SATURDAY, AUGUST 30, 1902.

HON. J. F. C. TALBOT was nominated by the Democratic congressional convention in session at Havre de Grace on Thursday.

THE DELEGATES to the Republican congressional convention of the First District were highly entertained by the incomparable oratory of Senator Louis E. McComas. The meddling of the Western Maryland statesman with Eastern Shore political matters is not receiving the unqualified endorsement of many reputable members of the Republican party.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Delegates Named to go to Ocean City and Vote for a Congressional Candidate.

Delegates to Ocean City

JACOB T. SHALLCROSS.
PHILIP G. WILMER,
JOSEPH HOWARD,
W. REYBOLD WILSON,
JAMES L. BECK,
CECIL R. ATKINSON.
Uninstructed and no resolutions passed.

Democratic primaries were held througout Kent on Saturday and delegates selected to attend the congressional convention to convene at Ocean City on Thursday, September 4

Pursuant to call of the county Central Committee the delegates chosen at Saturday's primaries assembled in Chestertown at noon on Tuesday. William W Beck, Esq, chairman of the central committee, called the convention to order, and upon motion of Mr. George S. Biddle, Mr. Josiah Massey was made the unanimous choice of the convention as its chairman. Mr. William Dukes, of near Locust Grove, was made secretary.

The following committee on credentials was appointed by the chair: Robert Johnson, John Medders, George S. Biddle, John H. Simpers, A. Carroll Willson, Robert C. Morgan and James T. Brown. The credentials were in every respect regular and the convention proceeded to name the following delegates to the Ocean City Congressional Convention: First district, Jacob T. Shallcross; second, Philip G. Wilmer; third, Joseph Howard; fifth, W. Reybold Wilson; sixth, James L. Beck; seventh, Capt. Cecil R. Atkinson.

There were no resolutions, no instructions to guide the delegates in their action in selecting a Congressional standard bearer, and absolutely no speech making. In less than thirty minutes the actual work of the convention was completed. The following delegates were selected at Saturday's primaries:

First District.—R. Wesley Moffett, John S. Newnam, John A. Benson, Jacob T. Shallcross, William Steel and Robert Johnson.

Second—Philip G. Wilmer, John Medders, J. B. Hossinger, James Robinson, William Dukes and Thomas Quigley.

Third—James W. Ivens, George S. Biddle, Joseph R. Usilton, James T. Brice, Harry Crew and Rotan Rasin.

Fourth—John H. Simpers, Joseph N Wheatley, William A. Wheatley, Josiah Massey, Willard Melvin and Samuel Hicks.

Fifth—Thomas W. Hyland, A. Carroll Willson, George R. Scoone, Neal B. Willson and Harry Clark.

Seventh—J. Raymond Bowers, W. S. Scoone, William McKee, Benjamin F. Beck, James T. Brown and George Beck.

THE REPUBLICAN Congressional convention of the First district, in session at Ocean City on Thursday, nominated Hon. W. H. Jackson for Congress. Mr. Wilbur Eliasor, the new leader of the Republican party in Kent, was made secretary of the convention and was made a member of the campaign committee. Mr. Joseph W. Harper was a member of the committee to notify Mr. Jackson of his nomination.

MR. URIE SNOWED UNDER.

Mr. Wilbur Eliason and his Friends Administered a Solar Plexus to the Heretofore Leader and had a Veritable Walk-over on Saturday and Monday.

Republican Congressional Delegates to Ocean City.

Louis P. Atwell, Joseph Mallalieu, Dr. F. A. Walls, Daniel Hill, Samuel J. Comley, Joseph W. Harper, George T. Williams, George W. Owens, Perry B. Rasin, Wilbur Eliason, Larry Bates Russell, W. A. Burke, Col. Wm. J. Vannort, Fred Willson, Joseph Downey, Thomas A. Hudson, James A. Casey, A. M Kendall, T. H. Morris Bramble Purnell Jump, Senator James H Baker, I. R. Leaverton, Edward W Emory, Thomas W. Trew, James T. DeCorse.

Colored delegates at large,—Isaac Tilghman, Moses Hughes, John Hall, William Riley, Zach T. Dunn, John Walley and Robert Murray.

The Republican convention held in Chestertown on Monday to select delegates to the Ocean City Congressional Convention held on last Thursday was in the order of an old-fashioned love feast—no friction, no wrangling, but that harmony, restfulness and sweet commune which always marks the absence of disturbing elements prevailed. True, only Mr Wilbur Eliason and his friends were present, but the absence of Mr. Urie and his friends was a matter of choice,—there was no prohibition, for the latch-string hung on the outside of the political door to any good Republican, who might choose to enter without regard to faction.

The convention was called to order by ex-Sheriff John C. Davis, in the absence of Mr. Bartus Trew, chairman of the central committee. Organization was effected by making Col. Wm. J. Vannort chairman, and Mr. Harvey Meredith secretary.

After the passing of the credentials of the delegates, resolutions were passed declaring "unwavering allegiance to the party of Lincoln, Grant and McKinley." Mr. Roosevelt's administration was unqualifiedly endorsed, and the full strength and earnest support of the party in Kent was pledged to Hon. William H. Jackson for congress, and the county delegates were instructed to cast their votes for him at the Ocean City Convention.

Above are given the names of the delegates chosen to the Ocean City Congressional Convention. Among them are found some of Mr Urie's staunchest followers, and the party throughout the county is accorded the largest measure of representation. Though Mr. Eliason and his friends were in absolute control of the convention and its deliberations, the proceedings were marked by liberality and conservatism.

In the vigorous fight preceding Saturday's primaries Mr Urie was totally unhorsed, and with a wise discretion chose to measure strength with Mr. Eliason's friends at only three points—in Millington, at Galena and at Edesville In Millington out of a vote of about 185 Mr. Urie received 10, at Galena out of a vote of about 150 he received about 5, and in Edesville his discomfiture was decisive. Thus it will be seen that there was wisdom as well as "good politics" in "making no fight."

The signal victory of Mr. Eliason and the total rout of the opposition had been consummated fully ten days before the formal primaries and the love feast convention of Monday.

The delegates selected were:

First District—Samuel Mallalieu, W. W. Baldwin, James Gould, Marshal Jones, Alfred Matthews, Wm. A Whitaker, Thomas A. Jacobs, L. P. Atwell, Henry Scott, Isaac Tilghman.

Second,—Daniel Hill, Harvey Meredith, Wm. P. Garey, John Stricklnine, Joe Cotton, Robert R. Hill, Joseph W. Harper, Wm. Bowers, John W. Jones, John W. Hall.

Third,—Daniel B. Neal, George W Copper, Harry Willis, Wm. Riley, George W. Cotton.

Fourth,—Col. W. J. Vannort, M. Wilbur Thomas, Harry T. Hoyle, Henry Yorker, J. T. Hanson, Wilbur Eliason, Wm. A. Burke, Wm. S. Carroll, Harrison Jenkins, Wesley Broadway.

Fifth,—Jas. A. Casey, Joseph Downey, J. B. Willson, William White, Wm. H. Johnson, Thomas A. Hudson, D. W. Crosby, John R. Casey, Henry Tilghman, Daniel K. Johnson.

Sixth,—Azariah M. Kendall, Harry P. Jones, Purnell Jump, John Walley, Frisby G. Spencer.

Seventh,—James H. Baker, C. C. Brown, Edward W. Emory, George M. Hadaway, I. R. Leaverton, Thomas W. Trew, Samuel Kilbourne, Jr., John T. Barrett, Wm. T. Murray, Thomas H. Johnson.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling then I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown Md.

"Nulite"
GAS LAMPS.

If you have a large auditorium that needs to be well lighted, such as a church or public hall, or the speaker's stand at a political meeting, or a shaded lawn that is dark at night, there is nothing better for the purpose than our Nulite Arc Illuminators.

These lamps may be used either as an indoor or outdoor light. They give a light of 600 to 750 candle power at a cost of only one half cent per hour.

They are perfectly safe and cannot be filled while burning, which is the way a careless person usually invites an accident. Approved by Fire Underwriters and no extra premium rate on insurance policy.
