Democratic Primary Meetings.

The Democratic voters of Kent county, are hereby notified to assemble in primary meeting in the several districts and precincts, at the usual places of holding primary elections, on

SATURDAY,
the 23 day of Aug.,

1902, at 2 o'clock P. M.,

for the purpose of choosing delegates from each district to assemble in County Convention in Chestertown, on TUESDAY the 26th day of AUGUST, to elect six delegates with a half vote each to represent Kent county in the Congressional Convention to be held at Ocean City, on September 4, 1902, the duty of which convention is to nominate a candidate to represent the First Congressional District of Maryland in the 58th Congress of the United States

By order of the State Central Committee of Kent county.

WILLIAM W. BECK,
THOS J. PENNINGTON,
JOHN H. O. STOKES,

IT IS STATED that Mr. Frederick Willson is slated for the place of Mr J. Henry Hurtt in the Internal Revenue Department, Baltimore.

ICE WAS "SHOVELED" from the walks of New Hampshire summer resorts on Wednesday morning. The thermometer dropped to twenty-eight degrees. The lowest temperature in Kent was 61° on Wednesday morning.

MR. W. H LAMBERT, JR. says he has nothing to do with local troubles in his political household. He insists that peach-buying and politics fail to go successfully together and he is at present "out of it."

CAPT. JOHN H. OZMAN, an influential and wealthy citizen of Centreville, died of Bright's disease on Thursday afternoon, aged seventy five years. Capt. Ozman was one of the most widely-known business men of the Eastern Shore and was well-known in Kent.

AN INTERESTIG FEATURE of the present republican muddle in Kent is the division of the colored leaders in Chestertown. Frederick Nichols, the long-time leader of his race in Chestertown, who has exerted a strong political influence throughout the county, is with Mr. Urie, while Zach Dunn, also a power among his people, has thrown his fortunes with Mr. Eliason and his friends. Nichols is concededly one of the shrewdest politicians of his race in the county; on the other hand Dunn and his followers are far from being laggards when it comes to obstructing the political ambitions of the opposition among their people. This phase of the situation will be watched with no small degree of interest. The unjust but withering condemnation by Mr. Urie when he charged the defeat of the Republican ticket in 1897 to "the d— treacherous negroes" has not been forgotten and will be used with telling effect against him.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

Republican primaries are called for Saturday, August the twenty-third, between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting delegates from the several districts and precincts to attend a county convention to be held in Chestertown, on Monday, August the twenty-fifth, to select three delegates and three alternates to represent Kent county in the First Congressional Convention, called to meet at Ocean City, August 28th, 1902, at 12 o'clock, noon. This convention will select a candidate for Congress to represent the district in the 58th Congress. Each election district in the county not divided into precincts will be entitled to five delegates with one vote each. The districts that are divided into two precincts will be entitled to five delegates from each precinct with one-half vote each.

If desired by the voters in any of the districts or precincts expressed in writing seventy-two hours before the hour of the primaries, the committee will name Judges and Clerks for any polling place in the county.

There is every prospect that the initial fight of the present year will take place in these primaries. Mr. Urie has been advised to "get out of the way" and let things move along smoothely and pleasantly, but up to this time has shown no disposition to tolerate any interference with his political authority. Mr. Eliason and his friends have the districts well in hand, and it matters not what may be the final decision of the gentleman opposed to them, the prospects are that they will be fully able to organize and control the convention. Mr. McComas' interference in the first district Congressional contest will find bitter resentment in Kent.

A STORM BREWING.

Not in years have political conditions in Kent formed so interesting a study from the Democratic standpoint as at present. The cloud which hangs over the local Republican camp threatens interesting, if not serious consequences to some one—who that someone is, remains to be seen. Mr. John David Urie is confronted by conditions entirely new during his leadership of the Republican party. He has, of course, always had opposition to meet, personal differences to adjust, and embarrassments to overcome, but never before has he had so well-organized opposition to deal with, led by gentlemen so fully equal to meeting the finesse of his most adroid political movements.

Mr. Wilbur Eliason and his friends have not forgotten the past. The practices of not many seasons agone are not matters of ancient history to a large element who are disposed to cast their fortunes with the high side of the political ship. Mr. Larry Bates Russell, doubtless remembers with peculiar distinctness broken promises of a soft berth in the Internal Revenue Department in Baltimore while Mr. Frederick Willson was to conduct the fortunes of the Chestertown Enterprise during his absence. Mr. Willson too, is not altogether oblivious to a past, which, like Bonquo's ghost, refuses to down at Mr. Urie's bidding. And there are others—hosts of others, who are indulging in mummurs of discontent.

Mr. Urie has been unfortunate enough to make several fatal blunders—blunders all unworthy his acknowledged shrewdness as a politician—during the past several years. During a moment of unwise resentment against the county commissioners he withdrew from that body as its counsel, thus leaving the way open for endless trouble and opening up an official record awfully subject to criticism. Mr. Townshend, the present attorney to the board, was promptly installed and has done valuable work for the people and the board. Mr. Urie sees, when it is too late, that a blighting blunder has been made.

It is stated with an air of much satisfaction by Mr. Urie's political enemies that the present State's Attorney for Kent was signally worsted at the recent Ocean City convention. It is claimed that much of his former glory was shorn by a strong and well-organized opposition from his own county, and all things point to the fact that he is "up against" the most difficult problem with which he has ever had to deal. Many of his former friends, fore-casting coming events, have dropped off, and a general reorganizing of the Republican party in Kent is promised.

A prodigality of promises to importuning political friends, has done much to bring about the present unsatisfactory conditions in the party which Mr. Urie has dominated with the unquestioned authority of a dictator since 1895.

Well may Mr. Urie have exclaimed when he saw the swords of Mr. Frederick Willson, Mr. Larry Bates Russell, and some others, drawn against him,—et tu Bruti!

Mr. Urie is facing the situation with his usual suavity and equanimity, and says that if his political enemies are getting any degree of pleasure or comfort from the present situation, he certainly has no disposition to disturb their pleasant delusion.

Miserable Service.

The present service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is calling down upon them the condemnation of the entire public. The miserable bump, bump of a mixed passenger and freight train in the afternoon is an imposition which amounts to an intolerable nuisance. Can not Kent county have equal service with that of Queen Anne county? If not, why not?
