MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Mr. James R. Jones, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of our town, died at his home on Cypress street Tuesday evening, Sept. 1st, after an illness of two weeks. He had been in failing health for more than two years, when he suffered from a severe attack of grip. Mr. Jones was born in Delaware 79 years ago, where he lived until a young man, when he moved to Maryland and bought a farm located near town, where he has left a beautiful and highly cultivated farm. Mr. Jones married Miss Lydia Rees, of Smyrna, in 1840 and lived upon this farm until 8 years ago, when feeling old age creeping upon him put his son William upon the farm and moved in town to his pretty home where he died. Mr. Jones was a faithful member and steward of Trinity M. E. Church, South, here since its erection a great many years, ago and was held in the highest esteem by every one who knew him. He was a director of the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Co. In politics he was always a Democrat and served the county for two terms as County Commissioner. A widow and six children, Misses Ella, Lucy, Etta, Margaret and Messrs. George W., and W. T. Jones, survive him. His funeral took place from his late residence Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment in Millington cemetery. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Samuel and Jos. Mallalieu, J. R. Stafford, Samuel Baxter, J. S. Newnam and W. C. Rolph. Services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Isaac Ryder, assisted by Rev. W. M. Warner.

The funeral of Mrs. Isabella Garton, who died last week at the home of her son, Mr. James Garton, was held in the Asbury M. E. Church here Monday, at one o'clock, interment in the Millington cemetery. Mrs. Garton was born in England in 1819. When quite young she married an Episcopal minister who died a few years after marriage. She came to this country a widow arriving in New York city in 1848. In 1850 she married Levi Garton, of Delaware, where they lived for many years. Mr. Garton died several years ago and since then she has made her home with her son-in-law, Mr. John H. Weist, near town, until about two months ago when she went to visit her son at Townsend, where she was taken ill and died. Four children survive her, Messrs. William and James Garton, Mrs. John H.
