Graham for 1848.

THE MOST POPULAR MONTHLY IN THE WORLD.

The Leading Writers all in "Graham"

William C. Bryant, J. Fennimore Cooper, William Henry Herbert, Theodore S. Fay, W. Gilmore Simms, Fanny Forrester, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. Amelia B. Welby, N. P. Willis, Professor Longfellow, J. K. Paulding, Charles J. Hoffman, Edgar A. Poe, E. P. Whipple, Mrs Stephens, Mrs. Sigourney.

"GRAHAM" is now universally acknowledged to surpass, in the excellence and variety of its contents, and the styles of its execution, any periodical ever published in America, and it is questionable whether any magazine in the world—not excepting even Blackwood's—ever presented an array of contributors of equal reputation. Its circulation is about one-third larger than that of any other monthly in the English language.

We have resolved as far as "Graham" is concerned, to give a proper direction to the popular taste: and propose, in the coming volume, greatly to amplify the literary department of the work—to engage none but the very best writers—to open a field for young writers of merit—and, in fine, to cultivate a National Periodical Literature, which shall command respect at home and abroad.

While all other monthly periodicals are crumbling to decay, and resorting to every expedient to save themselves from destruction, 'Graham' pursues the even tenor of its way, proudly at the head of the periodical literature of the day—with its 50,000 readers, gradually widening its influence, and extending its circulation. The polich adopted in this Magazine, of giving the best both in Literature and Art, has established it upon sure basis of public confidence.

ELEGANT PARIS FASHIONS IN EVERY NUMBER.

"Graham" for 1848 will be beyond all doubt so far superior to the class of small magazines which attempt to imitate it, that in every post town it will utterly route them out. For why should any man or woman pay money for a second rate article, when the best is offered at the same price.—Reader think for yourself, examine and subscribe for the best Periodical and do not be deluded by the stale and never redeemed promises of those whose words are as worthless as their wares. It is fact that for the last seven years, promises have been made of excelling 'GRAHAM,' by every petty pretender, yet the Magaze still maintains triumphantly the ascendant.

We promise our readers in January such a number as shall pale "the ineffectual fires" of our imitators, who seize a good idea which we executed, and make it common by the baseness of the copy.

PORTRAITS OF ARMY HEROES.

We have already given our readers a magnificent likeness of General Taylor, and have now executed a magnificent Likeness of Gen. BUTLER, and shall follow rapidly with portraits of all the leading men who have distinguished themselves in the present war. This series of portraits will be prized by every patriot.

We design to commence in the January number, in addition to New Novels by Fay and Willis, a most beautiful Sea Story, which has been highly praised by the best judges, and has only been withheld from our readers in the last volume as we had already running through the Magazine the Novel by Cooper. For the New Year, we have made the most liberal arrangements in regard to the work, with the determination to make contributed to by the highest talent in the country—free from all cliques and sectional differences, and relying on the merits of its Literary Matter, and the excellence of the illustrations, for a still wider support. The volume to be opened with a new and beautiful type, the finest white paper; and with a series of Mezzotints, unsurpassed by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine.

It affords us much satifaction to be able to state, that we have made arrangements with Sartin, the accomplished mezzotint engraver, whose plates have contributod so much to the beauty of the Magazine heretofore, by which we secure his splendid Mezzotints for this work alone. His beautiful engravings will therefore form a feature of Graham's Magazine, so that we shall be able to distince any thing like competition on this ground.

OUR BEAUTIFUL FASHION PLATES.

These exquisite creations of taste and skill we have engaged exclusively, from the publisher of "Le Follet," and all other efforts to get them have failed. An attempt has been made to deceive the public, by re-engraving the old designs; but these duplicates are so far beneath the Original Paris designs sent to 'Graham,' that they excite only contempt. Ozr arrangements are complete, and we cannot be equalled in the beauty and correctness of this depurtment of the Magazine. These plates appear in every number.

DR. THOMPSON'S
MEDICATED SYRUP OF CASTOR OIL.

THE subscriber would most respectfully inform the Citizens of Cambridge and the Public generally, that he has succeeded in making Castor Oil perfectly agreeable; and while it is rendered agreeable to the taste, the Cathartic properties are very little if any diminished; and by the medication all that acrid quality of wihch oil is generally possessed, which rendered it inadmissable with some persons, especially with infants, is entirely destroyed.

It is well known that Castor Oil is almost an universal medicine—entering into the use of every family, and administered in the treatment of almost every disease—and would be much more frequently prescribed by physicians, was it not for the great aversion patients have to its use.—But in this preparation, the subscriber can assure physicians and patients, they will find it so perfectly agreeable to the taste, that infants and ladies of the most delicate stomachs can take it without the least inconvenience. Indeed it is so perfectly palitable that should it be found necessary to take a little more in a dose it will not be found objectionable to the patient.

The Medicated Syrup of Castor Oil may be had at the subscribers Labratory, wholesale and Retail. Orders from a distance promptly attended to.
