.

Sec. 2. And whereas, there is a clerical error in the fourth section of the act of December session eighteen hundred and forty six, chapter two hundred and eighty-eight, to correct said error, be it enacted, That form and after the passage of this act, the same duties specified in the first section of said act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-six, shall be chargeable on all goods, wares, merchandize or other property, sold by any auctioneer at private sale on the day of his public auction.
