SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1903.

MR. ROOSEVELT will now have to invite Booker Washington to dine with him without Maryland's consent.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT can continue to entertain negroes at lunchons if he so desires, but he will have to do it without Maryland's consent. His negro policy was repudiated on Tuesday.

THE "tremulo" stop of the Chestertown Republican organ was pulled out on Tuesday, and it sounded the death knell of the Republican party on Thursday instead of Wednesday morning.

THE NEXT best thing for the people of the State of Maryland to do is to send a delegation to the National Convention pledged to Arthur P. Gorman as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has issued his annual Thanksgiving Proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 26, as Thanksgiving day. The people of Maryland should remember the President on that day in their prayers.

IT WAS A great victory and notwithstanding the unjust charges of our Republican friends it was a fair one. The people of Kent county had made up their minds that there must be a change in the administration of the affairs of our county and the splendid majority received by the entire Democratic ticket was a fitting confirmation of this determination.

THE re-election of Chief Judge James McSherry by the people of Fredirick and Montgomery counties is an evidence of the disposition to keep the judiciary of the State free from the baneful influences of partisan politics. Maryland should not only feel proud of Judge McSherry, but she should honor such an electorate as a body of citizens who stand for impartial and nonpartisan judges. It is a mark of the highest type of citizenship.

THE PEOPLE of the State of Maryland have much for which to thank Mr. Roosevelt notwithstanding his faults. He made our State the battle ground for the test on his Negro policy, and such a slap in the face as he did get! When he recovers himself sufficiently well as to know where he "is at," he will find Senator Arthur P. Gorman giving him a much worse chase for the White House than he ever had on the hills of San Juan.

THE POLICY of the Democratic party in Kent county will be to levy annually a sufficient sum of money to pay all outstanding debts, and provide likewise a sufficient sum, known as a cash levy, to cover all expenses for which they have made contract. In order to do this the tax rate next year will be as large as for the present year, and perhaps higher, owing to the deplorable condition in which the Republicans have left our county finances. Star-chamber proceedings and juggling of our county finances will cease when the Repulican members vacate the commissioners office.

NOW THAT a Democratic majority in both Houses of the Maryland Legislature is assured, talk is rife concerning the election of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Louis E. McComas. We are not advised as to what the sentiment of the people of Kent county is concerning the respective candidates. All of them, Gov. Smith, Ex-Gov. Jackson and Attorney-General Isidor Rayner, have a great many friends in the county. We are quite certain that the Democratic representatives—Senator Foxwell, and Delegates Atkinson and Gibbs—are not pledged to any one. In view of this fact, would it not be wise that the people of the county should express their views and wishes in this matter through the county papers? The representatives from Kent would then be in a position to know what is the desire of the people who elected them, and would be more able to act in accordance with their wishes when this important matter comes up, and thus avoid all criticism that may arise from sources not directly concerned with their actions. It must not be forgotten that all of the candidates for this high office have just claims upon the people. Their services to their party and to the State at large are such as to justify them in pressing their claims, and demanding recognition at the hands of the people. The proper course, therefore, for the people of Kent county to pursue, is to make their desires known to their representatives through the press, so that all who run may read. Our columns are open to such opinions. The press is the mouthpiece of the people, and until the people of the county have spoken upon this question, it remains for the press to refrain from making suggestions. We are ready to hear what the people have to say.

THE RESULT of the election on Tuesday can be accounted for on no other ground than that the Democratic party was entirely united and harmonous. Every Democrat in the county felt the necessity of a change of affairs, and leaders, as well as the rank and file were a unit in their determination to make the victory decisive. It is a source of great gratific tion that the entire Democratic ticket was elected by a handsome majority and it only serves to show that Kent county, as well as every other county on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, is a Democratic county when the party is thoroughly united and ready to work. The credit for Tuesday's victory belongs not to any one man in the party but to every Democrat who did his duty, and the way the Democrats did their duty is shown by the handsome majority the candidates received.

MR. GORMAN.

If the result of the election in the State of Maryland means anything at all it is that Senator Arthur P. Gorman's chances for the nomination for the Presidency have been materially strengthened. This was one of the silent but nevertheless potent issues of the Democratic party in the State, and now that the victory has been won it would be a source of great gratification to his party if Mr. Gorman should win the coveted price. In view of the fact that the race issue will likely be the predominent issue in the Presidential campaign, and the chances are that President Roosevelt will be the Republican nominee, Mr. Gorman seems to be the most available man the Democratic party could nominate, because of his popularity with the people of the East, South and Pacific Coast. Mr. Gorman is not only a statesman of rare ability, but he is one of the finest organizers in the party and he is in a position to command that influence which is so much needed in a national campaign. The people and press of Maryland should work for his nomination, not only because of the part he took in the recent election, but because he is a Maryland man and worthy in every respect to fill the high office which he seems destined to fill.

THE MEANING OF TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

Whatever may be the reasons assigned for the splendid Democratic victory on Tuesday last, there can be but one reason given when the result is viewed from an impartial standpoint. So far as the people of Kent county are concerned, they had reached the conclusion long before the polls were opened on Tuesday that for the welfare of the tax-payers of the county there must be a change in the management of its affairs, and the result was simply the outcome of the determination on the part of the people that a change had to be made. The real issue in the local campaign was made by the Republican party by reason of its gross mis-management of the county finances and the position to which that party has brought the negroes of the county through unjust and demoralizing misrepresentations of the Democratic position with regard to the negro's position as a citizen. The people could not help but see the necessity for a change, if the county was to be saved from bankruptcy and the condition of farm labor was to be made better. The Republican party failed in every instance to make their position valid before the people, and in the absence of a legtimate excuse for the unprecedented state of affairs in the management of the county, they were sure to meet a just rebuke at the hands of the people in Tuesday's election. All cry of fraud and trick ballots, as well as their accusation of the conduct of the election officials is simply in keeping with the character of the campaign they waged, and is therefore to be given the consideration that is due all such accusations. So far as the result in the State is concerned, it is a just and patriotic rebuke to President Roosevelt for attempting to thrust upon the people of Maryland a policy that is as harmful to their interests and to their manhood as it is possible for anything to be. Maryland is distinctly a Southern State, her tastes are Southern and her relation to the negro is the same as any other Southern State.

MILLINGTON ILLUMINATED.

Democratic Torchlight Procession and Meeting in Kent.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic Democratic meetings ever held in Kent county took place in Millington on Saturday night. The speechmaking was preceded by a torchlight parade, and all the houses along the line of march were illuminated, without regard to the politics of their occupants. The speaker of the evening was Mr. J. Harrison Power, of Carroll county, who addressed the large audience for an hour on the issues of the day. He stirred his white hearers to a high pitch by some telling hits on the race issue. He was followed by Marion deK. Smith, of Chestertown; J. P. Ahern and others. Dr. E. G. Clarke presided over the meeting and made a short address.

TRESPASS NOTICE.

CHURCH NOTES.

Presiding Elder W. G. Koons preached a very able and interesting sermon in the Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday evening.

The Christian Workers services at 6 45 o'clock every Sunday evening in Christ M. P. Church are very interesting and instructive. Young and old are always welcome to these delightful services.

Do not for forget the series of Mission services to be held in Emmanuel P. E. Church, next week, beginning on Wednesday afternoon next at 4.30 o'clock. The Mission will be conducted by Bishop Coleman, the noted Wilmington clergyman, and all, especially the men are invited to these services.

The pastor of the Asbury M. E. Church, of Millington, is conducting a revival service at the Morgnec M. E. Church, every evening except Saturday eve, at 7 o'clock each evening. He will also preach at Morgnec on Sunday afternoon Nov. 8 at 3 o'clock and Sunday evening, Nov. 8, at 7 o'clock. You and your friends cordially invited.

On Sunday next the 50th anniversary of the Dedication of South Baltimore Methodist Protestant Church will be held. This is one of the oldest charges in the Maryland Conference and much that is of historical value to the church is associated with this charge. Rev. E. S. Fooks, the earnest pastor, has prepared a fine programme for the occasion and a great day in Zion is expected. It is worthy of note that several ladies, who are at present members of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, were present at the dedicatoay services of old South Baltimore Church, and are well posted on the history of this important charge.

The New Castle Presbytery is called to meet at Middletown, Del., on Monday November 9th, to consider the case of Rev. R. A. Elwood, of Olivet Church, Wilmington, growing out of his sermons preached prior to the White lynching in June last.

Public worship at Christ Methodist Protestant church at 10 30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sermon themes: "Nothing—Only a Little Child," and "Misplaced Tears" Sunday school 2.30 P. M. and Christian Worker's service at 6 45 P. M. You are cordially invited.

Cemmunion services will be held at Westminster Presbyterian church at 10 30 A. M. tomorrow, and at Grace Presbyterian church at 3.00 P. M., and at Worton Presbyterian church at 7.30 P.M.

FOOT-BALL.

On last Saturday morning the Washington College foot ball team lined up against the Wilmington Military Academy team. The teams were of nearly the same weight, W. C. being somewhat the heavier. W. C. kicked off and held the visitors down at every rush, the latter being compelled to kick, thereby losing the ball. Then the home team rapidly advanced the ball toward the goal and the first touchdown was soon scored by Hitch. A foul was considered at this time which was decided in favor of Wilmington and the touch down was not counted. However, W. C. soon scored the second touchdown and kicked the goal. Then it was evident to the visitors that victory was impossible, and their efforts centered entirely on "killing time" and lessening the score against them as much as possible. The third and fourth touchdown was easily scored in the first half. In the second half everything seemed in favor of the home team as at first. Two more touchdowns were scored and another goal was kicked making the score 27 to 0 in favor of the collegians. This was the best game that Washington has played this season and showed a decided improvement in strength and team work. The work of Hitch at right half back, Moore at full and Garey at right tackle was indeed remarkably noticable. Stevens, Long, Hughes and Schutz likely followed the first named in good work.

Washington was heavily penalized several times, in all for 140 yards, but despite this handicap, they won easily. The line-up was as follows:

W. C.	Positions.	W. M. A.
Long	L. E.	Whitside
Brice	L. T.	Foote
Porter	L. G.	Grubb
Hughes, (Stephens)	C.	Henderev
Tyler	R. G.	Van Grump
Garey	R. T.	Fooks
Newton (Bryan).	R. E.	Price
Schutz	Q.	Hoopes
Hitch (McGinnes)	L. H.	Clemence
Stephens (Gray)..	R. H..	Faeey
Moore	F.	Dolan

Touchdowns. Moore, Hitch (2) McGinnes, Stephens. Goals, Moore 2.

Washington College defeated Dover Conference Academy yesterday afternoon in a splendid game. Score 29 to 0.

Mr. John King, one of the college football second team, while at practice on Wednesday fell and his head struck the heel of one of the players. Mr. King suffered a slight concussion of the brain. Dr. H. G. Simpers was called, and at present Mr. King is greatly improved.
