The offering for Easter Day will be for the Parish Building Fund. The Sunday morning sermons during Lent will be upon the parable of the "Prodigal Son"' 1st, "The Growth of Sin;" 2d, "The Result of Sin;" 3d, "The Sense of Sin;" 4th, "The Turning from Sin;" 5th, "The Confession of Sin;" 6th, "The Forgiveness of Sin." During Lent the rector will pay only pastoral visits to "those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity."

The full Lenten instructions as read in the Catholic churches of the Diocese of Wilmington, will be found on the sixth page of this issue.

Rev. R. K. Stephenson, at one time the popular minister at Millington, but now pastor of Elkton M. E. Church, received thirty converts into his church on probation on Sunday.

The following extract is sent by one who fully realize the beauty of the sentiment so daintily expressed:

OUR LITTLE CHURCHES.

I like little houses of worship. They woo the soul, they seem to take the spirit by the hand to lead it in the paths of pleasantness and peace; they do not oppress with their grandeur, but the real Presence seems within them to pervade every nook and corner, not only their altars and sacred places but the spirit of their worshippers to the exclusion of other thoughts.

The full Lenten instructions as read in the Catholic churches of the Diocese of Wilmington, will be found on the sixth page of this issue.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Chestertown M. E. Church will hold a social at the home of Mrs. James Brice, Washington avenue, next Thursday evening, February 20, for the benefit of the contingent fund. Public invited.

MATRIMONIAL.

SUEL—KEIL.

At 7.30 P. M., on Thursday, Feb. 6th, 1902, at the rectory, in Fairlee, by the Rev. C. T. Denroche, Miss Ella Louise Keil to Mr. James Suel. The bride, who was given away by Mr. George Beck, was handsomely dressed in gray cloth trimmed with white satin and lace, and wore a black velvet picture hat.

GALENA NEWS.

A Valuable Horse, in Making its way Across a Mill Pond fell in and was Drownded.

Among those on the sick list are: Mr. W. T. Hicks, Mrs. William Boyd, Mrs. Lynch and Mr. William Steel.

A large part of the business in town this week has been the butchering of pigs. Mr. Samuel Caldwell slaughtered one hundred and Mr. J. N. Vansant thirty.

Mr. W. A. Hyland, Jr. will leave for Charlotte, North Carolina, on the 25th of the present month. With headquarters at Charlotte he will superintend a block of territory for the McCormick Machine Company.

Mr. Cannon lost a valuable horse last week. He loaned the animal to Mr. Wright, the miller; the animal got away and in trying to cross the pond and go home, fell in and was drownded.

A carnival was enjoyed by skaters on the Sassafras river on Wednesday evening. The ice was fine, the river was brightly lighted by means of lanterns, and fully two hundred persons enjoyed the sport. The finest skaters among the ladies were: Misses Susie Schofield, Mary Pennington Annie Hayes and Mamie Woodall; among the gentlemen,—Messrs. Irving Vansant, William Tarbutton and R. A. Shallcross.

Revival services are now going on in the M. E. Church, conducted by the Rev. A. P. Prettyman, and much success is hoped for during the coming week.

LYNCH'S ITEMS.

Miss Annie Hall, of Church Hill, is visiting her cousin, Miss Lillian Cornelius.

One of the most enjoyable surprise parties of the season, was held at the home of Mr. F. R. Hepbron, near Still Pond. A few of those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Godwin, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bowers, Mr. and Mr. Robt. Rash, Misses Susie Mann, Lillian Cornelius, Bertha Biddle, Ida Biggers, Mrs. A. N. Stavely; Messrs. Willie Biddle, Allie Cranor, Will Edwards, Sam Mann, Sam Cornelius and Mr. Bowers. Cake and lemonaide were served in abundance, and about one o'clock the party took their departure wishing their hosts many such enjoyable occasions.

Mrs. E. M. Akers has been visiting friends in Chestertown.

The sleighers of this community surely did enjoy the snow while it lasted.

A Lunch Box Social was held at the home of Mr. Sam'l Mann last Wednesday night. About seventy-five guests were present. Mr. Chas. Hurlock auctioneered the boxes, many of which sold for more than a dollar. The proceeds, about $18, are for the benefit of the church.

OBITUARY.

ABRAM GALE.

Abram Enos Gale, aged 43, son of Isaac and Mary J. Gale, died on Tuesday morning of the 11th of February, at his father's residence, after a trying and complicated illness, during which every possible attention was lavished upon him by his relations and friends. He was interrred in the burial ground of old St. Paul's on Thursday, the 13th. The Rev. C. T. Denroche officiating. The bearers were: Messrs. J. Page Gale C. M. Brown, Walter Francis, John Hudson, T. E. W. Crew and Thomas J. Fletcher. Undertaker Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. Mr. Abram E Gale was well know and thoroughly respected. His character stood high as a loving son, an affectionate brother, a kind neighbor and a good citizen. He leaves a father, mother, five sisters and one brother to mourn their separation from him, all of whom will miss him very, very much, indeed. We are constrained to add that the mourning family have our truest sympathy.

MRS. MARTHA E. RASIN.

Mrs. Martha E. Rasin, wife of Mr. Thomas Rasin, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Hague, at Still Pond, on Tuesday, February 4th, after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 59 years. She left five children, two sons and three daughters. Funeral services took place on the following Friday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Theodore E. Beauchamp officiating. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery. The pall bearers were: R. T. Turner, G. W. Covington, C. B. Krusen, J. B. Crowding, Wm. Hague, Joseph C. Bowers. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

SAMUEL S. MOORE.

The remains of Mr. Samuel S. Moore was brought from Wilmington, Del., on the morning train on Wednesday, and was met at Millington station by Funeral Director Chas. A. Bradley, of Crumpton, and taken to Double Creek and interred in the churchyard. Mr. Moore's death resulted from consumpton. He was 19 years of age, and had spent nearly all his life in the vicinity of Double Creek church, having moved to Wilmington with his parents a short time ago.

RECALLS BLIZZARD OF '99

Thursday The Third Anniversary Since it Occurred.

Thursday was the third anniversary of the great blizzard of 1899, which reached its greatest intensity on Feb. 13 of that year. That blizzard was one which put even the "oldest inhabitant" to rout and force him to admit that in all his experiences in the times "before the war" there had been nothing quite so bad, its only rival being the memorable blizzard of March 11-14, 1888.

The storm of 1899 began on Saturday, February 11, and it snowed continuously until Monday, February 13, the snow being accompanied a portion of the time by a high wind, which piled it in enormous drifts, reaching in many cases to the second story of country houses. For the 24 hours of February 13 ending at 8 P. M. the snowfall was 15 5 inches, and the total fall for the week beginning February 5 was 32 1 inches. Snow three feet deep on the level was not unusual in the country districts, and drifts 20 feet high were found.

All traffic was absolutely suspended for from two to ten days by means of railroads and steamboats, while the country roads were much longer in being opened. In Baltimore street-car traffic was out of the question, the snow plows being almost useless and the companies being forced to clear their tracks by hand for the greater part of their course. Stores were closed It was impossible to bring food into the city, and prices on the more perishable eatables rose many points. Many people were overcome by the intense cold.

The oldest inhabitant in Kent scarcely remembered anything approaching that storm.

AN ANNIVERSARY OCCASION.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Davis Celebrate the Tenth Anniversary of Their Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Davis's home in Flatland was the scene of an enjoyable company on Monday evening, the occasion being the tenth anniversary of their wedding A bountiful repast was spread of which all partook heartily. The menu consisted of turkey, ham, chicken, fried and scalloped oysters, chicken and potato salad, mixed pickles, olives, Maryland biscuits, pocket book buns, celery, cold slaw, tea and coffee.

A striking incident which took place was the christening of their three sons by Rev. E. C. Makosky. The house was beautifully illuminated and trimmed with holly and artificial sweet peas. The words "Anniversary" was suspended over the parlor mantel, with welcome in the dining room. The words were artistically done by Mrs. Thos. Davis and Miss Mamie Davis.

There was plenty of music, both vocal and instrumental by Mr. Chas. Hurlock and son, Warren, Mrs. Thos. Davis, Mrs. Frank Plummer, Miss Eva Hurlock and the Misses Davis.;

All left at a late hour reporting a good time and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Davis many happy returns.

Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. I.W. Burlin, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Wm J. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rash, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris, Mr. and Mrs. John Roeder, Mr. and Mrs. James Biglow, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watson, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Rasin, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. John Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Romie Skirven, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. THE HUBER MF'G. CO., HARRISBURG, PA.:

GENTLEMEN—I have one of your Huber Rigs. and think they are all right. They are hard to beat. I do not think the Feeder can be beat, and the Engine is a powerful one under the belt or on the road. I believe the Thresher will save more grain than any other machine that I have ever seen. Yours truly, GEO. A. HART.

MILLINGTON, MD., Jan. 20, 1902.

THE HUBER MF'G. CO., HARRISBURG, PA.:

GENTLEMEN: The Huber rig we got from you last season is a beauty. The engine is the most economical in fuel, powerful, on road and belt, and the easer to operate than any other engine we have ever seen.

The thresher will thresh faster, save more grain, than any other, while the self-feeder handled the heavy straw of last season faster and better than hand feeding.

We can truthfully and cheerfully say that the Huber is the finest rig ever sold on the Eastern Shore. Yours very truly, NICKERSON & WOOD
